This is Snooki's third child, already having a son named Lorenzo (6) and a daughter named Giovanna (4). This celebrity couple announced their pregnancy on Thanksgiving in 2018, and couldn't be more thrilled by their newest arrival!

In celebrity baby news, there's a new fist pumper in the Jersey Shore family! What are some ways to keep the spark in your relationship when you have multiple kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Adding a new bundle of joy to your family is absolutely amazing! While you immediately jump into the parental role 24/7, remember that while you are a parent, you are also a spouse to your partner! Here are some of Cupid's tips to keeping the spark alive in your relationship when you have multiple kids:

1. Make time for yourselves: As much as you love your kids, you have to admit after watching them for hours on end, you leave yourself feeling very drained. Have you and your partner set a day perhaps every other week where you go out on a date or try something new.

2. Start a new hobby together: After having multiple kids, it might seem like your entire lives revolve around them, 24/7. "I'm super excited. We will see." Snooki has also worked to make sure the public knows that her celebrity relationship with Jionni is going strong. "I love him to death," the reality TV star said. "I think people worry because we never take pictures together and post on Instagram. He hates pictures, he hates this fame life. He likes to be quiet and reserved, which humbles me." Snooki adds that she loves her husband to death and he's her best friend; he is just a little shy.

There's no truth to these celebrity divorce rumors! What are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it is beyond our control when negative rumors start to arise in regards to your own relationship. The most important thing to do is stay calm and laugh at the silliness of these rumors. Although, it is important to make sure that this gossip doesn't get into you and your partners heads. Here are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship:

- 1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. Show them that you love them so much and all that matters is that you two know the truth.

2. Be open and honest: As we know, communication is key. Respond quickly. Before the rumors get to a very negative point, communicate the truth to the people you associate with. If you are open and honest in the first place, hopefully rumors won't even begin to occur. Sometimes though, people just honestly enjoy making up stuff. You can only do so much to prevent them.

3. Take the higher moral ground: Even though you and your partner may be upset about these rumors being spread, don't stoop to their level. It may be tempting to begin spreading other rumors because you feel upset that there are rumors being spread about you. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

Should it be coordinated by a specific color? These may be just a couple of questions you have been asking yourself. Cupid has some suggestions to help:

1. Pretty & Pamper: What better way to treat yourself and the ladies than with a nice pampering session? Manicures, pedicures, facials, massages . . . complete bliss! Throw some food, drinks, and a few wedding games in the mix and stamp it as a bridal shower.

JWoww Says Being Pregnant is a 'Struggle'

By April Littleton

Pregnant best friends JWoww and Snooki attended the MTV Movie Awards together. Farley is expecting a baby girl in July with fiancé Roger Mathews. Polizzi is expecting her second child some time in the fall. "I'm not a fan of pregnancy right now, with my thighs touching and my boobs changing, but I know it will be worth it, and hopefully I get back to that really quickly," JWoww told UsMagazine.com.

How do you prepare for your first pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're thinking about getting pregnant, or you're already well on your way to giving birth, there are a few things you should prepare for and consider before you raise a child on your own. Cupid is here to help:

1. Eat the right foods: Help your body prepare for its physical journey by eating all the right foods. No more caffeinated beverages, seafood, canned foods, etc. Stick to eating plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables. When it comes to your source of protein, try to limit yourself to chicken and other lean meats.

You have to be realistic about what you're capable of doing right now at this point in your life. You're not ready for a child if you're not 100 percent sure you can afford to take care of one.

How Celebrity Couples Celebrate Labor Day Weekend

By Whitney Baker

Labor Day weekend is often filled with beach and barbeque, giving people an opportunity for an extra day off before the summer ends. Some celebrity couples like to keep things simple as they spend time together with the sand and the sun, while others add a little glitz and glam to the usual date plans.

