Fitness Tips: 5 Fit Celebrities That Lost Weight and How They Did It

By Melissa Lee

It feels like celebrities are constantly talking about their fitness routines and how they were able to shed the weight. Although they're not necessarily normal – with a team of personal trainers, chefs and nutritionalists, celeb weight loss is never surprising – the basis of weight loss comes down to eating right and working out, and that's a commonality among us and stars. If you're struggling to lose weight, look to the stars and use their tips to get fit.

Check out these fit celebrities lost weight and how they did it! Plus, fitness tips.

1. Khloe Kardashian: Perhaps one of the most famous celeb transformations, Khloe completely toned her body after being the victim of online bullying for years. Kardashian revealed that she likes to mix up her workouts and enjoy food in moderation instead of sticking to a strict diet. Kardashian says she has “finally learned to process things in a healthy way, and for me, that's my ‘revenge body.’”

2. Lady Gaga: Lady Gaga is another celebrity that has also been ridiculed for her weight, but continues to radiate confidence and beauty despite the haters. Gaga's crazy tour schedule makes it hard to maintain her shape, so her personal chef said that her key to staying healthy is planning out her meals. On a day-to-day basis, Gaga's chef says that he tries to prepare healthy, tasty and nutritious food so she has enough energy to make it through the day.

3. Chrissy Metz: After facing a health scare regarding her weight earlier in the year, Chrissy made the decision to begin her weight loss journey. Since beginning, Metz has lost 100 pounds by following a strict diet of 2,000 calories and walking for 20 minutes every day. “Physically, I really am interested in just feeling better and not having to be put in a box,” Metz says.

4. Gabourey Sidibe: Gabourey was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes in 2016, and after dealing with lifelong anxiety, depression, and bulimia issues, she decided to undergo weight loss surgery. Though this was prompted by her diagnosis, Sidibe still chose to seek help from a nutritionalist and a personal trainer, all of which aided in her weight loss. Her trainer boosted her daily workout regimen, and Sidibe says that, “I wasn’t cheating by getting it [the surgery] done. I wouldn’t have been able to lose as much as I’ve lost without it.”

5. Oprah: Despite dealing with years of struggling with her weight, Oprah eventually lost an impressive 42 pounds by making a mental adjustment. She says that thinking positively helped her find pure happiness, and giving up numerical goals on the scale helped her lose weight. Oprah explained that the intention behind her weight loss was not about the number on the scale. “It’s in the way you see yourself fitting into your life. Embracing your life. Honoring your life. Having reverence and appreciation for your life.”

Fashion Trend: The '90s Are

Back

By Melissa Lee

In the fashion world, trends always seem to recycle. Those bell-bottom jeans your mom used to rock in the '70s have resurfaced, and 1980s inspired graphic tee-shirts are always in style. But somehow, all the childhood outfits you wore in the '90s are also super trendy – that's right, the '90s are back! Between your old hair scrunchies, overalls, and chokers, we are definitely supportive of this fashion trend.

Not only are the '90s back, but they're here to stay! This fashion trend is giving us major nostalgic vibes.

1. Chokers: Remember when every middle school girl had an array of rainbow chokers around her neck? Well, guess what – they're still all the rage. These skin-tight necklaces resurfaced a few years ago and have been super trendy ever since. Chokers are a great way to layer jewelry and give a rather edgy touch to your look.

2. Overalls: Someone call Kimmy Gibler because overalls are back! These “onesies” can be worn and styled many different ways, whether it be in total denim from head-to-toe or a cute little overall dress. Either way, they give us flashbacks to rocking a pair on the first day of school. Plus, an added bonus is that it's a one piece, so getting dressed in the morning is super easy!

Related Link: Dress for Success in These Fashion Trends Fit for a Celebrity Lifestyle

3. Birkenstocks: These sandals were seen on everyone during those humid summer days, and they've somehow recycled themselves as a fashion staple. Celebs like Alexa Chung have been spotted styling these, and they actually give your look a cool, relaxed vibe. We're on board!

4. Crop Tops: These shirts are a huge modern day fashion necessity, and it's all thanks to '90s pop culture! We can probably thank Cher from Clueless for this one. Crop tops are a fun way to show off some skin while still looking chic. They're sold nearly everywhere in every print or pattern imaginable.

