

Celebrity Baby: Carrie Underwood Opens Up About Miscarriages & Preparing for Baby Boy

By Ivana Jarmon

Carrie Underwood recently opened up about past miscarriages and her new bundle of joy. In celebrity news, Underwood revealed the gender of her baby on November 14 at the Country Music Association Awards. Underwood says she feels “so blessed.” In September, she revealed she’d suffered three miscarriages over the last two years. Now a mom to son Isaiah, she is happy and overwhelmed with gratitude that she and her husband Mike Fisher are expecting another celebrity baby together. According to Taylor Dye, tour opener Maddie & Tae, the expecting mom is due in January and “We’ve offered to babysit!” she revealed to UsMagazine.com.

In celebrity baby news, Carrie Underwood is being candid about her struggle to have another child and how they’re preparing now that they’re expecting. What are some ways to cope with a miscarriage??

Cupid’s Advice:

Experiencing a miscarriage means that you are probably feeling more sadness than you ever thought possible. Cupid has some ways to cope with a miscarriage:

1. Support group: Fifteen to twenty percent of pregnancies end in miscarriage, so the first thing you should know is that you are not alone. Search around for a group or forums that seems to have like-minded moms and dads to help support you no matter the time or day. You can also call your doctor office or local hospital to see if they have any support groups. You may also want to try individual therapy to get through some tough times.

3. Try again: While nothing will ever replace the baby you've lost, there will be a time that you will want to try again. Planning for the future can help you recover. You will want to discuss how long you should wait to start trying again. Figure out how much time you need emotional and physically. A good indication that you're ready to have a baby is simply if you're in a good place or wake up one day and feel ready.

Celebrity Baby News: Carrie Underwood Shares Sex of Baby at 2018 CMAs

By Ivana Jarmon

It's a boy for Carrie Underwood! In celebrity news, the country singer accidentally let it slip that she is having a boy while hosting the 52nd CMA Awards, EOnline.com reports. Co-host Brad Paisley managed to poke and prod Underwood to learn the sex of the baby for all the details on live TV. He teased, "Seriously, Carrie, give me a baby hint." Paisley suggested a few potential girl and boy names, and Underwood, annoyed, said, "Oh, my gosh, Willie, it's a Willie!" This is Underwood's second celebrity pregnancy, as she and husband Mike Fisher share a son named Isaiah.

In celebrity baby news, Carrie Underwood is expecting a little boy. What are some ways to reveal the sex of your unborn child??

Cupid's Advice:

Next to announcing that you're pregnant, revealing if it's a girl or boy is very big news, so why not find a creative way to share it. Cupid has some ways to reveal the sex of your unborn child:

1. Gender reveal balloons: To do a gender reveal with a balloon, many people fill the inside with blue or pink confetti, powder. When it is time to reveal the gender, the only thing the future parents will have to do is pop it with a pin and the confetti, glitter or powder will explode in a big way. Celebrity couples such as Kate Hudson and Danny Fujikawa have done it.

2. Color your cake: All gender reveal parties call for cake or cupcakes...it's a rule. So why not hide the news of your babies' gender inside the cake or cupcake? All it takes is some food coloring to make the batter pink or blue, then use frosting to hide the evidence and write an enticing message on top. The only way guest will find out what the gender is by cutting the cake or biting the cupcake.

Carrie Underwood Is Expecting

By Amanda Boyer

After four years of married life, 'American Idol' alum Carrie Underwood and NHL player Mike Fisher are expecting their first baby, as Underwood announced her pregnancy on her Instagram over Labor Day weekend. The country crooner made her announcement by posting a photo with her two dogs that were wearing "I'm going to be a big sister" and "big brother" outfits. She captioned the photo, "In honor of 'Labor' Day, Ace & Penny would like to make an announcement. Their parents couldn't be happier..." According to a source for USMagazine.com, "They couldn't be happier to be starting a family."

What are some ways to reveal your pregnancy to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Just found out you're expecting? Want some ways to tell your partner? Cupid has some tips:

1. Do it over cooking: Before he gets home, write, "You're going to be a daddy!" on an ingredient for dinner. Tell him to help you cook and to go get the special ingredient. He will be smiling ear to ear once he reads it!

Carrie Underwood Says Mike Fisher Loves All of Her Crazy

By Erin Minty

Country star Carrie Underwood has found someone who loves “all of her craziness”: her husband of two years, Mike Fisher. Since their marriage in 2010, the couple is still as happy and in love as ever, according to UsMagazine.com. Though the singer and her NHL hubby are both so busy, they take the extra effort to make their marriage work, like vacations to Disney Animal Kingdom in July. Underwood shares that the two text and tweet “I love you” every day to each other, as well as making their time together count by going on dates. With such busy work lives, it is great to see a couple that makes it work, despite the obstacles they face.

