Cupid's Advice:

Whether you and your partner have shared passions, or they are drastically different, it is important to support each other through all of your endeavors. If you are looking for some ways to support your partner's passions, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Attend their events: Whether it's a sport, art style, or other type of hobby, it is likely that your partner will eventually start attending events centered around their passion. A great way to show your support is to accompany them to these types of events. By cheering your partner on through a race or sitting in the audience of an open-mic, your presence will show your partner that you respect their passion just as much as they do.

2. Ask questions: The best way to show support for a passion you may not completely understand is to ask questions. Your partner is likely aware that you do not share the same passion as them, but by showing you're interested through asking questions, they will still feel supported and appreciated. Show them you want to learn more by getting to know some of the details about what they are passionate about!

3. Celebrate successes: Big or small, it is important to celebrate your partner's successes within their passion. Acknowledge the new milestones they are reaching by buying them a gift or treating them to a night out. These little celebrations will give them the drive they need to continue advancing in their passion while also allowing you to have fun and support them.
