

Sources Shoot Down Rumors that Kate Middleton Is Pregnant

Although Prince William and Kate Middleton will be celebrating their first wedding anniversary, they will not be planning any baby showers just yet. According to UsMagazine.com, "Kate is not pregnant or about to make a pregnancy announcement." Rumors surfaced in November, when she refused peanut paste in Denmark. Overall, a witness says, "They looked very happy together."

How do you know when it's time to start a family with your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

Starting a family is a major step to take with your significant other. Here are a few tips to know when you're ready:

1. You're settled: When you and your man are comfortable and have fallen into a routine with one another and you're looking for something new, it's time to start talking about bringing a new life into the picture. Having jobs and a nice savings account won't hurt either.

2 You have a home: Having a warm and welcoming home is very important when bringing a baby into the picture. Being settled in a nice neighborhood with good schools will give you the chance to raise your child with safety, as well as compassion.

3. It feels right: Lastly, you will know it's time when you feel it. Everything will fall into place. Having the big talk with your lover should feel natural and exciting, not nerve wracking or uncomfortable.

What are some things to do on vacation that will bond you as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're on vacation together alone, as a couple or with your family and friends, Cupid has some ideas that are sure to strengthen the bond of your relationship:

1. Adventure: Seek the thrills that your vacation spot has to offer, whether it's something as extreme as skydiving or something a little more low key such as snorkeling. Doing something together that tests your limits or gives you a new perspective on life will create a moment that neither of you will ever forget.

2. Relaxation: It's called a vacation for a reason, so take time to relax. Enjoy a couples massage, lay out on the beach and listen to the crash of the waves against the shore, or sink into a hot tub under the stars. Having the chance to unwind will release any stress or tension you've been carrying around. It could also make you more patient with you partner, who usually has to suffer the lash of your negative energy.

3. Meditation: Remind each other why you're in love, and talk about the reasons you're crazy about them. It's always nice to have a reminder, because we can often feel like we're being taken for granted when our partners stop doing the little things. It will give you the chance to reignite the flame you felt when you first met, and could even give you the chance to share some laughs or tears.

There are plenty of beautiful celebs in Hollywood, and when two gorgeous celebrities are matched together, they turn heads and leave us awe-struck. Here are ten of the most beautiful famous couples that Hollywood has to offer:

Beautiful Famous Couples

1. Prince William and Kate Middleton: The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge have earned the number one spot on our list. 2. Tom Brady and Gisele Bundchen: Fame, fortune, and beauty – this Hollywood couple has it all. They've been married for almost two years, and they're definitely turning heads. The New England Patriots quarterback and his supermodel wife have

Celebrity Love is Stronger Than The Rumors

9. Will Smith and Jada Pinkett: Apart from the recent rumors of a celebrity divorce after being married for fourteen years, this power couple is still together and we're cheering for their recovery. 2. Game day: Relationships require sacrifices, so if you're not a sports fan it's time to be one for a day. Buy your guy tickets to his favorite sporting event and he'll be part of your cheering team for a longtime to come.

Engagement Rings of the Rich and Famous

By Nan Gibbons

If we're being honest with ourselves, we know that a 2 million dollar engagement ring probably isn't in our future. Although you may not be able to afford a multi-million dollar rock, you can still channel inspiration from celebrities to choose a quality, stylish ring for your upcoming engagement. Your personal taste and style mixed with the splendor of celebrity rings will result in the perfect look for you. Here are some styles to consider:

Related: Rosie O'Donnell Proposes with a \$100,000 Ring

Classic Elegance

You can never go wrong with classic engagement rings. The timeless beauty of a studded band like Carrie Underwood's or a simple set of diamonds will always do the trick. Underwood's ring combines the style of a wedding ring with the sparkle of an engagement ring and makes for a pretty amazing result!

Standard rings with diamonds in the center of a plain band never fail to draw "oohs and aahs" from family and friends.

