

Celebrity News: Ryan Lochte 'Is Not Looking for a Relationship' During Olympics

By Nicole Caico

Apparently, Olympic swimmer Ryan Lochte's game plan is to stay single. Lochte had everyone guessing about his relationship status as he posted photos of himself and Playboy playmate Kayla Rae Reid. According to EOnline.com, a source commented on the relationship between Lochte and Reid saying, "Ryan was with a Playmate. He didn't meet her on Tinder. He is on Tinder though. He thinks she is hot, that's about it." Looks like there's no celebrity relationship here. Lochte is a single celebrity playing the field.

In celebrity news, it looks like this Olympian is holding off on a serious relationship. What are some ways to tell if someone is relationship-driven or just looking to have fun?

Cupid's Advice:

There is nothing more frustrating than misreading whether someone is looking for a relationship or just looking to have fun. Here are some ways to spare yourself the heartbreak and awkward conversations:

1. Social media: Check the person's Instagram or Snapchat account to get an idea of what they're like. If every picture is with a different girl at a different party, chances are this person is just looking to have fun.

2. Contact: If you meet someone and they keep up conversation after meeting, this may be a sign that they are looking for a relationship. If communication is nonexistent or spotty, chances are the other person is just looking to have fun.

3. Ask: If you know you're just in it for a hook-up or you're in it for the long term, say something. If both of you seem to like each other, it could be worth a shot to ask. If anything, it will save you time and hurt feelings if you clear things up before they get serious.

Cupid's Advice:

Even when you're Selena Gomez, finding good guys is difficult. In order to have a successful relationship, there needs to be some level of compatibility between two people, and to find that you need to attract the right type of people. Cupid has some tips:

1. Know yourself: The first step to attracting people you'd be interested in dating is knowing what kind of people you're looking for. 2. Birds of a feather flock together: Know what type of person you're looking to date, and go to a place where you'd find those type of people. If you're not into partying, don't go looking for your prince charming in a bar. If you're looking to date someone fit, hit the gym. If you're looking to date someone who works hard, consider someone in your work place or someone a co-worker knows.

relationship questions?

Cupid's Advice:

Friends give friends relationship advice. Knowing you have someone to help you navigate relationship issues is one of the best parts of a friendship, but it's also a lot of pressure. You don't want to steer your friend wrong:

1. Know your friend: When giving your friend relationship advice, it is important to remember key things about them. Your job is to serve as their conscience when they're being swayed by emotions. Try to lead them to a decision they'd make on their own.

2. Hands off: Give your friend as much advice as they will listen to, try to protect them, but remember not to smother them. Give the advice you have and then lay off for a while. You want the best for your friend but being overbearing can cause a fight between you two.

It's a celebrity couple Bachelorette engagement! What are some ways to propose in the most romantic way possible?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity engagement was not only heartfelt, but also extremely beautiful. Even if your proposal doesn't have a set designer, there are so many ways to have it be a memorable and romantic moment. Think outside the box to create a memory that will last a lifetime:

1. Just you two: Proposing in front of a lot of people may seem like a romantic move, but nine times out of 10, a one-on-one moment will be much sweeter. You'll have plenty of opportunity for attention after you announce the engagement, so consider proposing in a private setting or with just close friends and family in your audience. Plan a couples' vacation and propose at some point during the trip, or make a meal at home, set the room with flowers, and propose there. Let the moment be just for the two of you.

2. Speak from the heart: Nothing can make a proposal more romantic than letting your true feelings out. Think about what you want to say beforehand. It doesn't have to be written out, but you should know what point you want to make. Talk about your favorite memories, and why you love each other. No matter what setting you're in sweet words will make your proposal romantic, for sure.

3. Keepsake: Whether it's a video or photo documenting the engagement or a memento you used to propose, incorporate a lasting element into your proposal plans. Create a photo album of things you've done together, make a short storybook about your relationship, or simply have someone there to take a picture when you pop the question. Showing that you put a lot of thought into the proposal is super romantic, and having something to look back on after the moment has passed will preserve the romance forever.