In anticipation of the upcoming holiday weekend, let's look back at how the hottest duos in Hollywood celebrated Labor Day last year:

1. Partying in Las Vegas: Stars seem to flock to Sin City for a final summer blowout. Before she was on baby bump watch, Nicole 'Snooki' Polizzi hosted a bash at PURE Nightclub inside Caesar's Palace with then-boyfriend Jionni LaValle. That same night, Carmen Electra and her former fiancé Rob Patterson hosted a party at Nikki Beach in the Tropicana Hotel.

2. Lying Poolside: Other celebrity couples prefer to focus on relaxing and soaking up the last bit of summer sun. Gabrielle Union and Dwayne Wade spent the afternoon at a Miami Pool with Wade's two sons, while Dave and Odette Annable enjoyed some newly-wedded bliss before celebrating their one-year anniversary in October.

3. Saying "I Do": Many celebrity couples choose to tie the knot over this three-day weekend. Last year, Lauren Bush wed David Lauren, son of fashion icon Ralph Lauren, on his private ranch in Telluride, Colorado. Additionally, Mark Ronson, a well-known DJ and the brother of designer Charlotte Ronson and DJ Samantha Ronson, and actress Josephine de la Baume celebrated their wedding with a two-day celebration in Aix de Provence, France. It sounds like the perfect way to mark the end of the summer.

4. Hanging Out with Their Kids: Some Hollywood pairs opt for a more traditional route and enjoy low-key plans with their family. The Malibu Fair and Chili Cookoff was a popular spot last year: Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott took their kids, while Pink and her husband Carey Hart were there with their daughter. Also in Malibu, Nicole Richie and husband Joel Madden spent Labor Day on the beach with their two children.

5. Working: Even celebrities have to show up to work on a holiday once in a while. With the 13th season of Dancing with the Stars underway, many of the dancing duos, including Cheryl Burke and Rob Kardashian as well as Lacey Schwimmer and Chaz Bono, were spotted practicing for the next show. Similarly, Selena Gomez was in Colorado for her 'We Own the Night' tour, keeping her away from boyfriend Justin Bieber.

Newest Jersey Shore Family Member

 By Nicole Weintraub

Nicole Polizzi or rather “Snooki” and her fiancé Jionni LaValle welcomed their son, Lorenzo Dominic LaValle into the world on Sunday morning, according to People. The new parents are doing well, having been anticipating the arrival of the couples’ first born since the announcement of her pregnancy in March. Weighing in at 6 lbs, 5 oz. little Lorenzo will be the youngest addition to the Jersey Shore cast family. Since discovering she was pregnant, Nicole slowed down her fast paced party lifestyle for the sake of preparing for motherhood.

What are some ways to prepare your relationship to welcome a child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Taking the next step in your relationship by welcoming a child can be a BIG change! Here are some ways to be prepared for a new addition to the family:

1. Slow down: Be prepared to take a deep breath and take a step back from your fast paced daily life. Running around and stressing yourself out is not healthy for you or the baby. Children are a large responsibility which means nights that were once spent drinking and partying will be replaced with spending time with your partner and newborn.

2. Do your homework: Nowadays there are so many options when it comes to how you want to deliver your child to which baby formula to use. In order to be fully prepared for the arrival of your child, check out the different options and ask around to get other people's reviews and experiences. You will feel more relaxed if you know what to expect so don't be afraid to ask tons of questions you want the answers to!

3. Discuss the future: This is not only our child but your partner's child as well. Don't be afraid to discuss the future of your relationship and the impending arrival of the baby. Open communication is key to a co-parenting relationship between you and your partner. Ask their thoughts and include them in the decision making process so you don't feel burdened by all that has to be done!

How Snooki Knew Jionni LaValle Was 'The One'

 Nicole "Snooki" Polizzi and Jionni LaValle are expecting their first child together come September, but before the baby came love. The soon-to-be parents have had their good times and bad times, as seen on Jersey Shore, but they have overcome it all because Polizzi believes LaValle is "the one." She tells People, "When people find the one they love, they feel like their spouse is their best friend and their lover. That's how you know you've found your soul-mate, and I've never had that with anyone except Jionni, so I put two and two together and figured he's definitely the one." Although the couple is starting a family a bit before they expected, they are overjoyed to be having a baby boy and look forward to eventually being married.

