Middleton and Matthew married at St. Mark's Church in Englefield, Berkshire, with a reception held at the nearby luxury 18-acre estate owned by Middleton's parents. The celebrity couple, who announced their celebrity engagement in July of 2016, looked stunning, with Matthew in a tailored suit and Middleton dazzling in a lacy wedding dress, an original creation by famed stylist Giles Deacon. Pippa Middleton's famous sister, Kate Middleton, attended with her royal husband, Prince William, and two celebrity children, George and Charlotte, who served as page boy and flower girl in the ceremony. Kate wore a gorgeous Alexander McQueen ensemble in a dusty rose color, a throwback to her own wedding when Pippa wore another dress by the same designer while walking down the aisle as a bridesmaid. Other celebrity guests included Kate and Pippa's brother, James Middleton, and famous celebrity couple, Prince Harry and Meghan Markle.

This celebrity wedding was highly anticipated. What are some ways to add personal touches to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Planning the details of a wedding can be stressful, here are the top three tips on how to add a perfect personal touch to your special day:

1. Create photo center pieces: If you're looking for a sweet way to remind your guests of all you and your partner have been through leading up to the big day, feature a photo of you and your sweetheart in the centerpieces at every table and have each table guess as a group what special moment this photo is referencing. For the most fun, pick a variety of precious photos from different milestones in your relationship, like the day you met, your first date, the day you moved in together, the day you said I love you, etc. This is a great way to get your guests talking and reminiscing about their favorite memories of you as a couple and get to know each other in the process too!

2. Toast each other: Many weddings feature toasts from the maid of honor or best man, but it's rare that the bride or groom step up to the mic themselves. For a tear-jerking moment where all eyes are on you, take some time during your reception to share a special toast dedicated to your partner, and let your significant other and new spouse do the same for you as well. While you'll have already made some beautiful promises to each other in the vows, this is the perfect time to share a funny story about when you knew they were "the one" or explain all the beautiful things you know are waiting in the future for you two!

3. Ask for advice: Set up a decorative chalkboard and let your guests write their favorite pieces of advice for a happy and healthy marriage. When they're done, you can hang it up in your apartment or take a picture to always remind you of all the wonderful ways your friends and family reminded you to take care of and love each other unconditionally. This is a great opportunity not only to learn the best tricks and tips for a happy marriage from couples you love, but it's also a wonderful way to get some funny advice or crazy doodles from your single friends.

Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle Arrives in London for Pippa Middleton's Wedding

By Noelle

Downey

It looks like things are getting really serious in Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's celebrity relationship! According to EOnline.com, Markle recently arrived in London and made an appearance at Kensington Palace just days before she and Prince Harry are set to attend Pippa Middleton's celebrity wedding together. This is big news for the celebrity couple, as Markle has never attended an event with Prince Harry's family before, or been photographed meeting them. Could it be this is Markle and Prince Harry's "meet the parents" moment when it comes their Hollywood relationship? It's hard to say, but either way, attending a wedding together, particularly one as high-profile as this with the rest of the royal family in attendance, is a major deal, especially given how private the pair has been up to this point. Although their relationship was confirmed last November, the two only made their first public appearance together this month, when Markle was spotted cheering Prince Harry on at a his charity polo match, and later stealing a discreet kiss in the parking lot.

This celebrity wedding marks Meghan Markle's first public interaction with Prince Harry's family. What are some ways to know you're ready to involve your family in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt about it, taking your partner to meet your family can be stressful! Here are the top three ways to know you and your sweetie are ready for that big step:

1. You feel secure in the relationship: You don't want to bring someone home who you're pretty sure won't be in your life by next month. If you're introducing your special someone to your parents and siblings, make sure that's just what they are; special. If you're secure in your relationship you can be sure that no matter how it goes with your family that your S.O. will do their best to be well-liked by people who are so important to you and that your family will recognize how amazing and special your partner is.