How do you know if someone’s weak points are something you can live with?

Cupid’s Advice:

Most people are not perfect, and there may be a few elements of their lives that you don’t like. Cupid has some advice on figuring out whether or not those weak points are something you can live with in your relationship.

1. Talk to your partner: If you have a problem with an element of your partner's life that you are unsure about, talk to them. It may be something that is unavoidable, or the two of you may be able to come to a compromise. Either way, if you leave the conversation feeling better about the issue then the relationship is probably worth it.

2. If the positives outweigh the negatives: In any relationship, there may be elements of your partner that you don't think are perfect. But you shouldn't abandon ship because of one little pet peeve. Think about it: are there more positives than negatives in your relationship? Try to focus on those points instead.

3. Test it out: If you really can't decide whether or not you can live with the weak points, try it out for a little while. After a time, if the relationship is driving you crazy, you'll know that the problems are too much to handle. If you still want to stay with the person, you'll know that you can handle a few little issues.

Carrie Underwood Wins Big at the CMT Awards – And Her Husband Hugs Brad Paisley

First!

When Carrie Underwood decided to team up with Brad Paisley on their single, 'Remind Me,' she probably didn't expect the fellow country singer to be competition ... for her husband! At Wednesday night's CMT Music Awards, Underwood accepted her first award for collaborative video of the year with Paisley, whom her hockey player husband, Mike Fisher, hugged first, according to People. The surprised five-time nominee played it cool and jokingly asked the Nashville audience, "Did you see my husband hug him first?" Fisher may have been too caught up in the bromance, but he didn't miss his opportunity to show some love to his rock star wife when she won video of the year.

What are some ways to celebrate a partner's big achievement together?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the greatest things about being in a relationship is sharing in one another's successes. Since you're each other's support system, it's your job to make your partner feel special by celebrating his or her achievement, which is easy to do with these tips:

1. Champagne: What compliments smiles and high spirits better than a popped bottle of bubbly? Make sure to have this commemorative cocktail ready to toast your significant other's big moment along with friends, or maybe even just the two of you.

2. Party: Bringing together family and friends to show off your love's accomplishment will make him or her the center of attention while displaying how much you truly care.

3. Mini-getaway: Really surprise your partner with a spontaneous trip. Even if it's just an overnight stay, the alone time will allow you to show your appreciation.

Carrie Underwood Says She's Not Ready to Start a Family

Carrie Underwood isn't feeling pressured by Hollywood. The newlywed country singer says she has no immediate plans to start a family with husband Mike Fisher, reports UsMagazine.com. "We're good [without kids]. I'm super busy and he is super busy. We are still newlyweds," said Underwood backstage at American Idol on Thursday. "I honestly think that if we brought a kid into it would mess things up right now! We're good right now!"

How do you know when you and your mate are ready to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Choosing to start a family is a difficult decision to make, especially when you're happy with the status quo. Here are a few suggestions as to when to start a family:

- 1. You want a family: If you find yourself eyeing babies you see at a local park or going gaga over your neighbor's daughter, it might be time for you to start thinking about a family of your own.
- 2. Financially secure: Even if you and your partner feel emotionally ready for a child, you still need to be sure that you're completely prepared. Make sure that you have enough money set aside for child care and, eventually, college tuition.

3. Don't feel pressure: Don't feel pressured to start a family by your friends or by a supposed biological clock. With modern medicine and in vitro fertilization, it's possible to have children much later in life. It's okay to wait.

Celebrity Couples Who Shy Away From the Spotlight

By Whitney Baker

Some celebrity couples flaunt their relationship for the entire world to see, posing for the paparazzi as if they're at a photo shoot (hello, Kardashian sisters!). Other couples, regardless of whether they've just begun dating or have been married for years, choose to hide from the spotlight and stay mum about the details of their love. Below are five Tinseltown two-somes who are keeping their lips sealed when it comes to romance:

1. Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson: Although this cute duo has refused to officially confirm they're a couple, they did come close to doing so on Oprah in 2010. The two jokingly referred to Kristen Stewart's "baby" when asked if they were dating. Also, an Oprah insider insists that Pattinson and Stewart revealed their relationship to the queen of talk shows before the taping. More recently, Stewart casually mentioned her "English boyfriend" in an interview for British GQ. Even so, don't expect too much PDA from this couple – despite their intense love scenes in Twilight's latest installment.