Iggy Azalea Clarifies Celebrity Relationship with French Montana

By Nicole Caico

Nothing to see here! After leaving together from Jennifer Lopez's All I Have show at Caesar's Palace, Iggy Azalea and French Montana were rumored to be headed for a celebrity relationship. According to EOnline.com, Azalea silenced dating rumors after the 2016 Maxim Hot 100 party saying, "No, we're [just] collaborating." So it looks like the rappers are not a celebrity couple after all.

Apparently there's no celebrity relationship to be found here. What do you do in the face of relationship rumors involving yourself?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors spread fast, and it when a relationship rumor involves you, only you can shut it down. Here's how to end the rumors before things go too far:

1. Ally: A relationship rumor has to involve you and at least one other person. The first step to successfully shutting down a relationship rumor without hurting feelings is to contact all parties involved and get on the same page. If each person involved is disseminating the message that there is no real relationship, the rumor should die out rather quickly.

2. Use your resources: Giving your most talkative friend all the correct information can almost guarantee that the rumor will get shut down. When people want the gossip, they won't come to you directly; they'll probably chat up your closest friend. Feed your friend the right lines and that information is what people will run with.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Contestant Chase McNary in the Running to Become Next Bachelor

3. Distract from the gossip: If all people are concerned with is your rumored relationship, give them something else to talk about. Make posts on your social media accounts that are about other bigger and better things you've got going on. Hopefully people will start talking about your new job or most recent vacation instead of the supposed relationship drama.

Celebrity News: Josh Groban & Kat Dennings Break Up After 2 Years of Dating

By Nicole Caico

It's the end of the line for Josh Groban and Kat Denning's celebrity relationship. After spending two years as a celebrity couple, the two stars are calling it quits. According to EOnline.com, a source said, "It was a mutual breakup. They are still friends and care about each other, but it's not the right time for them now as a couple." Both Groban and Denning will be busy with projects this coming fall, but there is no doubt it will take some time to recover from the split.

In celebrity news, this duo is no more! How do you know when your relationship is over and it's time to move on?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are never pleasant. Even if it's mutual, like Josh Groban and Kat Denning's, breaking up always leaves someone sad. But, there is a time and place for everything after all, and it's important to know when your relationship is over and it's time to move on:

1. Changed for the worse: You know it's really time to call it quits on your relationship when you've had discussions with your partner and they make no change—or change for the worse. Every person is annoying in their own special way, and in a relationship you learn to deal with the other person. But when you have already had a few heart to hearts about needing more communication or wanting more support, and your other half makes no effort to give that to you, that's a big red flag. It's time to walk away.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Star Michelle Money Reveals Her Teenage Pregnancy

2. Timing: It may sound like an excuse, but if the timing is not right, you may have to call things off. Your career is taking off and his career is, too, but they're taking off in two completely different directions. If you have to sacrifice opportunities or move somewhere, you don't want to or can't afford it may be time to call it quits.

3. Fizzling out: If the thought of spending time with your partner no longer gets you excited, or if you both don't miss each other while you're apart, it could be a sign that your relationship is fizzling out. A dip in chemistry may be no fault of either person involved, but may be a reason to walk away from the relationship to find a new flame somewhere else.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, "When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don't think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don't know if I'm in the same place as you. I don't know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair." Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you've got to let the person know that the feeling isn't mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on "it's not you, it's me" convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don't answer right away—and sometimes don't answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you're interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, "Hey, it seems like you're interested in me, but I'm not looking to date anyone" will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don't apologize—you're just not interested.

Celebrity News: Calvin Harris Hangs with Tinashe After Split from Taylor Swift

By Nicole Caico

The drama between Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift has only just begun winding down, and already there are celebrity dating rumors circulating about Harris and Tinashe. According to EOnline.com, a source said, “They have always kept in touch, but recently more since his breakup with Taylor. Work and feeling healthy is number one for him now. He wants the storm to pass with Taylor before he can even think of dating another woman seriously.” It seems Harris and Tinashe aren’t exactly in a celebrity relationship yet, but Swift is definitely out of the picture.