How do you know when you've found "the one"?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding love doesn't necessarily mean finding "the one," or else we all would have married our high school sweethearts. Here are some ways to tell the difference between your right now and your forever:

1. You are best friends: Sure, you have your girlfriends and he has his guy friends, but there should be a special place in your heart for your partner as not only a lover, but a friend. If your partner is "the one," you should be able to tell them your deepest darkest secrets and let yourself feel vulnerable.

2. You can be yourself: There is nothing worse than pretending to be someone you're not, or your partner expecting you to be something you are not. If you feel comfortable around your partner, can let loose and share your most embarrassing moments with them and still feel the utmost love for one another, you are most likely meant to be.

3. You both want the same things: If you think you have found "the one," but then cannot agree on whether you want kids or not, you may want to rethink your relationship. Find someone who shares your dreams, or at the very least, understands your dreams and wants you to follow them.

How can you tell you are dating "the one?" Tell us below.

Celebrity Couples Who Have Worn Out Their Welcome

By Whitney Baker

There are some celebrity couples that we love to hate. Sure, they annoy us, but we can't help but wonder what they'll do next. And then there are those couples that we want to go away. They're constantly in the news – and often, for the wrong reasons. Thanks to their outlandish behavior, we've forgotten why they're famous in the first place.

From their frisky displays of public affection to their willingness to do anything for attention, these five Hollywood pairs have us wishing that they'd break up already:

1. Heidi Montag and Spencer Pratt: This couple first met when Lauren Conrad introduced them on The Hills, and we've been following their rocky romance ever since. After their reality show ended, the couple strived to stay in the spotlight with their alleged divorce, Montag's multiple plastic surgeries and her fledgling singing career. Most recently, Speidi has attracted attention by contacting their former – and estranged – co-stars through Twitter. These messages were ignored, making us wonder why we don't do the same.

Related: Spencer Pratt and Heidi Montag Lock Lips on a Ski Trip

2. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Although this new couple hasn't yet confirmed their relationship, they're certainly not keeping their feelings for each other under wraps. Taking their love from coast to coast, they've been spotted getting cozy at a restaurant opening in New York City as well as a Los Angeles Lakers game. Kardashian's even made a romantic fashion statement for her new man, sporting 'KW' earrings at numerous public appearances. Given Kardashian's romantic track record, here's to hoping this relationship doesn't surpass the 72-day mark.

3. LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian: Their relationship had a memorable start: the couple met when they co-starred in the Lifetime movie Northern Lights, and they instantly fell for each other; although, both were married at the time. Rimes and Cibrian have never been shy about their relationship, even going on public dates during their extramarital affair. From Rimes' revealing tweets to their constant PDA, it's time for this couple to get a room.

4. Nicole "Snooki" Polizzi and Jionni LaValle: Just when we've grown accustomed to their outrageous behavior on Jersey Shore, Polizzi and LaValle shock us with a big announcement: they're engaged – and expecting a baby! Since promising to change her wild child ways, Polizzi says that her partying days are over and that "pregnancy just made [her] more mature." Still, the star can't help but attract attention, tweeting pictures of her cleavage and belly. When will enough be enough?

5. Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth: The on-again, off-again couple met on the set of The Last Song and quickly took their chemistry off-screen, with Cyrus sharing private details of their relationship through her Twitter account. The former costars recently got engaged, but we're starting to care less and less about their next moves.

Snooki Announces She's Having a Boy

 An excited six-months-pregnant Nicole “Snooki” Polizzi officially announced this week that she and fiancé, Jionni LaValle, will be having a baby boy, according to UsMagazine.com. The Jersey Shore star was thrilled to share her good news, having said in the past, “If it’s a boy, I would dress him like Pauly D.” The newly engaged couple have a lot to look forward to between marriage and parenthood. Choosing not to live in the Jersey Shore house for Season 6 is one of many preparations they will have to make before their first child arrives.

