

5 Celebrity Couples Who Started Off As Friends

By Courtney Omernick

Some argue that men and women CAN be 'just friends' and steer clear of a romantic relationship. However, sometimes friendships with members of the opposite sex can turn into something more. Below, Cupid has five celebrity couples who began their romantic journey in the friend zone.

1. Jordin Sparks and Jason DeRulo: At first, Jordin had a boyfriend and Jason was single. Then, Jason had a girlfriend and Jordin was single. The pair maintained a friendship while they both had different significant others, but once both of their status update's read 'single', they turned their relationship into something more!

2. Kate Middleton and Prince William: The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge met back in 2001 at St. Andrew's University in Fife while studying Art History. At first, they were just friends, but their friendship turned into romance when the pair shared a flat together with two other students during their second and third years.

3. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: It seems as though their relationship moved quickly, but these stars were friends long before their walk down the aisle. Kim and Kanye first met back in 2004 while Kim was married to Damon Thomas. After Kim's divorce to Kris Humphries in 2011, Kanye was there to pick up the pieces, and the rest is history!

4. Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher: They may have been Jackie and Kelso for years on 'That 70's Show,' but according to a source, the pair did not get along while playing each other's love interest. It wasn't until Ashton split from Demi Moore that these stars became friends! Now, Mila is pregnant with Ashton's baby and plans to take a trip down the aisle with him soon.

5. Beyonce and Jay-Z: These A-listers were friends and talked regularly over the phone for 18 months before they went on their first date in 2000. In 2003, the couple finally admitted to the public that they were dating. Five years later, Beyonce became Mrs. Carter.

Top 5 Celebrity Couples That Live Across the Pond

By Whitney Johnson

Although Hollywood is still the number one stomping ground for the rich and famous, many celebrities are choosing to live abroad in an effort to protect their privacy and keep their personal lives from the public eye. Sure, there are European paparazzi, but even so, life is much more manageable. For celebrities with children, it's particularly important to give their families some sense of normalcy. Despite their distance from Los Angeles or New York City, American fans still love them. With this thought in mind, we developed a list of our five favorite celebrity couples that live across the pond:

1. Victoria and David Beckham: The fashion designer and her soccer star husband have recently returned to England after living in Los Angeles while David played "football" for the LA Galaxy. Now that his contract has ended stateside, the family of six is returning to their roots and looking for a new home in West London, close to the children's school. Still, they aren't giving up the California sunshine for good: It's thought that the Beckham's will spend the holidays in Los Angeles.

2. Kate Middleton and Prince William: The future queen and king of England expanded their family this summer, welcoming Prince George, who's now third in line for the throne. This new generation has stolen hearts all over the world with their laidback approach to royalty. Not only are the new parents handling most of the baby duties themselves (Prince William even changed the first nappy), but they also released an informal first family photo, taken by Middleton's father at her family's Bucklebury estate.

3. Gwyneth Paltrow and Chris Martin: The GOOP founder and Coldplay frontman have lived in London for over a decade; Paltrow feels so comfortable there that she calls it her "adopted home." Plus, their children, daughter Apple and son Moses, even have British accents. While they recently relocated to Los Angeles full-time for their kids' schooling and to be closer to Paltrow's mother and brother, the family will eventually return to the United Kingdom because the movie star believes that the education system is better in England.

4. Penelope Cruz and Javier Bardem: This famously-private couple lives in Madrid, Spain, with their children, son Leonardo and daughter Luna. The Spanish-born actors began dating in 2007 and were married in July 2010 in the Bahamas.

5. Kate Hudson and Matthew Bellamy: This California girl bought a house in London in February 2011 and now lives half of the year across the pond with her fiancé, Muse musician Matthew Bellamy. The couple were engaged in April 2011 and welcomed their son, Bingham, in July 2011. The family is often seen out-and-about in the rainy city with Hudson's parents, Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell, as well as her nine-year-old son, Ryder.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Attend Church Without Prince George

By Kerri Sheehan

Royal parents Prince William and Kate Middleton ventured out this Sunday to attend their local church for a service at Crathie Kirk, Balmoral. Prince Charles, Camilla, Prince Phillip and The Queen accompanied the first time parents, but their son Prince George stayed at home with his Nanny, Jessie Webb. This is the couple's second time leaving baby behind during an outing. The first time came when they attended The Tusk Conservation Awards at The Royal Society in London on September 12th. According to UsMagazine.com, an eyewitness said that the pair, "Looked very relaxed together," during the event.

