

Holly Madison And Husband Pasquale Celebrate Wedding Anniversary in Disneyland

By Sarah Batcheller

UsMagazine.com has reported that Holly Madison, husband Pasquale Rotella, and their daughter, Rainbow Aurora, returned to Disneyland this week, where the couple was married, to celebrate their wedding anniversary. Madison says that since the couple both love Disney, it wasn't cheesy, and she posted various pictures on Instagram of the family having fun, with the clever caption, "Returned to the scene of the crime..."

What are some out-of-the-box ideas to celebrate your wedding anniversary?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding anniversary is monumental, so why not make the occasion a unique one to remember? Your spouse is so special to you that you should do something equally as special to celebrate the fact that your love and hard work have groomed an unbreakable marriage. Here are Cupid's out-of-the-box wedding anniversary ideas:

1. Go sailing: The horizon is limitless, you're withstanding rough water, you're together without anyone else in sight, it's all pretty metaphorical! Sailing is a great getaway because you're leaving your natural element to explore something mystifying and a little dangerous. Who better to undergo such an adventure with than your one-and-only? And what better occasion than the celebration of the day you were joined in holy matrimony?

2. Write letters a year in advance, every year: On each anniversary, write letters to each other to be exchanged at the next anniversary. Reflecting on the past is just as important as planning for the future, and there's no better way to do this than to remind each other of how everlasting your love is. Every year you'll be reminded of the time that has just passed, and what started it all- your wedding!

3. Travel: Each year, choose a new place, either abroad or within the country, to visit for the first time. Every new destination represents the milestone in your marriage. Because marriage itself is a journey, choose to go on actual journeys each year. A road trip or plane ride also provides a good amount of quality time to be spent together with nothing to do but talk, laugh, and enjoy each other's company.

Holly Madison Says 'It Feels Wonderful' to Be Married

By April Littleton

According to People, Holly Madison is in love with the married life even though her marriage is less than a week old. "Feels wonderful to finally be married," she tweeted Saturday, along with pictures of her husband, Pasquale Rotella. The newlyweds are parents to daughter, Rainbow, 6 months, and tied the knot at California's Disneyland September 10.

What are some differences to being married versus in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Many people don't see the difference between being in a relationship versus a marriage. Yes, both deal with commitment, but once you choose to marry someone, you're telling the whole world you're willing to give your all to make the special connection the two of you have together last forever. Cupid has advice:

1. Dedication: Once you're married, you're committing to a lifelong relationship. When you're just dating around, the bond you have with another individual can easily be broken or simply fade away. There's no escape routes with marriage. (besides divorce, but who wants that?) Exchanging vows with someone takes maturity and dedication, while dating only requires a physical attraction to someone.

2. Benefits: One of the more obvious reasons is based on what you can and can't get out of your romantic situation. When you're married, you can indulge in some special privileges such as joint bank accounts, tax benefits etc. If something were ever to happen to your boyfriend/girlfriend, you would have no legal authority over anything. It might feel like the two of you are already married, but the law says otherwise.

3. Living together instead of shacking up: Depending on who you talk to, an unmarried couple living under the same roof isn't exactly socially accepted. More and more couples are "shacking up" before they decide to tie the knot, but that doesn't mean the old-fashioned crowd isn't frowning down upon it.

Holly Madison Ties the Knot with Pasquale Rotella

By Kristyn Schwiep and Whitney Johnson

As People reported earlier this week, E! reality star and Girl Next Door Holly Madison's fairy tale has finally come true. The former fiancée of Hugh Hefner married Pasquale Rotella – “the man of my dreams,” according to Madison – on Tuesday at Disneyland before 150 guests, including costar Bridget Marquardt and Playboy model Lara Croft. The couple, who have been dating since 2011 and welcomed daughter Rainbow Aurora in March, got engaged in June when Rotella proposed with an 18-carat yellow diamond ring atop a Ferris wheel.

What are some perks to getting married at Disneyland or Disney World?

Cupid's Advice:

Many brides want to feel like Cinderella on their wedding day, and getting married at Disneyland or Disney World can truly make their big day perfect. If you're considering getting hitched at one of these amusement parks, Cupid has three reasons why it might be the right choice for you:

1. A wedding planner is included: Don't want to stress about planning your wedding? If you get married at a Disney theme park, they do most of the planning for you. The music, the decor, and the catering is all taken care of by the amazing staff, so you can sit back and just enjoy this blissful time in your life.

2. Your guests are sure to have fun: If you're planning on inviting little ones to your celebration, Disney World or Disneyland are perfect options to for a destination wedding because it's a fun place for kids and adults of all ages. The children will be entertained, while the grown-ups will get to relive their childhood.

3. It'll make tying the knot even more unforgettable: Getting married at one of these amusement parks will give you memories of a lifetime. After all, Disneyland and Disney World are two of the happiest places on earth!

Celebrity Couple Holly Madison & Pasquale Rotella Are Engaged

By Marisa Spano

For Holly Madison, first comes the baby and next comes her marriage. Just three months after welcoming her daughter Rainbow Aurora, Madison announced that she is ready to wed her boyfriend Pasquale Rotella, according to UsMagazine.com. She wrote in her blog that her husband proposed to her at the top of the Ferris Wheel at EDC Las Vegas.

