"I wish it wasn't a struggle, but it is a struggle to find a balance. I'll never find it perfectly, but I will do my damndest to find it as best I can."

This celebrity news is refreshingly honest. What are ways to keep your career from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a career can definitely take a toll on your relationship, but it doesn't have to be this way. A successful career and happy relationship takes balance. Let Cupid help you with both of these important aspects of your life:

1. Communicate: Work can take up a lot of your time, but communication with your partner is still important. Make it a point to speak with your partner, whether it be over the phone or a quick text. Let the person you're with know that you're thinking of them.

2. Share responsibilities: This is very important if you also live with your partner. Don't let all the chores fall on your partner's shoulders. Help out around the house so no resentment builds up between you two. Nobody wants to feel like a maid, so help each other out.

Michael Bublé: My Children Will Be My Priority

By Kirstin Mirtich for Celebrity Baby Scoop

Although Michael Bublé has enjoyed a successful singing career, the Canadian crooner has no qualms about putting aside his busy schedule to raise a family one day.

“It can’t always be like that; I won’t allow it to be like that,” the Grammy Award-winner explains. “When I do have children, my priority will be my family.”

“I’ll continue for a couple more years, and then it’s not that I’m going to stop,” he adds. “But I’ll definitely probably slow down the pace, so that I can not have to hate myself for not being there for the family.”

The 37-year-old star says that married life to Argentine actress Luisana Lopilato is wonderful but admits their busy careers sometimes kept them apart.

“Yes, we are definitely apart quite a bit, but I try to hang out with her as much as possible,” he reveals. “We try to get together, and when she’s on set making her movies, I go down there, and my job is to rub her feet and bring her coffee basically.”

In the meantime, Michael is excited about the possibility of collaborating with actress Reese Witherspoon on his next album.

“By all accounts it would be true. I just really am a big fan, and so myself and my camp, we wanted to do this with her, and we were thrilled that she was excited about it too.”

Michael Bublé and New Wife Plan Second Wedding in Canada

A wedding is one of the most important days of your life, and Michael Bublé may get to experience it twice. The crooner recently married Luisana Loreley Lopilato de la Torre, and the lucky bride may head down the aisle once again. Roughly a month and a half ago, the pair wed in Buenos Aires where Torre's family is located, according to E! Online. Bublé's reps confirm there will be no second wedding, yet rumor has it that a second wedding will take place for his family in Canada. Reps do confirm, however, that there will be a reception for those who could not make it to their ceremony. The newlywed will then venture off to Italy before Bublé's big tour.

How can you celebrate your wedding with family from two parts of the world?

Cupid's Advice:

Making both of your families happy can be tricky, and you'll need to compromise. Your wedding day is supposed to be one of the best days of your lives, and you'll of course want to share it with those you love. Cupid has a few ways you can make sure all of your family members and friends are included:

- 1. Destination wedding: This may be expensive, but why not go all out? Everyone can meet up and take a cruise through the tropics while you two exchange vows at sea.
- 2. The sympathy card: Guys, she's really stressed out right now, and she wants her day to be perfect. If she wants to get married in her hometown, have your family come to her. Those truly close to you will make arrangements to be there no matter what.
- 3. Meet in the middle: Find somewhere that is mutual territory and that makes sense. Perhaps that means halfway for both parties, or even in your own backyard.

Michael Bublé's Wife Wears Two Wedding Dresses

Apparently one wedding dress just wasn't enough for Michael Bublé's new wife, Luisana Loreley Lopilato de la Torre. According to People, Lopilato wore one dress for their civil ceremony on Thursday and donned two separate dresses for their religious ceremony and the reception, which took place on Saturday, all in Buenos Aires. Now that they have celebrated in Lopilato's hometown, the two are planning to have another reception in May in Vancouver, Canada close to Bublé's hometown of Burnaby. We're excited to see if Lopilato has another dress up her sleeve!

Is it OK to wear more than one dress at your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

We buy multiple pairs of jeans, tops, shoes and bags every year, but is it okay to buy more than one dress for one of the most memorable days of your life? Here are some things to consider when deciding whether to wear more than one dress at your wedding:

1. Cost: Weddings can get very expensive, so if you're skimping on parts of the reception to afford that second dress, it may not be worth it.

2. Comfort: We all want to wear that Cinderella ball gown at our wedding. But, if you decide to go for the elaborate dress, you may want to consider a second more comfortable dress for the reception.

3. Personal Preference: At the end of the day, you've dreamed of your wedding your whole life, and if having more than one dress is an affordable goal, then go for it!

Michael Bublé to Make Proper Home with Wife in England

Singing sensation Michael Bublé may have found his dream home. According to The Sun, Bublé announced he plans to live in Surrey, England, with his bride-to-be Luisana Lopilato. The couple will wed in April, and Bublé says he wants his £3 million, or $4.5 million Purley estate to be “a proper home,” according to Digital Spy. A source elaborated, saying, “Michael’s bought a really smart house. He’s getting married this year to Argentine actress Luisana Lopilato and hopes to spend six months a year here. He wants it to be a proper home.”

What constitutes a ‘proper home’ for you and your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

The term “proper,” although ambiguous in nature, can be resolved for both Buble and your future family. Cupid has some suggestions for you to keep in mind when its time to build your nest:

1. Keep it clean: A spotless home might be in order if you want to keep things proper for you and your family. An hour or two a week is all it takes to make your home dirt-free. Plus, your friends and family will enjoy visiting a lot more!

2. Keep things family-oriented: Be mindful of what is said between you and your partner, especially if kids are present. There's a Jamaican saying that goes, "monkey see monkey do." In order to keep your home "proper," adult issues should stay in a private room.

3. Keep the little things in mind: Remember that when you live with someone, the little things you do such as saying "I love you" and "thank you" are important. Plus, they keep a healthy and happy atmosphere in your now "proper" home.
