

The Exciting World of Celebrity Engagements and Weddings

Members of the general public are fascinated by the love lives of their favorite celebrities. They adore hearing about movie stars and their engagements. They love getting news about musicians, athletes, models and media personalities who are planning glitzy wedding festivities, too. Famous people are often stealthy and protective about their love lives at first. They don't want the media finding out about their plans and perhaps even ruining them. They like to hold on to the small amounts of privacy they can manage.

Many different components go into celebrity romances in the modern age. Find out more!

Some celebrities take to social media platforms to inform the public of their engagements. Other celebrities choose to take a more mysterious route. People often hear about massive celebrity weddings after the fact. It isn't unusual to hear about film stars who elope in different nations. It isn't uncommon to hear about television stars who get married in lavish ceremonies on the beach, in the mountains, all the way across the ocean in Italy and perhaps even at city hall with no one around.

Rings are a big part of the culture of a celebrity marriage. This isn't a surprise. It can be fascinating to stare at engagement rings. It can be just as riveting to look at wedding rings. People can't wait to see the enormous "rocks" on celebrity fingers. These rings often cost celebrities pretty pennies, too. People who look online and in magazines often see close-up pictures showcasing these rings from every angle possible. It doesn't matter if it's a chic black engagement ring with diamonds; it doesn't matter if it's contemporary or classic. People want to see the ring that Pete Davidson got for Ariana Grande. They want to see what Prince Harry and Meghan Markle have.

Engaged couples of all kinds regularly hire professional wedding planners to assist them with their big days. Celebrity weddings are often high-end affairs with impressive guest lists, stunning surroundings, and high-end design components. That's the reason that it makes complete sense for celebrities to recruit professional assistance. It's not exactly a small feat to put together a successful wedding for an individual who is in the public eye. It can be particularly tough to orchestrate a strong wedding for two famous people. Celebrities tend to work with wedding planners who have amazing track records and well-known client bases. These professionals are often based in large cities like Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, and London.

Wedding planners for celebrities often have difficult jobs on their plates. They have to select the ideal venues, first and foremost. Celebrities are like anyone else in that they can be rather fussy about the venue selection process. Some celebrities prefer the idea of venues that are comparatively intimate and small. Others like the concept of venues that are larger than life. Celebrity wedding planners have to strike a delicate balance. They have to be able to locate venues that are simultaneously “deluxe” and private. Fortunately, there are venues all over the planet that fit this description. Some celebrity couples tie the knot inside of rustic farmhouses that are located in picturesque New England. Others kick off married life in five-star hotels situated in the heart of energetic Manhattan. There are always many interesting choices accessible to diligent wedding planners.

Food is a major part of any wedding. Wedding planners for celebrities naturally have to make arrangements that pertain to menus. There are quite a few credible and widely known catering businesses that are suitable for five-star weddings. They specialize in all kinds of cuisines, too. A celebrity affair may include main dishes from France, Italy, Mexico, India or Japan. It may include appetizers from Thailand, Sweden, Peru, and Germany, as well. Highly regarded event catering businesses serve everything from Cajun to Chinese delights.

Peace is a rare thing for many people who are in the public eye. That’s the reason that some of the most prominent celebrities are so protective about their engagement and wedding plans. Some celebrities refuse to reveal their plans with regard to their honeymoons. People often have to speculate about their trips. The media made a lot of guesses that related to the honeymoon schedule for Prince Harry and Meghan. They didn't depart for their honeymoon immediately after marrying.

Planning a beautiful and private celebrity wedding does take a lot of arranging, but when planned correctly, it is an amazing time for them and a time for the rest of us to dream about their special day.

ways to keep family drama out of your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as your big day is, planning it can often be stressful because of family drama. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep family drama out of your big day:

1. Plan smart: The most proactive way to eliminate any possible problems on your big day is to plan ahead. If Uncle Louie doesn't like his ex wife, don't have them sit near each other. While you can't control who will sit near who during the ceremony, the reception is easily where you have more of a handle on what happens. Although it is your big day and you want to enjoy it the way you want, sometimes you have to bite the bullet and compromise on some things. It's safe to say you rather get to have a wedding with family rather than a wedding turned WWE Smackdown match.

