Finding a new partner is exciting, but it can be hard to tell if you're ready to take the jump into a new relationship. If you're unsure if you're ready to put yourself out there again, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You've learned from the past: You need to learn from your past relationships to have healthy ones moving forward. Celebrity Break-Up: Nikki Bella & John Cena Split Again Two Months After Reconciling

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity break up news, Nikki Bella and John Cena have split again only two months after reconciling and resuming their celebrity engagement. Bella told EOnline.com in a statement, "After I called off the engagement, we tried to work on our relationship to get back to where it was, and in order to move forward with our wedding. After much time and soul-searching alone and together, we have decided to officially part ways. I had a beautiful and loving 6-year relationship with a wonderful man. I have the utmost respect for John, but I know what is best for me.” A source said Bella is doing well and moving on with her life after the breakup. But, Cena has yet to publicly comment on the breakup. This news comes after Bella’s representative said she and Cena were “working on their relationship” after the two initially called off their engagement just over three months ago. The couple began dating in 2012 and their relationship has been documented on Total Divas and Total Bellas.

It looks like John and Nikki are experiencing a celebrity break-up yet again. What are some factors to consider before reconciling with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Are you feeling like you might want to reconcile with an ex? Cupid has some factors for you to consider:

1. Will it last?: Before getting back together with an ex, you want to make sure that the reconciliation will actually last. For Bella and Cena, their reunion was short-lived. Getting back together just to break up again shortly after can cause you more pain than the initial break up did. If you reunite with your ex, make sure you are completely committed to doing so and you are sure things will last for the long term.

2. Have things changed?: You shouldn’t get back together with someone if all the problems that made you two break up are still there. If you choose to reconcile with your ex, all former arguments should be quelled and you two need to have worked through your problems. If a past issue is still present, it's likely to cause more trouble for you further on in your relationship.

3. Are you ready?: It's important you make sure that you are emotionally ready to be in a relationship again after already getting your heartbroken before. Cupid's Advice:

Are you feeling unsure about your upcoming nuptials? Cupid has some red flags that should make you re-think marriage to your partner:

1. You're always fighting: If leading up to the wedding, you and your partner are constantly fighting, then it might be because something in your relationship isn't truly right. Wedding planning is stressful, but it should also be a fun and happy time and you and your beau should be excited, not constantly bickering.

By Haley Lerner

According to EOnline.com, in the latest episode of Total Bellas, the former couple reunited for a candlelit dinner where Cena told Bella, “I wanna marry you and relationship and marriage especially is about sacrifice, and I will make that sacrifice for you. So, I’m also telling you that I’m willing to have surgery and then still go through with being a dad.” Bella was clearly impressed by Cena’s declaration of his commitment, so she leaped across the table and into his arms. I love you and I’ll marry you,” to which Bella agreed. The couple’s reconciliation and baby news comes shortly after Cena made a public plea to win Bella back on the Today show.

It looks like a celebrity baby is definitely in the future for John and Nikki. What are some ways to know your partner will be a good parent?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having a child is a big step to take in a relationship! Cupid has some ways to tell if your partner will be a good parent:

1. Watch them with other kids: The way your partner acts around other children is a great indicator of how good of a parent they will be. If your beau is great at babysitting children of family or friends, it's likely they will be a great parent as well. Your partner should be comfortable around children and be able to have fun with them and keep them safe.

On-Again! Celebrity Couple Nikki Bella & John Cena Are Back Together After Calling

Off Wedding

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, it looks like Nikki Bella and John Cena found their way back to each other. According to UsMagazine.com, almost two months ago Nikki Bella called off her engagement to the WWE star. The deal breaker for the celebrity couple was Cena not wanting children. After six years, the pair split, but once Bella, 34, heard that Cena, 41, wanted to be “the father to her children” on television, five days later the couple were spotted together again. Sources close to the couple say the break ended up helping their celebrity relationship. Sounds like a happy ending for the WWE stars.

