Celebrity Interview: Hollywood's Most Sought-After Hair Colorist Michael Canale Talks Tips for At-Home Hair Care and His New Hair Line

By

Hope Ankney

Michael Canané is an American hairstylist, colorist, and the creator of Canané Hair Care Products. Yet, he's mainly famous for being the most sought-after hair specialist in Hollywood.

Being a part of the entertainment industry for years, his hands have worked magic on the likes of Reese Witherspoon, Jennifer Aniston, and Kate Hudson. In fact, Canané is responsible for "The Rachel" look on Aniston that dominated the widely successful, early 2000s sitcom Friends. But, he's recently decided to branch out and start his own line of hair care products to further help others outside of his grasp. On top of that, he has spoken out about the importance of self-care and how to maintain your color during this time of quarantine.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat Michael on his rise in the industry, advice over safe hair coloring tips, tricks to try at home, and his new hair line Canané.

How did all of this start for you? Was there a specific moment you remember that caused you to want to become a hair colorist?

I was a biology minor and have always been on the chemical side of the industry. Early in my career, the colorist where I worked did not show up to the salon. The makeup artist asked me if I wanted to learn how to color hair with him. So, he taught me how to identify the right color for each type of complexion. He also showed me 3 techniques that I have expanded over time, making my own numerous techniques while retaining those 3 main concepts.

You've worked with very well-known clientele over the years. Jennifer Aniston... Kate Hudson... Are there any stories you can tell us about your favorite experiences with some of them?

I am a colorist, and I work by myself. It was amazing to see Jennifer blow-dry her own hair as well as any stylist! Heidi Klum was the only person that ever made me blush just by her looking at me. I am honored to work with a lot of my actresses, trusting me to color their hair during their pregnancies, like Kate Hudson!

You've been voted 14 years in a row by Allure Magazine as being the "best of the best" and even received praise from Vogue. You have such a prolific career. What advice do you have for young children or even young stylists who want to get into the field?

Learn from the best, work with the best, and never let them down. Make the master stylist proud. Remember to keep the health of the hair, use what the client naturally has to achieve – what they desire. Work with their natural base color and their hair consistency to enhance their overall look.

With the state of the world right now and everyone being at home due to quarantine, what are some at-home hair coloring tips for our audience?

Between seeing your colorist and seeing them again, do not do anything that will ruin your hair. While quarantined, you can use concealers like spray and powders that cover grey. This lasts until you wash it out. Another option is demi or semi-permanent. Demi will last up to 2 weeks while semi can last up to 6 weeks when using the right hair products. Both will keep your hair color intact while waiting to see your hairdresser again. If you choose to dye your hair, remember hairlines grab darker, so try to stay lighter around the hairline. You will have to purchase 2 different boxes of color. For example, if you are doing your base medium brown use light brown around your hairline. Also for brunettes, try a color bath with the remainder of the hair color! Use a base color, you can add water and shampoo to the remaining color in the bottle and lather it into the ends of the hair to refresh it for the last 5 minutes of the process.

From your perspective, what are the hair color trends at the moment?

Roots are in! Try to preserve or prolong your hair color. I recommend using a color and shine-boosting gloss. All of my New SIGNATURE GLOSSES, can really refresh and enhance color for both highlights and base colors. The SUNKISSED GOLD for warmer skin tones and COOL BLUE for cooler skin tones will brighten up your blonde while MIDNIGHT BLUE cools down any brassy tones on blondes or brunettes. They last up to 2 weeks, the results are amazing! I am currently providing samples to my clients in my Canale At Home Personalized Color Kits. The glosses will be made available in June for the Summer and can currently be pre-ordered on my website www.colorbycanale.com.

Self-care in any way can be something that makes someone feel great about how they look or feel inside. How important do you feel it is to practice self-care on your hair while being isolated during this pandemic?

Take care of yourself and your hair! Get up in the morning, take a shower, wash, and style your hair. Use boar bristles, not metal for your brushes, and avoid hot tools. Add oils to your conditioner. My new REPAIRING Hair Oil restores natural luster, hydrates, and deeply conditions dry, damaged, and color-treated hair. Just add 3-5 drops of oil to a tablespoon of Canale SOFTEN or SOFTEN PLUS Conditioner for a deep conditioning treatment. I am also providing these samples to my clients in my Canale At Home Personalized Color Kits. They will be made available in June and can currently be pre-ordered on my website www.colorbycanale.com.