How do you know how often to leave your child with a babysitter?

Cupid's Advice:

New parents are always hesitant about leaving their little bundle of joy for the first time. Let Cupid help you decide how often to leave your child with a babysitter:

1. For date nights: It's important to have kid-free date nights at least once or twice a month for the sake of your relationship with your partner. They will help strengthen your bond and improve your family as a whole.

2. When necessary: Sometimes life happens and you're forced to leave your child with a baby sitter even when you may not want to. This doesn't make you a bad parent. Just roll with the punches and find a sitter that you trust.

3. During special events: Not many people are fond of having a newborn attend their wedding. For special events like this it's okay to leave you child at home with a baby sitter.

Prince William's Former Nanny Is Taking Care of Prince George

By Gabriela Robles

According to People, Prince William and Kate Middleton have asked for some assistance in the baby department. The new parents have revealed that former-nanny-to-William, Jessie Webb, has recently been helping out at the couple's house in north Wales and is likely to be coming along with them when they take a trip to Scotland for a visit with Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip. Author of the upcoming book A Century of Royal Children, Ingrid Seward, says that Webb will assist as a big help who knows how life in the royal family can work. "She knows the ropes and knows what happens... That's preferred rather than someone new to it all, someone who'd be terrified of it all."

How do you know who to trust with your children?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding someone that you can really trust will keep your child safe is a difficult decision to make. You worry what will happen if the wrong situation comes along and how a nanny will really react when it does. Cupid has some advice:

1. Take recommendations: If someone you know uses this great babysitter and goes out all the time on stress-free dates with her husband, ask for the sitter's number! As long as you trust the opinion of your friend, you're likely to end up with a helper that you'll be satisfied with.

2. Set the standard: Want someone that knows CPR? Ask them. Need them to know how to actually cook for your kids instead of getting takeout every day? Request it. Make sure your needs are met. You want your children in a comfortable, safe, healthy environment. Don't feel like you need to lower your standards just to get a nanny.

3. Do your research: It's not a crime to ask for references or to do a quick Google search. You're leaving your loved ones in the hands of someone you want to know you can trust. Sometimes you need to do the extra research and this is one of those times that are worth your time and attention.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katy Perry, Kate Middleton and Fergie

By Shoshi

For today's expert post, I want to look at the energy of three celebrity couples who are celebrating exciting times in their relationships: Katy Perry and John Mayer, who are back together and recently released their first duet; Kate Middleton and Prince William, who welcomed their son, Prince George, in July; and Fergie and Josh Duhamel, who are expecting their first child very soon.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jennifer Aniston, Julianne Hough and Kim Kardashian

Katy Perry and John Mayer: This musically-talented duo is on again – at least for now. It's becoming difficult to define their love since it tends to change so quickly. Mayer has actually managed to keep his mouth shut about this relationship, unlike his behavior in the past. (Did we really need to know that sex with Jessica Simpson was like a drug?)

When looking at the energy around the couple, it seems like they're having fun. While they do enjoy each other's company, what keeps them getting back together is their ability to relate to one another. It's a level of comfort that they both need at this time.

There's been buzz about their new duet – and for good reason! Mayer sings that he can see himself growing old with her. How adorable is that? The only thing is that gushy love eventually ends. The soulful singer has a habit of quickly becoming attached to the woman he's dating, so only time will tell if they survive past the honeymoon stage.

In their duet, he also wrote that he couldn't run anymore. He's finally starting to show signs of getting serious about his love life. During his relationship with Perry, she will help him grow up a bit. Even so, Mayer will become bored and soon move on to the next lady.

Kate Middleton and Prince William: Ever since Kate Middleton and Prince William announced their engagement, the world has been enchanted with the lovely couple. When Kate announced she was pregnant with a royal bundle of joy, we couldn't wait for the baby to arrive!

We can all finally relax: Prince George is here and has been presented to the world. The Duke and Duchess's marriage appears to be going strong; in fact, they've never been better. Surrounding their relationship is the energy of Princess Diana, as if she watches over them and guides her son. Without a doubt, these two are best friends. They want to keep a low profile and simply enjoy their lives together.

