

Zach Galifianakis' Wife is Pregnant and Close to Giving Birth!

By April Littleton

Zach Galifianakis is close to being a father! His wife Quinn Lundberg of one year is pregnant and will soon give birth. "They have been keeping the baby a secret," a source told UsMagazine.com. "They tried as soon as they were married. Zach is going to be an amazing father. They are looking to get a bigger place down the road."

How do you know when to keep your pregnancy under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Some couples love to share the news of a pregnancy as soon as they find out, while others don't mind a little privacy until they figure things out. It's OK if you're not up for sharing the baby news right away. There's no pressure to let anybody in on your secret until you're ready. Cupid has some tips:

1. It's too soon: Many women wait until the end of their first trimester before they start spreading the news of their pregnancy. Miscarriages are quite common during this time and some couples worry about sharing something so exciting only to have to follow it up with bad news. If a miscarriage does happen, having to tell the same people who thought you were pregnant that you lost the baby will only make the grieving worse.

2. You're not ready: Pregnancy takes many people by surprise, especially if it wasn't exactly planned. Before you tell any of your family and friends that a baby is on the way, you might need time to process the information yourself. You might not be ready for kids, your living situation could be less than ideal or your relationship might be going through a rough patch. Whatever the reason is for your hesitation needs to be worked through before you share the news to your loved ones.

3. Your family won't take it well: You might be excited to know that you're pregnant, but your loved ones might not feel the same way. Your family might not be so thrilled about the idea of a baby if you're not married to your significant other or you're just not financially ready to take care of someone other than yourself. You can hold off on telling them the news for awhile, but don't let them hear it from anyone else but you...the situation will only get worse.

Rumor: Did Zach Galifianakis Get Married?

Rumor has it that Hangover star Zach Galifianakis got hitched last weekend, but is it true? After lots of digging, People reports that the funnyman married his long-time girlfriend Quinn Lundberg in a very under-wraps ceremony. When whispers of a secret wedding began, paparazzi posted at all of the Greek Orthodox churches in the Vancouver area trying to get a shot of the ceremony, but all failed to capture it. A local gossip site in Vancouver, Vancitybuzz.com, said that “the couple pulled a three-card Monte and kept us guessing on where the event would actually take place.” With no paparazzi in sight, the couple tied the knot in an outdoorsy and private ceremony at UBC Farm which is a farm linked to the University of British Columbia. Galifianakis has referred to his now wife as “the coolest.”

How do you keep your wedding under the radar?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you’re not one for over-the-top weddings and have a reason to keep your wedding under-wraps, doing so can be difficult. Here are some ways to keep your wedding intimate, private and known only to those that matter:

1. Do not reveal the location until the day of: If you want to keep your wedding under the radar, spilling the location and venue is a mistake. Keep everyone guessing by telling them a different location all the time, or do not tell them a location at all. On your actual wedding day, send out a mass text or email telling your guests where to meet and what to wear, and you don’t even have to tell them it’s for a wedding.

2. Do not brag about the details: It’s natural to get excited for your wedding day and want the world to be a little jealous! But, if you want to keep the wedding a secret, telling people the details from your wedding dress to the ceremony’s location will allow everyone to know about it and potentially show up. Just remember that the only thing that matters on your wedding day is the love between you and your partner; that might help you keep your mouth zipped.

3. Act nonchalantly about your wedding day: If you act like your wedding day is nothing special, people will stop questioning you about it or even forget about it all together. That way, the wedding will be secretive and then afterward you can talk and brag about it all you want.

Reports State Zach Galifianakis Is Engaged!

Rumor has it that Zach Galifianakis is getting married. The actor, 42, is engaged to long-time girlfriend Quinn Lundberg, 29, according to People. Lundberg and Galifianakis are set to marry August 11, according to their wedding invitation, which includes a personalized drawing by the actor depicting him as a troll and his fiancée as a “stunning tall blonde princess.”

What are some ways to personalize your wedding invitation?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is all about you and your honey, so your invitations should be, too. Here are some ways to make your wedding invitation personal:

1. Cater to your interests: Theme your invitations around something you and your fiancé both love. Big sci-fi fans? Do a photo shoot with lightsabers. Do you both love to cook? Include your favorite recipes on the invite and ask for recipes in return.

2. Bring out your personalities: Is your significant other quiet while you're a chatterbox? Showcase your personalities with battling typefaces next to a telling photo. Fonts that range in size and style layered over one another will look perfect next to a photo of you shouting while your love covers their mouth.

3. Do something different: Bring out your creative side. Instead of paper invitations, try a photo collage or scrapbook, a video or even a musical invitation. Showcase your talents and show who you two are as a couple.
