

Miley Cyrus Says Being Single Is 'The Best Time of My Life'

By Kerri Sheehan

Being single doesn't mean she's looking for anybody! Since Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth's September 2013 split, the 20-year-old pop star has been taking the music industry by storm. According to UsMagazine.com, the Wrecking Ball singer doesn't want her breakup with Hemsworth to overshadow all of her success. "This is the best time of my life. I'm not going to look back on it and be like, 'I wish I hadn't been dwelling over a breakup,' you know?" After being with Hemsworth for four years, Cyrus is enjoying the single life.

What are some advantages to being single?

Cupid's Advice:

Being lonely in a relationship is worse than being single. Here are some advantages to being single:

1. You do you: When you're single you'll have loads of time to work on yourself. You won't have to answer to anybody or worry about constantly keeping another person happy. If you're looking for some extended "me time" then single life may be perfect for you.

2. Get to know your friends: Women tend to meet all of their closest girlfriends when they're single, so take this time to reconnect with your BFFs. Plan a girl-only get away so you can really soak up being single.

3. Family time: No matter how old you are it's always the perfect time to reconnect with your family. They're the one group of people who will always be there for you so now that you're not attached you have even more time to appreciate the awesome people that they are. Show your love by really getting to know them better.

What are some ways to move on after a bitter breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are hard, especially if your ex moves on quicker than you do. Sometimes people need a distraction for themselves get away from the hurt that they feel because of the split. Other times, the guy's just a jerk. It might be difficult to get through this time and still remain positive. Cupid has some advice:

1. Do for yourself: You need to focus on yourself now. Don't worry about who hurt you. Don't question yourself. Work hard to make yourself better, not for him but for you. Once you start taking care of yourself in all aspects of life, you'll attract the people that will make you happier and more successful.

2. Keep your head up: Know that you're a catch, even if you don't feel like one. Remind yourself that you're a hard-worker, a gorgeous person, and have big things ahead of you. If you keep this in mind, you won't worry about what anyone else thinks – especially not your ex.

3. Take your time: Don't jump into a relationship to get back at you ex. Using someone isn't a good idea because not only do you hurt the person your distracting yourself with, but you're hurting your ego. This is the time to gather yourself and work inward before you can start moving outward.

Liam Hemsworth Stops Following Miley Cyrus on Twitter

By Kristyn Schwiep

Liam Hemsworth and Miley Cyrus have called it quits and he's stopped following Cyrus on Twitter. What are some ways to quickly get over your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting over you ex can be a long, drawn out process, but there are some things you can do to speed up the process.

Cupid has some advice for you:

1. No contact: Not contacting your ex is the hardest part of a breakup. It's hard not to text or call them when your sad or need something, so you need to do everything you can to not contact them. If you keep in touch you are asking for months of an on-again-off-again relationship.

2. Avoid their friends: Being in a relationship means that you and your ex start to have mutual friends. So, you might need to make some sacrifices and cut of your mutual friends so you don't have the temptation to re-kindle a burnt out flame with our ex.

3. Social media clean-up: It may seem a little extreme to delete your ex off of Twitter or Facebook, but seeing them pop up on your news feed every day will not help you get over them. So, delete your ex from your friend list to avoid seeing what they are doing.

Top 5 Don'ts We've Seen From

Miley Cyrus That Should Never Enter the Dating World

By Laura Bensen

After the performance at the VMA's and her newest music video, it is safe to say that Miley Cyrus is on everyone's minds whether we like it or not. She has taken the media by storm and consequently our consciousness but don't fret. This is not a complete lost cause. There are lessons to be learned from this. So here are five don'ts that should never enter the dating world as seen by Miley Cyrus:

1. At the VMA's we saw Miley twerking on Robin Thicke. This is wrong for so many reasons. Don't twerk on a married man. With a child. On TV. When you have a boyfriend. Or in general. Just don't twerk. While Thicke might be in trouble with the Mrs. (I know I would be mad!), we do know that Miley certainly is with her on again off again fiancé Liam Hemsworth. So the lesson here? Don't get up on another man when you have one of your own.

