is all for Becca Kufrin cutting ties for Garrett Yrigoyen. What do you do if your friends don't like your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

In a perfect world, your friends will love your partner as much as you do. Unfortunately, your friends may not be so supportive of your relationship. It can be hard to navigate a relationship when you don't feel supported. If your friends dislike your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Hear your friends out: Your friends (hopefully!) have your best interests in mind, so give them the benefit of the doubt. Give them a chance to explain why they don't like your partner. They might see something unhealthy in your relationship that you couldn't. Even if you end up disagreeing, your friends will appreciate you listening to their worries.

2. Don't force a friendship: As much as we want our friends to love our partner, it's not possible for everyone to always get along. If your friends dislike your partner, you shouldn't force a friendship between the two parties. Accept that you'll miss some group hangs with your friends to spend time with your partner. Accept that your partner may not want to hang out with your friends and that you can't force them to tag along.

3. Set boundaries: Ask both your friends and your partner to respect your choices and to refrain from talking negatively about each other in front of you. Make sure to spend time with your friends and your partner, even if that time doesn't overlap. Don't let one side prevent you from seeing the other. If your friends or your partner won't respect your choices, it may be time to let them go.

Celebrity News: Rachel Lindsay Says She's Surprised 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown was 'So Bold' About Sex

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay said she's surprised Bachelorette Hannah Brown was "so bold" about sex after she admitted she slept with a contestant in a windmill on a celebrity date, according to UsMagazine.com. "I'm gonna assume that they're alluding to what happened in the fantasy suite. I mean, I was surprised she was so bold and forthcoming with it," Lindsay told Micheal Strahan and guest co-host KeKe Palmer on ABC'S Strahan and Sarah on Tuesday, July 9. "But I mean, she owns it, so more power to her."

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay is surprised that Hannah Brown was so bold and open about having sex on The Bachelorette. What are some positives to being open about intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

There are some benefits to being open about intimacy with someone who has the potential to become your partner. Here are Cupid's tips on positives to being open about intimacy:

1. Earn respect: Whether you're being open about honesty to earn respect or because you want to gauge how much your potential partner will respect your views on intimacy, being open about your sex life can tell you a lot about someone by the way they react to the conversation. This can be the difference between finding your life partner or just another online date who will ghost you in after a few dates because you wouldn't sleep with them.

2. Get what you want: Being open about intimacy will ensure your partner or potential partner know what you expect. You need to have a conversation before you're intimate with them. What do you do if birth control fails? What if they want to do something weird you don't want to try in bed? Are you worried about sexually transmitted infections? Would it make you feel better if you're both tested before you take the next step to play it on the safe side? The only way you will be able to communicate any of this is to be open about intimacy.

3 Self-confidence: Confidence is sexy. Just don't confuse it with being cocky, which can bring an opposite reaction than what you might expect when you're confident. Being open about sex will give you a sense of confidence you haven't experienced before. You know you're sexy and you know what you want from your partner. Don't dance around the subject: own it.

Rachel Lindsay Says That If Blake Doesn't Win on 'The Bachelorette,' Becca & Garrett Are In Trouble

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, reality TV star Rachel Lindsay hopes that contestant Blake Horstmann will win Becca Kufrin's heart on The Bachelorette. In Lindsay's weekly blog on UsMagazine.com, she wrote about Kufrin's date with Hortsman, saying, "After watching this date, I really hope Becca picks Blake because it is going to be really hard for the other guy to get passed how deep and expressive her feelings are for Blake." Lindsay also wrote that she thinks "It is clear that Blake is truly in love with Becca and she is smitten with him. It is clear he does not want to lose her. So it is also clear that he is insecure about the fact that there are two other men in her life. This is a very real moment for me. I appreciated that he was vulnerable enough to express that to her rather than hiding behind a smile." Lindsay also appreciated when Hortsman said "I look for reasons to stay and not reasons to leave." Regarding Kufrin's date with contestant Garrett Yrigoyen, Lindsay said, "He tells Becca he loves her and I have to say I did not feel it. I heard the man, but I did not feel him. It did not come out as smoothly or as sincerely as Jason and Blake's 'I love you' did. Garrett also just doesn't seem like a smoother operator so there's that." Lindsay also said, "I feel like there is something we are missing from Garrett."