Can you tell us a little bit more about your product line, Canale?

People would come to me and ask, “How can I keep my hair looking fresh until I see you again?” So, I created a product line that is proven to maintain and restore the integrity of treated hair from the inside out and the outside in! Canale CLEANSE Shampoo for all types of hair is the mildest shampoo that fully cleans the hair without fading color. SOFTEN Conditioner for finer hair, rebuilds the hair shaft and brings back the luster of the hair. SOFTEN PLUS Conditioner, rebuilds the hair shaft plus adds moisture, perfect for thick, unmanageable hair. Canale hair products have two supplements, one topical and one ingestible. NOURISH topical vitamin foam is applied to the root of the hair and feeds the hair follicle with key nutrients. It is applied after Cleanse shampoo and expands the hair shaft adding volume. It is the most technologically advanced product in the line. The ingestible vitamin REPLENISH feeds the hair, skin, and nails all-natural, vegan, superfood, blue-green algae, and other key nutrients that help stimulate the hair with a patent on cellular absorption by Targeted Medical Pharma.

Healthy, shiny hair that is what everyone wants!

How did the idea come about to create the products for Canalé? Was there a specific amount of time you waited before pursuing it?

In the past, I represented brands like Kerastase and Shu Uemura. Although I loved these products, I still felt something was missing. I made it my personal goal to develop the most holistic healthy hair care system. I partnered with Dr. David Silver and worked together to scientifically formulate a product line focusing on getting and keeping hair healthy while maintaining and extending hair color, improving the fullness of hair, and bringing out the natural shine.

What do you think is the greatest opportunity you've had while having the platform you do as such a renowned hair colorist?

I truly enjoy making people happy. Creating the trend, while working to bring out my client's personal best. The right color is an accessory, use it to your advantage. People can always tell my work, enhancing a person's natural complexion and eye color, this trend never goes out of style. I have appreciated the opportunity to share my work over the years with multiple generations of the most powerful woman, true icons, and inspirations.

The hairstyles we have can be so empowering. The way one plays with theirs can be such a creative outlet. Why do you think that is?

Hair is personal. It is an expression and extension of ourselves and our personality. It is who we are and who we inspire to be. With the latest hair color trends, individuals are empowered and encouraged to take risks. Using temporary dye or hair makeup is so fun!

Voted "Best-of-the-Best" by Allure Magazine 14 years in a row and touted by Vogue as "not only really good, he's really fast,” Canale personally travels between locations in Rancho Santa Fe, San Francisco, Dallas, New York, Washington DC and Beverly Hills, making sure that each of his clients gets the hands-on attention they need to look and feel their very best. With over 30 years’ experience, Michael Canale is a rare talent and truly among the best in the industry; his work has been published in Allure, Vogue, Vanity Fair, Women’s Health, Elle, Marie Claire, Redbook, Glamour, and New Beauty, to name a few.

Celebrity News: What Reese Witherspoon Learned After Leaving an Abusive Relationship

By

Karley Kemble

Reese Witherspoon usually keeps her personal life out of the public eye, but in the latest celebrity news, the actress is opening up about her past. In an interview with O Magazine, Witherspoon sat down with Oprah Winfrey and Mindy Kaling in a celebrity interview to talk about their new movie, A Wrinkle in Time, reports EOnline.com. The women also talked about the current state of Hollywood, the #MeToo and Time's Up movements, and Witherspoon briefly delved into her past abusive relationship. When she finally ended the relationship, Witherspoon said, "It changed who I was on a cellular level, the fact that I stood up for myself. It's part of the reason I can stand up and say, 'Yes, I'm ambitious.' Because someone tried to take that from me." We certainly admire her courage and bravery in such a sad situation.

In this celebrity news, Reese

Witherspoon opens up about an abusive relationship. What are some things you can do if you find yourself in an abusive situation?