How do you prepare for having a son versus a daughter?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether or not a couple chooses to know the gender of their unborn child is entirely up to them. Some prefer the surprise, while most of the time, people find it easier to prepare for the baby if they know they are expecting a boy or girl. If the doctor tells you those fateful words, “It’s a boy,” here are some things to keep in mind:

1. Blue, blue, blue: You may or may not have been secretly envisioning pretty pink bows and dresses, but tuck those ideas away for the meantime and get ready to see a lot of blue. Luckily, there are plenty of other boy-friendly colors, such as green, yellow, and gray, but those bright pinks and purples are probably out for now.

2. Barbie won't make the cut: You may still have your doll house from when you were a little girl, but unfortunately that's probably not going to be of much interest to a growing baby boy. Toys are relatively universal up to the first year or two, but after that, anything that has wheels or goes fast will be in your son's hands at all times.

3. Father-son bonding: The relationship between father and son is certainly a special one. Every man fantasizes of their first catch together or teaching his little guy to ride a bike. Boys will always be boys, but don't feel like you can't join in on the fun. The rough facade won't be on all the time, and your son will need and want his mommy time just as much.

What major effects has gender had on your new-baby preparations? Share your experiences below.

Snooki Plans to Wear Leopard Print in the Delivery Room

 Nicole 'Snooki' Polizzi may have changed her partying ways due to her pregnancy, but the mom-to-be will still remain true to her popular animal print heavy, self-described 'Guidette' sense of style, even while giving birth. "I want to wear, like, leopard shoes and a leopard gown- like the hospital gowns that they have," the Jersey Shore star told Celebuzz. "I think that would be cute." Apparently, there's no such thing as too much animal print in Polizzi's world. "If it's a boy, it's gonna be maybe something Disney or safari. If I have a girl, it's going to obviously be animal print- zebra, leopard and pink,” the reality star said while speaking of her nursery.

Should you give up being fun and sexy when you're a mom?

Cupid's Advice:

If you were fun and sexy before having a baby, then you definitely shouldn't throw it out of the window now that you're a mom. Here are some reasons why you should remain true to your style:

1. It's who you are: Granted, when you go through a major life experience, such as having a child, you may have to rearrange some things in your life, but if you enjoyed putting on those two coats of mascara, walking in your 5-inch heels and wearing your hair in voluminous curls every day before giving birth; then you should still keep up with it.

2. You're a role model: Even if your little girl obsesses over Selena Gomez, you're still the main person whom she plays 'Monkey-see, monkey-do' with. If she sees that you can work your day job, make the absolute best macaroni and cheese, help with math homework and still take time out of your day to play 'tea party' with her and her stuffed animals, she'll appreciate who you are and will want to be the same way.

3. Confidence is key: Sure, you may have gained a little happy weight during your pregnancy, but don't beat yourself up for it. Take yoga classes or head to the gym with your friends to get your body and confidence to where you want it. Your partner and friends would much rather be around the fun and confident person you were before having your child.

Women Who Are the Breadwinners of Their Celebrity Relationship

✖ The ladies of Generation X were some of the first to trade the domesticity of the housewife for the slacks of Corporate America. Powerful and confident women are sexy, but society hasn't completely caught up with us yet, and it's still uncommon for a female salary to outweigh that of her spouse's. That's where Hollywood comes in with a good message for once, as stunning starlets are throwing off the national average by earning more than their celebrity loves. Below is a list of sexy female celebs empowering themselves through healthy relationships and hefty paychecks:

Women's Upper Hand in Celebrity Relationships

1. Gisele Bundchen: Other than her svelte silhouette and pristine profile, Bundchen impresses with a net worth of $200 million. Her hunky husband Tom Brady is known for his jockey skills on the football field but is only worth $100 million. While both salaries are envy worthy, Bundchen makes far more than the man she shares her bed with. Regardless, this celebrity relationship is picture perfect, and Brady doesn't look at all emasculated by his wife's high salary.