There is another baby energy circling Kate. They want to wait a bit before their next child, but they may not have a choice. Don't be surprised if she's soon pregnant with baby number two, which will bring them a daughter.

Related Link: Will Harry and Pippa Be Named Godparents for Prince George?

Fergie and Josh Duhamel: Fergie and Josh Duhamel cannot wait until the arrival of their son. The energy in their relationship has shifted for the better since Fergie got pregnant. Rumors had been circling about Josh's activities with other women, but now, he's a bit more centered and focused on family.

Fergie has just legally changed her name from Stacy Ann Ferguson to Fergie Duhamel. It is said that, when you change your name, you change your destiny, so the newly-annointed Mrs. Duhamel has shifted her energy on many levels.

Josh is going to be really close to his son – it'll be hard to find him in a photo without him. It will cause him to want to work less, while Fergie will be inspired with material for a new album dedicated to the two men in her life and the love she has for them. It's a very happy time in the Duhamel household. All the best to them!

Will Harry and Pippa Be Named Godparents to Prince George?

By Kerri Sheehan

Now that the Prince George has arrived the speculations about whom William and Kate will choose as godparents has begun. Members of the royal family traditionally have six godparents, three being women and three being men. Many are placing bets that William's bother, Prince Harry and Kate's sister, Pippa Middleton will be among the chosen, but no one can be sure. Both Harry and Pippa are already closely related to Prince George so William and Kate may fill the six godparent roles with those who they wish to forge ties with. Ingrid Seward, editor-in-chief of Majesty magazine dished to People, "Godparents don't have to be your best friend. Quite often it is quite the opposite, it can be somebody quite random. Prince George's christening is set to take place in the fall so speculations will likely continue until then.

How do you select role models for your new arrival?

Cupid's Advice:

With a new baby come new responsibilities, such as choosing what kind of people to share your bundle of joy with. Cupid has some advice about how to go about selecting roles models for your new arrival:

1. Keep them positive: Growing children are extremely impressionable, so try not to keep any 'Negative Nancys' too close. If your child grows up hearing "I can't," or, "I'm not good enough to do that," then the thought will likely rub off on them.

2. Be a role model: As a parent you've the one who your children will look up to most. Be your best you and your kids will strive to reach the bar you set.

3. Let them have a say: Each child is different; therefore the role models that each child needs will be different. You and your partner should consider your child's likes and personality when trying to pick out roles models for them.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Introduce Their Son to the World

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, a day after Kate Middleton gave birth to a healthy boy, both parents decided to show him off to the world. The happy couple emerged outside the Lindo Wing at St. Mary's Hospital. In a statement released Tuesday, July 23, the first-time parents said, "We would like to thank the staff at the Lindo Wing and the whole hospital for the tremendous care the three of us have received."

How do you introduce your newborn child to friends and family?

Cupid's Advice:

The arrival of a newborn can be challenging, especially if it's your first child. It comes to no surprise that your friends and family will want to see the baby as soon as he/she is allowed to go home with you, but it's best to introduce your baby to a small amount of people little by little. You don't want to overwhelm yourself or the baby with loads of people hovering around you. Cupid has some tips:

1. Start with family: Introduce your new baby to your family first. Start with your parents and your partner's parents. Don't allow all family members to come and see the newborn all at once. Doing this could cause your child to become irritated and the stress of so many people surrounding your baby might cause you to become frustrated as well.

2. Let close friends visit: It isn't healthy to have your newborn outdoors for long periods of time. Since your baby is so young, he/she can catch an illness quicker. If you're really anxious for your friends to see the baby, let a few of them come to you. Invite one or two friends over to your house when your baby has been fed and is ready for a little interaction.

3. Social media and video chat: Some of your friends and family might not live in the same state as you. In this case, take a few pictures of your newborn and post them to Instagram, Facebook or whatever social networks you use. Also, it would be a good idea to video chat with some of your distant relatives. It's not as personal as a live visit, but it's much better than just looking at pictures.