Top 5 Most Famous Celebrity Kids

By Melissa Lee

When it comes to Hollywood families, celebrities tend to have varying opinions on whether or not to keep their kids out of the spotlight. While celeb couples like Ryan Gosling and Eva Mendes choose to keep their children fairly private, there are some celebrity kids out there that are becoming even more famous than their parents!

Check out some of the most famous celebrity kids that are sure to carry on their parents' legacy!

1. North West: Daughter to celebrity mega-couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West, North was born into one of the most scandalous families on the planet. At only 4 years old, North has become a fashion icon, attended multiple runway shows during New York Fashion Week, and is the owner to a $12,000 toy SUV.

2. Blue Ivy Carter: This list wouldn't be complete without the daughter to music moguls Beyonce and Jay-Z. Blue Ivy was born in 2012 and has since gone on extravagant vacations alongside her parents, in addition to even being credited on Beyonce's self-titled album and making her rap debut on Jay-Z's 4:44.

Fashion Advice: Red Carpet Looks You Can Rock at the Office

By Melissa Lee

Celebrities seem to look like they're always wearing the most stylish pieces. For those of us that tend to look to the stars for fashion inspiration, it may be a little hard to find work appropriate outfits when we're influenced by the red carpet. If you're trying to maintain a balance between fashionable and professional, use your favorite celebs for outfit ideas to uphold that "office chic" vibe.

If you're in need of some fashion advice, Cupid's here to save the day with some red carpet looks you can rock at the office!

1. Wide-legged trousers: Hailing from the '70s, these kinds of pants are making a comeback – especially in the office. Stars like Alessandra Ambrosio and Vanessa Hudgens have been seen rocking wide-legged trousers, making them totally celeb-approved. Pair these pants with a tucked-in blouse or button down and you'll look both stylish and professional when walking around the office.

Vanessa Hudgens is a huge fan of wide-legged pants.

2. Blazers: Once seen as a strictly-professional piece, blazers have actually been spotted more and more on the red carpet. With the right shape, blazers can completely transform a rather casual outfit into a work-friendly look. Kim Kardashian and Jessica Alba are two celebs that have been spotted wearing blazers numerous times throughout the years.

Kim K rocks a wide-legged pants and blazer combo.

5. A-Line Skirts: Skirts are an incredibly versatile piece that can be worn for nearly any occasion, but A-Line skirts are particularly great for the office. The best part about picking up a few of these skirts are all the different ways you can wear them. You can make several stylish outfits with the same skirt, just by switching up the top, accessories and shoes. As long as it's a proper length, A-Line skirts are a crucial wardrobe piece for any working woman's closet.

Bella Thorne looks fashionable and professional in this youthful look.

New Celebrity Couple? Rihanna & Hasaan Jameel Have Been 'Hooking Up for a Few Months'

By Melissa Lee

In celebrity couple news, it has been revealed that Rihanna has been hooking up with businessman Hasaan Jameel for a few months! The two were photographed for the first time in Ibiza in June, where they seemed to look very into one another. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple was spotted kissing and later getting coffee together on June 26.

Rihanna may be part of a celebrity couple again! What are some ways to know if a new relationship has staying power?

Cupid's Advice:

New loves are always filled with infatuation and fun-filled moments – but the true test comes in deciding whether or not the relationship has staying power. If this situation sounds familiar to you, Cupid has some advice:

1. Do you work well together?: There's a difference between a fun little fling and full fledged relationship. Sometimes, it's better to just keep things casual based on how you two work together. However, if you feel as though you and your new lover work even better as partners, you'll know if you'll be able to make a relationship work.

Celebrity News: Blac Chyna's

Lawyer 'Considering All Legal Options' Against Rob Kardashian

By Melissa Lee

After a slew of leaked texts, photos and videos, Blac Chyna's lawyer has released a statement claiming that they are "considering all legal options and resources at this time" against ex-fiancee Rob Kardashian. According to UsMagazine.com, Kardashian posted a number of explicit photos and videos, accusing Chyna of cheating and doing drugs. Kardashian's Instagram account eventually was shut down due to NSFW posts, but he continued to take to Twitter to rant. Kardashian and Chyna are parents to a 7-month-old baby girl, Dream.

