This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to avoid drama after a tough split?

Cupid's Advice:

A break up with a significant other is never easy, especially if it wasn't mutual. While sometimes drama comes with the breakup, it is always possible to sit down and talk with your ex to work out your issues before you go your separate ways so there are no bad feelings residing. Here are a few of Cupid's ways to avoid drama after a tough split:

1. Assess the situation: Sit down with yourself and do a bit of self reflection- what exactly is leading to this break up? How have you reacted to things? How has your partner? Find the root of your worries and think about how you want to address them with your ex, so you can work out those feelings before anything gets out of hand.

2. Leave the past in the past: The past is the past for a reason. Every day you grow into a new and better version of yourself, you are not who people may believe you once were. Focus on the here and now, and who you are today.

3. Stop pleasing others: There is always a reason for every break up. If you decide to split from your partner because it was not right for you to be with them anymore, so be it! You have to do what is best for you and only you, no matter what others may say or think.

Celebrity News: Pamela Anderson Never Talked to Kid Rock Again After Celebrity Divorce

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, actress Pamela Anderson and musician Kid Rock have not spoken since they split. The two had a short-lived marriage in 2006 from July to November, and their celebrity divorce was finalized by 2007, according to UsMagazine.com. Even though the pair had an extravagant yacht wedding, the glue of their relationship didn't seem to hold. Anderson also has two celebrity kids, Brandon Thomas Lee and Dylan Jagger Lee. She shares her sons with her first ex-husband, Tommy Lee.

In celebrity news, Pamela Anderson confessed that she never spoke to her ex Kid Rock again after their divorce. What are some benefits of a clean break when you go through a split?

Cupid's Advice:

It is a struggle to completely cut ties with the person you were just so close to, but sometimes, it is necessary. Prolonging a break-up can serve unfair to both of you. Here are some great things about having the strength to completely cut ties after a split:

1. No wasted time: No time is wasted if it was spent doing what you wanted at the time. But, when you keep in contact with an ex and it is unhealthy for both of you, it can halt the opportunity for you to let go, move on, and find someone new. Be excited for what is to come!

2. More positive energy: It is not fun to have your ex texting you asking about that Instagram photo you just posted with someone new. If you two make a pact to let go and conduct your lives freely, it will be much easier and you will be happier.

3. No possibility of slipping up: We all know that sometimes we fall back into meeting up with our ex for a drink and then end up regretting it. If you have completely cut ties with your ex, this won't happen. Maybe in a few years after the break-up isn't fresh anymore you two run into each other and catch up, but that isn't a bad thing. The good thing about a clean break-up is eliminating the unhealthy interactions that occur right after the split.

He was arrested right away and charged with the murder. However; he pleaded not guilty and was released on $50,000 bail. He died four months later, at age 21 of a heroin overdose, before he could go to trial, and therefore; the NYPD closed the case. Before that occurred, he attempted suicide and slashed his entire arm with a knife. It was reported he did that and then screamed, "I want to be with my Nancy! I want to be left alone!" There are many different theories about the murder, however. Many believe that Vicious did not kill her, and that it was in fact one of their regular drug dealers. Sid Vicious had his ashes scattered over Nancy's grave, on top of the snow, by his mother. Sid Vicious had written a poem titled "Nancy" before he died. It read, "You were my little baby girl/ And I knew all your fears/ Such joy to hold you in my arms/ And kiss away your tears/ But now you're gone/ There's only pain/ And nothing I can do/ And I don't want to live this life/ If I can't live for you."

Expert Dating Advice: Should You Give Your Ex a Second Chance?

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

In the latest celebrity news, actress Pamela Anderson recently announced that her celebrity divorce to two-time husband, Rick Salomon, was final. In retrospect, she realized she never should have traveled down that path a second time. In contrast, my aunt Marie Osmond reunited with and remarried her first husband, Stephen Craig, 26 years after they divorced. This celebrity couple is fantastic together, and I'm thrilled to see them back together. As Uncle Donny stated in People.com, "These two people are right for each other."