Related: 5 Lessons to Learn from Celebrity Divorce

2. Don't orally pleasure garden tools, construction tools or foam fingers. She just needs to stop putting things in her mouth or she's going to get sick. Also, while some people might think it's sexy to put objects in their mouths, a guy might find this as an indicator for the Herp.

3. In her new song Wrecking Ball, she cries, gets naked, and rides a dirty wrecking ball to show how 'emotionally exposed' she is. Don't cry and don't get naked to show you have emotions. Please do not ride a wrecking ball, clean or dirty. It will not lead anywhere good. While there is nothing wrong with crying-everyone cries sometimes- it's not good for a relationship to do it too early on. It can scare off potential prospects very easily. Getting naked too early on will lead you down a very short road where respect is scarce.

4. While this one is a bit of a throwback, we can see signs of Miley's retaliation, joining the slew of ex Disney actresses (Britney, Christina, Hilary and Lindsey. Sweet Jesus, Lindsey was the worst) against modesty back in 2010 with her video Can't Be Tamed. First of all, channeling your inner Britney past Baby One More Time is never good. Men might not want a meek girl but they probably don't want a trashy, weird and violent bird either. There is a pretty wide median to walk and Miley vaulted right over it. So it's okay to be a fiery female, remember your checks and balances.

5. Please keep your tongue rolled up and in your mouth. Ladies use it for speaking. Not for obscene gestures. As my mama would say "you keep making that face it's going to get stuck that way".

So on the whole, while we all want attention and a partner to love us and to love back, please remember to love and respect yourself.

Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth: The Wedding is Off

By April Littleton

According to People, reps confirmed Monday that the once happy couple called off their engagement. Their relationship has been rocky since earlier this year, with matters only getting worse following Cyrus' raunchy VMA performance. Over the weekend, the "Wrecking Ball" singer unfollowed Hemsworth on Twitter.

How do you know when to call off your engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone dreams of a fairytale wedding and a picture perfect romance, but real relationships almost never work out that way. Having a lifelong partner takes commitment and dedication. You'll fight, break up and make up countless times. How do you know the person you're with is really the one for you? You might be in a rush to get married for all the wrong reasons. Cupid has some advice:

1. Constant fighting: Arguments are common in any relationship, but if that's all you and your significant other seem to be doing lately, then there might be bigger problems that need to be dealt with. Communication is the key to a successful marriage. You can't expect yours to work if the two of you can't seem to talk out your differences without a shouting match erupting.

2. Loss of interest: While it's healthy to spend some time alone or with a group of friends, it's a bad sign if you choose to avoid seeing your partner altogether. If you have no desire to be around your honey, why are you even considering spending the rest of your life with him/her? Reevaluate what's left of your relationship and call off the engagement.

3. No trust: Signs of infidelity in a relationship will cause both partners to lose trust in one another, even if only one person was caught in the act. A couple can't flourish if one person fails to be completely open and honest with the other.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Paula Patton, Miley Cyrus and Catherine Zeta-Jones

By Shoshi

For this week's celebrity couple predictions, I want to consider three duos who have been plagued with breakup rumors – some of which have been confirmed.

Related Link: Paula Patton Says "Passion" Is Key to a Successful Relationship

Paula Patton and Robin Thicke: These two have been one of the most interesting couples to watch lately – who knew they could be so entertaining? Fans have been waiting for Patton to get upset with her husband for being racy with Miley Cyrus on stage at MTV's Video Music Awards.

From a clairvoyant point of view, they are a couple with a lot of layers. Thicke was recently quoted as saying that his marriage was "the most dysfunctional functional relationship in Hollywood." That's actually a fair assessment; the thing that keeps them solid is trust.

The famous pair are doing quite well in their relationship despite all of the shenanigans. The actress doesn't freak out when he checks out another woman, and she knows, at the end of the day, Thicke is coming home to her. Don't expect any separation or divorce headlines. In fact, in less than a year, they'll be pregnant again.

Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth: Speaking of Cyrus, it's no surprise that her rep confirmed her engagement was over on Monday. As recent as last weekend, she stopped following her alleged beau on Twitter, but this relationship hit "hot mess status" months ago. Hemsworth tried to hang in there, and it's time for him to officially move on.

