According to UsMagazine.com, though it was all fun and games, Bristowe didn't hesitate to diss her ex in a word association game saying Viall's name negatively in association with "the right reasons." Though it's been years since they've dated, it's clear there's still bad blood even after all this time.

In celebrity news, these exes are clearly not on good terms after their break-up. What are some ways to keep old hurts from your exes from affecting your current life?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard to move on from an ex when you've broken up on bad terms. It's best not to let those old wounds reopen and keep you from living your life. It's not always easy to be friends with your ex, like Kourtney Kardashian is with Scott Disick, but it is possible to prevent that old relationship from holding you back like Khloe Kardashian after her break up with Tristan Thompson. Cupid has some tips:

1. Be comfortable moving on: Sometimes when you're afraid of being alone, you tend to hold on to toxic people. Holding on to exes who are not good for you can lead to being resentful and holding onto bitterness, like Bristowe with her ex Viall.

2. Let go of any possible future together: If you're still holding onto to the idea of you and your ex being together, it stops you from building a life with someone else. It also stops you from growing as a person because you may be stuck in the past.

3. Don't talk about your ex: Don't talk about your ex-partner. Just don't. Talking about them is a sign that you're not over them. If you talk about them, you're thinking about them. If you're thinking about them, you're not moving on. Stop talking about them and you will stop thinking about them and you'll finally move on to better things.

Break-ups are always tough and can be hard to handle. While there is no magic cure to the pain of heartbreak, here are a few ways to embrace single life:

1. Focus on you: There is no better time to spoil yourself and learn about who you are, than when you are single. When you become single, you are flooded with a large amount of free time. This can be overwhelming and disheartening if you don’t know how to fill that time. So, instead, spend this time trying new things and learning about yourself.

Cupid's Advice:

Heartbreak is real, but it comes as a result of realizing the person you're dating just isn't for you. If you're wondering whether or not your partner is a good match, check out some of Cupid's advice below:

1. Differences and similarities: Although they say opposites attract, there is such a thing as too many differences. If it gets to a point where you realize that the differences between you two are starting to take a toll on your relationship (and result in frequent arguments), it might be a sign that you're not the best match. Differences in morals, attitudes, and personalities can be an on-going conflict in relationships, so make sure to pay attention.

2. Comfort level: Ideally, you would like to feel completely comfortable around your significant other, right? But... what if this isn't the case, and you can't imagine yourself ever getting particularly comfortable around them? This would be a cause for concern. Your partner should be someone that never judges you, so if you feel like this isn't the case, it may be something you need to think about.

3. Think forward: Do you see yourself having a future with this person? If you are dating seriously, it's important to think forward about whether or not you think things will last. If they have qualities that you personally don't want in a longterm partner, this could be a sign that you two aren't a great match. Although it's fun to casually date as well, you need to keep in mind what you would like to get out of the relationship.

1. Keep it casual: There's already enough pressure on the first meeting of your boyfriend and your loved ones; don't add to it by planning a fancy dinner or letting your friends interrogate your man with an intense game of 20 questions. Instead, keep it simple with coffee or cocktails and encourage your pals not to grill your beau. They can ask you for all the intimate details afterwards!

1. Stay vulnerable: One of the hardest things you can do is be vulnerable with the person that caused you so much pain. You have most likely already put up walls to try and protect yourself from more pain. But, this is only going to hinder you from actually talking about your true feelings and leaving with closure.

Celebrity News: ‘Bachelor’ Nick Viall Causes Drama After Disastrous Group Date

By Whitney Johnson

On Monday night's episode of The Bachelor, reality TV star Nick Viall and the remaining nine ladies headed to St. Thomas, which frontrunner Raven called "the perfect place to fall in love – and the perfect place to send people home." According to the latest celebrity news on UsMagazine.com, after a successful one-on-one date, the group date took a disastrous turn. None of the six women felt like they were getting enough quality time with Viall, and after a lot of tears, the bachelor deemed the day “pretty much a disaster.” That evening, things continued to go poorly as Viall listened to each woman open up about her feelings and sent Jasmine home on the spot. The only one to actually enjoy this disastrous date? Raven, who got the rose at the end of the night.

This celebrity news has us cringing. What are some ways to keep drama to a minimum in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

This week’s episode of The Bachelor wasn’t easy for Viall: In only three days, he said goodbye to six women! Of course, drama is expected on reality TV, but that doesn’t mean you need it in your own love life. If you’re looking for ways to keep drama to a minimum in your relationship, it starts with you. Consider this love advice:

1. Keep yourself in check: Sure, you want to believe that you’re always rational and calm, but we all get caught up in drama occasionally. Before you lash out and blame your partner, take a look at your recent behavior and make sure you’re not at fault.