Deciding whether or not your ex is the ultimate soul mate for you can be a complicated decision, and it's one that requires some soul-searching. Six percent of people remarry their former spouse, and sometimes, it results in happiness, while other times, the old problems flare up again. As a relationship expert, I think the wisdom behind that decision largely depends on what caused the marriage to break up in the first place and what changes are happening now. My expert dating advice would be to consider these three reasons for remarrying your spouse and these three reasons to move on:

Expert Dating Advice For Giving Your Ex a Second Chance

1. You're able to forgive each other: What was once considered a deal breaker to your marriage may take on a different look as time passes. In her Huffington Post article, "Remarrying Your Ex-Spouse," author Lois Tarter believes the ability to forgive comes with time, stating, "If the two ex-spouses worked on themselves while apart and they are in a better place, they may be able to forgive their spouse for all that went wrong."

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice For Finding Love After Divorce

2. Bad timing caused the break-up: Could it be the right guy came along at the wrong moment? If so, follow my expert dating advice and look at the personal growth of both of you during the time apart. "Sometimes, two people feel that they need to grow a bit on their own in order to be fully committed to a marriage," wrote Tarter.

3. The problem wasn't the marriage: In some cases, it was the baggage that was brought into a marriage that cast a destructive shade on the relationship and love. Rachel Clark, who blogs for Psychology.com as "Marry, Divorce, Reconcile," refers to her own experience when she writes, "It was never the marriage. It was a habit of thinking that questioned and doubted, that spawned negativity instead of positivity. And I can say that came from my childhood because my own parents had divorced."

Relationship Expert Gives Reasons to Move On

1. Toxic behavior is ruining the relationship: As we witnessed with Anderson, a failure to acknowledge the effects of unhealthy behaviors can doom a relationship and love. It's like opening the refrigerator door, hoping to find something to eat, not finding anything, and closing the door, only to open it again a few seconds later in the hopes that something new appeared. That type of thinking is irrational, and so is thinking the same negative behavior patterns will not have an adverse effect on you as they once did.

Related Link: Romantic Relationship Advice: From Roadkill to Recommitment

2. You are remarrying for the wrong reasons: Contrary to most Disney movies, remarrying your ex-spouse for the sake of the children, the grandparents, to save the family farm, or any reason that lies outside of genuine love for this person is sure to end in disaster for the second time.

3. Your ex-spouse has moved on: If your former spouse has invested his time and affections into another, your time speculating what could have been is over. "Life would be so much easier for everyone involved if our feelings of desire, love, and attachment were reciprocated," was an opinion shared on truthaboutdeception.com. “But more often than not, these basic emotions do not align themselves that way.”

By taking an honest look at the reasons behind your split, you may be facing an opportunity to make right what went wrong long ago. Or you may be proud of your ability to escape a destructive relationship that left your heart as empty as your checking account. Either way, toying with the prospect enables you to confirm your choices and feel good about what is to come.

Pamela Anderson Says ‘Marriage Has Its Ups to Downs’

By Amanda Boyer

According to Pamela Anderson, any real marriage has its ups and downs. Since her 2007 marriage, annulment and then re-marriage, she has sure been riding the relationship rollercoaster. Anderson filed for divorce last July, but recently told the judge to throw the case out. According to People, Anderson thinks she and Rick Salomon are doing fine as a couple, and she is looking forward to the future.

What are three different ways to work on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Having some marriage troubles? For some ways to get past those obstacles, Cupid has some tips:

1. Talk it out: if there is a problem or you feel as if you are not being heard, speak up! Don't let things build up, or you'll no doubt eventually let something litter spark a huge fight. Talking things out will help you and your partner stick to the same page.

Pamela Anderson Calls off Divorce from Rick Salomon

By Kaley Allard

Pamela Anderson just cannot make up her mind! The blonde bombshell called off her divorce to second time husband, Rick Salomon. Originally reported by UsMagazine.com, according to court records obtained from LA Superior Court, Anderson petitioned to end the divorce on August 21st. But how long will this last? A well connected source told Us that Anderson is “staying with him for now because she doesn’t have the heart to hurt him.”