2. Set everyone straight: An aggressive yet proactive way to deal with family drama spilling onto your big day is to simply address it. Let your family know that you will not tolerate any issues on your big day. With emotions running high during a day like a wedding, it is important to speak to anybody who may pose a threat to your big day. Remember keep it short, sweet and respectful. Sometimes people need to be reminded that it's YOUR day and not theirs.

3. Be prepared: Not only mentally, but physically prepare yourself. It may sound negative but depending how much drama you have, you may need to prepare for the worst. As funny as it sounds, it may help to even ask a few trustworthy people to help out incase any unforeseen issues arise. It is your big day and sometimes there are those few that don't remember that. With this, you can keep it mostly to yourself and be able to deal with it without interrupting your festivities.

Why Celebrity Couple Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Ignoring Royal Rules

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Prince Harry and Meghan Markle are apparently ignoring some big royal rules. A source told People that Meghan “has found certain rules in the royal household difficult to understand, like the fact that the Queen prefers women in dresses or skirts rather than trouser suits, and is often asking Harry why things have to be done a certain way. I think she finds it a little frustrating at times, but this is her new life, and she has to deal with it.” It appears Meghan is willing to challenge some of the rules of the monarchy, such as public displays of affection. According to EOnline.com, Meghan held on tightly to Harry when they made their first public appearance at the 2017 Invictus Games. Meghan has also made it clear she’s not afraid to voice her political opinions, proclaiming that she is proud to be a woman and a feminist on her page of the official British monarchy website. She also voiced her opinions at the first-ever Royal Foundation Forum this past winter, “I hear a lot of people speaking about girls’ empowerment and women’s empowerment; you will hear people saying they are helping women find their voices. I fundamentally disagree with that because women don't need to find their voices, they need to be empowered to use it and people need to be urged to listen. I think right now in the climate we're seeing with so many campaigns, with #MeToo and Time's Up, there's no better time than to really continue to shine a light on women feeling empowered and people really helping to support them—men included in that.” Meghan also hasn't shied away from more modest clothing, opting to bear a sliver of her shoulder at her Trooping of Colour debut in June and often wearing suits instead of only wearing the traditional attire of a skirt or dress. Meghan and Harry also chose to make personal decisions regarding their wedding in May. The couple personalized their wedding vows, had a lemon elderflower cake instead of a traditional fruitcake and chose Reverend Michael Bruce Curry, a Chicago native and the first black presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, to deliver a sermon on their special day.

This royal celebrity couple isn't all about the royal rules. What are some ways to define your own path as a couple?

It looks like this royal celebrity wedding has been blessed by the Queen! What are some ways to get your family on board with your choice in a partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re serious about your partner, you definitely want your fam’s approval. Cupid has a few ways on how to go about that:

1. Discuss your relationship with them: Communication is always essential in any situation. And it goes both ways. Not only should you speak to your family about your partner, your relationship, and the future, but you should also listen to what they have to say in response. If you want them to consider what you’re saying, then you should do the same. And remember, express yourself as clearly as possible.

2. Avoid being defensive: This isn’t always easy, but not being defensive can help avoid a fight. Remain calm and grounded, even if they are being unreasonable. Why? Because you shouldn’t stoop down to that level – it won’t lead anywhere good. Take deep breaths if necessary. Your family should not be putting you down, and you shouldn’t be putting them down either. Respond to their concerns, and don't make them feel like their opinions aren't valid.

This royal celebrity couple is preparing for their big day, this time religiously. What are some ways to reconcile different religions when you're going to marry someone?

