Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a relationship for a long time, it can be hard to revive the fun times that you were both having in the beginning. If you're looking for ways to keep your relationship easy and fun, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Keep the element of surprise alive: Surprise your partner from time to time in a variety of ways. Arrive home with a small gift, cook your partner's favorite meal or book a surprise weekend getaway. These types of surprises will keep the excitement alive and prevent you from getting stuck in a relationship rut.

Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus Reacts to Comparisons of Her Recent Romances

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus is definitely throwing that wrecking ball all over the place after changing her celebrity relationship status for the third time. The former Hannah Montana star confirmed that she and her former girlfriend, Kaitlynn Carter, split in late September. Shortly after, Cyrus announced that she and Cody Simpson are now a celebrity couple. On October 3rd, the singer tweeted to her fans, "Get used to me dating- this is where I am at! #HotGirlFall." The new duo are very comfortable with each other each other, displaying PDA and sharing a history. According to UsMagazine.com, Simpson says that the two met at the wrong time originally. "We had a lot of fun then ... but now we've found each other in a space where we're not partying, working real hard and just like [to] keep things healthy," she said.

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus is seemingly not amused with comparisons being done on her relationships. What are some ways to keep your past relationship from affecting your current relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Even though it is not traditional to jump from relationship to relationship, Miley is showing us that there is nothing wrong with doing so. Being a #HotGirl is a trending hashtag that is boosting everyone's confidence. This was made in the hopes that women would feel more comfortable in themselves and moving on from broken relationships. Cupid has some advice on how to use that hot girl energy when dating someone new:

1. Don't compare: Ladies, we all do this! However, if you are trying to move on with your new boo, don't compare the two! Try to look for similar qualities like chivalry and taste in music. Don't make your new bae your ex bae 2.0.

2. Do new things: Try not to relive the past through this person. Take them to new places, so you can make new memories. Show them your playful side! Jump out of a plane together, or get tickets for a concert of a band you've never seen live. Keep things new and fresh.

3. Be open to change: While you look for similarities between you and your new partner, also look for differences. They might not be your "usual" type of partner, but don't give up on them too easily. Try to compromise. If they are more introverted, plan your dates at a more personal level. Taking a walk while holding hands or baking a cake together are two low-key ideas. If they are more extroverted, then you won't have any problems finding out what they want to do. If they tell you what they want to do that's outside of your comfort zone, consider doing it anyway!

New Celebrity Couple: Miley Cyrus & Cody Simpson Are All Smiles on Coffee Date

By Hope Ankney

New celebrity couple alert! In the latest celebrity news, Miley Cyrus and Cody Simpson seemed to be all smiles on their coffee date on Sunday afternoon in Los Angeles. According to UsMagazine.com, the two singers kept the date very casual. This comes after Simpson shared his romance with the news outlet saying, "We just have a ball and that's the most important part of a relationship. It hasn't been a really crazy sudden thing. We've been friends for so long that when we sort of found each other again in a space where we're not partying and working really hard, [we] just like [to] keep things healthy."

This new celebrity couple seems to be hitting it off. What are some ways to know your new relationship is strong?

Cupid's Advice:

When you get into a new relationship, it can sometimes seem like everything is going so fast. There's the whirlwind romance, the attraction of everything that is fresh and new, and learning everything there is to know about this person. It can be fun and exciting, but it can also be difficult to know when a new relationship is becoming more than just a casual date. Fortunately, Cupid has some love advice on a few ways to know when your new relationship is going strong:

1. You're happy: This might seem obvious, but you'd be surprised how many people aren't genuinely happy with the one they're dating. Strong and healthy relationships should be full of as much fun and laughter as possible. We're not saying that every single moment of each other's relationship should be nothing but joy, but it should outweigh a lot of other emotions that make you both well... not happy.

2. There's trust: Strong relationships cannot be built unless they have a sturdy foundation of trust. You must be able to have a very healthy level of trust and commitment with each other before you can label your relationship a strong one. Communication and openness are a big key to having a successful bond with your significant other.