In celebrity news, things are definitely not smooth sailing with this former couple. What are some ways to keep the drama out of your break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Kardashian and Chyna have become some of the most dramatic people in Hollywood with their constant public fighting. If you're concerned about keeping drama out of your break-up, Cupid's got some advice:

1. Be civil and respectful: A huge reason behind Kardashian and Chyna's lack of civility is due to their disrespect toward one another. If you want a clean break-up, it's best to be polite and leave things on good terms. Being angry is part of the break-up process, but you don't need to constantly fight in the public eye or let everyone know about your problems.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Black Chyna Confirms She's 'Single' and 'Happy'

2. Keep it off social media: This former couple is notorious for posting about their issues on social media, so take a cue from them and do the complete opposite! If you feel the need to vent about the break-up, talk to someone you trust. Don't want to talk to anyone? Write it down. Posting about your frustrations and anger is useless and will only create drama, in addition to making the break-up process even harder.

3. Don't talk to them: Although these two are co-parents, their communication (or lack thereof) definitely contributes to their problems. If possible, try to avoid talking to your ex. By continuing into a friendship immediately after the break-up, or even just regularly talking to each other, you're not allowing yourself to recover. If anything, you're making room for drama.

Popular Restaurants: Are Liquid Nitrogen Cocktails Safe?

By Melissa Lee

Mixing liquid nitrogen with your favorite drink might not sound like the greatest idea – but it's actually a food trend that's become quite popular within the past year. Restaurants like Employees Only and Please Don't Tell in NYC are known for their creative drinks, liquid nitrogen cocktails being one of them. Although this may seem like an awesome idea, it raises a pretty important question – are they even safe?

Popular restaurants have been serving up liquid nitrogen cocktails, but Cupid's here to let you know whether or not these drinks are a good idea.

1. We consume liquid nitrogen all the time: First off, it's important to know that liquid nitrogen to make certain foods like ice cream, but this is not the same form of consumption that occurs in liquid nitrogen drinks. When it's in ice cream, the nitrogen has already evaporated, so it's a-okay to eat. However, with these cocktails, most bartenders tend to chill the glasses in liquid nitrogen – but the bartender should be trained in the proper use of the element.

Related Link: Famous Restaurants: Hottest Happy Hours in NYC

2. It is non-toxic: Research has been done to reveal that nitrogen is technically non-toxic, but this doesn't necessarily alleviate all safety hazards. Liquid nitrogen is still cold enough to cause frostbite. Additionally, even if it evaporates, the remaining liquid can be dangerously cold and even has the power to leak into tissues after the nitrogen gas exerts pressure.

Related Link: Popular Restaurants: Best Bagels in NYC

3. Drink in moderation: As long as the bartender is familiar with liquid nitrogen and is aware of safety pre-cautions, having one cocktail shouldn't result in anything dangerous. But this shouldn't become your drink of choice – regularly consuming liquid nitrogen in this form can cause severe damage to your mouth, stomach and esophagus.

Beauty Tips: No Makeup Is the New Best Look

By Melissa Lee

Beauty is an ever-changing market and there are always new beauty trends and tips taking the world by storm. But this season's trend has nothing to do with the best new foundation or eye shadow palette... it's actually wearing no makeup! This revolution was originally led by Alicia Keys and her decision to ditch makeup altogether. Keys looks even more gorgeous and healthier than ever – and her sans makeup look might be the reason why!

Looking for some beauty tips for those days you choose to skip makeup? Look no further, because Cupid's got your back!

1. Ice: Keys' makeup artist has actually explained that on days her skin needs a little tightening, ice is the best solution. She'll take a facial massager and put it in the freezer, then roll it over her face to bring the blood to the surface. This tip is supposed to make your skin look more alive, giving the illusion that you're well-rested and ready to take on the day, even when you're not.

2. Cucumber: Remember when you and your friends would have sleepovers and put cucumbers over your eyes for absolutely no reason? Well, turns out cucumber is super beneficial for the skin. As a cooling agent, cucumber works to draw the heat out of the skin and bring the blood to the top. Be careful to avoid the sensitive areas of the eye, but don't be afraid to place it all over the face either!

Movie Review: Mother!

By Melissa Lee

Word has been buzzing around Jennifer Lawrence's upcoming film Mother!, though most details have been kept on the down-low. What we do know, however, is that her boyfriend, Darren Aronofsky is the director, with actors like Michelle Pfeiffer, Kristin Wiig and Ed Harris starring in it. This psychological thriller isn't set to be released until October 13, but keep your eyes peeled for more specifics.

Although this movie is greatly under wraps, Cupid still has details on the movie along with some relationship advice!