Vintage Charm

If you're drawn to the idea of a vintage ring, there are several ways you can work this angle. You can choose to go with an older style or base it off of family history. Prince William combined both of these tactics when he gave his then fiancé, Kate, the same ring his mother Diana wore when she was engaged. The gem had the splendor of an older style, plus the emotional value of family tradition. Going for an older style ring or re-purposing a family heirloom can be a great way to re-create the style of Kate's gorgeous ring.

Bright and Colorful

Thinking outside the box and considering a less traditional ring is great for couples who enjoy being one-of-a-kind. For her recent engagement, Jessica Simpson was given a stunning bright red ruby framed by two diamonds and set in a gold band.

It looks much more unique than the standard, but still incorporates the classic timelessness of diamonds.

No matter what your style preference, there is a great and affordable ring with your name on it. Whether you prefer sparkly diamonds or colorful gems, you can use celebrity styles to inspire you in order to find the perfect ring for your budget.

Prince William and Kate

Middleton Plan to Move to a Bigger Apartment

Could a royal heir soon be on the way for Prince William and Kate Middleton? According to People, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are making plans to upgrade from their two-bedroom apartment in Kensington Palace by summer 2013. Queen Elizabeth's late sister Princess Margaret, previously occupied their new apartment that is said to be the size of a small mansion. However, before the royal couple can move into their new digs, much work needs to be done. Asbestos issues along with the heating and hot water systems need to be fixed before it is suitable for royal living. As for their previous Kensington Palace residence, Prince Harry will be moving in.

What are some factors to consider when you're looking for a home with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you decide to move in with your partner, look for a safe happy home with enough space for both of you. Here are some tips:

1. Be economical: You may have always dreamed of living in that penthouse or having the nicest house on the block, but if you can't afford it yet, don't force the issue. No one wants to end up in foreclosure or not being able to pay the rent.

2. Embrace your space: Living in a studio apartment together may be a big money saver, but when it comes to your personal space, it won't be the best choice. Go for a one bedroom instead where you can still live together, but spend time apart.

3. Safety: Aside from trying to live in a safe area, if you're planning on having children, look for a childproof residence around a good school system.

Rumor: Is Kate Middleton Pregnant?

Kate Middleton may have some expectant news to share with the world soon, according to UsMagazine.com. Rumors began when the Duchess of Cambridge refused to eat peanut paste, a food meant to be avoided by women who are expecting a baby. Now, the 29-year-old wife of Prince William has been seen holding, patting, rubbing and even cradling her stomach. When visiting a UNICEF distribution center in Copenhagen, Denmark recently, an onlooker described Middleton's actions as "very noticeable" and said, "She continually patted [her stomach] and held her hands against it. She must have been doing it without realizing it." William and Kate do intend to have children in the future, but it looks like the time for them to start a family may be sooner rather than later.

How do you keep your pregnancy a secret until you're ready to reveal it?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not quite ready to share the joyous news of a pregnancy yet, there are ways to keep it quiet for a while:

1. Resist the hand-on-tummy move: Sometimes expectant mothers unknowingly rest their hands on their stomach, like Kate Middleton has been seen doing. When trying to hide a pregnancy, be conscious of this action and make an effort to keep your hands on your hips or elsewhere.

2. Dress to hide the bump: No one said that mothers-to-be can't be trendy. Wear clothing that's both in style and flattering to your growing figure, such as empire waist tops or dresses.

3. Look the part: If you don't want people to know you're pregnant, don't look pregnant. This means keeping up with your hair and make-up and avoiding the puffy eyes which can cause a co-worker or friend to ask, "Are you feeling okay?"

Best Celebrity-Couple Costumes for Halloween

By Whitney Baker

There are so many fun factors about Halloween. First, there are the pumpkins: pumpkin carving, pumpkin patches, pumpkin pie – and an annual viewing of the TV show, It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown. Next, you can't forget candy, like Brach's candy corn, which are only available seasonally in the autumn, making them a particularly delicious and coveted treat. Then, there's all that scary stuff: haunted houses, witches, goblins and ghouls – boo! And finally, perhaps the best part is the costumes – for one day out of the year, you get to be anyone you want to be, celebrities included.