In celebrity news, it may be time for Calvin to move on from Taylor! How do you know when you’re ready to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Moving on from a relationship can be difficult, especially if you’re like Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift and have a lot of lingering drama. But, change can be a good thing. Cupid has some tips:

1. Looking back: If you can reflect on your past relationship without breaking down, you’re ready to move on. Being able to appreciate the good parts of a past relationship, and being able to acknowledge what you’ve learned from the bad parts means that you have enough emotional distance from the relationship to move on.

According to EOnline.com, the two celebs “attended Jennifer Lopez’s All I Have residency show at Caesar’s Palace together” beforehand.

There may be a new celebrity couple in the works! What are some ways a one night fling can turn into a long-term relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

The number of people you know who ended up engaged because of a one night stand might be a very low number, but that doesn’t mean a hook-up can't turn into a relationship! Here are some ways to turn your one night fling into an every night fling:

1. All about the follow up: Make sure you've got a name and a phone number, and once you, do don't be afraid to use it. Wait a day or two, then text or call your one-night-boo. Let her or he know you had a good time, and make plans to meet up again. If you don't contact your hook-up, there is no way a relationship will form between the two of you.

Wants To Be An HourGlassAngel

By Nicole Caico

If you've heard nothing about waist trainers, that's definitely a surprise! Whether you're a new mom like Chrissy Teigen, or just a woman who desires an hourglass figure like Khloe Kardashian, HourGlassAngel waist trainers are making headlines everywhere.

Product Review Of The HourGlassAngel Waist Trainer

Waist training is one of the hottest new trends, and while it's not a workout supplement, it can help increase fitness results. HourGlassAngel.com sells two types of trainers: one to be worn during workouts and one to be worn daily, for several hours in a row. The waist trainers, or cinchers, come in a variety of colors and designs.

While many celebrities praise the results of the waist trainer, many women are weary because they don't know exactly how they work. "Waist training, by definition, is the practice of wearing a corset or waist cincher regularly to instantly slim your waist, while also supplementing a fitness goal of reducing your natural waist size," explains Ruben Soto, CEO of HourGlassAngel.com. "Some women choose to do it only when working out, because many styles like the Amia Active Band are designed to increase perspiration and maximize any physical activity. Others wear a waist trainer for long hours every day like the Amia Classic Cincher. The more you wear it, the more dramatic the results." Soto also mentions that your waist trainer should feel "snug," but if it is painful or interferes with your breathing, it should be immediately taken off and exchanged for a different size. All trainers need to be worn consistently and paired with healthy diet and exercise to maintain results.

Whether you want to bounce back after having a baby, or just improve your shape overall, investing in an HourGlassAngel waist trainer can help you reach your goal.

This celebrity divorce has been 4 years coming. What are some ways to streamline your divorce proceedings?

Cupid's Advice:

Making the decision to divorce from your partner is difficult enough, but when the divorce process drags on for years, that's about as bad as it gets. Making your divorce as swift a possible subsequently makes it as painless as possible. Cupid has some tips:

1. Stay on top of it: Know what papers you need to have, communicate with your legal team, and show up on all necessary dates. Staying organized and making it to all court dates will eliminate bumps in the road and setbacks.

2. Keep a level head: Letting your anger take control of you and fighting for every last thing in your divorce will undoubtedly slow the process. Try to remain calm, cool, and collected. Know what you absolutely need to get out of the process, but also know what you are willing to compromise on.

3. Be patient: When it comes down to it, you can be 100% on top of your stuff, have a great legal team, and still have a slow divorce. A lot depends on how the other party is handling things. If you're on speaking terms with your ex-to-be, try your hardest to see eye to eye. If not, just be patient during the process—there's only so much you can control.

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how long or short a past relationship lasted, pieces of what happened between you and your ex can bounce around in your mind for a long time after. Don't let side effects from your last relationship spoil something good you have going on now. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Cut ties: If you haven't already, cleanse your life of your ex. Unfollow your ex on social media, block them if necessary, and delete the contact information in your phone. Communicating with your ex, or seeing posts, will keep re-opening your history. In order to keep your past relationship out of your new relationship, follow an "out of sight out of mind" based strategy.