How do you know when you’re ready to call it quits on your marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

Deciding to call it quits on your marriage is a difficult decision and one that should not be taken lightly. Not only are there legal and monetary implications, there could also be emotional damage if in the end you realize you made the wrong decision. Here are signs to help you decide if it is really time to call it quits:

1. Love lost: After being with the same person for a long time you may realize that you no longer feel the same way about them. The reality that you no longer love your spouse is sad, but it happens more than you think. While the spark may die down once life gets in the way, if you have not felt the spark and you cannot find it anywhere, maybe it is time to do what is best for both of you and move on.

2. Don't get along: Are you and your spouse constantly fighting? Or do you not even talk to one another anymore? Whatever the case may be, these are most likely signs that the two of you have underlying issues that need to be hammered out. As cliché as it sounds try going to see a therapist and if that does not work maybe it is truly time to pull the plug on your relationship.

3. People change: Whether you rushed into your marriage or you knew each other for 10 years before you tied the knot, it is possible that since that time you and/or your partner have changed. It may be that you have grown in your maturity or the goals you once had have now changed. Sit down with your partner and decide whether or not you are both still on the same path in life.

Pamela Anderson and Rick Salomon: Filed for Divorce Again

By Laura Seaman

Second time isn't the charm! It seems like this couple just wasn't meant to be, as Pamela Anderson and Rick Salomon recently split up yet again. The couple has been married twice, with the first marriage ending in 2008 only months after the wedding. According to UsMagazine.com, they were then spotted together on the beach in 2013. "It's recycling," Anderson joked, then saying "No, I'm very happy. We're happy. He's a great guy." The couple secretly got remarried, but are now filing for divorce for the second time in their on-again-off-again relationship.

What are some things to learn from an on-and-off relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

On-and-off relationships can go one of a few ways: They could constantly follow the pattern and you'll never truly have a stable relationship, the cycle breaks and you decide to really dedicate yourselves to the relationship, or the cycle breaks and you decide to part ways for good. No matter how your rocky relationship ends, here are some things to learn from it:

1. Be happy by yourself. Maybe you went back to your ex because you didn't like being single. It can be a big change if you've been in a lot of relationships or your previous one lasted a long time, but it's a change you have to deal with. You can't be happy with someone else until you're happy with yourself, so learn to be happy and single before considering your ex (or anyone else) again.

Related: Q&A: Should I Delete or Unfriend my Exes on Social Networks?

2. Get some impulse control. Sometimes you might get the urge to text or call your ex 'just to chat', or to check their Facebook page to see how they're doing. Resist the urge and distract yourself. If you give in to these nagging wants, you'll only pull yourself back into the relationship without fully being out of it and having a clear head.

Related: How to Recover from a Hurtful Split

3. Make some changes. If you had certain routines with your partner or had your schedule revolving around them, it might be difficult to get used to life without them. This can add to the pressure of wanting to get back together, but if you make some changes and live your life more like you want to, the pressure will slowly drift away.

Celebrity News: Celebrities In Trouble with the IRS

By Whitney Baker Johnson

Everybody dreads tax season – and celebrities are no different. Sure, it's a huge pain to gather all of your receipts and organize your files, but it's even worse if you owe money to Uncle Sam. Of course, you can always ignore that looming deadline and file late, although some people take this extension for granted. Many folks – famous or not – try to avoid payment for years, resulting in millions of dollars owed. Let's take a look at a few celebrities who have gotten in trouble with the government.

1. Nicolas Cage: It's no secret that Cage makes a lot of moola. It's estimated that the movie star brought in over 40 million dollars in 2009 alone. Still, he managed to blow every penny – and then some. By 2010, he owed the IRS around 14 million dollars. At the time, he owned 15 houses, four yachts and a Gulfstream jet. Ultimately, the bank repossessed his home in Bel Air, and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) auctioned off a few more. He's now living a modest life in Las Vegas and still paying off his debt. Lesson learned!

2. Ozzy and Sharon Osbourne: In 2011, it was reported that this Tinseltown twosome owed more than 1.7 million dollars in back taxes. Fortunately, the couple acted immediately and paid off their debt only a few days later. Sharon even released a statement saying that she hoped “none of this reflected negatively” on their moral character. Good for them!

3. Wesley Snipes: Poor guy ended up in jail for his tax debt! He received a three-year sentence for tax evasion and owed over two million dollars to the IRS. Unlucky for him, he spent his 50th birthday in a minimum security Pennsylvania prison last August.