For anyone looking for a little romance on a holiday that's typically filled with fright, you're in luck! Here's a list of celebrity couples whose looks can be transformed into costumes. One of them may be the perfect fit for you and your partner.

1. Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez: For the teeny-boppers out there – or anyone hoping to feel a bit younger for an evening – the prince and princess of pop make a very suitable duo. For Bieber, any guy with longer locks can sweep his bangs to the side, and any boy with a shorter 'do can simply throw on a sideways Yankees hat. Add a pair of Ray-Ban Wayfarers (dark lenses not necessary), jeans, and a hoodie, and you're set! For Gomez, you can rock a casual but glam look: skinny jeans, a flowing tank top, flats, hoop earrings, and wavy hair. If you really want to channel these two lovebirds, PDA is highly encouraged.

2. Katy Perry and Russell Brand: This eccentric and oh-so-in-love couple is an ideal choice for anyone looking to get a little crazy this Halloween. Perry has donned a number of hair colors and styles over the years, so take your pick:

bubble-gum pink or bright blue, jet black, or her most recent, honey-hued blonde. As for outfits, anything is fair game, even that sassy and sparkly Smurfette dress that's hiding in your closet. For Brand, the look is quite low-key: a pair of skinny jeans and a tight (and low-cut) t-shirt, along with unbrushed and knotted hair, some stubble, and a bit of guyliner. Oh, and don't forget the British accent.

3. Prince William and Princess Catherine: Their wedding may have been months ago, but people are still talking about these newlyweds, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Princess Catherine has taken the fashion world by storm with her chic and totally relatable style, making her the ultimate princess to emulate on this costume-filled holiday. To truly stand out, opt for their wedding look: your man can wear an outfit that resembles Prince William's Irish Guards' red military uniform, while you can get glamorous in a lacy and flowing white gown, a beautiful sapphire (faux) engagement ring, and a bouquet of flowers. Complete the look with a tiara, of course.

4. Blair Waldorf and Chuck Bass: Okay, okay – so they may not be a real celebrity couple, but they've certainly made their mark as the "it couple" in the Gossip Girl-World of the Upper East Side. To imitate this high-society pair, girls should pull together their most designer-drenched look. Choose from high school Waldorf, who wouldn't have been caught dead without her preppy headband, or the now college-aged fashionista, who has adopted a more grown-up dress code – just be sure to accessorize accordingly. As for Bass, a guy only needs a three-piece suit, bow tie, pocket square, and all the charm that he can muster.

Prince William Discusses Queen Elizabeth's Wedding Advice

It seems as if people are still talking about the unforgettable royal wedding that took place on April 29, 2011, between Prince William and Kate Middleton. The royal couple did not plan their big event alone, however. Middleton took inspiration from Princess Diana's wedding and William took advice from his grandma, Queen Elizabeth. According to UsMagazine.com, the Prince was happy to have the Queen's help. Although he revised her original recommended guest list, he did take to heart her suggestion on what he should wear on the big day.

How do you include your family in your wedding planning process?

Cupid's Advice:

Weddings aren't just for the bride and groom anymore. Families everywhere want to be a part of the big day. Instead of turning into bridezilla, thank them for their help by including them in the small stuff:

1. Suggestions aren't final: Allowing your family members to make recommendations lets them feel helpful, but it doesn't mean that you have to say "yes" to every one.

2. Designate jobs: Having help when you need it is valuable. Give jobs to each family member, whether it's making decorations or helping you fill out thank you cards. Be grateful for their willingness to pitch in.

3. Let them participate: Bring your friends and family along for support to less intimate parts of the wedding planning process. Things like food tasting, choosing save the dates, and visiting venues are great options.