Related: Rob Pattinson Thinks Kristen Stewart Looks “Amazing” as a Bride

2. Sarah Michelle Gellar and Freddie Prinze, Jr.: Gellar and Prinze first met while filming I Know What You Did Last Summer and have been together for more than a decade. After a two-year hiatus from acting, Gellar is now starring in Ringer on The CW and is learning the ins-and-outs of balancing a career and motherhood. In a recent interview with Self, Gellar calls her daughter Charlotte “my best friend” and says that she values time with her family above all else.

3. Gwyneth Paltrow and Chris Martin: The Oscar winner and Coldplay frontman have been married for over eight years, but have been tightlipped about their relationship and are rarely photographed together. That’s not to say that they don’t realize how lucky in love they remain. As Martin recently told CBS Sunday Morning, “From being a loser to going out with an Oscar winner? It’s a giant leap. Let’s face it: It’s like winning the lottery.”

Related: Chris Martin Calls Gwyneth Paltrow His “Beard”

4. Emma Stone and Andrew Garfield: With this rumored romance, Stone, who starred in Easy A, The Help and Crazy Stupid Love, has met her match. Garfield is well-known for his role in The Social Network and is currently filming The Amazing Spider-Man, making him another one of Hollywood’s hottest twenty-somethings. This publicly-shy couple has been spotted hiking and going to the movies, but they haven’t yet officially confirmed their relationship.

5. Carrie Underwood and Mike Fisher: Since Fisher’s trade to the Nashville Predators early last year, country’s all-American sweetheart and her hockey-playing beau are enjoying a low-key life in Nashville. The couple is still relishing their status as newlyweds, often opting for trips to the local Whole Foods Market and cooking at home as opposed to fancy nights out.

Carrie Underwood Discusses What Bugs Her About Husband Mike Fisher

Soul Surfer actress Carrie Underwood recently dished to E! Online about her relationship with husband Mike Fisher. First on the list to discuss were Underwood's pet peeves. "[Fisher] loves the UFC fighting and he will DVR the fights and watch them like five times!" said Underwood. "He'll watch them and then I'll get up for breakfast the next morning and he's watching them again. Then someone will come over and they have to watch it together! I'm like, 'Really?'" Although, Underwood admits she's nearly as guilty. "I think I nag a little more than I would like to, more than he would like me to," she explained. "I'm like, 'Please take the trash out, please change the lightbulbs. These are man things you should be doing. I'll make you brownies.'" "

How do you deal with habits that bug you about your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Most couples can attest to the fact that dealing with your partner's quirks can be difficult, even if the two of you aren't living together. Here are a few ways you can deal with those pet peeves:

1. Tough it out: While your partner's habits may be irksome at first, if you will yourself to cope for a short while, you may eventually find that the habits no longer bother you. Be patient, and hopefully you can adjust.

2. Get some space: When your mate's quirks become too much to handle, be sure to get some space. Allowing yourself some 'you' time will make being with your partner all the more enjoyable (and less bothersome) when the two of you are together again.

3. Point out the issue: If you're still annoyed after trying to adjust to your partner's habits, bring the issue to your his or her attention. Instead of making him stop, ask him politely if he'll consider toning down his habit.

Carrie Underwood and New Hubby Challenged By Love & Business

Newlyweds Carrie Underwood and hubby Mike Fisher recently celebrated their two-month anniversary. Perhaps prompted by the occasion, Underwood spoke to People about the way the two celebs handle their fast-paced life, saying it's "a lot like dating. Sometimes our schedules will click, sometimes they won't. But that's good because we're both independent."

Although busy, one thing Underwood won't miss, no matter what, are her man's hockey games.

What are the best ways to keep a two-career relationship intact?

Cupid's Advice:

Balancing careers and a love life is never an easy feat and is often times a struggle. Cupid has some advise for how to handle a hectic double-career romance:

1. Take pride in your work: Being successful in your chosen career path is something in which to take pride. Likewise, you should be proud of your partner's accomplishments. This mutual respect and revere is a sure-fire way to bolster a relationship, even when you're missing your beau's embrace.

2. Do everything in moderation: When pulling off life's balancing acts, the important thing to remember is that moderation is key. As passionate as you are about your job, at the end of the day it's important to leave work matters at the office. Remember that you're in a relationship with your partner and not your career. On the other hand, don't let yourself get swept up in romance that you neglect your career. It's important to strike a healthy balance between the two.

3. Come to compromises: Give and take in a relationship is key. No one person in the relationship should feel the need to sacrifice their career more than the other. Remember to discuss things in depth, and be willing to compromise.