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay is hoping Blake wins Becca's Heart on The Bachelorette. What are some ways to know you're choosing the right partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Having trouble knowing if you're choosing the right partner? Cupid has some ways to help you know if it's right:

1. You only have eyes for them: If you are really in love with someone, then you should only be interested in being with them and no one else. If you think you've got a wandering eye or budding feelings for someone else, then it's probably not right to stay with your partner. They deserve honesty and if you're not feeling it, they might not be the right person for you.

Celebrity News: Rachel Lindsay Bashes Tia in 'Bachelorette' Recap Post

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, reality TV star and former Bachelorette Rachel Lindsay criticized Tia Booth's behavior on the latest episode of The Bachelorette. In her weekly recap post for UsMagazine.com, Lindsay discussed how Tia told current Bachelorette Becca Kufirin that she still had feelings for contestant Colton Underwood, whom she had previously dated. Lindsay called Booth a "Judas in the midst" and said, "I do really believe Tia really does like Colton, but there is a time [and] a place for everything and that place for you Tia was weeks ago when Becca confronted you about it the first time." Lindsay added, "The reason this moment bothered me so much was that it took away, once again, from Becca. This is Becca's season and subpar story lines and people are constantly overshadowing it. Tia, there is a place for you and it is called Paradise. You should have just let their relationship play out and if it is meant to be then Colton will see you there. All I know is that after this moment, Colton has to be thinking WTF. And surprise, surprise, Colton went home during the rose ceremony."

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay isn't a fan of the way Tia behaved on the recent episode of The Bachelorette. What are some things to consider about dating a friend's ex partner?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're contemplating dating a friend's ex partner, Cupid's got some things for you to consider:

1. Talk to your friend: Before doing anything, it's important that you talk to your friend about dating their ex. You must consider their feelings first and it's important you get their blessing before moving forward with anything. If they still have feelings for your ex, you should back off.

2. Will it affect your friendship: Even if your friend does give you their blessing, dating your friend's ex can still cause a rift in your relationship. Know that you probably won't get to gush about your emotions while dating to your friend because it might hurt them. Dating their ex can definitely cause awkwardness and hurt feelings, even if your friend said it was okay.

Celebrity News: Rachel Lindsay Says Colton's Passion

Isn't There for Becca on 'The Bachelorette'

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, former Bachelorette Rachel Lindsay said she doesn't think contestant Colton Underwood has any passion for current Bachelorette Becca Kuftrin. In a blog for UsMagazine.com, the reality TV star wrote that Kuftrin and Underwood's one-on-one date was dry and a hot tub scene was only introduced to switch it up. Lindsay was not in favor of the date, saying, "Every time Colton opened his mouth he talked about Tia. How awkward it must be for Becca to sit in the hot tub and talk about another woman also known as her "best friend." Way to kill the mood, Colton. Becca literally had to shut him up by kissing. Lindsay also disapproved of Underwood telling Kufirin he was falling in love with her after telling her earlier in the night that he did not take telling someone he loves them lightly, as he had only said it once before. Lindsay added, "So, I love you's are sacred to you yet you conveniently drop the phrase in a couple of weeks? Well that was a quick change of events. I feel like Colton is saying the routine and 'right' things with no passion behind them. His eyes are saying one thing and his mouth is saying another. I want Becca to hop on whatever is faster, that big bus or the camel, and get as far away from Colton as possible. We don't believe you, Colton."

In celebrity news, former Bachelorette Rachel Lindsay is pretty sure Colton isn't passionate about Becca on this season. What are some ways to know if your partner is passionate about you?

Cupid's Advice:

It's definitely important that your partner is passionate about you in a relationship. Cupid has some tips on how to tell if they are:

1. Your partner compliments you: One good indicator that your partner has some serious passion for you is if they frequently compliment you. This shows that not only do they notice special things about you, but they want to remind you how much they care about you and how fondly they think of you.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Alum Rachel Lindsay Reveals the Most Awkward Part of Finding Love on Reality TV

By Jessica Gomez

Bachelorette alum Rachel Lindsay opened up about the most awkward part of finding love on a reality TV show, according to EOnline.com. And, it's not necessarily what you would expect. Lindsay got engaged to Bryan Abasolo in 2017 on the finale of her Bachelorette season. The celebrity couple do not have a definite date for their celebrity wedding as of yet, but what Lindsay believes is the weirdest part of the process is the moment the show is over and the cameras stop rolling. "I tell people the most awkward day is the day the cameras go off. Not even your first date. It's like, 'I've been proposed to.' It's this amazing experience. And then they're like, 'That's a wrap.' Like, show's done, and then you're just standing with each other," the bride-to-be explained. "And once we got past that, everything else was a breeze... Because you don't know if the person is really the same person they showed you on camera – and I think that's what's scary."