2. Marriage is a possibility: If you feel like the one you're dating might just be the one, then you should definitely consider introducing them to your family. Even if such a big commitment could be months or years down the road for you two lovebirds, establishing a relationship with your family as a couple will only make your bond stronger and help your family adjust to the idea of an eventual addition to their inner circle.

3. You've met their family: If you've already met your significant other's family, why not introduce them to your own? While taking your partner to meet your family can be scary and hard, especially if you have a complicated relationship with them, it may put a damper on your relationship if your partner feels they've been open and shared their family life with you and you haven't reciprocated. Show your partner that you trust and appreciate them by taking down your walls and allowing them to see behind the scenes of your life and upbringing.

It's tough when you can't see your partner every day. However, it doesn't mean your love should go unnoticed. Cupid has some relationship advice for when you want to show your appreciation, even when they're not there:

1. Put your initials somewhere: Like Markle, your partner can be wrapped around your neck with their initials. Celebrity Couple Predictions: Mariah Carey, Prince Harry and Donald Trump

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention. In a sudden twist, wedding bells are not longer ringing for Mariah Carey and billionaire James Packer; while two other high profiled relationships seem to be going well between Prince Harry and Meghan Markle, and newly elected Donald Trump and his wife Melania. But who's stepping out this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Mariah Carey and James Packer: As much as I was rooting for Mariah Carey to find love, my crystal ball told me that James Packer was not the one. That is not to say that Carey and Parker didn't have a good time together while it lasted. As quickly as their relationship came together, it quickly crumbled. There are reports that Packer was jealous of a back up dancer while it has also been said that Packer dumped Carey, because she spends too much money. She is worth over $500 million dollars, of course she spends a lot of money. This relationship has had a big “not gonna happen” written all over it from the start. Planning a wedding before getting divorced from other people tends to put a negative vibe on a relationship. The ink isn't even dry from Nick and Mariah's divorce while Packer is still married. Not to mention that Packer looks about as interesting as a blank wall. Carey is too much woman for him. Don't cry for Mariah, she will love again. I see her with someone a little bit younger. As for Packer, do we even care what happens to him now?

Related Link: Celebrity News: Mariah Carey Turns to Her Dancer After Problems with Fiancé James Packer

Prince Harry and Meghan Markle: The word on the British streets is that Prince Harry has a new love in his life and her name is Meghan Markle. Unless you are a fan of the show, Suits, there is a chance that you have no idea who she is. Everyone should just calm down a bit. Step away from all of the wedding talk. This celebrity couple is getting to know one another, taking it nice and slow. He's hot and she's gorgeous. It makes for a very good time, especially since they have similar interest. It was a smooth move by the Buckingham Palace to let the media know that it's not cool to keep pointing out that Markle is biracial due to her African American mother. Black women around the globe are rooting for Markle to add a touch a color to the royal family tree. Time will tell where this relationship ends up. Let's try to see if we can actually get a photo of them together before we say that they are picking out china patterns.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Prince Harry & Meghan Markle: Secret Toronto Visit

Donald Trump and Melania Trump: I have stated several times that if Donald Trump didn't become POTUS, Melania would get divorce papers rolling sooner than later. I see that this whole election process has taught her a lot about her husband. It's one thing to know him as a shrewd business man, but ever notice how he would almost trample Melania to get out on stage for a round of applause. That's not much of a turn on. Also during most of the campaign, she looked like a deer caught in the headlights. Melania signed up for the money, but the White House is a whole other level. Everything that she does will be under a microscope. Within the next four years, she will feel very alone. She's not as clueless as the media makes her out to be. Maybe she will shine in her own way. Donald and Melania will be no where near was hot to watch as Barack and Michelle. The Trumpster will be too busy talking about himself, he will throw her a few compliments from time to time. Their celebrity relationship will continue to look like Beauty and the Beast.