What are some creative ways to propose at an amusement park?

Cupid's Advice:

Theme parks are made so people can have fun. If you want your marriage proposal to be something neither of you will ever forget, an amusement park location might be just the ticket. Cupid has some tips:

- 1. Ferris wheel: Why not copy Holly and her soon-to-be hubby and propose on top of a ferris wheel? It's very romantic as you look out over the rest of the theme park. Perhaps do it at night when lights will be twinkling below.
- 2. Speakers: Arrange to have the amusement park pop the question over their loud speakers.
- 3. Scavenger hunt: Send your sweetie all over the park on a wild scavenger hunt. At the last stop leave an envelope, with the question inside.

Celebrity News: Holly Madison's Fiancé Is Facing Prison Time for Embezzlement

By Kerri Sheehan

According to UsMagazine.com Pasquale Rotella, fiancé of former Playboy Bunny, Holly Madison, is facing at least 13 years behind bars for counts of bribery, embezzlement, conspiracy, and conflict of interest. The couple has a three-month-old daughter together- Rainbow. So far Madison has not commented on Rotella's potential arrest.

What do you do if your partner is in trouble with the law?

Cupid's Advice:

The law is not something to mess with, so treading lightly when your other half is in trouble is important. Cupid has some advice:

1. Look at the big picture: Your reaction to potential jail time will depend on the severity crime. For charges such as Rotella's it's clear that Madison and her daughter are not in imminent danger as Rotella's crime is not of the violent nature.

2. Support them: Facing jail time is obviously a scary notion. Sometimes just being there for your partner is the best gift you can give them. Let them know that you're in it for the long haul so the state of your relationship doesn't add additional stressors to the mix.

3. Stay quiet: Opening your mouth and saying the wrong thing can dig an even deeper grave for your partner. Don't talk about things that you don't know definite answers to and never speak of the crime in question without a lawyer present.

Celebrity Mom: Holly Madison Discusses Baby Names – Right Before She Heads to the Hospital!

By Whitney Baker

Holly Madison first stole our hearts as Hugh Hefner's number one bunny on E!'s reality show Girls Next Door. Since the show ended in 2010, Madison has made quite a name for herself, appearing on the eighth season of Dancing with the Stars, headlining Peepshow at Planet Hollywood in Las Vegas and starring in her own television show, Holly's World. Of course, in recent months, her focus has shifted: in August 2012, she announced that she was expecting her first child with boyfriend Pasquale Rotella.

"I've finally met the man of my dreams and am ecstatic to be starting a family," Madison shared. "But I'm really grateful that I had several years of working hard as a single woman before diving into being a mom. I feel like I needed that for my identity."

The Playboy model and husband Rotella, a club promoter, have been prepping for their daughter's fast-approaching arrival, and the mom-to-be has been sharing her pregnancy experience with fans via her blog and Twitter. As open as she's been, there's one thing that the couple is keeping under wraps: the baby's unique name. "We have a pretty unusual name picked out. So unusual that we aren't telling anyone what it is until the deed is done!"

In the past few weeks, pregnancy has certainly slowed Madison down a bit. "I've started getting a little uncomfortable – it's hard to even reach my feet to tie my shoes!" she said. "I've kind of been in nesting and hibernating mode."

Still, she continues to make headlines. Just last week, Madison revealed that she plans to ingest her placenta after the birth of her little girl. When asked about her decision to do so, the reality star said, "A baby nurse I met with suggested I have my placenta made into pills because it can help prevent postpartum depression. I figured why not! It can't be bad for me."

As busy as they've been in anticipation of their baby's due date (tomorrow!), Madison and Rotella have still made time to focus on their relationship. "I feel like we're getting to know each other because we've only been together for a little over a year," the Vegas performer said. "We're learning so much about each other just from trying to agree on little things when it comes to renovating our new home, so I can only imagine what we will learn from raising our daughter."

Madison has already learned a thing or two from her pregnancy. "My only advice so far is to let yourself know that it's okay to not be quite as ambitious as you were before you were pregnant," she explained. "Creating a child is a huge responsibility, and you have to make time for that, maybe sacrifice some things that don't fit into your life anymore."

As for her relationship with Rotella, Madison thinks that communication is most important when it comes to keeping the romance alive. “Sometimes, other people don’t understand how uncomfortable pregnancy can be, how occupied your mind can get and how you just don’t feel sexy. You don’t want your significant other to get the wrong idea and assume you aren’t attracted to him anymore.”

“Our relationship is great,” she adds.

So great, in fact, that Madison has started to plan their wedding. “I’m trying to secure a really unique and special venue and choose a date. I’m hoping for some time in August.”

As excited as she is to become both wife and a mom, there’s one thing that Madison is still figuring out. How will she tell her baby about her life as a Playboy Playmate? “I’ll be really honest with her and let her know that it wasn’t all unicorns and rainbows like you see on television,” she shared. “You kind of have to be damaged and have low self-esteem to put yourself in a situation like that.”

So what’s next for the soon-to-be mom? “Besides learning how to be a mom and getting back into shape, I would love to return to the stage – but in a musical this time. I’ve been concentrating on my singing lessons during my pregnancy.” Given her impressive career, we’re confident that Madison will excel at whatever she does next – especially when it comes to raising her little girl.