When looking at their energy, what kept these two together was sex; they weren't destined for anything more than hot nooky. The pop star's energy is all over the place, and she isn't focused on love, which will make it difficult for anyone trying to have a serious relationship with her.

As for what's next for these two, Cyrus will have a few flings. Once she's finished trying to be the next Lady Gaga with a splash of Madonna from the 80s, she'll be ready for a relationship that has meaning. Hemsworth, on the other hand, will end up with a dark-haired actress on his arm.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katy Perry, Kate Middleton and Fergie

Catherine Zeta-Jones and Michael Douglas: When it was announced that this married pair separated, the only surprise was that it hadn't happened years ago. Their 13-year marriage lasted longer than most people predicted, as many critics gave it only 5 years. There are many theories on why their relationship fell apart, but it's all speculation; instead of paying attention to the tabloids, I decided to take an in-depth look at their love. I have no doubt that they'll divorce. The actress is a bit lost at the moment; it's important to note that her bipolar disorder is not that main cause for her detachment in their relationship. She is seeking something that she's not getting in her marriage.

They signed a pre-nup when they first got hitched, but the brunette beauty will want a different settlement. Let's just say she thinks that she deserves more money. After a lot of nasty back-and-forth, Douglas will give her what she wants to get rid of her.

After the smoke clears and they're divorced, Zeta-Jones will end up with someone younger who will help her learn to live again. She is known for having an appetite for older men, so this will be new ground for her. Expect her to become known as a full-fledged cougar. Douglas will be fine, as he has a new outlook on life. If he does look for love again, it'll be with someone closer to his age.

Rumor: Miley Cyrus and Liam

Hemsworth Reunite in Canada

By April Littleton

Lately, rumors have been swirling over Miley Cyrus' and Liam Hemsworth's postponed wedding. According to People, Cyrus and The Hunger Games actor, Liam Hemsworth were finally spotted together in Alberta, Canada. Hemsworth has been in Canada for several weeks filming the upcoming movie Cut Bank. If the rumor is true, this has been the first time the couple has been seen together since June 17 in Hollywood.

How do you know when to go public with your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you first begin dating someone new, it's a good idea to keep things under wraps for awhile until you figure out if the relationship is going to last. Spilling the beans on your love life too soon can cause some tension between you and your new boo, especially if he/she isn't quite prepared to deal with your friends or loved ones. Do you think it's the right time to go public with your partner? Cupid has some tips:

1. Family matters: Has your significant other been asking questions about your family or friends lately? If he/she seems genuinely interested in your family life, then it's time to go public with the relationship. Don't just break the news to everyone at once using social media applications like Facebook. If your love hasn't met the parents yet, invite your family over for dinner and let them get to know each other. If all goes well, gradually introduce a few of your friends to your boo.

2. You're in love: The obvious sign that it's time to go public with your relationship is if you're in love! You can't imagine being with anyone else and you spend all your time with your new partner. It's time to tell all of your loved ones who you're sharing your life with.

3. Enough time has passed: If the two of you have been a couple for several months now and things seem to be going well, then it's time to let the people you love know what's going on. There's a difference between keeping your love life private and keeping your relationship a complete secret. If you continue to shut your loved ones out of your private life, your partner might think you're ashamed of being with him/her.

What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Perhaps nothing disproves the old saying, "Sticks and stones can break my bones but words can never hurt me" quite like the impact that rumors can have on a relationship. Cupid has some advice to help get you and your partner through it:

1. Get away: Running from your troubles is never a long-term solution but in this case it might be beneficial if you and your beau take some for just each other. Rent out a rustic cabin or check into a bed and breakfast and reaffirm your love for each other.

2. Talk about it: There's only one way to differentiate between rumors and truth: ask! Maintain an open line of communication with your partner and make sure that you are both comfortable addressing the gossip circulation about you two.

3. Clear the air: Confrontation may not be fun but sometimes it's necessary. Go ahead and address those who are spreading rumors about your relationship and set the record straight. As long as you're calm and respectful, there should be no problem.