Should you see it?:

This thriller film centers around a couple who unexpectedly receive guests at their home, ultimately causing turmoil and disorder. With a star-studded cast (Lawrence, Wiig, Pfeiffer, Harris, Brian Gleeson, Domhnall Gleeson) and a fascinating plot, mother! doesn't sound like a movie you're going to want to miss.

Who to take:

This movie may not be ideal for a first date, but this shocking film could be fun to see alongside your best friends.

Cupid's Advice:

In mother!, complete chaos wreaks havoc on the couple due to unpredictable guests entering their home. Although this plot isn't the most relatable, it is possible to have other people affecting your relationship's stability. If this scenario sounds familiar, Cupid has relationship advice for you:

1. Avoid over-thinking: If you're constantly paying attention to what other people are potentially saying or thinking about your relationship, do yourself a favor and avoid these thoughts altogether. Over-thinking and over-analyzing can be a tumultuous factor that can ultimately ruin your relationship, so be sure to take a step back and collect yourself before letting your thoughts run wild.

2. Confide in your partner: Don't face this problem alone, especially since it's not only affecting you, but your significant other as well. If there are specific people that have a rather negative impact on your relationship, communicate the problem to your partner and talk about it. It's important to reassure one another when either person reveals their concerns, but above all, it's even more important to be talking about the issue in general.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 5 Communication Keys Every Relationship Needs

3. Cut the person out: If you've done both of these things and this person is still affecting your relationship's stability, maybe it's time to just cut ties with them. Realistically, you don't need a negative person actively trying to ruin things for you or your relationship – that's just unnecessary. However you choose to shut the person out, make sure that you're completely at peace with your decision and doing it for the right reasons.

Travel Destinations: How to Plan the Ultimate Trip to Europe

By Melissa Lee

If you're in desperate need of vacation, summertime is the best time to plan one! Although beach getaways are always fun, why not try something different this year? This summer, plan the ultimate trip to Europe, whether it be with your sweetheart, your best friends, or even your family. However, before you get too excited, be sure to have everything organized and planned out before you leave the country.

Planning on a trip to Europe?
Cupid's got you covered with some travel tips!

1. Decide on destinations: Europe is a huge continent, so decide what parts you'd like to visit, and how long you plan to stay in each place. Some popular spots include London, Paris, Amsterdam, Barcelona, Venice, Rome, Berlin, Prague – the list can go on and on. So, before doing anything, make a list of the cities or countries you want to hit and how long you'll be there.

2. Plan each day: This may seem extremely tedious, but it'll definitely help keep things organized. Create an itinerary for each day that you're there. Since you'll be traveling throughout different countries and cities, it's important that you have a plan for every day, unless you decide to roam around and explore – which is also a ton of fun! For example, if you're spending three days in London, choose what sights you want to see and how you will split them up between the days you're there.

3. Do your research: You don't have to plan out every single detail of your trip, but you should definitely research each destination and the popular sights. In addition to that, it's important to research and book hotels that you'll be staying in in each city. Make sure they have good reviews and you'll be in a safe environment!

4. Research flights: Decide whether you'd like to book roundtrip tickets or one-way flights, depending on your circumstances. If you'd like to have everything organized before leaving, it's probably best if you purchase roundtrip. On the other hand, if you think you'll be more spontaneous, one-way tickets may be the way to go. It's completely dependent on your plans and what you want to do.

5. Figure out how to travel between cities: Since you're not going to be staying in one city, it's important that you research ways to travel between each destination. In many cases, you can book tickets up to three months in advanced. There are also several different ways to travel in Europe, including train, bus, plane, or even driving.

Travel Review: Villa Marie Saint-Barth

By Melissa Lee

Summer has finally arrived, which means vacation season is in full swing! If you're looking for a new destinations for either your next girls' trip or romantic getaway, Saint-Barthélemy might be the place to visit. The Villa Marie Saint-Barth is a beautiful hotel that recently opened in December of 2016, being the newest resort to join the French Sibuet family. This gorgeous getaway spot is perfect if you're looking for a relaxing beach vacation to help you escape the stresses of work, school, or every day life.

If you're on the market for your next vacation destination, consider booking a room at the Villa Marie Saint-Barth!

The Villa Marie Saint-Barth is a hilltop hotel that is above Colombier Beach. This French-based luxury hotel overlooks Flamands Bay and offers 21 individually decorated bungalows and villas, each with private pools with sea or luxury garden views. Having already topped the Condé Nast Traveler Hot List of 2017, the Sibuet family is no stranger to perfecting their hotels, and The Villa Marie Saint-Barth is certainly no exception.