2. Jessica Simpson: We've watched Simpson transform from a young singer and clueless newlywed into a confident entrepreneur. With a net income of $100 million and a shoe line that wracks in over $500 million annually, she would be hard pressed to find a man wealthier than she. Fortunately, she's has found happiness with ex-NFL player Eric Johnson. Though his salary hasn't been reported, he is currently unemployed. Regardless of their paychecks, the two are expecting their first child this year, proving that money is not an issue with this celebrity relationship.

3. Oprah Winfrey: Whether you're an Oprah devotee or totally impartial, there's no denying this woman grabbed life by the reigns when she began her journalism career in the mid 1970's. Forty years and one huge following later, Winfrey is worth a staggering $2.7 billion. Longtime partner Stedman Graham may not make as much, but he isn't loafing off of Winfrey's riches either. As CEO of S. Graham and Associates, Stedman has wracked in an impressive $10 million of his own.

4. Julia Roberts: Roberts, America's Pretty Woman, has a hefty income of $140 million. Her husband, however, Danny Moder, is a camera man. Though his salary has not been reported, it has long been known that Roberts is the money maker in the Moder home. Regardless, after ten years of being a married celebrity couple and having three children, the two have shown that true love trumps any jealousy over income.

Actress Earns More Than Celebrity Love

5. Angelina Jolie: From dominatrix to domestic diva, Jolie is another star we've had the pleasure of watching grow up in front of our eyes. While her days of drinking blood have passed, she continues to make celebrity news by adopting children, working as a humanitarian and starting foundations to help combat poverty. Somehow, this busy mother and activist also has time to star in movies and grosses nearly $150 million. Her equally famous and good-hearted soon-to-be husband Brad Pitt makes only a little less than her at an annual salary of $130 million. These two aren't sitting home comparing paychecks though. Instead, they combine their incomes to help better the world around them.

6. Nicole "Snooki" Polizzi: Outside of partying, tanning and going to the gym, Snooki found her fame by starring on MTV's Jersey Shore. Though her wild antics have made her somewhat infamous, she wasn't downing tequila shots for nothing. At an annual salary of $2 million, the tiny beach bum can at least impress with her bank statements. Fiancé Jionni Lavelle chose a more modest lifestyle and is currently studying to become a teacher. While his salary may never match Polizzi's, the two were able to work past the drama of the shore and are currently expecting a baby.

What are some ways to prepare your life during an unexpected pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're planning to get pregnant and have kids, you already have some idea as to how your life will change. When it's unexpected, however, it can be a shock to your system.

Cupid has some advice:

1. Stop smoking and drinking: This one may be the most obvious course of action when you find out you're pregnant, but it's important to give up things that will harm your growing baby.

Consuming a lot of caffeine is another thing you should avoid.

2. Settle into a stable home: When you're not planning a pregnancy, where you live and what you currently do may not be the best environment to raise a child. You have nine months, so make the most of them.

3. Establish a support system: During an unplanned pregnancy, make sure to lean on those family and friends closest to you.

They can give advice or simply be a shoulder to cry on.

Snooki's Pregnancy: Can You Salvage Your Image?

 By EJ Parfitt

What happens if you have a certain image at work, and then you change that image? If everyone expects you to be a particular type of person, will they still accept you if you are suddenly different? Can you be effective in your job if you alter your personal “brand”?

We all change as we go through life, and in many cases those changes can affect the way people see us on the job. Even someone with a job as unusual as Jersey Shore's Nicole “Snooki” Polizzi has to deal with these issues. Snooki is pregnant, and the question remains as to how that may affect her career as a reality TV star. Here are two ways to look at it:

The Pessimist

If you look at the situation from a negative point of view, being pregnant could destroy Snooki's career. From this viewpoint, Snooki's fame is based on being a wild and crazy party girl who takes the freedom of being single to deliciously tacky extremes. This is what viewers have become used to, and this is what they want to watch. It won't be any fun to see her settle down into motherhood. Pregnancy could ruin Snooki's “brand.”

