

Celebrity News: 'BiP' Star Blake Horstmann Releases Texts with Caelynn Miller-Keyes After Intimate Night

By Ashley Johnson

Bachelor in Paradise star Blake Horstmann has proven that he is not afraid to share the most intimate details of his romantic life with the world. According to UsMagazine.com, just a few days ago, the reality TV star revealed scandalous text messages sent from Caelynn Miller-Keyes on his Instagram story and has gotten backlash ever since.

In celebrity news, things are being clarified after the drama with Blake and Caelynn was shown on the first episode of Bachelor in Paradise. What are some reasons to keep your intimate life private?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone has the luxury of keeping their relationships private (especially celebrity couples), but if you do have the choice, Cupid has some relationship advice on reasons to keep your intimate life private, unlike Blake Horstmann and Caelynn Miller-Keyes:

1. Too many opinions: Everyone is going to have an opinion about your relationship whether you like it or not. A lot of those opinions will be unsolicited and can be detrimental to your relationship if you dwell on them. However many opinions people may share on the Internet or social media, no one will ever know the facts of the relationship simply because they are not in it, only you and your partner are.

2. Social pressure: Social media allows you to share the version of yourself you want to share with the public, and never all versions of yourself. This being said, your followers and subscribers only see one version of your relationship with your partner, which can put pressure on you to only show the best parts of your relationship rather than the worst. Having to live up to a certain standard for your relationship can be exhausting and strain your relationship if you start doing more things to look happy in your relationship and less things to be happy in your relationship. It's more important to be present in your relationship rather than get lost in your relationship's social media presence.

3. Safety: By making your relationship public, you could be letting in the wrong people. Hollywood relationships are often subject to aggressive paparazzi and stalkers. While you may not necessarily be swarmed by paparazzi everyday, you are still subject to others having too many intimate details about your relationship. This includes jealous exes, or other people who may not wish the best for you and your partner. When the wrong people know the whereabouts of you and your partner at all times, it only gives them the opportunity to troll you, making you feel the opposite of secure in your relationship, and at times unsafe.

In celebrity news, Kendall Jenner and A$AP Rocky wasted no time getting together after he was released from prison. What are some ways to support your partner after a traumatic event?

Cupid's Advice:

While the celebrity exes spent no time getting reacquainted with each other after Rocky's release from prison, Cupid has some advice on how to navigate a relationship and support your partner after a traumatic event:

1. Be communicative with each other: Communication is important, especially if the one you love has been gone for months. In order to rebuild the relationship and understand parts of your partner's experience you may not be all that familiar with, having open and honest conversations is helpful. Most of the time, survivors of trauma have a lot on their mind and just need someone to talk to in a safe space without judgment.

2. Comfort your partner: Sometimes when words fail, physical touch can do wonders. Whether you comfort your partner by kissing them on the forehead or tightly embracing them, you are providing a safe and supportive environment for them. Words are not always enough, but just your presence can be appreciated and let your partner know that you are there for them.

3. Understand triggers: Depending on the trauma, survivors may have a list of triggers, including loud noises, dark places, and confined spaces. Triggers can suddenly recreate trauma for your partner and make them relive an experience they would rather not relive. By knowing your partner's triggers you can help make them feel safe and avoid exposure to their certain triggers.

Celebrity Break-Ups: Fans Speculate That Porsha Williams & Dennis McKinley Called It Quits

By Amanda Sanders

In the latest celebrity news, fans are speculating that celebrity couple reality star Porsha Williams has split from her fiancé Dennis McKinley. According to UsMagazine.com, during Memorial Day weekend, her followers noticed that she was no longer McKinley on Instagram. Williams' sister Lauren and her mother Diane are also no longer following McKinley on Instagram. As of Tuesday night, the Bravo star began to follow McKinley once more, but her family members still aren't.

Fans have some opinions on what was behind this celebrity break-up. What are three good reasons to call off your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is a big deal and shouldn't be done lightly, but there are definitely some instances where it's warranted. Cupid has some good reasons it's time to call it quits:

1. They're too clingy: At first, it's nice to be with someone who showers you with constant attention. But if they get angry or disappointed every time you go out with your friends or when you need a night to yourself then its time to take a step back and re-evaluate how healthy this relationship really is.

2. They don't make time for you: Even Prince Charming might forget to respond to a text every so often or be forced to cancel plans when something important comes up. But if you're never able to pin down your guy to hang out, that doesn't give you much time to have an actual relationship. This kind of guy typically isn't looking for anything serious, and if you are, then it's time to move on.

3. You can't trust them: No one likes a liar. If you have serious doubts about where they were when they said they were working late or worse, you catch them in a lie, it's time to dump them.

Celebrity Interview: 'Temptation Island' Host Mark Walberg Shares His Secret to a Happy Relationship

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Lauren Burczyk.