This celebrity news shows that there are awkward moments even when it comes to finding love on TV. What are some ways to reduce those awkward moments on your quest to finding love?

Cupid's Advice:

Oh, the journey of finding love, how wonderful and scary it can be. Alas, not to worry, Cupid has some advice on reducing awkward moments that could be avoided with a few steps:

1. Don't rush: Take things at a good pace – not too fast, not too slow. When rushing into things, we often miss signs that we should be looking out for in order to avoid making the mistake of further pursuing a relationship or to avoid certain awkward moments. Things should happen in their own time and not be rushed by you or the other person. Love isn't a race, it takes time. You need to learn the way the person is and the way your new relationship is in order to avoid negativity and awkwardness. After that, then the trust needs to roll in, which is why taking things steady is many times a good idea.

2. Don't try too hard: Impress others, but don't stop being yourself. Pretending to be someone you're not is bound to end in an awkward moment. It's important to put energy into trying to putting your best foot forward and being the best version of yourself. However, in the process, make sure to stay true to yourself. Don't let your mind roam too far, causing you to act out of desperation. It's understandable to maybe not want to be your whole, total self – just remember to not stray away from what really makes you you. Insecurities can easily pop up when you're playing a role that isn't like you.

3. Don't worry: Like said before, love and relationships take time. Sometimes certain concerns creep up on us and we become worrywarts. The unknown can be terrifying, and you may not feel completely comfortable because of that. However, don't let unvalidated feelings take over. Get to know the person without judging them from past experiences you've had that have nothing to do with them. As time passes by, you will also build emotional intimacy, which should ease the worrying due to having a more open relationship with one another.

However, when Eric met Rachel's family, he asked her mother for her blessing to propose – and she reluctantly said yes. Eric ended up sweet-talking Rachel on their date, claiming that she was everything he wanted in a wife, and she invited him to the Fantasy Suite that night. And as for Bryan... while Rachel's friends approved, her family did not, and Rachel's mom showed her distaste by assuming his words are insincere.

Celebrity News: Tempers Flare Between Lee & Kenny on 'The Bachelorette'

By Melissa Lee

On this week's episode of The Bachelorette, jealousy proved to be a dominant emotion as fierce competitors Lee and Kenny began to battle it out. In celebrity news, UsMagazine.com reported that Lee initially interrupted a heartfelt moment between Kenny and Rachel Lindsay, this season's Bachelorette. By the end of the night, Kenny and Lee had engaged in a screaming match. According to Kenny, Lee had been giving him "shade" and was "super disingenuous," but Rachel ended up giving them both roses.

This celebrity news is evidence that jealousy comes in a lot of forms. What are some ways to deal with a jealous partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Although this conflict is a result of reality television, jealousy exists in a real life. Dealing with a jealous partner can be difficult, but can get easier when it's handled the right way. Luckily, Cupid has some relationship advice for this situation:

1. Trust: If there is jealousy in your relationship, it most likely exists because there isn't a mutual trust between you two. The first step to dealing with a jealous partner is to enforce trust as much as possible. Do your best to reinforce this by reflecting trustworthy behavior, and your significant other will slowly begin to understand that they don't have as much of a reason to be jealous.

2. Be understanding: If there has never been a breach of trust in your relationship, it's of importance to understand that your partner's jealousy comes from a separate cause, whether it be a previous unhealthy relationship or something as simple as anxiety. Don't get frustrated with your partner and constantly question why they don't trust you. Instead, work with them, asking what you can do to make them more comfortable.

Related Link: Celebrity News: ABC Suspends 'Bachelor In Paradise' Production in Mexico Amid 'Misconduct' Allegations

3. Be aware of the healthy/unhealthy line: Jealousy is a natural emotion, so it's understandable if you or your significant other exhibits such behavior. However, you should be aware of when their conduct becomes unhealthy – if they prevent you from going places with other people, if they're texting/calling you nonstop, etc. Make sure you recognize if it starts to become obsessive and unhealthy.