Related Link: Travel Review: Pritikin Longevity Center & Spa

The Villa Marie Saint-Barth offers amazing architectural style that they define as “island decor with subtle French charm.” Each bungalow and villa has been influenced by a combination of cultural elements, including “Colonial plantation spirit, colorful ethnic Caribbean Indian flair, lasting British influence, and a dose of French Art de vivre.” A common theme among each room are the seashell accents, pink corals, and vibrant touches of tropics, reminding you that you are, essentially, in paradise. There are also outdoor living areas, all of which have been designed by Jocelyne Sibuet, who made a great effort to include flairs of French country home decor.

Related Link: Popular Vacation Spots: Punta Gorda & Englewood Beach

Each bungalow is uniquely named and include canopy beds, plush headboards, and both custom made and vintage furniture pieces. There are private terraces that are surrounded by exotic greenery with the intention of making guests feel like they're on their own private islands. Their view typically looks over the lagoon and Flamands Bay.

Lastly, the hotel includes a fabulous restaurant called the Francois Plantation. It offers sophisticated French cuisine, and the bar serves a collection of the finest rums and Cuban cigars. And, if that hasn't already led you to booking your trip, there is even a treatment spa on the premises called the Pure Altitude Spa.

Head to the Villa Marie Saint-Barth if you're ready to be completely spoiled with a luxurious experience, complete with gorgeous scenery, delicious food, and relaxation from start to finish.

Celebrity Parents Open Up About Their Best Parenting Advice

By Melissa Lee

Hollywood parents aren't always the first place we look to for parenting advice, but realistically, they understand the daily hardships of having kids that we all go through. Plus, they look good while doing it, so why wouldn't we listen to their offered words of wisdom? Instead of flipping through your favorite parenting magazine, take some of these tidbits of information into consideration.

Check out some parenting advice from our favorite celebrity parents below!

1. "Be open to any help." Elizabeth Banks' number one tip is to accept and ask for help when needed. She says that a lot of today's moms may feel like they need to be "supermoms", but that shouldn't be the case – and she's right! You should never feel ashamed when you need to ask for some assistance from your friends or family members. Being a mom is a tough job!

2. “Roll with the flow.” Heidi Klum explained that her house is basically chaos due to her kids, but she’s perfectly okay with it – and you should be too! She emphasizes the fact that her house is “full of life, laughter, and mayhem”, and any mom can relate to that. When stressing about the natural disorder that comes with having kids, remember Klum’s words of advice: “My house is not a museum. You can see that children live there. It’s their house as much as it is mine.”

3. “It passes so quickly, so enjoy every moment.” This tip comes from Alicia Silverstone, who is a mom to six-year-old Bear Blu Jarecki. Even though moments of motherhood can seem beyond stressful, Silverstone advises to enjoy it all. Try not to get wrapped up in the anxiety that comes with raising a child, and rather appreciate every laugh, mess, and smile.

4. “Listen to your child, and always be supportive of who they are.” Jaime Pressly says that it’s extremely important to let your child grow into the person they want to be, and to accept their likes and dislikes. Instead of forcing who you want them to be onto them, let them discover what they enjoy – at the end of the day, they’re going to become their own individual person anyway, and you should be proud of that regardless.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: How to Cope with Stress

5. “This too shall pass, so take deep breaths.” Perhaps one of the most important pieces of parenting advice comes from Kimora Lee Simmons. Similarly to Silverstone’s tip, both celeb moms emphasize the fact that motherhood shouldn’t be all stress. There will always be difficult days and moments, but remember not to let them consume you. Take a few deep breaths and return to the situation with love and kindness.

Date Idea: Wine and Dine

By Sarah Ribeiro & Melissa Lee

Summer is just starting, and you and your sweetheart need to get ready for the new season. This weekend, go on a wine-tasting adventure to embrace the fresh warm weather. You and your love can find a new favorite wine while exploring a beautiful vineyard nearby.

If you're looking for a romantic way to have some fun, this weekend date idea is ideal for you and your love.

First, you and your sweetheart need to decide which wines you will be trying this weekend. Narrow down your wine preferences to a specific kind of wine you want to taste. Do you only like reds? Limit the weekend to cabernets, merlots and pinot noirs. Or spend the weekend comparing whites and reds. A "pinot-only" date will allow you to taste different pinot noirs and pinot gris that are made in your area.