What are some rewarding things you can do together as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Though many relationships can get by on romance alone, it's also important to bring out the best in your partner. Here are a few ways you and your loved one can make a difference:

1. Visit a homeless shelter: Many homeless shelters open on the weekends for a few hours at a time. Instead of sleeping in, volunteer your Saturday morning and help out. It'll bond you as a couple and make you feel your time is worthwhile.

2. Visit an animal shelter: Find the nearest no-kill shelter in your neighborhood. These shelters are almost always short on room and low on money. Acts as simple as cleaning a litter box can aid the shelter.

3. Donate: If you and your partner don't have time to visit the nearest charity, try donating instead. Sending some old clothing to the Salvation Army is a fast and easy way to contribute.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Re-Gift Land Rover Wedding Present

This royal couple loves to give back. Upon receiving a Mountain Rescue Team Land Rover as a wedding gift, Prince William and Kate Middleton passed it on as charity to the Mountain Rescue England and Wales. After a raffle, it was awarded to the Patterdale team, according to UsMagazine.com. "The vehicle will be greatly appreciated. Our present vehicle only has a shelf life of about six months and we were embarking on a major fundraising exercise to raise more than £45,000 to replace it," said Keith Montgomery, honorary secretary of Glossop Mountain Rescue Team.

What do you do if you don't like a gift you get at your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting questionable gifts is an inevitable part of getting married. You're not going to like every single gift you receive from your guests. Here are a few ways to deal with that situation:

1. Regardless, send a thank you card: No matter what the gift, you still must send a “thank you” note even if you can’t stand what you received. Just because this particular guest may have misread your tastes, that doesn’t mean he or she doesn’t have the best wishes for you and your marriage.

2. Give back: Chances are you may receive more than one toaster or food processor. Instead of sticking them in a drawer never to be seen again, donate these items to a shelter or group home for children. These types of facilities are not able to afford luxuries, and giving back to them is a great way to bring good karma to your marriage.

3. Use your gift receipt: You can always return the unwanted present to the store and use the cash for something you really wanted. However, if you choose to go this route, don’t tell your guest. Although they most likely want you to have what you need, they might be hurt if they find you didn’t like their gift.

What are some ways to tell your partner loves you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

It's tough to tell if your partner really loves you for you and that he or she has good intentions. Cupid has some tips:

1. They accept you at your worst: If your mate is able to put up with you when you're having a bad day or are in a bad mood, it shows that he or she is truly there for you.

2. They remember the little things: If your partner remembers things like your favorite dessert and what kind of perfume you wear, it shows that he or she pays attention to you and wants to make you happy.

3. They are open and honest: Being open and truthful shows that your mate has nothing to hide. If he didn't love you for the right reasons, he'd avoid certain topics.

How do you handle your beau's competitive side?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a competitive partner can be tough, especially if you're not into the whole "winning" shebang. If you've ever been in this situation, you probably know how hard it is to tolerate your boyfriend or girlfriend's competitive spirit. Cupid has some advice for easing off the stress:

1. Be supportive: Take a hint from Duchess Kate and cheer your partner on as he or she engages in competition. You may be tempted to avoid that tennis match your sweetie takes way too seriously, but don't. Show you're there for him or her and take an active interest.

2. Celebrate together: There's no better way to let your partner know that you really want to be a part of his or her life than by celebrating his or her successes. Celebrate victories as a couple.

3. Relax them: Not every day is a winning day. Remind your partner that winning isn't everything. Yes, it's important to be supportive and take his or her interests seriously, but at the same time you don't want it to get out of hand. Give him or her a calming massage.

Cupid's Advice:

It's nice to spend time with a group of people, but sometimes enjoying quality time alone with your love is important. Here are a few ways to do just that:

you don't have an exact destination to visit.

5 Royal Summer Wedding Trends

By Brea Gunn

If you're like the rest of the world, you've heard about the royal wedding. And if you're like most brides, you were there in front of your television taking copious notes. It's a good thing you did, too, because this summer, it's all about royal inspiration.