2. No deja vu: Don't bring up the topic of your ex to your new significant other out of the blue. If you're visiting a place you used to go with your ex, try to keep that to yourself. If you're in a fight and your new significant other says or does something that your ex used to do, don't point it out. The moral of the story is, you're in a new relationship with an entirely new person. Your new boo shouldn't have to feel constantly compared to or reminded of the last person you dated.

Courtney Stodden Suffers Miscarriage of Celebrity Baby

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Courtney Stodden and Doug Hutchison are coping with the loss of their unborn celebrity baby. Stodden, 21, recently confirmed that she was expecting in May. According to UsMagazine.com, Stodden's rep put out a statement addressing the miscarriage on July 17, saying, "It is with a heavy heart to inform you that last week Courtney Stodden suffered a heartbreaking miscarriage. Courtney and her husband, Doug, are at an emotional loss for words and are using this time to grieve with their close family and friends.”

Courtney Stodden is broken hearted over the loss of her celebrity baby. What are some ways to support a mother who has experienced loss?

Cupid's Advice:

It is no secret that miscarrying is emotionally traumatic for an expecting mother or couple. Unfortunately, there is no way to change the situation, but supporting a woman or couple going through this experience can make a difference:

1. Share stories: Miscarriages are more common than many people know, and even though many women do not talk about their miscarriages, there is still a stigma. In order to help a mother who has experienced this loss, have other women share their experiences with miscarriages. Whether you read stories online together or have friends and family talk about it, sharing this information should help her realize that her miscarriage is not her fault, and that she is not alone.

2. Don't dwell: It is extremely important to acknowledge and talk about the emotional pain that your friend or family member is going through after this loss, but do not harp on it. Let her start the conversation. You won't know if she is ready to tell you about it, or if she can emotionally handle talking about it, unless she starts the conversation. Constantly revisiting the topic might make her feel worse.

3. Look toward the future: A miscarriage does not mean the end of hope for parenthood. Remind them that this loss is not a failure and that they should continue looking forward.

Remaining competitors Chase, Robby, Jordan, and Luke will have to pull out all the stops in the upcoming hometown dates when JoJo will travel with them to meet their families.

In celebrity news, the hometown dates on The Bachelorette are almost upon us! What are some ways to prepare to meet your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter who you are, meeting your partner's family is probably one of the most nerve wracking things you'll ever have to do. Even if you know that the family who raised the amazing person you're with must be the nicest people on the planet, being nervous comes naturally. First impressions are important, so it's best to prepare as much as you can before meeting your partner's family:

1. The family tree: Before meeting your partner's family, ask your partner some questions about them, especially if you're meeting extended family and not just Mom, Dad, and siblings. Hearing some names beforehand will help you to feel familiar upon arrival, and some background won't hurt either. Who is on what side of the family? What ages are your partners' siblings? Get some info.

2. Contribute: Most people consider showing up to a first meeting with the family empty handed a mistake. First impressions are important, and it's beneficial to be as polite as possible. Bring your significant other's family flowers or a dessert. What you bring does not have to be extremely personal or a gift wrapped present, just bringing something to show you made an effort can go a long way.

3. Take a deep breath: Above all, just be yourself. It is worth it to prepare, but there is only so much you can do. Put on some nice clothes, grab a small gift, review names of family members, and just breathe.

Russell Wilson Reveals 'Best Part' of His Celebrity Wedding Day

By Nicole Caico

Ciara and Seattle Seahawks QB Russell Wilson said “I do” at their celebrity wedding in England last week. According to EOnline.com, Ciara wore a custom Roberto Cavalli Couture by Peter Dundas and there were over 100 guests in attendance. In front of many friends and family members, this celebrity couple took their celebrity relationship to the next level, and Wilson said the best part was “just to see her face and the long train she had. And then Earth, Wind and Fire took the night away.”

This celebrity wedding story has us swooning. What are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration?

Cupid’s Advice:

Take a page out of the Wilson’s book and plan a large wedding celebration. All of their friends and family were in attendance, and yours should be, too. There’s no reason to skimp on your big day, so here are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration:

1. Lower stress: Having a large wedding celebration may sound more stressful, but it just might be less stressful. There is nothing worse than sitting down to make a guest list, deciding it’s too long, and having to cross people off. Chances are if you put the person on the list, you don’t want to cross them off. Planning a large wedding will save you the terrible feeling of crossing a friend off your list, and will also save you and your betrothed many arguments over the number of guests.