Royal Baby: Prince William Says 'We Could Not Be Happier'

By Kristyn Schwiep

The Royal Baby has arrived. On Monday, following the birth of his son, Prince William said, “We could not be happier.” According to People, William, 31, is spending his first night as a father at St. Mary’s Hospital in Paddington, London, with his wife, Kate, 31, and their newborn son. Prince Charles, William’s father, said “Grandparenthood is a unique moment in anyone’s life, as countless kind people have told me in recent months, so I am enormously proud and happy to be a grandfather for the first time.”

What are some ways to support your partner through the first days with an infant?

Cupid’s Advice:

Becoming a parent for the first time can make you overwhelmed with joy and fear and all sorts of emotions, but there are ways to keep it together. So what are some way to support your partner through the first days with an infant? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Let them have some alone time: There is no question that the first days with an infant can be overwhelming and exhausting, so one of the nicest things you can do to support your partner is to take your new born and let your partner have some quiet time. Letting your partner rest for at least 30 minutes will go a long way. If you both let each other have some down time you will be able to put all your energy into your new baby.

2. Doing the small things: Wake up in the middle of the night with your new born, change the diapers, any thing you can do to make it easier on your partner will show great support. Doing something for your partner will give them something to look forward to.

3. Support them: Things can get a little crazy during the first days with an infant, so support your partner. Tell them they are doing a great job and that you are proud of them. These words of encouragement will help your partner feel reassured and that they are doing a good job with your new baby.

Prince William and Kate

Middleton Welcome Their Royal Baby Boy

By Kerri Sheehan

Kate Middleton, The Duchess of Cambridge, gave birth to a little Prince this past Monday. According to People an official statement released Monday morning from Kensington Palace read, “Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Cambridge has been admitted this morning to St. Mary’s Hospital, Paddington, London in the early stages of labour.” Prince William was by her side when she was admitted to the hospital just before 6 a.m. The baby’s birth went as planned and the new mother and father gave the media a first glance at their bundle of joy Tuesday afternoon as they left the hospital.

What are some ways to support your partner through labor?

Cupid's Advice:

Giving birth is one of the hardest things a woman can experience. Cupid has some advice about how you can support your partner while they're in labor:

1. Music: Labor is a super stressful time for any woman, so playing some music is a great way to keep her as calm as can be. Soothing, mellow tunes will ensure that your significant other is in a good place mentally when the baby finally arrives.

2. Speak Up: Your partner already has enough to worry about so make sure that you act as an advocate for any wants or needs she has. It's your job to keep comfortable until it's time for the big push.

3. Be Prepared: Doing your research beforehand will help you know how the birthing process will go. Preparing yourself by watching birthing videos and reading up on what is to come when the baby is on its way out.

David Beckham: Prince William and Kate Middleton Are 'So Loving'

By Kristyn Schwiep

Being a first-time parent can always be a little intimidating, but David Beckham thinks Prince William and Kate Middleton will be on top of it when their first child is born. According to UsMagazine.com, Beckham thinks they are going to be amazing parents, because they're so loving towards children. Beckham, father of four, believes the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge will be great with the royal baby. Beckham attended the royal wedding in April and says that he has seen William grow from a young boy into an unbelievable gentleman. Beckham even joked and suggested to USA Today, that the royal couple should name their first-born David if they welcome a son.

How do you know if your partner will make a good parent?

Cupid's Advice:

How do you know if your partner will make a good parent? Well, if they're sensitive, thoughtful, and supportive, you should be in the clear. All the qualities that make your partner a great partner are ones that will make them a great parent. So what are some qualities that will make your partner a good parent? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. They love to spend time with you: If your partner loves spending time with you at home opposed to spending the night out partying with friends, you've got yourself a keeper. A partner who rather spend time with you should show that you have nothing to worry about when the baby comes along. Now you know your partner will be there for you and the baby no matter what.

2. They're patient: If they're patient with you, work, family or friends you can breathe easy. If your partner knows how to handle a stressful situation calmly you have nothing to worry about when welcoming your new-born into the world. Your partner will be just as patient with your child as they would be with any other situation.

3. They love kids: If your partner loves spending time with their niece, nephews, or younger cousins your partner will make a great parent. Kids and babies can be overwhelming and exhausting so if your partner loves playing with kids and they love them back, you have nothing to worry about.