By Andrea Surujnauth

Miley Cyrus recently opened up to Elle UK about her engagement to Liam Hemsworth. The couple got engaged a year ago. “We have a house together and dogs. It just seems right to be wearing this ring and to be committed,” Cyrus said. “But we keep our relationship low-key and don’t talk about it any more.” According to UsMagazine, Cyrus has decided to keep her personal life and relationship to herself and away from the spotlight. “We were too nice to the world and gave them too much insight – into my life and my puppies and my house – and I just don’t feel they get that privilege any more,” Cyrus explained. “Like on my Twitter, I’m much more . . . not conservative, but you don’t see a picture of my dogs. You don’t get that personal stuff any more.”

How do you know when you’re ready to get engaged?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting engaged is a huge step in a relationship. You love the person you are with, but how do you know whether or not you’re ready for that step? Cupid is here with some ways to help you decide:

1. You enjoy every moment: If you enjoy the ups and the downs with your beau then you are ready for the long haul. 2. No more dating: If you are ready to burn that little black book of yours, then you are ready to be tied down. If you feel that your honey is the only one for you and no one else could make you happier, then you are ready for that step towards holy matrimony.

3. Future plans: If the two of you are already planning for a future together, you are ready for that proposal. You two see a future together and are making plans together so you are both serious enough about the relationship to take this step.

What are some ways to keep rumors and gossip from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to dating, all of your friends seem to be overly curious about your relationship. This curiosity often leads to false truths and rumors about you and your partner. Cupid offers some advice on how to save the relationship from the lies:

1. Talk it through: A nasty rumor is going around that you and your boyfriend might break up; confront him about it first. Address the rumor and find out why it started. It may have started because you two were arguing in front of your friends.

If your disputes are causing people to think there's a problem in your relationship, make sure there aren't any. Talking out your problems will create a solution for both of you, and will put an end to the rumors of a breakup.

2. Verify the lies: Sometimes, you hear rumors about your partner and wonder if they're true or not. Before worrying if your boyfriend actually cheated on you, tell him about the rumor. This way, you are not getting your facts from unreliable sources. If the rumor is not true, he will probably laugh at how ridiculous it all sounds. If you choose not to bring it to his attention, you will always be wondering if it is the truth—which may drive you a little crazy.

3. Remember the good: In any relationship, there are good qualities and bad ones as well. People tend to only see the bad ones, and let them stick out in their minds. If you tell your friends your partner snores in his sleep and has gross toenails, that's all they will talk about, making the situation sound a lot worse. Little nuisances such as these are no reason to end the relationship. Keep in mind all of the reasons you fell in love with your man—you already accepted his flaws, don't let your friend's opinions get to you now.

How do you keep rumors from ruining your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are hard in the first place, and then rumors are thrown into the equation. It is bound to get messy. Depending on how close you and your partner are, you may have to work harder to prevent rumors from wedging their way into your relationship. Social media stirs up this rumor-relationship pot even more, sometimes making it bubble over. Cupid has some advice on how to keep rumors out:

1. Truth: Truth is essential to have when you are in a relationship, especially if rumors are present. For example, say your partner saw a member of the opposite sex text you. This could be a no-big-deal, so your mate asks you if 'Jamie' texted you, you say no. This then erupts into a spiral of accusations, yelling, and a whole lot of mess. Even if it is a serious matter and you don't wish to tell your beau, tell them anyways. Truth will always triumph.

2. Communication: You know what people say, communication is key? Well they are more than right. It is necessary to communicate sharply with your partner. If rumors are present, it is even more important that you both talk about everything going on. Doing this will wash the rumors out, and leave you both with a loving and happy relationship. If you don't communicate, and let all your emotions bottle up inside, they will inevitably explode out and cause catastrophe.

3. Respect: You need to respect your partner, and your partner needs to respect you. If you or they don't, leave the relationship as soon as possible. With respect, even if you don't believe what your mate is saying, you need to go by them. If they say it is true, and the rumors are false, respect their honesty in confronting them and push the rumors away. Respect is the easiest way to get rid of the rumors for good.