The Optimist

Though there's no denying the potential ruin of Snooki's career, there's another more positive way to look at the situation as well. It's possible that it's mostly Snooki's personality, rather than her crazy antics, that keeps viewers interested. If that's the case, then Snooki's pregnancy won't stop her from continuing to be a star. If people watch her because they feel they can relate to her, then they will be eager to see what will happen next in this new phase of her life. Her pregnancy and motherhood could even give the show a boost for viewers who were becoming tired of the endless partying.

What's true for Snooki is true for everyone. You don't need to have satellite TV providers beaming your life story across the world in order to think about your personal "brand." The key is to make your brand about the things that will last throughout your lifetime, such as your personality, intelligence and skills, not about the things that will change, such as being young, single and childless.

If your image at work is based on being cute and perky, think about the traits you have that will last over the long haul.

If you're a partier like Snooki or a young rebel, realize that you are likely to make a transition to a calmer and more stable stage of life eventually. Don't put all your career eggs in the basket of who you are right now. Hook people on your long-lasting qualities and abilities, and you'll be able to use life's changes to your advantage. You don't need to be a Guidette to learn this lesson from Snooki.

Tech writer EJ Parfitt has been writing for a short time now and has already picked up steam with several tech and sports sites. During his free time, you're sure to catch him competing in local chess tournaments in downtown Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Deena Cortese Says Snooki Will Be a 'Great Mom'

Since the recent news that Nicole 'Snooki' Polizzi is pregnant, there have been doubts about the party girl's ability to raise a child. According to People, Polizzi's best friend Deena Cortese thinks otherwise, telling Ryan Seacrest Friday on his KIIS-FM morning show, "Nicole is going to be a great mom." Even though Cortese will be losing her party partner, she thinks Snooki will be a natural at raising her baby with fiance, Jionni LaValle. Maybe Snooki's party days really are over as she gets ready to start her new family.

What are some ways to support a friend during a surprise pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes things just ... happen. An unexpected pregnancy can be very difficult to deal with, which is why it's crucial for you to be there for your friend almost every step of the way. Here are some ways for you to give them that support:

1. Get excited: There's nothing you can change now, so you might as well look at it in a positive light. Even though your pregnant friend might not be in the best situation to be having a baby, you can still be happy for them.

2. Help her do some shopping: New baby means new things.

She'll need new maternity clothes as well as baby supplies. By helping her shop, it will be comforting knowing she has you there for her.

3. Stay over for a while: There will be times in the pregnancy when your friend will need all the help she can get. Stay over a couple nights of the week, as she'll know you're there to help her out even with little things around the house.

Snooki is Proposed to With a 5-Carat Ring

 A year ago Nicole "Snooki" Polizzo took boyfriend Jionni LaValle with her to a jewelry store to pick up her birthday present from her dad. What do you do if your partner gives you a ring you dislike?

Cupid's Advice:

Receiving a ring that you don't like is a major problem. After your partner spent a huge amount of money to surprise you, how do you say you don't like it? Cupid has some advice:

1. Fess up: Your first option is to be honest. Speak up and tell your partner you aren't a fan of the ring. If they really care about you, they will understand. Offer to go pick out a different ring together.

2. Drop hints: Things like not wearing your ring or mentioning other rings that you like will definitely make your partner think. However, your sweetheart may be thinking that you don't want to marry them, and not necessarily that you dislike their choice of diamonds.

3. Deal with it: Choosing to never say anything to your partner will leave their feelings unhurt. But, can you live with an engagement ring that you dislike? This is not just a birthday gift you can hide in a drawer; you are going to be wearing your ring every day and proudly showing it off to your friends and family.

but if everything works out, there will be more than enough time for that.