Prince William Is Showing No Signs of Nerves Pre-Royal

Baby

By April Littleton

While taking on his brother Prince Harry at a game of polo, Prince William showed no signs of nervousness as he awaits the birth of his first child, which is just days away. Tusk's chief executive Charlie Mayhew told People, "We weren't expecting William to be here, it was a lovely surprise. He was on really good form." Prince William has ended all duties at the RAF Search and Rescue Base so he can be at his wife's side when she gives birth.

How do you soothe your partner's nerves pre-baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Most partners deal with anxiety over a pregnancy because they don't know what to expect when the baby comes. If it's the birth of their first child, they don't know if they'll be good parents, they worry over the health of their little one and they're nervous about seeing you in so much pain. Cupid has some advice:

1. Learn about the birth: To help ease your mind and your boo's, it's best to learn all about the birthing process before it actually happens. Many couples make the mistake of waiting until the actual delivery date to figure out what to expect – this is the wrong move to make. In order for your significant other to be more engaged and for you to feel more calm when the chaos sets in, you need to do your research. Participate in a birthing class, read pregnancy books and watch some interactive videos. The more prepared you are, the better.

2. Talk to your partner: Take the time to discuss the details of the pregnancy with your loved one, especially if this is going to be your first child together. Talk about what your expectations are and vice versa. You may even want to take this time to come up with a schedule for when the baby comes. Your life and daily activities will change, but your significant other may not be aware of this fact yet.

3. Pack early: Most of the pre-baby stress comes from couples delaying to get certain things done before the baby arrives – like packing for your trip to the hospital. Get your clothing and your baby's first outfit ready, buy a spare toothbrush, keep extra shampoo and conditioner stocked, etc. Whatever you think you'll need for your stay at the hospital needs to be already packed and ready to go.

Kate Middleton Attends Final Official Engagement Before Baby

By Petra Halbur

On Saturday, Kate Middleton attended a parade held in honor of Queen Elizabeth's birthday. She rode in a open-topped carriage with her brother-in-law, Prince Harry, and waved to the crowd. She later joined most of the royal family on the balcony of Buckingham Palace. According to People, this is expected to be Middleton's final official engagement before the birth of her child.

How do you make the mother of your child comfortable leading up to birth?

Cupid's Advice:

Child birth is strenuous (to make a massive understatement), but so are the days and weeks leading up to birth. Cupid has some ideas to keep the mother of your child comfortable during this nerve-racking period:

1. Express enthusiasm: Talk about how excited you are to be a parent. Even if there has never been any question concerning your eagerness parenthood (and if there is, resolve this issue ASAP), your partner will appreciate the reassurance at this tense 11th hour.

2. Tell stories: Chances are, your partner might be getting a little nervous about the prospect of giving birth. So, ask friends and relatives with healthy children to talk about their experiences with her. This will help ease her concerns.

3. Massage: After nine-months of pregnancy, your partner's body is bound to be fatigued and achy. Treat her to a nice massage that will soothe the pain and help her relax.

Celebrity Relationships: Kate Middleton Taking Cooking Classes, Learning New Recipes for Prince William

By Petra Halbur

It looks like the Duchess of Cambridge has been getting in touch with her inner culinary queen. As her July due date approaches, Kate Middleton has started taking cooking lessons from her new housekeeper, Antonella Fresolone. Fresolone, who worked at Buckingham Palace for 13 years, has been teaching the mother-to-be how to make “a number of new dishes,” according to UsMagazine.com. Middleton is hoping to learn how to make some of Fresolone’s signature meals, such as her renowned homemade pasta and French bread, at the Nottingham cottage she shares with Prince William.

How can you show your partner that you care?

Cupid's Advice:

As wonderful as pregnancy is, it can also be a turbulent, chaotic period of time. With all the effort that goes into preparing for your baby, it can be difficult to take time off for you and your partner. How do you manage to show your partner that you care? Cupid has some ideas:

1. The little things: Since it's not always be practical to fly your partner out to Hawaii for the weekend, try doing some small favors that your partner will really appreciate. Whether it's volunteering to do the dishes, or offering to give a massage, incorporate tiny acts of love and consideration into your day. They won't go unnoticed.

2. Do errands together: Everyone wants to feel included. While it may not seem particularly romantic, inviting your partner to go on errands with you can be simple yet effective way to show how much you like spending time together.