3. The relationship makes you feel safe: This is probably the most important aspect of a bond. Knowing that you have a sense of comfort and safety within another person is one of the best signs of knowing if your relationship is going strong. Your significant other should be a safety net to you when you need them. They should provide you with a stable home and a sense of calm when you need it. If you don't feel safe within your relationship, maybe you shouldn't still be with that person.

Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus Appears to Shade Exes Kaitlynn Carter & Liam Hemsworth in Post About Love

By Hope Ankney

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus might've just indirectly shaded both of her celebrity exes. On Sunday, Cyrus took to Instagram to post about love and loyalty that could be pointed at Liam Hemsworth and Kaitlynn Carter. According to UsMagazine.com, her Instagram story showed her in bed surrounded by her pups. The caption of the stories read, "Happy Sunday from me & 2 stinky dogs! waking up surrounded by animals is my favorite way to start a morning. I am immediately reminded about LOVE without conditions.... the best part about animals is that they are careless about the details. They live by the golden rule ... Love & Be Loved. Nothing in between. No questions regarding wealth, career, talents, race, age sex They love back 100X ... all they ask is to be cared for in exchange for loyalty, reliability, and faithfulness. (reminds me of someone)."

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus sent a message to her exes via Instagram. What are some ways social media can help you cope with feelings?

Cupid's Advice:

Even celebrities air their dirty laundry on social media from time to time. It's hard not to, especially when you're trying to handle your feelings that can be difficult to ignore. But, it can get messy if you throw your feelings out on your social platforms without thinking it through. If you're having a hard time coping with feelings by yourself, don't worry! Cupid has relationship advice on how using social media, in a healthy way, can help you sort through your feelings:

1. Private Instagrams: Something I'm sure you've heard before, but FINSTAS (or fake Instas) are accounts that are private for you to vent and cope over your feelings in a space that only a few people have access to. By creating a private IG, you're allowing yourself a place to comfortably discuss and post about things you're having a hard time dealing with. It's therapeutic to have a sense of freedom when it comes to not censoring yourself online, and accounts like these can act as a personal diary.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-up: Miley Cyrus & Liam Hemsworth Split Less Than 8 Months After Wedding

2. Private Twitters: Another way to cope on social media is through something similar to the FINSTAS- a private twitter. Private Twitter accounts are something that, from personal experience, has been even better at coping with feelings because of the format of the platform. Instead of having to post photos and write captions underneath to vent, Twitter allows you to simply post a tweet and even write threads that hold all your thoughts together in a cohesive manner. This type of account feels most like a diary because it's like you're writing down excerpts from your day. You can also quote tweet others without them seeing it, so that can also help to vent if you're sorting through feelings about a certain person.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus & Kaitlynn Carter Step Out for Date Night in Matching Outfits

3. The 'close friends' option: Lastly, with the progress in certain social media to include options that allow you to post without others seeing, the Close Friends option allows someone to post their feelings on their own account, like their Instagram Story, without having to create a whole private account just to do so. This is much more accessible to the average person, and it can feel even more liberating to do it on your main account. The only issue here is to be sure you're careful in how you word things or choose to vent because even though things seem to be private, you must be observant which accounts on your main are allowed to see these stories. Trusting some friends to not share things you post in confidence might not be the best idea.

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus and Kaitlynn Carter wore matching outfits for their date night. What are some cute ways to coordinate your clothes for date night?

Cupid's Advice:

Miley Cyrus and Kaitlynn Carter looked super cute in their matching black outfits. However, it's easy to go from cute to corny when it comes to matching outfits. Luckily, Cupid has some advice that will help you and your significant other look coordinated and cute instead of tacky:

1. Wear dark colors: Just like Cyrus and Carter, stick to dark colors for a classy matching ensemble. You want to highlight that you're matching with your partner while also making it look natural. Bright colors will distract from the coordination and look as though it's forced.