How Celebrity Couples Overcome Their Stressful Lives

By Whitney Baker

While it's tempting to think that celebrity couples never experience the ups-and-downs of real life, that's not always the case. Like everyone else, they must survive personal heartbreak, career letdowns and various forms of rejection – and they must do it all in the public eye. Of course, being a Tinseltown twosome means that they have money and means to overcome their stressful lives, perhaps by doing one of the activities below.

1. Learning something new: Although stars are often on set for long hours or traveling for various commitments, there is always downtime during their hectic schedules, giving them time to pick up a new hobby. For instance, Curtis Stone, who has a son with fiancée Lindsay Price, hopes that he and Price can learn how to speak Spanish and then teach their son the language.

2. Taking an extravagant vacation: Thanks to their hefty paychecks and flexible jobs, stars can jet off to Mexico or the Caribbean on a whim. Some of them even own their own private planes, making it extra easy to take a last-minute vacation. After co-hosting ABC's New Year's Rockin' Eve with Jenny McCarthy, Ryan Seacrest headed down to St. Barts for some fun in the sun with his long-time girlfriend Julianne Hough. This trip provided some much-needed R&R for the busy couple: Seacrest is gearing up for the twelfth season of American Idol, while Hough is promoting her upcoming movie Safe Haven. Likewise, Reese Witherspoon, Jim Toth and their three children spent the holidays in Hawaii.

3. Enjoying normal, domestic activities: Sometimes, just doing basic, everyday chores helps alleviate the pressure that comes with being rich and famous. When their schedules align and Carrie Underwood and husband Mike Fisher are both at their Nashville home, they like to keep things simple: they often spend time cooking and watching television together. Underwood likes to keep a similar routine when she's on tour, often doing her own laundry on her days off.

4. Donating to charities: While stardom certainly comes with stress, it also includes many wonderful perks. One way for stars to fully appreciate how blessed they are is by giving back – and no couple does this better than the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Kate Middleton is making sure her charitable donations reflect on her pregnancy; in January, she gave both a hamper of new baby products and a package of baby clothes to one of her favorite causes, East Anglia Children's Hospices.

5. Adopting a puppy: Similarly, many celebrities show their goodwill by rescuing dogs from local shelters. These furry creatures provide them with constant companions despite their busy schedules. At the start of the New Year, Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth adopted a Chihuahua-mix puppy, Bean, who joins their family of four other rescued dogs. Likewise, Katherine Heigl – who even started her own animal companion charity – and husband Josh Kelley have a full house: they're raising their two daughters alongside seven rescued dogs.

People reports her saying, “Number one is my relationship with Liam. That’s what I feel the most confident in.”

What are some signs that your partner is “the one”?

Cupids Advice:

In order for a relationship to last, you need to fully understand the person you are with and what their expectations are. Knowing you have met the right person can be tricky to figure out. Here are some things to pay attention to when deciding if you found the person for you:

1. You deal with conflict well: Arguments in relationships are unavoidable. How you act toward each other during disputes can give out signs to you, either good or bad; if you are expressing how you feel without being purposely disrespectful to your partner, the relationship is in good standing. Apologizing during arguments when stepping out of line, and learning from every fight can strengthen your connection with one another. However, if you and your significant other pick fights in order to hurt each other's feelings, this could mean that things aren't going so well.

2. Similar life goals: It is important to want the same things out of life as your partner does. For instance, if you want to get married and have kids one day, and the person your dating hates kids, you probably have not found the person for you. Choose to be with someone who has aspirations that match your own. This will give you a better shot at getting the lifestyle you have always dreamed of (with the right person to share it with).

3. Know what makes them happy: When you get upset, you should be able to rely on your partner to make you feel better. If they know just what to say or do to uplift your mood, you have met someone who should stick around in your life. In return, you should be able to make them feel better as well. If either of you struggles to cheer one another up, you might not have found your perfect match. Find someone who understands what you want and need.

Celebrity Couples Who Have Turned Over a New Leaf

By Courtney Allen

Hollywood just may be the one place where the phrase “love is a battlefield” is an understatement. The land of fortune and fame is the forefront for some of the most scandalous relationships and splits we’ve ever witnessed.