You need not copy Kate and William exactly, as there's plenty of room for interpretation. Because Kate's taste is so classic, many of your guests may think that you came up with these ideas all by yourself!

1. The Ring

The talk of the year leading up to the wedding was Kate's ring. The beautiful sapphire has rekindled the wedding world's romance with gemstones. Sure, there are diamonds, and they'll always be a girl's best friend, but how about thinking outside of the box for your rings? There are a number of beautiful choices, from sapphires to rubies, to opals and beyond.

2. Fascinators

If you loved all of the fascinators, raise your hand! And for the record, they do not have to be large, ugly hats. They can be simple, eye catching and brilliant. Large or small, fascinators can compliment the bride's ensemble or dress up the wedding party. If you want to pull in a full royal wedding feel, ask your guests to wear their own hats and fascinators.

3. Blushers

Blushers, though once reserved for solemn church weddings, are definitely making a comeback this summer. Whether you choose a short birdcage-style blusher, or decide to go the full yard with an elbow dusting blusher, you really can't go wrong. The accessories are beautiful, and they create a soft frame around the face, which is truly elegant.

4. Lace

Kate brought lace back in a big way. Once considered too traditional, Kate's use of delicate lace was brilliant. You can add lace touches to your wedding gown, your bridesmaid and even your decor. Lace is a great way to soften the focus and add a touch of old-world elegance.

5. Monochromatic Color

Monochromatic colors for the bride and bridesmaid have also increased in popularity, thanks to Pippa's stunning gown. More and more brides are favoring a simple elegance for their palate, and an all-white wedding is a fantastic way to accomplish this. The sheer elegance will stun your guests, and the white backdrop just screams for brilliantly colored flowers, accessories and decor.

Prince William Beats Kate In Canadian Dragonboat Race

When it comes to competition, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are the folks to focus on right now. Prince William and Kate Middleton went head to head in a dragon boat race across Dalvay Lake in Canada Monday, according to People. The pair, who enjoy battling it out in tennis and other sports as well, showed off their competitive spirits at the Prince Edward Island boat race, in which they led teams of local athletes.

Is competition in a relationship healthy?

Cupid's Advice:

Playful competition is no problem, but if it gets too serious, put an end to it quickly. Here are some tips from Cupid:

1. Keep it simple: Not all competition is bad. You and your honey can play a few games of your choice and be able to spice it up by adding a little competition without getting too serious.

2. Be mindful: Check your surroundings at all times and keep in mind that people watch the way you and your significant other interact with each other. If you can't keep the competition friendly, people will automatically assume there's some tension or jealousy going on in your relationship.

3. Don't forget: A relationship takes give and take. It's not all about you. Know what you have in your lover and cherish that. This should avoid any unnecessary competition.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Take Cooking Class Overseas

A couple that cooks together, bonds together. While visiting Canada, Prince William and Kate Middleton enjoyed a cooking class together Saturday as part of their three-day tour, according to E! Online. Dressed in personalized chef uniforms, the royal newlyweds learned about cooking techniques at the Institut de tourisme et d'hôtellerie du Québec in Montreal. Still ahead for the couple is a search and rescue demonstration at Summerside Harbour in Prince Edward Island and a tour of the University of Calgary.

What types of classes can you take together as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

When trying to find something to do as a couple, try to find seminars or classes that meet both of your interests. Cupid has three solid suggestions:

1. Cooking: Like Will and Kate, perhaps some cooking classes would be a great way to spice things up. Plus, if both of you know how to cook, it'll be easier to surprise each other with a nice, romantic, home-cooked dinner.

2. Dancing: Whether it's salsa, hip-hop or ballroom, dancing is a great way to get some exercise with your partner in, at times, an intimate way.

3. Martial arts: Relationships can be very frustrating and taking a karate class, for example, can teach you not only how to control your emotions, but will help to release some stress. Also, you get to learn how to throw your lover over your back!