3. Express affection: Whether it's holding hands, cuddling, or simply saying, "I love you," little expressions of affection are a great reminder of how much you care for your partner.

Celebrity Mom: Kate Middleton Prepares for Sleepless Nights of Parenthood

By Andrea Surujnauth

Kate Middleton is keeping details about her pregnancy well under wraps, but she proudly expresses the fact that she is prepared for all the upcoming sleepless nights. According to UsMagazine.com, the royal couple was handing out traditional shamrock sprigs to the officers and guardsmen at the St. Patrick's Day Parade when Sergeant Thomas Laven got the chance to briefly speak to the Duchess of Cambridge. Sergeant Laven, who has a 7-month-old son of his own, told reporters, "I congratulated her on the impending birth and said, 'You've got sleepless nights to come.' She said she was prepared for it."

How do you compromise with your partner when it comes to night-time parent duty?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is a magical experience....until one of you has to get up multiple times during the night. How can the two of you handle the night-time shift of parenthood fairly so you both get a chance to sleep? Don't worry, Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Alternate days: The two of you can alternate on who ever gets the night shift of parenthood. One night you do it, the other night your partner does it. This way the responsibility is equally split up between the two of you.

2. Weekend/ Weekday: If one of you works while the other stays home, you can split the night shift up by week and weekdays. If you are the one that stays home, then let your partner sleep throughout the night during weekdays while you get up. Then on weekends your partner can get up while you sleep.

3. Divide the night: If you don't think you can make it through a whole night getting up constantly, then you and your partner should split the night in half. You can stay up late and then your partner can get up early. This way you both will be able to get some sleep every night and your bundle of joy will still be well taken care of.

What are some ways to make your pregnant partner feel beautiful?

Cupid's Advice:

Being pregnant leaves you with a lot of extra weight on your feet and on your shoulders. Your self-esteem and confidence drops, your hormones increase, and you feel your world changing. This is a emotional whirlwind for a pregnant person. Your pregnant partner may not feel as beautiful as they used to. Cupid has some advice on how to change this:

1. Express love: Love makes you feel, well, loved. It makes your insides twirl and giggle. It simply makes you feel beauty, If your pregnant mate is not feeling beautiful, tell them how much you love them. Express it through different ways. Do some chores, make them a card, kiss their forehead and whisper in their ears, get them their favorite craving at the moment, love them! Your beau will feel beautiful if you show them how much love you have for them.

2. Do chores: Chores are a pain, no matter what the task, they simply are not welcoming nor wanted. The last thing your pregnant partner wants to do is chores, they're tired, hormonal, cramped, sore. They should be able to focus on preparing for the child they are about to push out, and the family they will soon have. This bring said, do your pregnant mate's chores! It again shows them how much you love them, which in return, shows them that they're beautiful.

3. Massage: Honestly though, who doesn't enjoy a massage? Your worries fade out, you relax done, plus they're enjoyable. This feeling multiplies when you're pregnant, the feeling of all your problems fading away. So give your pregnant love a nice, hearty massage. Take time from your phone, your job, social media and what not. Focus thirty minutes of your time to the love of your life. Your mate will appreciate this immensely, plus it will make them feel beautiful again!

Online](#), Kate's parents, Michael and Carole Middleton joined the couple in the island, Mustique. According to sources, the couple are staying in a extravagant five-bedroom villa with ocean views of other islands nearby. UsMagazine.com reports, "The villa is decorated with Balinese antiques and artwork, and surrounds a tranquil pond and tropical gardens. Outside, the expectant parents can soak in a 64-foot swimming pool and lounge on a sun deck and gazebos and dine al fresco on a dining patio.”

What are some vacation ideas when you're pregnant?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting away when you're pregnant is a great idea to unload stress off yourself and your shoulders. Planning the vacation may be relatively stressful because of traveling, booking, fees, transportation. However, when you get to the vacation, you will be more than grateful that you took the risk. Cupid has some advice:

1. Pregnancy massage: In general, who doesn't love a massage? When you're pregnant, there are many stresses that come upon you. Booking a pregnancy massage for your significant other will make them feel beautiful and allow them to unwind.

2. Beach: Digging your toes into the sand will make all your problems and worries wash away like the ocean. Relaxing your days away on the beach will make you realize how grateful you are to have this opportunity of carrying a child.