2. All the pieces of the puzzle: Whether a large wedding celebration refers to the actual number of people in attendance or just the general grandeur of the event, go big. Plan a budget that is within your means, but also allows you to have everything you want on your big day. Planning a large wedding celebration will ensure that every aspect will be the way you pictured it. You shouldn’t skimp on your guest list, dress, food, or decor if you don’t have to.

3. Party time: If there is no other reason, plan a large wedding celebration because at the end of the day, it's a party! Let loose and celebrate this new chapter in your life with all the people who are important to you. You can't have an awesome party with only 50 people, so just go for it!

By Nicole Caico

On Saturday, July 9, designer Christian Siriano married his fiancé Brad Walsh. The celebrity wedding took place outside in Danbury, Connecticut and was officiated by actress Kristen Johnston. Siriano, season four winner of Project Runway, and his betrothed wore all black and it was requested that guests wore all white. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple had the receptions catered by Certe and Siriano's favorite food, lobster, was among the dishes served.

This celebrity wedding was unique and personalized. What are some ways to personalize your nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

The Siriano-Walsh wedding had tons of style and incorporated so many personal touches. Take a page out of this celebrity couple's book, and personalize your nuptials:

1. Venue: If you're looking to personalize your wedding, start at square one—with the venue. Where you chose to have your wedding can say a lot about you and your betrothed. If you're traditional or religious, you may choose to get married in a place of worship. If you're both outdoorsy, have your ceremony on a beach or in a field. If you're adventurous, plan a destination wedding. Let the setting of your ceremony be the backdrop for who you two are as a couple.

2. Food: Personalizing your food is a basic, but important part of your wedding. If you grew up in a family that is connected to their culture, let it shine through in the cuisine. Whether it's traditional Indian, Chinese, or Italian, your heritage is a big part of who you are, and the food was no doubt a big part of your life growing up. If you want to personalize your food in a more small scale way, consider picking out a custom cake topper.

3. The wedding favor: Aside from photos, the wedding favor may be the longest lasting piece of your wedding. Choose something that will stand the test of time and that reflects your personality. It could be as simple as flower seeds for guests to plant and grow, or a monogrammed bottle opener for guests to use in the future.

Former Celebrity Couple Kate Hudson & Matt Bellamy Reunite for Son's Birthday

By Nicole Caico

On July 9, actress Kate Hudson and her rockstar ex-fiance, Matt Bellamy, joined forces to celebrate their son's fifth birthday. UsMagazine.com reports that the former celebrity couple took their celebrity kids, Ryder (12) and Bing (5), to Palace Theatre in London to see the new Harry Potter and the Cursed Child play. Since calling off their engagement in 2014, Hudson and Bellamy have redefined their celebrity relationship. The two remain amicable for their children and continue to run a joint wine company, Hudson Bellamy Wines.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their differences get in the way! What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for the sake of your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can remain as friendly as Kate Hudson and Matt Bellamy. Remaining civil with an ex isn't easy. You parted ways for a reason, and it definitely wasn't because you just loved each other too much. Though you may want to run in the other direction every time you see your ex, that won't help your children at all. Here are some basic ways to remain civil with your ex:

1. Take responsibility: Chances are that when you split from your ex, some ground rules were laid out—either on your own or in court. Follow them. Do not deviate from the schedule, and be sure to hold up your end of the deal. This will help avoid additional issues and show that you respect your ex's time with your kids.

2. Mind your business: Whether your ex is telling you about a date he or she went on, or your kids are relaying information, if it doesn't have to do with you or your children, stay out of it. You may feel entitled to weigh in, but don't do it. Staying out of your ex's personal life or love life will keep everyone's lives more simple.

3. Play nice: Maybe you two couldn't stand each other at the time of the split, but now that you've parted ways, tensions should die down. Remain polite when dealing with your ex, especially in front of your kids. If you respect each other, say "thank you" when you can, or do a favor here and there. Co-parenting will work out much more nicely.