2. Pick a vibe: If you want to go for a more subtle approach to matching with your partner an easy way to do so is to pick a vibe or an aesthetic. Are you trying to channel high fashion or a look from a certain era? You don't necessarily have to match colors or specific articles of clothing, but as long as you both go for the same general idea you'll both look chic!

3. Keep it simple: Simply, don't overdo it. We've all seen those pictures of celebrity couples in the early 2000s coordinating outrageous outfits. You don't want to follow in their steps. If matching outfits scare you, try to coordinate accessories instead of entire ensembles and work your way up.

Cupid's Advice:

Even Hollywood's stars go through jealousy after break-ups. It's a normal feeling to have, especially after seeing an ex with someone new. Jealousy can consume, but it doesn't have to be that way. Fortunately, Cupid has some relationship advice on how to keep the eye of jealousy away when your ex has moved on:

1. Distract yourself: Keeping one's mind busy after seeing an ex with a new fling is an important step in keeping jealousy at bay. Distraction can be your best friend when all else fails, and you just need time to turn your brain off from it all. Throwing yourself into a new hobby, double-downing at work, or even spending more time with friends could be the perfect way to keep your mind from wandering to your ex and the person they're with.

2. Try to bring closure to the relationship: Many studies state that journaling, venting to loved ones, and creating arts and crafts are just some things that bring closure after a break-up. By creating a safe space where you can let out all your feelings without judgment, the less likely you'll become jealous and act on that jealousy. It could also help you find out more about where this jealousy is stemming from, and how you can de-construct it.

3. Embrace your 'wins:' Break-ups take such an emotional toll on us. It's even worse when it seems like they've moved on before you. You've got to learn to let go by discovering all the 'wins' that the relationship gave you. By studying the positive sides of the relationships and understanding that those things were 'wins' to you even if the relationship ended, it helps you come to terms with the loss before jealousy overrides it. What did this person teach you about yourself? Did they encourage you to embrace something you wouldn't have otherwise? That's the 'win' that keeps the memory of the relationship positive.

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus is getting closer to Kaitlynn Carter after Liam Hemsworth filed for divorce. What are some steps you can take to move on after an intense split?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone is experiencing a celebrity break-up, but the hurt generated by splits are universal. Break-ups are hard, and it's even harder when an ex quickly moves on with someone new. But, it's not impossible to get over a heartbreak! Fortunately, Cupid has some relationship advice on steps to take after you go through an intense split:

1. Remove the rose-colored glasses: Sometimes, it's easy to forget that we are all just human. It's natural to almost idealize an ex-partner after a break-up, experiencing insecurities and wondering if you'll ever find someone that matches up to them. But, it's important to make an effort to see the limitations of this person. They have flaws, doubts, and insecurities, themselves. They were never perfect, and it's better to find the logic in the realistic nature and incompatibilities of the break-up to be able to properly move on.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-up: Miley Cyrus & Liam Hemsworth Split Less Than 8 Months After Wedding

2. Surround yourself with good friends: Good friendships are important for many things, but they are especially important when life-altering situations occur like intense break-ups. They tend to be your biggest supporters, rooting you on and giving you the love and positivity you need. They are there to distract you and pick you up when you're feeling down. When relationship problems arise, these people are the ones that help you put the relationship into perspective, making it easier to see the ex-lover objectively.

3. Find a great therapist: Therapy is a very helpful tool when going through hardship. It acts as a safe space to open up about feelings and communication without being judged. Working through loss, like a relationship, in a setting where you can freely talk and further your introspection is significant in easing the pain. A lot of people feel more comfortable speaking out about these kinds of issues with someone they hold no personal attachment to than those they know. Find a therapist you can trust being vulnerable around, and you might have a healthier time moving on from your past relationship.

some ways to know you're ready to file for divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Even the strongest of Hollywood relationships can end messily. Some will last and some will barely survive. Not all relationships are going to have a perfect ending, and that is okay. Luckily, Cupid has some relationship advice on how to know when you are ready to file for divorce:

1. You have outside interests: The maintenance of any marriage can definitely be made more difficult if you or your partner have different interests. Either both of your interests no longer line up, or your interests lie outside of the best interest of your marriage. You or your partner may want to explore something new outside of your marriage, whether it be sexually, physically, mentally, etc. Having interests outside of your marriage can include wanting to travel the world, wanting to pursue your own career goals, and much more. If this is the case, then divorce should be an option that you two explore together.