Mark Walberg (not to be confused with Mark Wahlberg) is an American actor, television personality and talk show host known for his time on Antiques Roadshow, Russian Roulette, The Moment of Truth, and both the original (Fox Network: 2001) and most recently rebooted (USA Network: 2019), Temptation Island. Walberg's role on Temptation Island is divided between being the host of the show and a relationship expert of sorts who guides confused couples through all types of relationship struggles – stagnant relationships, trust issues, and ultimatums. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Walberg offers our visitors valuable dating advice on how to make a relationship stand the test of time!

Celebrity Interview with Mark Walberg: Temptation Island – Dating Advice, and His Secret to a Long, Healthy Marriage.

Many of us remember Temptation Island from when it first aired on Fox in 2001. Controversial from the start, the show followed four couples who were struggling in their relationships and couldn't decide whether to stick together or call it quits. The premise of the show was to separate these couples on a beautiful island, and surround them by members of the opposite sex for a few weeks.

The first season of the show delivered solid ratings, but the next two seasons did not and unfortunately, Temptation Island was cancelled. Fast forward to 2019 and the current state of digital dating and instant gratification, and Temptation Island is back again, newly rebooted with Walberg as the host for a fourth season. "It feels great to do it [host Temptation Island] again," says the reality tv star and husband of 31 years. "I really had no hesitations. I was pretty sure the show would be relevant today and new audiences would enjoy it!" Walberg couldn't be more right, as Temptation Island was just renewed for a second season.

However, a lot has changed in the world since the show went off the air in 2003 and Walberg's personal life is no exception. "It's the same in that I was married then and married still so my perspective hasn't changed," he explains. "However, I'm more in the 'dad zone' now and I have some years of experience to add."

Despite the potential for a more accepting audience, there are many skeptics of the show and its theme. Some feel that the four couples are willingly putting their relationships in danger by opening their hearts to temptation and dating other people. That being said, it's not out of the question for an experience like this to strengthen a couple's bond. Walberg elaborates, saying, "I wouldn't advise this experience for couples. It's extreme. And it's TV. That said, I am certain that these couples will find the truth about how they feel about one another through this experience. And that knowledge will either make them stronger as a couple or stronger as an individual."

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Ashley Iaconetti and Jared Haibon Talk Wedding Plans and Dating Tips

The current couples on the 2019 reboot of Temptation Island are Karl Collins and Nicole Tutewohl from Chicago, IL, Evan

Smith and Kaci Campbell from Los Angeles, CA, Javen Butler and Shari Ligons from San Francisco, CA, and John Thurmond and Kady Krambeer from Forth Worth, TX.

Mark gave us insight on a few of the couples on the show:

When it comes down to commitment, Evan and Kaci are at odds after being together for several years. "There's no rhyme or reason to why people fall for one another," says Walberg. "I call it the lightning strike. But, ultimatums for marriage are never the way to enter into that commitment."

Contestants John and Kady had their own issues coming into the show, not knowing if they were right for one another. On the show, Kady is tempted by a single man in the house who makes her feel desired and more like herself, Dr. Johnny Alexander. Are they a better couple than John and Kady? "I can't say who's a "better couple," says Walberg. "What matters is that each of them find partners that respect and love them. If that's not there, it's not going to work. If Kady feels safer and more supported with Dr. Johnny, then that's her path. It's actually better for everyone in the end."

Speaking of temptation, contestants Shari and Javen have been together since high school, but Shari has many insecurities because Javen cheated on her while he was in college. You'd think going on a show all about temptation might worsen those insecurities, but Walberg has a different perspective. "Maybe her insecurities will go away altogether," he says. "That's a couple to keep watching..."

Well, as Walberg says, we'll have to keep watching to see what will happen with each couple. "My hope is that they leave the island with the answers they're looking for in the end," he says. "Although, I warned them that their questions will change, there was a lot of personal growth among the cast."

The reality is, not everyone has the opportunity to go on a television show like Temptation Island. So, what can everyday couples do to keep their relationships on track? Walberg, whose long, healthy relationship with his wife makes him the perfect host for Temptation Island, thinks the answer is, "Communicate, compromise, forgive. That's it. Oh...and love one another!" And, there's no one secret for a happy marriage, he says. "I could try to give advice all day, but really it comes down to one thing... my wife and I love each other! That's it!" And, resisting temptation is key as well, of course. "Social media has made it so tempting," Walberg says. "Temptation is at your fingertips. Like advertising! I don't know how to change that except to always remind yourself not to let 'better' be the evil of 'good.' Nothing's perfect, but if you love one another, you can work it out."