Cupid's Advice:

It's okay to have differences when in a relationship. However, certain differences take more of a toll on a couple than others. The commitment to different religions is one of them. Cupid has some tips on ways to handle a situation like this one:

1. Share your histories with one another: Besides helping you and your significant other to open up and know more about each other, sharing histories will help you see where the other is coming from. Discuss the religious and cultural pieces of your life with an open mind. Listen and share.

Related Link: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

2. Respect each others beliefs: It is important that respect takes place always. Whether you agree with someone's religious views or not, you should show respect. The minute disrespecting takes place, a new problem is created beside the original one of difference in religion. Showing respect can even sometimes fix the problem, because you both feel safe and not attacked.

3. Face all issues that may arise: Do not just ignore any issues that develop due to different religious views. It is better to nip things in the butt before they get worse. Many religious people are serious about their beliefs, so it is best to face obstacles right on. Communicate effectively always. Listen to your partner, and discuss your point of view clearly as well.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Meghan Markle and Prince Harry face a potential danger: being a target.

According to EOnline.com, former Head of Royal Protection and Chief Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police Service Dai Davies said: "History has a habit of repeating itself. In the last thousand years, there hasn't been a King or Queen that someone hasn't tried to murder." In addition, it cost $33 million to protect Prince William and Kate Middleton at their celebrity wedding in 2011 – one of the most pricey security operations. Undercover police, investigations to avoid terrorist attacks, snipers, and an extensive search for explosives hiding in any place you can think of were all part of that price. Harry and Meghan's protection plan for their big day could possibly cost more than William and Kate's – yikes! What makes them a bigger target is Harry's active military status in Afghanistan, plus the hate letter containing anthrax (an infectious disease caused by the bacteria Bacillus anthracis) aimed at Meghan. As we can see, the royal fam needs all that protection. We wish this beautiful couple the best of luck!

Royals have a dangerous element to their celebrity weddings. What are some ways to keep drama from infecting your wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

We all want our wedding day to be perfect, or at least close enough to it. We plan ahead to try to create this perfect day, but there's more to it. Cupid as some ideas on how to keep your wedding day as stress and drama free as possible.

1. Stay organized and delegate when needed: If you plan ahead, like most of us do for our wedding day, then you're off to a good start. But maintaining everything organized is the tough part if things don't go accordingly. And let's face it, many times things don't go according to plan. And don't be a total control freak either. It is your wedding day, but you need to learn to pass down tasks when necessary. Communicate properly and trust in your close friends and fam to help you get the wedding you deserve.

2. Adjust your guest list and seating arrangements properly:

This may not be the case for everyone, but sometimes we need to take more consideration in who will be on the guest list and who will be seated with who for more than just the typical reasons. Do certain people not get along or have drama with one another? Then make sure they are seated far away from each other! And take any other actions necessary to keep drama from going down on your big day.

3. Meditate: On your wedding day, you should meditate. It's an exciting day, but also stressful because you obviously want it to be magical. Try meditating one to three times that day to keep you calm and grounded. We know you don't have tons of time, so five to 10 minutes each time should do the trick. It's worth it!

In celebrity news, Prince Harry & Meghan Markle will be having some very special music at their wedding. What are some ways to incorporate music in your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

The goal is for your wedding day to be as magical as possible. The incorporation of music can help that dream become a reality! With all of the hustle and bustle of planning a wedding, the little details of adding music into certain spots can be overlooked. Luckily, Cupid is here to remind you of some cool ways to incorporate music into your wedding:

1. Don't forget about pre-ceremony music: You want to get your guests in the wedding mood right when they walk in the door. Play some background music while your guests arrive to help set the mood for the ceremony. Choose some of your favorite love songs or some instrumental pieces that you genuinely enjoy!

2. Choose dinner music wisely: In order for people to converse over their meal, the music that is played during the meal portion of your wedding should not be the craziest. Set the mood with some Indie songs if that is something that you are into! Or go with the classical wedding music during this time.