New relationships are a big deal! They can sometimes be scary as well, especially if you're new to it or haven't been in a serious one in a while. Cupid is here to help you ease into your relationship with some dating advice:

1. Take it slow: Easing into a relationship may mean not seeing each other every day, or only hanging out a few times a month. Still make sure there's time apart to focus on yourself. You may need some space in order to get closer. Get to know your new partner and enjoy your time together, all while keeping yourself going in the right path. There's no need to jump into it.

2. Communication always: As per usual, communication in a relationship is a major key. But when you're in a new relationship, it's best to lay out everything and let your partner know what you want. This way, there are no secrets, and questions you may have later on can be answered ahead of time. Also, make sure your partner knows that you want to take the relationship slow at first and ease into things. They should respect your decisions.

3. Be honest: Honesty is the best policy. There's no sense in lying in your relationship, it's unhealthy for future progression. If you don't like something, let your partner know. If you need space, let them know. It's your life, make sure you're comfortable with your relationship.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Prince Harry, Ryan Seacrest and Vanessa Williams

By Shoshi

If you're looking for the latest celebrity news, then you've come to the right place! Recently, these famous couples have made headlines for two new romances and a Fourth of July wedding. Read on for my celebrity couple predictions!

A Royal Celebrity Couple Prediction

Prince Harry and Jenna Coleman: Rumor has it it that Prince Harry is dating Dr. Who actress Jenna Coleman. They were seen getting cozy...but that doesn't mean much. If I was in the same room as Prince Harry, I'd be trying to get cozy with him too! It's been said that the prince has been thinking about settling down, which means that every woman he's seen speaking to for longer than a second will be called "wife material."

As for his relationship with Coleman, it's a nice flirtation. She is cute and laid-back enough, but she won't be his princess. Cressida Bonas would have a better chance of Harry putting a ring on it. However, she shouldn't hold her breathe either.

While Prince Harry and his big brother Prince William are like night and day, Harry has paid close attention to the celebrity marriage of William and Kate, and he wants a similar love in his life. The woman that will steal Prince Harry's heart is someone who loves life just as much as him. I don't see that he has met The One yet, but when he does, it will be a quick courtship.

Ryan Seacrest and Hilary Cruz: Is it ever a surprise anymore when Ryan Seacrest starts dating a younger beautiful woman? It's like he picked up where George Clooney left off! The new love interest in his life is former Miss Teen USA and actress Hilary Cruz. Don't knock yourself out trying to remember what movies she's been in – there are about three acting credits to her name. Recently, the two were spotted at the airport right before they hit a yacht in the South of France. Sources say that Seacrest is smitten. I would say what 40-year-old man isn't smitten with a hot 26-year-old who wants to be with him?

I would love to report that the television personality has met the love of his life, but it looks like just another notch on his belt. Their relationship is a casual one, but they both will benefit from it: Seacrest gets a gorgeous woman on his arm among other things (if you know what I mean), while Cruz gets her name in the press. A win-win!

Vanessa Williams Celebrates Her Celebrity Marriage

Vanessa Williams and Jim Skrip: The ever-stunning Vanessa Williams married Jim Skrip on the Fourth of July. Now, that is one way to never forget an anniversary! It is the third celebrity marriage for the actress, and it looks like three times is the charm. There isn't much information about Skrip online. The celebrity couple met on a trip to Egypt, and they dated for about a year before getting hitched. Let's just say that they have a grown folks relationships: no games, age-appropriate, and willing to do what they have to do to make it work. From looking at their photos, they look pretty happy together. After being in two marriages that didn't work out, this one should last for Williams. Congratulations to the newlyweds!

Prince Harry and Cressida Bonas Split After Two Years

By

Sanetra Richards

Prince Harry is back on the market! According to UsMagazine.com, after a two year relationship, the Prince and girlfriend Cressida Bonas have separated . . . for now. "They're off, but I don't think it's for good," said a source to Us. "They hit a rocky patch and this decision is the result of that. Harry is the type to want to take breathers and then try again." A Kensington Palace spokesman went on to say, "We never comment on private lives." The pair met when Prince Harry's cousin Princess Eugenie of York, also the 25-year-old socialite's friend, introduced the two and they hit it off by July 2012. Despite the breakup, the two have remained friends: "It's very sad that they have decided to split. It's very amicable, but they have decided to go their separate ways," says a Bonas family source.