Celebrity Break-Ups: Ashlee Simpson Wasn't Totally Surprised By Jessica Simpson & Nick Lachey's Split

By Ivana Jarmon

According to UsMagazine.com, singer/songwriter Ashlee Simpson, 33, open up about her reaction to sister Jessica Simpson and Jessica's ex Nick Lachey's celebrity break-up on Watch What Happens Live with Andy Cohen. This took place while playing a round of no-holds-barred "Plead the Fifth" on Tuesday, September 4th. In 2005, then celebrity couple Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey's split rocked the celebrity world. After five years of marriage, the pair announced they were separating. Within the following month, Simpson filed for divorce citing "irreconcilable differences." But, for Ashlee Simpson, her sister's break-up wasn't all that surprising. Andy Cohen asked her, "On a scale of 0 to 10, how surprised were you by the split of Nick Lachey and your sister? Ten being the most surprised." Simpson gave a coy smile to her husband Evan Ross, before answering, "A five."

This celebrity break-up happened a long time ago, but it was a big deal in the celebrity world at the time! What are some ways to keep your break-up from being breaking news?

Cupid's Advice:

If you go through a break-up, the last thing you want is for it to be the talk of the town. Cupid has some tips:

1. Privacy is key: The truth is, no one needs to know about your split. Keep your lips sealed. It's your business and your business alone. Of course you'll want to tell a trustworthy few like family and close friends, but no one else needs to know your business. Don't confirm anything unless you feel ready. Don't ever feel pressured to confirm something or make any announcements.

2. Don't bash each other: After a break-up, make a pact with your ex to not throw each other under the bus no matter the circumstances. No bashing each other in public or on social media. Why? The fact is, it's plain rude and shows you have no respect for that person or yourself.

Related Link: Jessica Simpson Runs Into Ex Nick Lachey

3. Platform: Your break-up is only news if you put your relationship on such a platform where people will see it. A real relationship doesn't belong in the public eye; it's between two people. Keep your relationship and lack thereof to yourself! It doesn't belong on social media, television or anything that lets others sneak a peek into your personal life.

Regarding Kufrin's date with contestant Garrett Yrigoyen, Lindsay said, "He tells Becca he loves her and I have to say I did not feel it. I heard the man, but I did not feel him. Lindsay was not in favor of the date, saying, "Every time Colton opened his mouth he talked about Tia. How awkward it must be for Becca to sit in the hot tub and talk about another woman also known as her "best friend." Way to kill the mood, Colton. Becca literally had to shut him up by kissing. Lindsay added, "So, I love you's are sacred to you yet you conveniently drop the phrase in a couple of weeks? Well that was a quick change of events. I feel like Colton is saying the routine and 'right' things with no passion behind them. His eyes are saying one thing and his mouth is saying another. I want Becca to hop on whatever is faster, that big bus or the camel, and get as far away from Colton as possible. We don't believe you, Colton."

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes it is beyond our control when negative rumors start to arise in regards to your own relationship. The most important thing to do is stay calm and laugh at the silliness of these rumors. Although, it is important to make sure that this gossip doesn’t get into you and your partners heads. Here are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship:

1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. Show them that you love them so much and all that matters is that you two know the truth.

3. Take the higher moral ground: Even though you and your partner may be upset about these rumors being spread, don't stoop to their level. It may be tempting to begin spreading other rumors because you feel upset that there are rumors being spread about you. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

Your child is going to be so beautiful and will inherit great aspects from you and your partner. It may not be exactly what you hoped for, but you will end up finding it to be perfect anyway. It may be hard sometimes, both before your child is born and much later down the line, to keep your expectations from affecting your children. Fortunately, Cupid is here with some tips on how to help:

1. Let go of timelines: Children are supposed to walking by the time they are one and be potty trained by two, right? No, not necessarily. Don't place such high standards on your child meeting the typical deadlines of when they are going to accomplish these 'firsts'. Every child is different and runs on different schedules. Just enjoy the moments you have together because when they are older and out of the house, you're going to wish you could still be changing their diapers!

Shower your child with love and appreciation.

Cupid's Advice:

Age and marriage don't always coincide. When you're ready for marriage and to settle down, you'll know. Check out these tips from Cupid:

1. You're ready to commit: Marriage should be a natural progression in your relationship. In fact, it's better to begin any relationship with marriage on the back burner. Instead of pursuing a relationship with marriage on your mind, focus on being present in the now. As time passes and your love grows, the progression and desire to take the next step will be a fluid change

2. You aren't trying to fix or save them: All too often, people enter relationships and try to be the heroic figure. In these situations, the underlying thought is that the flaws or challenges the partner is facing will be fixed over time with careful guidance from the other partner. This is never a good idea, as it ultimately is romanticizing challenges and causes you to think things will work out eventually. It's better to find a partner that you see eye-to-eye with, and to keep your mind and heart in-sync with each other.

3. You know it won't be easy: The honeymoon phase of your relationship will come to an end, and finding romance will not always be a walk in the park. You and your partner will certainly have your fair share of struggles to keep the romance alive. If you are accepting of this, and feel ready to face the challenges that will arise, that is a good sign. Always be sure to grow together, because the only other option is growing apart.