Look to Your Favorite Celebrity Couples for Valentine's Day Inspiration

1. Beyoncé and Jay-Z: This Valentine's Day, we want you and your partner to spend it Crazy in Love. We want you to forget all of your 99 Problems and put your Love on Top. Yes, those puns mean what you think they do: a Valentine's date idea inspired by the iconic duo Beyoncé and Jay-Z. This celebrity couple has been together for over 15 years. They've written dozens of songs together and now have three beautiful children – who wouldn't want to spend a day emulating them?

Why not go to a concert for Valentine's Day? It doesn't have to be a big one; it could be a small band that you and your loved one both enjoy. Singing and listening to music with your partner on such a romantic day is sure to hit some right notes. Or, if you want something more low-key, a karaoke bar could be great. Enjoying music together is perfect for couples who already have a passion for the industry –and obviously, a shared musical interest has served Beyoncé and Jay-Z well.

2. Victoria and David Beckham: When you think of inspirational celebrity couples, who comes to mind? If it's not Victoria and David Beckham, then you've had a lapse in memory because no couple is more #goals than them! These two are the textbook definition of class, and we heard that, if you look up “posh” in the dictionary, you'll find a picture of the two of them surrounded by their four children. We're joking, of course, but this celebrity couple is the inspiration for our next Valentine's Day date idea: a swanky dinner.

Going to a posh, new restaurant with your significant other is a classic idea and a tried-and-true Valentine's Day date. So throw in a David Beckham-twist, and head to a sports game or bar before the two of you dress up for your five-star meal. It may be a fun way to release some nerves before your dinner plans.

3. Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard: Two of the most underrated people in Hollywood also happen to be happily married and have a relationship that shows that shared humor is a blessing. Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard have proven that a love for comedy leads to the purest of partnerships and makes for some great laughs that help you and your loved one grow even closer. Taking inspiration from these two, go to a comedy club or an underground stand-up night. Take your partner to a place where you both can laugh and enjoy a fun time that's bound to be memorable.

4. Rose Leslie and Kit Harington: You and your partner have a solid relationship, and you guys aren't the going out type. The two of you have no plans for Valentine's Day, except that Chinese takeout you want to order, and you're not really sure what to watch. Take a cue from stars Rose Leslie and Kit Harington, who fell in love while on set together for Game of Thrones. Find shows and films where the couples are married in real life, and watch their romance blossom on-screen, all the while knowing that they're still in love off-camera. Start by rewatching (or watching for the first time!) those early episodes of GoT where Jon and Ygritte fall in love, and don't miss the true magic that is being filmed between these two soulmates!

5. Rita Wilson and Tom Hanks: Another date night idea that doesn't involve going out and dealing with the madness that is Valentine's Day takes inspiration from power couple Rita Wilson and Tom Hanks. These two have been happily married for almost 30 years and have two sons together, but as a couple, they're probably best-known for their ability to keep to themselves. They've managed to stay under the radar when it comes to paparazzi, and that's because they're both as down-to-earth as celebrities can get. They prove that you don't have to be glitz and glam to enjoy being with your loved one.

Take inspiration from them and stay home and make dinner together. Spend a low-key night bonding with each other and with your family rather than making a big scene. Their love has proven that it's not about what you do; it's about who you do it with.

6. Sarah Jessica Parker and Matthew Broderick: Valentine's Day doesn't strictly mean that you and your partner have to spend time alone together. It's a day about love, but it doesn't have to be spent isolated from your closest friends. This Valentine's Day, take inspiration from Sarah Jessica Parker and Matthew Broderick and host a group dinner at home. This celebrity couple is known for their incredible group of friends; they know how to be loving with their spouse while also maintaining a healthy social life. So why not have a Valentine's Day dinner party and avoid the hassle of making plans at a fully-booked restaurant? Afterwards, you all can play cute couple games and end the night on a fun note.

7. Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher: Mila Kunis shared that her first kiss ever was on the set of That 70's Show with her future husband Ashton Kutcher. If that isn't one of the cutest stories ever, we don't know what is! The two of them have two children together and are always pictured smiling ear-to-ear at basketball and baseball games together.

That's why our next date idea was easy: Take your loved one to a sporting event. Watching sports together makes for some great moments – from the pre-game tailgate to the first minutes after a big win, a game is bound to make the two of you feel closer. Plus, this celebrity couple seems to really enjoy watching the game together, so if it works for them, it can't hurt to try it with your significant other.

8. Jada Pinkett-Smith and Will Smith: The next inspiration for a Valentine's Day date idea comes from a famous couple that exemplifies trendy. Jada Pinkett-Smith and Will Smith have been together for nearly 21 years and have two children who have both thrived in the artsy-alternative community. This is a family of trendsetters and artists, so a date inspired by them needs to be on the same thread.

That's why we suggest that you and your soulmate go to a modern art exhibit or a jazz club – something that stimulates your minds but is visually or musically pleasing too. Afterwards, go to a cute little place for dinner for a well-rounded date. You can talk about the art or performance during your meal, so you don't have to worry about any awkward silences!

9. Sarah Michelle Gellar and Freddie Prinze Jr.: From She's All That to Cruel Intentions, Sarah Michelle Gellar and Freddie Prinze Jr. ruled the silver screen of 90's romances, and now, they have championed a new field: long-term celebrity relationships. They have been married for almost 16 years and have two children together, and there has never been a rumor of them getting a celebrity divorce or threatening to split.

A great date idea for the couple who loves a little bit of 90's romance is a night out at a retro theatre watching old rom-coms. Snack on some buttery popcorn and soda for a throwback Valentine's Day date night!

10. Meghan Markle and Prince Harry: We couldn't end this list without including the celebrity couple whose engagement has dominated headlines for the past month or so. Yes, we're talking about the much anticipated royal wedding of Meghan Markle and Prince Harry. Taking inspiration from this couple, we decided that the best date idea would be to get fancy and take your loved one to high tea. Enjoy the cute little hors d'oeuvres and classy tea rituals before heading to a spa for some much-needed rest and relaxation. End the day with a bath bomb or a bubble bath from Lush's collection of rose-scented goodies, and enjoy some romantic tub time as a couple.

Love & Libations: Valentine's Day Cocktails for February Date Nights

By Yolanda Shoshana

As soon as January 1st hit, the Valentine's Day decorations, chocolates, and teddy bears are out. Now that February is only a few weeks away, it's time to prep. February is known as the month of love. Besides Valentine's Day on the 14th, there are 27 other days to show love to your partner, friends, and, of course, yourself.

That being said, here are three libations to help you show love next month:

Cocktails for February Date Nights

Gin & Dubonnet

Celebrate yourself and drink like a queen. Queen Elizabeth II has a Gin & Dubonnet every day at lunch. In fact, it's part of her four-cocktails-a-day routine. It's perfect to enjoy while having some “me time.” There’s a good chance that the Queen will sip on one of these at Prince Harry and Meghan Markle’s celebrity wedding reception!

Ingredients:

- 1 1/2 oz. gin
- 3/4 oz. Dubonnet Rouge
- Lemon or orange twist for garnish

Directions:

Add all the ingredients to a glass and fill with ice. Stir. Garnish with a lemon or orange twist. Sip as you are wearing your favorite tiara.

Chocolate Martini

A chocolate martini is an aphrodisiac in a glass. Believe it or not, two Hollywood legends created this cocktail: none other than Rock Hudson and Elizabeth Taylor. They invented it one evening when they lived across the street from each other while they filmed the movie, Giant.

The following recipe uses Sean “Diddy” Combs’ Ciroc Vodka. Maybe he will make one for his long-time love Cassie – or she will make one for him. After all, it’s the perfect cocktail for lovers on a February date night.