What are some ways to keep your split amicable?

Cupid's Advice:

Many former couples have a theory that there is no possibly way to end a relationship and be somewhat friendly to one another. It is far from easy! Subtract the hard feelings, irreconcilable differences, and that specific mentality and you will have the answer to keeping the breakup cordial. Cupid has a few tips to help you and your ex even things out and remain pleasant:

1. No harboring: Do not hold on to all of the negative things that happened in your relationship. You cannot expect to make progress individually and as an ex-couple if the past is constantly taunting you. Remember, heartbreak and anger is not a part of your closet's wardrobe!

Prince Harry and Cressida Bonas Have Back-to-Back Date Nights

By

Whitney Johnson

According to People.com, Prince Harry is still a happily taken man. He was seen with girlfriend, socialite Cressida Bonas, on back-to-back date nights earlier this week. On Monday, the lovebirds attended a James Blunt show at the Tabernacle in London's Notting Hill. The following evening, the casually-dressed couple were spotted at a performance of the Book of Mormon. This duo was first seen together during the summer of 2012 and rekindled their relationship in February when Bonas vacationed with the royal family in Switzerland.

How do you know how much time to spend with your partner in the beginning of a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

You're dating the girl or guy of your dreams, and it's hard not to want to spend every minute of every day with them. It's important, though, to find balance in your life. You can embrace your new love while still maintaining your sense of self. The tricky part is figuring out just how much time to spend with your partner in the beginning of a relationship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Pace yourself: Too much, too soon can cause even a great relationship to suddenly end. If you've been seeing each other once or twice a week, gradually add another day or night to your typical schedule. After all, you want to leave them wanting more of you, not less!

2. Don't forget about your friends: Make sure that you still spend time with the other people in your life too. They'll resent you if you start ignoring them because of your partner, so be sure to spend two or three nights each week without your significant other by your side.

3. Enjoy your alone time: You don't want to forgo your personal passions because of romance, no matter how exciting your love life may be. Stick with your usual routine, whether it includes photography class on Tuesday evening or movie night every Friday. Once you feel confident that your sweetheart is sticking around, feel free to invite them to share your hobbies with you – but never give them up.

Will Harry and Pippa Be Named Godparents to Prince George?

By Kerri

Sheehan

Now that the Prince George has arrived the speculations about whom William and Kate will choose as godparents has begun. Members of the royal family traditionally have six godparents, three being women and three being men. Many are placing bets that William's brother, Prince Harry and Kate's sister, Pippa Middleton will be among the chosen, but no one can be sure. Both Harry and Pippa are already closely related to Prince George so William and Kate may fill the six godparent roles with those who they wish to forge ties with. Ingrid Seward, editor-in-chief of Majesty magazine dished to People, "Godparents don't have to be your best friend. Quite often it is quite the opposite, it can be somebody quite random. Prince George's christening is set to take place in the fall so speculations will likely continue until then.

How do you select role models for your new arrival?

Cupid's Advice:

With a new baby come new responsibilities, such as choosing what kind of people to share your bundle of joy with. Cupid has some advice about how to go about selecting roles models for your new arrival:

1. Keep them positive: Growing children are extremely impressionable, so try not to keep any 'Negative Nancys' too close. If your child grows up hearing "I can't," or, "I'm not good enough to do that," then the thought will likely rub off on them.

2. Be a role model: As a parent you've the one who your children will look up to most. Be your best you and your kids will strive to reach the bar you set.

3. Let them have a say: Each child is different; therefore the role models that each child needs will be different. You and your partner should consider your child's likes and personality when trying to pick out roles models for them.