Next, search online for wineries or vineyards in the area that offer the wines you've picked and plan to travel to a couple of them throughout the day. You and your partner can even arrange a town car or limo to drive you around, so you don't have to worry about limiting how much you drink. Plus, it'll give you a sense of luxury and a chance to cuddle up on the ride.

Related Link: Enjoy a Secret Sunset on Your Next Date Night

At the vineyard, it's important to keep sharing opinions with your significant other. You can pick a wine that the two of you are crazy about and buy two bottles to take home with you. The first bottle can be shared that night, and you can reserve the second for a future anniversary or romantic date.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Play All Day

After the wine-tasting fun is done, head back to your place and enjoy a romantic meal together. Skip out on the cooking for the night and indulge in a take-out meal from a nearby

Italian restaurant. Make sure your wine suits your meal by using a wine pairing chart. The rule of thumb here is that darker meats belong with darker wines and lighter meats stick with lighter wines. You can even try a wine-based dessert, like a strawberry and wine sorbet, that will cleanse your palate and provide the perfect ending to a perfect day.

Date Idea: Make Your Love a Masterpiece

By Sarah Ribeiro & Melissa Lee

Get creative with your love this weekend: paint, sculpt, or throw some pottery and feel like an artist for the day. Make something with your sweetheart that the two of you will proud to show off to your family and friends. Try this unique date to tap into your inner creative genius and create a work of art that you and your love can keep as a memento of your time together.

If you're looking to get in touch with your creative side, this weekend date idea is perfect for you and your partner!

First, pack up a picnic basket loaded with your favorite foods. Include finger foods that you can feed to each other, like berries, veggies or pretzels, as well as your honey's favorite meal. Bring a bottle of wine and two glasses as well, then head up to the most scenic spot in your area. Scope out a high hill, a look-out point or a state or national park. Enjoy the sounds of nature around you or bring your iPod with you to play a soothing painting playlist. Examples of great relaxing music to spark creativity include Yanni, Pearl Jam, Pink Floyd, Adele, Animal Collective or classical and instrumental music.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Get Crafty

After you and your love have a romantic sunset picnic, set up an easel (or two) and try your hand at painting. Choose between painting your sweetheart or the landscape around you. Don't be afraid to experiment with color and style. Be silly with one another – you can even try painting a caricature! You don't have to be a great artist to enjoy being creative.

Painting is a great way to unwind and relax on a quiet night with your love.

Related Link: Date Idea: Run Outta Moonlight

Another way to get artsy is to head to your local art supply store or studio and register for a class. Most studio-based art classes offer deals for couples who register for classes, sometimes providing Date Night specials which include complimentary champagne. Pick something you and your partner have never done before: shops like Color Me Mine let you paint your own ceramics, or you can try making ceramics yourself. Glassblowing is also becoming incredibly popular and is showing up in more studios. Plus, you'll get a professional product that you and your sweetheart can take home with you.

Date Idea: Listen to the Music

By Sarah Ribeiro & Melissa Lee

It's almost June, which means it's time to start doing summer activities. This weekend, start the new season off right by spending some time at outdoor performances with your love.

If you and your sweetheart are huge music fans, this weekend date idea might be perfect for you two!

Some of the most popular summer activities are outdoor fairs, concerts and music festivals. Not only are they fun, but they can be incredibly romantic too. Look up your local symphony orchestra; most of them hold open practices in the early summer, where you and your sweetheart can wrap yourselves in a blanket at the park and listen to classical music under the stars. For a more private experience, you and your love can stay in the parking lot, canoodling in the back seat of the car, high-school style, while you listen through the open windows.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Karaoke Night

Check your newspaper and community bulletin board to find more local outdoor concerts or music festivals where you can cuddle with your sweetheart. You can try something new, like a bluegrass festival: Bluegrasser has a database of national bluegrass events where you and your beau can get country. Most bluegrass festivals even feature farmer's markets, where you can buy local produce and other goods like handwoven blankets and handmade jewelry. Or check out a jazz festival, where you and your love can spend the day dancing in each other's arms, filling up on goodies from food vendors and exposing yourselves to rising musicians.