2. Communicate your feelings: As much as you may want him to, he can’t read your mind. It’s up to you to tell him what he needs to know. Something to remember: It’s important that you understand your own emotions before you open up to your partner and expect them to understand. Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Break-Out Star Corinne Olympios Opens Up About Nanny & Promiscuous Behavior

By Cortney Moore

It seems like season 21 The Bachelor star Corinne Olympios can't stay out of trouble! The 25-year-old business woman and reality TV personality is making celebrity news once more for her appearance on The Ellen DeGeneres Show. Olympios went on to explain what she meant when spoke of her nanny. "Raquel actually works with my family. She's been with us for 18 years. She moved with us to Florida from New Jersey. She's kind of like my everything," Olympios elaborates. "Nanny is a word that I use for her because I have a lot of respect for her and she's kind of a mother figure for me, so I don't like saying cleaning lady or housekeeper." Nanny Raquel is only one reason why fellow Bachelor contestants have been skeptical of Olympios, but her sexually aggressive attempts to win over Nick Viall have also made the women in the house guarded. When asked why she's done the stuff she has on the show, Olympios says, "That is the real me. It definitely is a real side of me. But there are many other sides to me." And ex-boyfriend Keith Berman agrees that there's more to Olympios that meets the eye. In an interview with UsMagazine.com, Berman said, "They're trying to portray her as some stupid girl, but she's really not that dumb. She knows exactly what she's doing."

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to know that someone wants a relationship with you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Throughout your lifetime, different people will try to woo you into a relationship. Although it's a sweet gesture, not everyone will want to be with you for the right reasons. Let Cupid help you determine which ones want to be with you for honorable reasons, and who to stay clear of:

1. Obsessed with your appearance: Everyone wants to be with someone that finds them attractive, however it can be bad if that's all a person wants you for. Someone who only talks about the way you look doesn't care for you. They just want you as arm candy to boost their ego or make others jealous. Find someone who likes you for you.

2. Doesn't want to be alone: Be careful when you're approached by someone who recently ended a relationship. They may be using you as a rebound without even realizing it. You can give them a chance if you want, but look out for any signs that show they legitimately like you. There's no reason why you have to waste time being with someone who can't handle being single.

3. Only wants that one thing: This seems obvious, but it should still be acknowledged. Someone who only wants to have sex with you is not relationship material. A healthy and functional relationship requires partnership and genuine love. Sure, physical intimacy is important in a relationship, but it shouldn't be the only thing.

Have you ever thought someone wanted to be with you for the wrong reasons? What did you do about it?

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Nick Viall Calls Two-on-One Date with Corinne & Taylor a 'Disaster'

By Whitney Johnson

On Monday night's episode of The Bachelor, reality TV star Nick Viall says his two-on-one date with Corinne and Taylor is "pretty much a disaster." For viewers of this season of ABC's hit reality show, this celebrity news, as reported by UsMagazine.com, shouldn't come as a surprise: The two ladies fought at the end of last week's episode as Taylor questioned Corinne's "emotional intelligence." On their two-on-one date, Corinne, this season's villain, tells Viall that Taylor "emotionally attacked" her, and Taylor later reveals that Corinne lied to him. Talk about drama!

Not many of us can relate to a two-on-one date scenario like in this celebrity news. What are some factors to consider when you're deciding between two potential partners?

Cupid's Advice:

On this season of The Bachelor, fan favorite Viall has to pick between 30 women – what a challenge! Luckily, for those of us not on reality TV, the choice is often between only two potential partners. But what factors should you consider to determine who is the best fit for you? Check out our dating advice below:

1. Compatibility: Physical attraction will only take you so far. Do you enjoy spending time together? Do you share the same values? Do you want the same things out of your relationship? Determine if you're truly compatible before moving forward.

2. Common interests: Sure, opposites attract, but for a long-term partnership, it's equally important to have similar hobbies and passions. If you enjoy spending a lot of your free time outdoors, it'd be difficult to main a relationship with someone who'd rather be on the couch!

3. Compromise: A relationship will never last unless you're both willing to compromise. If you're always going to his favorite restaurant or seeing whatever movie she wants, it may be a sign that you don't belong together. You want to be with someone who will take your needs into consideration and meet you halfway.

up a lot of drama! ways to handle running into a past fling?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward to unexpectedly run into a past fling who you haven't spoken to in a while. Maybe things ended after only one night, or maybe it was a little longer than that. Either way, Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Be direct: You might be in shock, but the best approach is to simply be direct about things. If this person is no longer an interest of yours, tell them. There's no point in skirting around the issue, as it will just prolong the inevitable.

2. Keep it lighthearted: There's no reason to get into a drama filled or heated conversation when your fling with this person was short-lived. Obviously you've both moved on since you had your fun, so making light of things and indulging in just a little small talk before moving on is all that it takes.