2. You fight with your partner: Of course, no relationships has only ups. You and your partner are going to experience downs and some relationship problems along the way. Occasional disagreements are healthy, but when you and your partner are fighting more than you are having a good time with each other then it is probably best to end your marriage for the sake of wellbeing and happiness.

3. You aren't intimate: Intimacy with your partner can be physical, emotional, or mental. If you feel your intimacy with your partner has declined at all in any context, then perhaps your marriage is not as strong as it used to be. A loss of intimacy can include no longer sleeping in the same bed as your partner, no longer having sex with your partner, not having as many conversations with your partner as you used to, and much more.

It will be a fun competition that you can all part-take in. To take it a step further, you can either compete with everyone, or everyone can pair up to hunt in teams.

Cupid's Advice:

On-and-off relationships are sometimes unavoidable, but you never want to continue the back and forth for too long. Cupid has some ways to tell whether it's a good idea to get back together with your ex:

1. If it works for both of you: Timing is everything when it comes to getting back together with an ex. If you are seeing him often and it's convenient, give it another go. Being single at the same time might just be fate telling you to try again.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Rob Kardashian, Miley Cyrus and Keisha Knight Pulliam

By Shoshi

Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I predict the future of three new celebrity couples.

Shoshi's Predictions for these Celebrity Couples

Robert Kardashian and Blac Chyna: It's always amazing when two people who are a hot mess get together in the name of love. Then again, can we really call Rob and Blac Chyna a celebrity couple? If memory serves me correctly, a few months ago, Blac Chyna was in love with the rapper Future. Her love was so deep, she had his name tattooed on her hand. Now with the celebrity news that Blac Chyna and Kardashian might be together? There's something about this relationship that makes me give it a side eye. I just don't see this as the real deal. It appears to be all for show. Blac Chyna is desperate for attention and this is the best way for her to get it. It's a shame that Kardashian has seemed to just let himself go. He just doesn't care about anything at all. Kardashian needs love and affection from somewhere since his family does not seem to be giving him any at all. Looks like Blac Chyna is the only one filling the void. This relationship will be just as dysfunctional as all of the Kardashian relationships. It will run its course, because Blac Chyna's heart has the attention span of a high school student.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Rob Kardashian Resurfaces with Beard and Blac Chyna

Miley Ray Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth: It's now safe to say that Cyrus and Hemsworth have quietly gotten back together. Cyrus has put her engagement ring back on. Wouldn't you? Don't look for an invitation to this celebrity wedding just yet. They have a habit of breaking up and getting back together. My crystal ball says they are on a trial basis. Basically, giving it another go round to see if they can make their relationship work. Hemsworth probably did cheat on Cyrus the last time they were together. When someone cheats it's a sign that something is wrong in a relationship. It looks like both parties are acknowledging their part in the breakup. If they can repair what was broken, there's an opportunity for them to be one of the hottest couples in Hollywood. We just may see a much tamer Miley Ray. Time for her to keep that tongue in her mouth. One of two things will happen, either they will get married or they will end their relationship for good this time.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Rumors: Is Miley Cyrus Engaged to Liam Hemsworth?

Keisha Knight Pulliam and Ed Hartwell: Keisha Knight Pulliam best known as Rudy on The Cosby Show announced that she was engaged in December. Less than a month later, she announced on her podcast "Kandidly Keisha" that she married Ed Hartwell, a retired NFL player on New Year's Eve. This came as a surprise to a majority of her fans since no one knew that she had broken up with Big Tigger, who she had dated for three years. Right now this couple is doing just fine. Will they be together for the long haul? That's questionable. Most people don't think this marriage will last. They will have a baby or two and some projects together. I see trouble in their marriage around the third year. If they can get through that, they should be fine.