Related Link: Date Idea: Binge Watch a New TV Show

If you're more of an active couple, you can check out a bigger-scale music festival. Larger festivals are typically three days long, with tens to hundreds of mainstream acts playing on multiple stages. Some festivals that are traditionally held in late May and early June are Electric Daisy Carnival in New York, Sasquatch! Festival in George, Washington, and Bonnaroo in Manchester, Tennessee. In past years, these three festivals have featured acts such as Fatboy Slim, Avicii, Jack White, Bon Iver, Radiohead and Red Hot Chili Peppers. Find a festival that best suits you and your sweetheart's music tastes and plan a road trip with them. Spend the entire weekend listening to your favorite musicians, dancing and falling even more in love.

Date Idea: Meeting the Parents

By Sarah Ribeiro & Melissa Lee

Celebrate this Mother's Day by taking a trip home. Plan a weekend visiting each other's parents in the spirit of the holiday.

Check out this weekend date idea if you're interested in introducing your partner to the family!

If you live nearby, look at this weekend as a road trip with your beau. The two of you can pack snacks and create a playlist with songs from your childhood to makes yourselves feel nostalgic. Some great 70's and 80's favorites include "Bohemian Rhapsody," "Livin' on a Prayer," "Vogue," "Dancing Queen," "Take on Me," and "Thriller." If your honey has never met your family, you can share stories about them on the ride to get him or her ready for their endearing eccentricities, like the fact that your father sings opera in the shower or that your mother will wake up at 5 a.m. to make you all breakfast. Make it a game to see who has the strangest family stories.

Related Link: Date Idea: Say 'Ahhh' at the Spa

Before you get to your parent's house, take a drive around your hometown. Show your sweetheart where you grew up: take them to your high school or grammar school, bring them to where you had your first date and show them your favorite hangouts when you were a kid. Pick out the best ice cream shop in town and buy a cone for your partner, telling them your favorite memories of going out for an after-dinner sweet treat with your parents.

Related Link: Date Idea: Learn a New Sport Together

After the nostalgia has worn out, head to the house and make a mother's day meal with your love. Try to replicate your favorite recipes that your parents used to make you and serve it to them on a fully set table with flowers and candles. Don't forget to bring a bottle of wine and dessert. You can harken back to your childhood with dessert: try something simple that you would make as a child, like brownies, ice cream sundaes or strawberries with whipped cream. It's a great chance for you and your love to work together and bond in the kitchen. Be sure to let your parents know how much you appreciate them – and don't forget to buy a Mother's Day gift!

Related Link: Date Idea: Get Close with Nature

After dinner, pull out your old photo albums. Let yourself be humbled as your parents tell your partner all of your embarrassing childhood stories and show off your braces-filled middle school yearbook photo. Then spend the next day doing the same with your sweetheart's parents.

Date Idea: Cuddle With a Furry Friend

By Sarah Ribeiro & Melissa Lee

Spend the weekend with your partner surrounded by each other's love and your love for animals. Getting a chance to cuddle up with a gentle creature will put the two of you in a loving mood.

Looking for a fun way to spend the weekend with your significant other? This date night idea is perfect if you two love animals!

Plan a zoo trip with your love – check out the Association of Zoos and Aquariums to find a local zoo that the two of you have never visited. While you're there, be sure to take photos not just of the animals, but of you and your sweetheart too. Be sure to let go of your inhibitions and let your inner child show; there's nothing more endearing than watching your partner get excited over seeing giraffes. Plus, it's a great photo (or video!) opportunity. At the end of the day, head to the souvenir shop and find something memorable to get each other. It can even be something humorous and tacky, like the typical gorilla stuffed animal holding a heart, so long as you two can make a loving memory out of the gift.

Related Link: Date Idea: Embrace Your Inner Child

If you're more of a community-centric couple, try your hand at volunteering. Call up your local animal shelter and see if you can set up a time for the two of you to help them out. Petfinder offers a directory of animal welfare groups where you can volunteer. This day is definitely another "photo op" for you two, as you may get the chance to play with or walk a homeless animal. Be prepared for dirty work, too: most shelters ask for help cleaning and sanitizing cages and kennels, but the work is well worth it. You may find an adorable cat or dog that the two of you are willing to foster or even adopt.

Related Link: Date Idea: Take A Trip to the Park

For those who already have enough animals in your life, take them on a date with you. Head to your nearest dog park with your honey. Let your pets play while you sit back and relax with your beau, holding hands and bonding over your love for your furry babies. Or keep them on the leash and take a walk – or even a hike – and take in the new spring weather. Tell each other stories about your first pets, why you love animals and what your favorite furry creature is and why. It's a great opportunity to get to know each other better and enforce why you love each other.