Ingredients:

- 1/2 oz. Ciroc Vodka
- Dash of Madagascar vanilla extract
- 1 1/2 oz. Godiva Chocolate Liqueur
- 2 1/2 oz. half-and-half
- 1 oz. Kahlua
- Ice
- Shaved chocolate and/or fresh strawberries for garnish if desired

Directions:

Add all of the ingredients to a cocktail shaker and shake. Pour into a chilled cocktail glass that is rimmed with chocolate syrup. Garnish with dark chocolate and/or strawberries.

Flirtini

February would not be complete without a Flirtini. Most people remember the Cosmo being a big part of Sex and The City, but the Flirtini was also in the mix. All it takes is three ingredients. Enjoy with your girl squad while binging on the show.

Ingredients:

- 1 oz. vodka
- 2 oz. champagne
- 2 oz. pineapple juice

Directions:

Combine vodka, champagne, and pineapple juice in a highball or collins glass filled with ice. If you are making it for a viewing soiree, multiply the recipe by six, and mix it up in a pitcher.

Royal Celebrity Couple News: William & Kate Will Host Harry & Meghan for the Holidays

By Rachel Sparks

With all this holiday cheer and celebrity wedding planing fun, what's more exciting than this royal celebrity news? According to UsMagazine.com, Prince Harry and Meghan Markle have a family-filled Christmas holiday. They'll start Christmas Eve with Queen Elizabeth II at her Sandringham House, then spend the rest of the holiday with Prince William and Duchess Kate as their official house guests. Slated with plans, they'll spend brunch-time at St. Mary Magdalene Church and enjoy a massive feast with two turkeys, a third bird being sent up to the nursery for the royal children.

Even celebrity couples celebrate the holidays with family. What are some ways to keep the drama out of your family reunion?

Cupid's Advice:

Let's be honest, not everyone likes their family. Holidays pressure us to spend time with our more distant relatives, but that only adds more stress. Snide comments, little jabs, and passing judgements end up hurting a lot of feelings and causes drama. Our relationship advice will get you through this holiday season with as little family drama as possible:

1. Be grateful: Not everyone can visit their families, so realize that, despite the drama, there are people who are envious of you and your family. No, your family isn't perfect. There's fights and screaming children and disappointed parents, but families are messy. Revel in the fact you have so many people around you who, at the end of the day, love you. That's a lot to appreciate.

2. Anticipate triggers: It's hard to remain cheerful when you know your brother is going to comment on your weight. Expecting these snide comments can help alleviate some of the frustration and anger when they do occur. You may be able to ignore these comments and just have a good time, and that is something that will drive your family crazy if they're wanting to push your buttons. Set a new trend: ignore jabs and experience joy.

3. Banish black-and-white thinking: We all want the holidays to be magnificent. We want our kids to have the same joyful memories we did, full of magic. We want to genuinely enjoy seeing our family and reconnecting with them. People don't always meet these expectations, accidents happen, fights break out, kids cry, and that holiday cheer you pictured isn't what's playing out. Put aside expectations and realize setbacks happen, but that doesn't mean the whole holiday is ruined. Don't dwell on the problems; instead, enjoy every moment for what it is.

Cupid's Advice:

The venue is a very important piece of your wedding puzzle! Check out these tips straight from Cupid to help you figure out where to exchange your vows:

1. Finalize your bottom line: Before you settle down on your location, it's important to have a budget. Talk with your partner about how much you're willing to spend, and make sure you have some wiggle room for overages. Doing this will help organize and prioritize the important elements of your dream venue!

2. Pick your date: Picking the date of your big day is another determining factor when deciding where your wedding will be. There should be some synchrony between the two! This will also help give the venue coordinators out when you go to book the location; they can't help you out if you don't have a day in mind!