But finding love is not the problem for these celebs; it’s keeping it. For many, passionate romances and ‘I do’s’ end as suddenly and tragically as their last. But luckily, every love story has a different ending... and some endings turn into new beginnings. These four celebrity couples came armed the second time around on the battlefield of love and came out on top:

1. Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick: Kourt and Scott’s relationship has been public since the debut of Keeping up with the Kardashians in 2007. Their relationship proved to be the most entertaining in the E! hit reality show thanks to Kourtney’s headstrong, sarcastic personality and Scott’s wacky, drunken behavior. The couple was known for their rocky relationship, the majority of the blame being placed on Scott’s infidelity and immature lifestyle. Kourt pulled the plug on Scott multiple times during their relationship as well as her pregnancy with their first child, Mason. By this point, we all thought Scott had crashed and burned for the last time. Scott finally straightened up his act after Kourtney banned him from seeing Mason. And now seven seasons later, the two are going stronger than ever with the recent birth of their second child, Penelope. If this couple can bounce back, there's hope for us all.

2. Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth: The relationship between Miley and Liam is nothing but a match made in heaven. The grown-up Hannah Montana star met the blue-eyed Aussie in 2009 while filming The Last Song, where they played the roles of young adults who fell in love over summer break. As it so happens, their love story transferred off the big-screen into real life... taking both the good and bad. In the movie, the couple actually breaks up, much like they way they did in 2010. The exact reason may not be known, but the two just couldn't stay away from eachother. Cyrus and Hemsworth gave it another try in 2011. The actor popped the question to the singer earlier this year and have been engaged for nearly six months. If there was ever a sequel to "The Last Song," this would be it!

3. Sammi Giancola and Ronnie Magro: If you've ever seen Jersey Shore, you know all about Sweetheart Sammi and Ronnie the Guido. The only thing their relationship was known for was extreme inconsistency and drama. Ronnie's unfaithfulness led us to believe their relationship was practically doomed. Sammi and Ronnie's relationship was without doubt unhealthy, opening doors to verbal and what appeared close to physical abuse. After breaking up countless times throughout multiple seasons, we all anticipated when their rocky romance would end for good. We now know the answer to that: apparently never. The couple is still together today. The good news is that they seem to actually be in a functioning relationship these days. Their love has proved strong enough to overcome their seemingly irreparable past.

4. Audrina Patridge and Corey Bohan: Audrina Patridge is known for her role on The Hills but her relationship with BMX biker Corey Bohan was displayed on her VHL reality show Audrina. Her Aussie beau was prince charming until the show revealed one of his less favorable qualities: possessiveness. Throughout the season, Audrina struggled with her controlling boyfriend who proved to also have a bit of a temper. By the end of the season, Patridge dumped Bohan with the support of her mom. But little did we know that the couple would rekindle their flame a couple months later. Since the show's end, we haven't heard much on their relationship besides the occasional romantic getaway or public event, but everything seems to be in the clear. They have been going steady since the summer of 2011.

Leaving Your Mark: Celebs Who Profess Their Love with Tattoos

By Nic Baird

The rich and famous get tattoos for the same reasons as everyone else: They're about self-expression and an unchanging reminder in a changing life. A celebrity's brand is their image, and that's often something to consider when deciding between Mike Tyson's tribal face design or Drew Barrymore's navel butterfly. While we common folk might get a little attention for a bold new tat, it doesn't compare to the celebrity news created by famous new ink. Here are some of the reasons celebs get tattoos. For the most part, they're not that different from anyone else!

Celebs And Their Ink

1. Self-expression: Maybe our expectations of rock stars like Amy Winehouse push artists to mark themselves as such. Music superstars seem like credible artists with some eye-catching body art. Rock Of Love 2 runner-up Daisy de la Hoya was a human canvas. Her iconic three-quarter sleeve led to her own dating spin-off show and attracted the attention of heavily painted rocker Tommy Lee. The bottom line is that whether it's for the fans or for themselves, real rock stars get ink.