Mike Fisher Knows Where He & Carrie Underwood Will Live

Carrie Underwood's new hubby, Mike Fisher, says he knows where the couple wants to settle down, People reported last week. The hockey star told CTV Ottawa that he would love to have Underwood in his Canadian home while he plays hockey for the Senators. "We're both comfortable here. Home is where we are, so let's make this home," he said. However, Fisher has no issue with returning to the country singer's home in Nashville down the road. "When I'm done [with] hockey, she'll still be working. I'm sure she can always work. We'll settle in Nashville. I love it there."

After marriage, how can you decide where to call home?

Cupid's Advice

Unless you've chosen to live together prior to marriage, you'll eventually need to settle on one home together. Here are some ideas Cupid has come up with to help make that decision:

1. Pros and cons: List out what you love and hate about your choices, then compare notes. You might find a compromise between the lines.

2. Size matters: Consider the size of the homes you're choosing between. Are they big enough for both of you, children (if you're planning for them), and your things? When settling down, make sure it accommodates both your needs.

3. Distance from loved ones: Family can play an important role in deciding where to live, whether you choose to stay close to them, or want to get as far away as possible from them as possible.

Carrie Underwood's Tahitian Honeymoon

Photos have surfaced of Carrie Underwood and husband Mike Fisher relaxing during their Tahitian honeymoon. The newlyweds have been exploring the French Polynesian sights from underwater and in the air. “Carrie and Mike have enjoyed swimming and snorkeling with reef sharks,” a source told People over the weekend. “They also toured the island via helicopter.” In addition, the couple has enjoyed some alone time in their bungalow.

How can you make your honeymoon memorable?

Cupid’s Advice:

While you may be ready to relax, don’t kick your heels up just yet. Preparation, along with a great attitude, can ensure an unforgettable honeymoon once you’ve reached your destination.

1. Research: Do your homework. Find out where the best places to visit are. Search for the best restaurants and entertainment. Jot down one place or activity you’d like to experience each day so you don’t forget about it while out sightseeing.

2. Become a photo lover: The best way to make any experience memorable is to take pictures. Not only will you have fun documenting your getaway through the lens, but you'll be able to relive the memories when you get back home.

3. Relax: Most importantly, relax! Leave work, family, and friends at home. This is your honeymoon, which marks the beginning of your lives together as a married couple. Focus on and enjoy your relationship.

Country Wedding for Carrie Underwood

Country singer Carrie Underwood married Mike Fischer of the Ottawa Senators last Saturday, People reported over the weekend. The couple exchanged vows on a Georgia plantation in front of family and friends, with Underwood in a custom Monique Lhuillier gown. Underwood had previously been in high-profile relationships with actor Chase Crawford and Dallas Cowboys quarterback Tony Romo.

Can you find Mr. Right after a series of Mr. Wrongs?

Cupid's Advice:

After a succession of very public relationships and breakups, Underwood kept things private this time around and struck romantic gold with Fischer. Read on for Cupid's tips on moving past failed love and finding your happily ever after:

- 1. Keep your options open: After a failed relationship, it's easy to want to close your heart all together. While this may save you from future heartache, it will also keep you from new love as well.
 - 2. Take a jump: Should that new special someone come along, don't be afraid to open yourself up again. Scared that they aren't like the other guys you've dated? See this as a new opportunity and adventure in love.
 - 3. Make a change: Something went wrong in your past relationships – that's why they ended. Before you try to get serious with someone you think might be the one for you, take stock of past mistakes and try not to repeat them.

Carrie Underwood Leaves Honeymoon Plans to Hubby

Country crooner Carrie Underwood has all her wedding plans in order, save for one – she is leaving the planning of her honeymoon to her fiancé, hockey star Mike Fisher. Underwood has chosen and set every aspect of her big day, but says Fisher is solely in charge of the honeymoon plans, according to People.

How do you divide up aspects of planning a wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Though the wedding is typically the bride's responsibility, there's always something the groom can do. It's a way to make him feel more involved in the event and relieve some of the pressure on the bride, as long as it's done right.

1. Don't jump the gun: While it's important to start the planning phase of your wedding early, giving the groom-to-be too much responsibility too fast can bring on cold feet early. Let him be involved, but don't force things into his lap right away.

2. Give him the goods: If he won't have fun picking out flowers, don't force him to go. He'll only make it harder on you. But if he likes music, then let him pick the band or plan your first dance.

3. Make it a group effort: Even if you both have your own areas of expertise or involvement, make sure you work together. While surprises are nice, it's always good to give some feedback, even if it's as simple as Underwood's request for a honeymoon in "someplace warm."