3. Think about your needs: Having a rough estimate of how many guests you plan on inviting is a smart thing to consider. If a venue has a maximum capacity of 200 people, that doesn't necessarily mean it'll fit 200 people comfortably! Additionally, you should also have an idea of how you intend on using your spaces. If you want your ceremony and reception to be in the same place, make sure there's enough space for those things to happen!

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry Asked Meghan Markle's Mom for Permission Before Engagement

By Rachel Sparks

The royal family is all about tradition, and Prince Harry is no exception. According to People.com, Prince Harry asked his fiancé's mother, Doria Ragland, her permission to marry Meghan Markle. Markle is very close to her mother, saying that she is both nurturing and fun. Prince Harry knew that Ragland's answer would have a huge impact on Markle. We're excited to see this celebrity wedding in a few months!

This royal celebrity wedding engagement came only after permission was granted. What are some benefits to asking your partner's parent for permission before an engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Popping the question is full of nerves and excitement. There's the pressure to do everything right and make sure it's perfect because it sets the tone for your future as a couple for the rest of your lives. However you plan your engagement and wedding speaks to who you are as a couple, so sometimes we may want to forgo traditions. There are benefits to sticking with the old practices. Here's Cupid's relationship advice to guide you through your wedding season:

1. Respect: You may not be all that traditional, but sometimes it's worth considering how others may feel. If you don't ask your partner's parents for permission, will they be upset? A wedding is about you and your soon-to-be-spouse, but it's also a representation of your marriage, consisting of compromise, family, and respect. You may not care about traditions, but your partner's family (and maybe even your partner) could care. Show you respect them by sticking with the tradition. It sets a great tone and relationship for the rest of your life with your partner's family.

2. Support: No, you don't ask for permission with the hopes of having financial support during the wedding. Sometimes parents can't help pay for things. Including them in the process from the beginning opens up the doors to opportunities for support. They may have ideas, may help decrease the stress, might have money or a space for the wedding. Whatever it is, parents often do want to support their families, so make sure you don't distance your future in-laws by forgetting about them in the very beginning. Ask them for permission and you might get rewarded.

3. Sense of belonging: Ultimately, marriage is about family.

Not everyone has a huge family or a close one, but at the end of the day, family is the group of people you're stuck with. Asking permission before proposing creates a respectful, open, and vulnerable relationship with your new family members. It's nerve-wracking but worth the new love and support you'll receive.

There's officially a royal celebrity wedding in the works for Spring 2018! What are some ways to decide on the time of year you'll get married?

Cupid's Advice:

At some point, we've all thought about our dream wedding. What will you wear? How many people will watch you walk down the aisle? Will you walk barefoot in the sand at some destination wedding or will you keep it traditional? With all of these decisions, have you decided what time of year to celebrate the special occasion? Here's Cupid's relationship advice to help you plan your future wedding:

1. Your favorite season as a couple: Did the two of you meet in the spring and every blooming blossom reminds you of your love for each other? Or do you both absolutely adore the golden hues of autumn? Whatever the reason for your choice of season, find a time of year that makes you both happy. Remember, your wedding is for you.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Source Says Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Engaged & Will Have a Summer Wedding

2. Wedding photographs: Great photographs are all about lighting. When you think about what time of year to plan your wedding, think about how light changes throughout the year. If you're in the north wanting a winter wedding, besides the cold, you should consider that the sun sets very early compared to the rest of the year. Natural lighting is the best kind of lighting for photographs, so if you want the best pictures to remember the day by, take special consideration into when your wedding will be.

Related Link: Royal Celebrity Couple: Meghan Markle Says She & Prince Harry Are 'Really Happy & in Love'

3. Invitation accommodations: When you're planning to have a lot of people come to your wedding, you have to consider other people's schedules. If you have a lot of family with children, September weddings may have to be nixed out of the planning because of school schedules. Consider the people you're inviting; if you want a lot of people to come then you need to choose a time most convenient for as many invitees as possible.