2. Proof of change: Miley Cyrus went under the needle again last month to get a Teddy Roosevelt quote on her wrist. She may be trying to remind us that she isn't 14-year-old Hannah Montana anymore but instead a more serious – or at least more tattooed – adult celeb. Actress Angelina Jolie, who seems to be the lead celebrity spokesperson for tattoos, described them to USA Today as “something permanent when you've made a self-discovery, or something you've come to a conclusion about.” Just as a serial killer might etch the names of victims into his skin, you can record important life events by marking the occasion on your body. Jolie takes this to a whole new level.

3. Memory makers: Fond memories and self-discovery inspired Jolie to collect at least 14 tattoos over the years. Her body is a map of her life. A Buddhist Pali incantation to protect her adopted Cambodian child sits on her left shoulder blade. All six of her children have a place beside it on her shoulder where geographical coordinates represent their scattered birthplaces. Jolie says she uses body art to remember the good times. When it comes to relationships and love, a lot of celebrities are guilty of this celebratory use of ink.

Tattoos For Celebrity Couples

4. For love: In fact, Jolie's infectious love of tattoos has spread to husband Brad Pitt. He's been marked with his celebrity loves' birthday in Khmer script on his chest. Thankfully, tattoos are not really all that permanent for those who can afford to get them removed. Jolie knows this because she was able to laser off three pieces of Billy Bob Thornton memorabilia and a Japanese symbol on her arm she had shared with Johnny Lee Miller. She also covered several others; after all, not everyone is comfortable sporting memories of their celebrity exes! Rocker Avril Lavigne shares four matching tats with her former boyfriend, reality TV's Brody Jenner, including his name under her right breast. And she's still hanging on to two with ex-husband Deryck Whibley of Sum 41, despite being engaged to Nickelback's Chad Kroeger.

5. Brand billboard: While it's clear that celebs mostly get tattoos for all the usual, relatable reasons, there are exceptions. Pop icon Lady Gaga is blurring the line between self-expression and self-marketing. Recently, she gave her nearly 29 million Twitter followers and 53 million Facebook fans a look at her tenth tattoo. A picture showed ARTPOP printed along her wrist, which was also revealed as the title of her upcoming album. The confidence is admirable at the very least.

The only problem after getting inked up is regret. People change, but tattoos don't. It seems ironic to commemorate something as fleeting as a celebrity couple with something as lasting as a tattoo. But artists at every level have always been attracted to body art. For Gaga's sake though, ARTPOP better not bomb.

What are three ways to enjoy the engagement period before you start planning a wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Engaged? Next comes the wedding with all of the appointments and decisions and research that has to be done – it can be a nightmare. Though, here are some tips on how to enjoy the engagement before starting the stress of planning a wedding:

1. Discuss long-term goals: Instead of jumping right into wedding talk, which can take up an entire engagement period, hold the reigns on that for now. Instead, why not focus on the future that goes beyond the wedding day. If the two of you have not moved in together yet, focus on that aspect.

2. Have an engagement party: Nothing says enjoyment and relaxation like a celebration. Perhaps a few friends will throw an engagement party for you or if you're the do it yourself person, plan a small one for yourself. Don't go overboard though – that's for the wedding.

3. Spend time together: Engaged couples can become so caught up with wedding and marriage talk that they forget who they are as a couple. Don't become lost in all of the future aspects of an engagement and be sure to embrace the here and now.

Miley Cyrus Pays for the Bill with Liam Hemsworth and Friends

Miley Cyrus knows how to spoil her significant other, not to mention her friends. The star and her new fiancé, Liam Hemsworth, were spotted out to dinner with friends at Studio City, California on Saturday, where Cyrus picked up the tab, according to People. The pair, who have been engaged since June, are still happy and very much in love.

How do you know when to let your partner pay for a date?

Cupid's Advice:

The rules of chivalry traditionally place the man responsible for paying for a date. However, the rules of economy have changed, making the playing field even in terms of paying the bill. Here's a few tips on when to let your partner pay for a date, and when to cover it yourself:

1. They offer: There's a big difference between your honey reaching for the bill out of courtesy but allowing you to pay and having them actually offer to pay. If your beau is willing to pay the bill, let them, and be sure to offer to pay next time.

2. They want to split: There's nothing wrong with you and your sweetheart paying for your own meals. If they suggest splitting the check 50/50, that's a good way for both of you to save money and not feel guilty about that $130 check.