3. Weekend to the city: Shopping, museums, parks, cafes; the city has the cosmopolitan atmosphere women love. Enjoy a weekend to the city with all your girlfriends. Wandering, local shops, spending time in a different city can give your life a little more kick.

How do you announce your pregnancy to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When new and exciting things happen in our lives, the first thing we want to do is share the news with those we care about. Announcing to friends and family that you are pregnant definitely falls into that category. Here are some tips on how to share the news with loved ones:

1. Tell the father first: Before telling your mom and sister the good news, make sure the father knows first. This way, he doesn't feel unimportant or left out. It will also be a lot easier—and memorable—to tell people together that you are expecting.

2. Say it with joy: When first finding out you are pregnant, fears and doubts may enter your mind; talk to your partner about your concerns before telling everyone else in your life. You should sound ecstatic about your pregnancy so others can be happy for you as well.

3. Don't spring it on them: The last thing you want to do is tell your family you are pregnant during the wrong time. Avoid sharing the news during an argument you are having with your parents. It is happy news and should be told during a peaceful dinner.

What are some ways to support your pregnant friend or relative?

Cupid’s Advice:

It is necessary to show your pregnant friends and relatives that you are there for them. No matter the circumstance, it is essential to let them know you are ready to help them out. Here are some other ways to support them:

1. Allow them time alone: Although your pregnant friend or relative may want you around to assist with baby showers, or do obscure food runs, or just simply be around. It is necessary to give them some time for themselves, let them take a deep breath and relax. A huge way to support them would be to set up a hot bubble bath with a cup of tea and let their emotions fade out.

2. Help with the baby shower: Being pregnant is not always easy. With doctors appointments, constant belly rubs, possible active work, a baby shower seems impossible. Most mothers are ecstatic to celebrate their baby on the way with a shower. To support your friend or relative, help them with the planning and organization of the shower. Help make invitations, or gather food together. You could also put together a trivia game, or find a venue for the shower. This takes a toll off the mothers' shoulders.

3. Offer them a foot massage: Yes you may be opposed to this however, think of all the weight and stress that mother is putting on her feet. A foot massage would allow them to unwind, relieve some stress, and give you a few extra bonus points.

Queen Elizabeth Says Prince William and Kate Middleton's

Child Will Be Called 'Princess'

By Michelle Danzig

According to People, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth has issued a formal decree that Prince William and Kate Middleton's baby girl will be recognized as a princess. If the royal family followed the century-old decree by George V, the daughter born to William and Kate would don the title 'lady.' It was previously stated that only the eldest son of the eldest son of the Prince of Wales was allowed the royal title of 'prince.' Although the decision was made on New Year's Eve, the London Gazette announced the declaration, stating that it applies to all future children of the couple. It partially stated the the children of William and Kate, "should have and enjoy the style, title and attribute of royal highness with the titular dignity of Prince or Princess prefixed to their Christian names or with such other titles of honour." In addition, it follows additional, proposed changes in legislation that will omit gender discrimination in the line of succession.

What are some ways to keep your parents and/or in-laws involved in your pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

A baby can be an exciting milestone for not only you, but for your family, too. Like the Royal Family, while anticipating the birth of the first grandchild, you may find that your family desires to be more involved in your pregnancy than ever. Whether it is the first, middle or last child, here are some excellent ways your can keep your parents and/or in-laws involved in your pregnancy:

1. Invite them over for dinner more often: Your body is going to be changing in many ways. If you don't see your parents or in-laws as often as you would like, try to plan some more family dinners. This way, they can come over and see your body change and witness your pregnancy first hand.

2. Send pictures of the sonograms: Seeing a sonogram live is a beautiful experience. Because this is an intimate time that you and your partner share, you may not desire to break the moment by inviting family members to the doctor. Instead, ask for multiple print-outs of the sonogram photo. With today's technology, you can even get a video recording of the sonogram. Send this out to your family so that they can watch the baby develop the way you do.

3. Take them shopping with you: While you prepare for the baby's arrival, include your parents or in-laws in the process. Invite them out on a day that you need to buy supplies, have them pick out some baby clothes and let them feel involved. Who knows, you may also get some free supplies from the family as well!