It looks like this celebrity couple weren't ready to call it quits after all! What are some ways to decide whether to get back together with your ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

Apparently time does heal wounds. A deal breaker for Nikki Bella turned into the very thing that saved her relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to decide whether to get back with an ex or not:

1. Evaluate: Evaluate the situation. Specifically, what was the straw that broke the camel's back? From there you ask yourself, "can it be fixed?" Sometimes when you stop and assess the situation, you find your answer. It's possible you realize your break up was over something petty and you can move forward. On the other hand, you could also recognize that maybe it's best that you part ways with your ex. While happiness is the goal in a relationship, keep in mind that you both have to be happy. It would be like going the wrong way down a one way street; after you pass the "Do Not Enter" sign, it's on you.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Don't Let Him Be the One Who Got Away

2. Compromise: You have to ask yourself if you are willing to compromise. You should never change for anyone, however, there is nothing wrong with a little negotiating. Stop and figure out where the problem is coming from. Nobody is perfect so maybe a slight tweak on both ends could help. If your partner truly makes you happy and you aren't ready to let them go, discuss a compromise. Cupid encourages you to remember, a compromise is a settlement involving two or more; both sides need to work on things to better the relationship.

Related Links: Relationship Advice: 4 Reasons To Leave The Past In The Past

3. Acceptance: This may be the hardest part of considering going back to an ex. For whatever reason you broke up, the two of you are now communicating about mending your relationship. If everything is a go, remember you are now accepting what has happened in the past and moving forward. It's like that annoying, "Terms and Conditions" box that nobody reads but just hits "accept". If you are not careful, it could come back to hurt you. You are agreeing that you will give this relationship another go. Cupid's only advice with this is to never bring up the past. Cue the "Terms and Conditions" coming back to hurt you.

Cupid's Advice:

It's difficult when the future of your relationship is uncertain. Cupid has some signs that your relationship is on its way out:

1. How you resolve conflict: The way you and your partner fight is honestly a great way of seeing how the rest of your relationship will pan out. To start, you shouldn't be dating someone who you're always fighting with. But, when the inevitable fights do occur, it's important that you and your beau manage the conflict with maturity and respect. If all your fights remain unresolved, your relationship won't survive for long.

2. You want different things: Just like Bella and Cena, having different major desires in life is a big reason many relationships fail. If you and your partner have totally conflicting career paths, interests and life aspirations, then maybe it's time to end your coupling soon.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes spending time together after a break-up is the worst thing you can do, because it prolongs the inevitability of not seeing each other every day. It's important to cut ties completely, at least for a while, allowing you both to move on. Cupid has some tips:

1. Move out: If you are living together, someone has to go. It is never healthy to continue to live with someone you are no longer in a relationship. John and Nikki won't be able to heal if they continue to live together.

In celebrity break-ups, John Cena and Nikki Bella called it quits. What are some reasons to call off your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

Calling off an engagement is rough. Nevertheless, it is better to realize now that it’s not working out rather than later after you’re married. Here are some reasons why you would possibly call off your engagement:

1. You argue all the time and cannot come to an agreement: Relationships have to consist of good communication between partners. If you argue all the time, that is something you can work through. Now, if you argue all the time and just don’t resolve anything, then there is a problem. If this is the case, your issues will likely build up and continue to cause havoc in your relationship.

2. There is no trust: There are times in a relationship where there may be a lack of trust, and many times couples work through it. However, when at the point where you’re engaged, trust should be something that is prominently there. There is no reason why you should not trust the person you are going to marry.

3. There are things you cannot get past: If you're marriage is going to work, you need to have moved on from past mistakes your partner has made. Sometimes we remain in relationships without forgiving our partner for a past discretion. When engaged, the slate should be wiped clean in a way. You are about to start a new chapter in your lives, and if you still have past demons knocking on your door, you may already be a step toward divorce without even being married yet.