3. You're not alone: If you're out with friends, as Cyrus and Hemsworth were, the rules can be different than if it's just a date. For instance, if your partner wants to pay for the entire table out of appreciation for everyone, you can allow him the gesture. Still, be sure to pay them back with something special later.

Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth Take a Romantic

Stroll in Philly

Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth are happy and in love. The recently-engaged pair were seen taking a stroll with their dog, Ziggy in Philadelphia this weekend, according to E Online. The couple have yet to set a wedding date.

How do you know your relationship has what it takes to go the distance?

Cupid's Advice:

In any relationship, it's tough to "know" when things are right. Here are some ways to know your relationship has what it takes to go the distance:

1. You're willing to make the effort: Every relationship is tough, but if you're willing to work hard for your love, it's bound to be worth it.

2. You see a future: Do you envision things in the long term with your sweetheart? If you don't see it lasting more than a week, it likely won't, so try to picture things a year from now and see where you want to be.

3. You're happy: The most important part about being in a couple is being happy. Don't stay with your partner if you're not satisfied.

Liam Hemsworth Says Miley Cyrus Is 'Team Katniss'

The Hunger Games has sparked a fan battle between Team Gale and Team Peeta. Liam Hemsworth, who plays Gale, stands behind his character 100-percent, but what about his fiancé Miley Cyrus? According to UsMagazine.com, Hemsworth told Glamour magazine that Cyrus is Team Katniss all the way. The newly engaged couple want children quickly and if Cyrus continues to support Hemsworth's career, the duo are sure to make a great little team of their own.

What are some ways to support your partner's passion?

Cupid's Advice:

In a relationship support is a key factor to keeping each partner happy. If your partner doesn't support you in your solo endeavors and vice-versa, it can create tension. Here are some ways to support your mate's passions:

- 1. Show interest: You don't have to always take part in what your partner enjoys, but show interest every now and then. Try asking them about it at least once a day.
- 2. Show up: Actions speak louder than words. Be your partner's date at important events. Staying at home isn't a supportive decision.
- 3. Show equality: Just because you support your partner doesn't mean you need to forget about your own passions. Invite your partner to learn about your endeavors. Support goes two ways.

Sources Say Miley Cyrus Wants a Baby 'Quickly'

After getting engaged just last month, power couple Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth are already talking babies. After being highly criticized for their premature engagement, a Cyrus family source tells UsMagazine.com that "Miley and Liam really want to have a baby quickly." The rush to start a family may have been sparked by Hemsworth's brother Chris Hemsworth, who just had a baby girl named India in May. Hemsworth, 22, and Cyrus, 19, were dating on and off for three years before he popped the question.

How do you know when it's time to have children?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone dreams of starting a family, but the appropriate timing may not always be clear. Here are some surefire ways to know you're that you're ready to have a baby:

1. You've had enough alone time: Many people get married and try to start their family right away. However, this can sometimes be a mistake. Be sure to enjoy some romantic alone time in your marriage before you get ready for a larger family.

2. Your friends are having children: There's no better way to experience parenthood than along with your friends. Since being a parent is a learning process, getting advice from people you trust who are going through it too can be helpful.

3. You're financially secure: Having children can be a dream come true, but don't let your excitement hinder reality. If you don't have the money to support a family, don't try to start one. You want your child to have the life they deserve, so if you aren't able to make that, it's best to wait.

How would you decide when it's the right time to have kids? Tell us below.

How do you keep your independence while in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes when you're in a relationship, it can be hard to keep yourself from getting completely wrapped up in your partner. Here are a few ways to stay independent:

1. Make sure to keep your friends: A relationship can be time consuming, because you always want to spend time with each other. The most important things are to keep your friends and to continue living your life normally. Once you lose your friends, you rely on solely each other for happiness and completely lose that independence.

2. Reserve at least one night a week with your friends: Have one night of the week which remains a guys/girls night out without each other. This will make sure you're still doing stuff for yourselves.

3. Don't change your dreams for anyone: If there is something you've wanted to do your entire life, don't let anyone change that. You shouldn't have to give something up that once meant so much to you just because you're in a relationship.
