How do you decide on a location for your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

The location of the wedding is probably one of the most important aspects you'll have to carefully plan. You want your wedding to take place in a memorable environment, but there are a few key factors you should take into consideration. Cupid has some advice:

1. Budget: Look at your budget and see what you can and can't afford. If you can't afford your dream location just yet, think about some things you can go without or think about cutting your guest list down. You can also decide on a different place for your wedding if you'd rather keep everything else the same.

2. Theme: Consider what kind of style you're going for before you book a wedding location. Does your ceremony and reception have more of a tropical theme? Hold your wedding outdoors by the beach. Have you always dreamed of having your own fairytale ending? Think about having your ceremony in a castle. Everything about your special day should go with the theme you've picked.

3. Compromise: What you want in a wedding might not be what your partner envisions. Take some of their ideas into consideration while you're making plans. You want them to be happy with how the event turns out too. After all, you're not the only one getting married.

Michael Polish Knew He Wanted to Marry Kate Bosworth Before They Dated

By Petra Halbur

It seems love at first sight might really exist, according to Michael Polish. The 42-year old director met his current fiancée, Kate Bosworth, in 2011 on the set of Big Sur. He just knew."

What are some ways to know you've found "the one?"

Cupid's Advice:

You've been seeing someone for a while and you're beginning to think that he or she just might be "the one." This is a big step. How do you know for sure? Cupid has some advice:

1. You want the same things in life: Emotional and sexual compatibility mean nothing if you two can't make a life together. Compromises are inevitable in a relationship but fundamentally, "the one" will want the same things in life that you do.

2. You feel good about yourself: "The one" should bring out the best in you. If you feel inadequate with your partner, that's a sign that you two are not meant to be.

3. You just know: Over-thinking can only get you so far in matters of the heart. Ultimately, you either know that your partner is “the one” or not.

Cupid's Advice:

Engagements are special events that should be shared with those who are special in your life. Here are some ways to announce your engagement to friends and family:

1. Send a formal email out: Of course you wouldn't email your parents about an engagement, but for everyone else it seems appropriate. Everyone turns to their email nowadays that it would be normal to send out a mass email to everyone you want to know so no one feels left out.