4. Lindsay Lohan: This girl just can't stay out of the tabloids. In December 2012, it was reported that Lohan's bank accounts were frozen until she paid off her debt of over 230 thousand dollars. Allegedly, she owes taxes from as far back as 2009. Given that she's already facing court cases on both coasts, let's hope she gets this situation taken care of before she ends up in any more trouble.

What are some ways to keep dating from being a distraction?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes it’s hard to be truly dedicated to something when you’re in a relationship. That shouldn’t stop you from doing either: it’s all about balancing your time. Here are some ways to keep dating from being a distraction in your life:

1. Don't change your daily routine: If you have been keeping a normal routine and are working towards a certain goal, be sure not to mess that up. Make your routine something you can't change or stop doing, and let your beau work around your schedule.

2. Make sure your partner is equally motivated: If you're dating someone who lies around all day doing nothing, it's easy to be distracted. You should date someone who is equally busy so you can both be on the same schedule.

3. Make sure they support you: As long as you date someone who is committed to supporting what you are doing, and pushes you to continue doing it, then there's no harm in that. You want someone who understands that you're dedicated and praises you for that.

Celebrity Weddings: 5 Famous Couples That Said 'I Do' in Vegas

By Katanya Royster

What's the first thing you think of when someone says Sin City? Okay, after legalized prostitution. That's right: quickie Vegas weddings in chapels illuminated with neon lights. The fact is, Las Vegas issues approximately 100,000 marriage licenses each year and boasts almost as many wedding chapels as it does casinos. For famous couples, those quickie celebrity weddings are typically followed by quickie divorces and embarrassing publicity. Vegas' abundance of 24-hour bars makes us wonder if some of our favorite celebs were under the influence of something other than love when they tied the knot, Vegas-style. Here are a few examples:

Famous Couples That Married in Vegas

1. Kelly Ripa and Mark Consuelos: In 1996, former soap star and current television host Kelly Ripa married actor Mark Consuelos at the Chapel of the Bells in Las Vegas. Sixteen years and three children later, this happy married celebrity couple proves Vegas weddings can sometimes stick!

2. Angelina Jolie and Billy Bob Thornton: In 2000, actress Angelina Jolie and actor/writer Billy Bob Thornton wed at The Little Church of the West on the Las Vegas Strip. The famous couple called it quits after two years of marriage with Jolie petitioning for divorce, citing “irreconcilable differences.” It was Jolie’s second marriage and Thornton’s fifth.

3. Britney Spears and Jason Alexander: In 2004, pop star Britney Spears wed longtime friend Jason Alexander at a 24-hour wedding chapel. Apparently, Spears forgot to grab a pre-nup on the way to the chapel. meaning that this stunt could have cost her a lot more than a little public backlash. 55 hours later, Alexander signed annulment papers and took an economy class flight home. During a subsequent interview with MTV’s Total Request Live, Spears said Vegas “took her over” and admitted that “things got out of hand.”

4. Pamela Anderson and Rick Salomon: In 2007, Rick Salomon, who famously co-starred in the leaked Paris Hilton sex tape One Night in Paris, and actress Pamela Anderson tied the proverbial knot at Las Vegas’ Mirage Hotel, making this the third celebrity marriage for both Salomon and Anderson. However, Salomon and Anderson’s 15-year friendship did not translate into a successful union. Two months later, the famous couple’s marriage was annulled in Los Angeles County Superior Court.

Celebrity Love Has No Age Limit

5. Doug Hutchison and Courtney Stodden: In 2011, actor Doug Hutchison married aspiring singer Courtney Stodden at Las Vegas' Little Chapel of Flowers. The groom was 51 years old, and, at only 16, the bride was probably still learning to operate a motor vehicle. Despite Stodden's age, the celebrity marriage is legal. Under Nevada law, a person who is at least 16 years of age but is not yet 18 years old can marry with parental consent – and Stodden's parents consented to the marriage. "We all need a good man in our lives," her mom Krista told Fox411.com. "True love can be ageless," Hutchinson told E! News in response to the controversy surrounding the celebrity couples' age difference.