Cupid's Advice:

Abusive situations are very serious and can be challenging to leave. If you or somebody you know is struggling with any sort of abuse, here are three things to do:

1. Acknowledge: Victims usually blame themselves or minimize the reality of the situation. Abuse isn't always broken bones or black and blue bruises. It takes form of sexual assault, verbal intimidation and threats, too. Acknowledging that your situation is an abusive one does not define who you are, it is a step closer to getting out of it.

2. Talk: Once you open up to somebody about your relationship, overcoming it becomes easier. Whether you confide in a family member, friend, or anonymous hotline, you are taking a huge step in your path. Don't be afraid to talk about what you're going through. The National Domestic Violence Hotline has amazing, trained people to talk to 24 hours a day, so call them anytime: 1-800-799-7233.

3. Use a safe computer: It's important to keep your well-being at the front-lines. Computer usage is easily monitored, so you want to ensure your abuser has no access to your searches. The National Domestic Violence Hotline's website has some very informative information about how to reduce your “tech footprint” to reduce the chance of your abuser finding your cries for help. Deleting your history, cache, and cookies are all starters, though the website has more detailed tips for your benefit.

Date Idea: Beach and Beyond

By

Rachel Sparks

You’ve been to the beach with your love about a hundred times this summer. It’s time to look for new ways to enjoy the sun and sand. The days are long and the possibilities are endless.

This weekend's date idea is all about trying new things in the sun!

This weekend's date idea is about fun in the sun together!

Search for beautiful shells and sand dollars in the sand. You'll have a great time showing off your finds to each other, and it'll help you break away from your usual routine of sunbathing and swimming. If you're feeling adventurous, look for crabs darting across the beach. Make a game out of it: if your partner finds more crabs than you, you have to cook him dinner for a romantic end to your date night!

Related Link: Date Idea: Ignite Sparks While Camping

If you really want to get serious about searching, bring a metal detector with you and see what random items are buried on the beach. You and your love will get excited whenever that buzzer goes off. The thrill of the treasure hunt will get you both excited.

Once you're done exploring, get messy in the sand together. Dig a hole and bury each other. You'll both feel like kids again, and you'll love creating new laughs together. Build sand castles. Have a contest to see whose creation comes out the best. Bury your legs and make a mermaid tail. End with a beach photoshoot Reese Witherspoon or Gwen Stefani-family style!

If you like learning new things, look into your beach's history. Pick up a brochure or check out their website; maybe there's an area further down from your usual spot that you never knew existed. Sharing some knowledge will spark both your curiosities and will give you something new to discuss.

Parenting Tips: Co-Parenting During the Holidays

By

Rachel Sparks

The holidays are meant to be a time for family, friendship, and joy, but for a lot of families there's the stress of a divided household. Co-parenting can be stressful even at the best of times, but not everyone has an amicable relationship with their ex. Celebrities like Reese Witherspoon and Jennifer Lopez set high standards for what co-parenting looks like, and not all of us can reasonably achieve such a peaceful situation.

Read Cupid's parenting tips to navigate holiday stress.

While you may want to have your child(ren) on the exact day of the holiday, it's fair to assume your ex does, too. If you divide the holiday in half, then you don't get to enjoy all of your traditional celebrations without feeling rushed. So, how can you and your kids enjoy the holidays stress-free? Here's Cupid's relationship advice:

1. It's about the kids: Remember this as you feel frustrated with your ex's time demands. Any time with a parent is seen as magic for your kid, so don't spend that time being angry or disappointed. Remember, too, that kids can sense when you're upset, so put aside emotions when you're interacting with your ex to show the kiddos that mom and dad can get along.

2. Set up a routine: Children thrive off of routine, but so do co-parents with busy schedules. What's more, if a schedule has been written, it cuts down on emotional communication about the holidays. If not, then work on compromising holidays with your ex and setting up a schedule you can both respect. It will take a lot of pressure off of future conversations.

Related Link: Co-Parents: See How Stars Manage to Raise Their Children Post-Split

3. Find effective communication: If seeing your ex's face makes you want to hit something, consider an alternative way of communicating. Again, remember that co-parenting is still about raising a happy and successful adult. Shouting wars will not be conducive to the lessons you teach. If even hearing their voice makes you cringe, resort to e-mail; it's impersonal and typically gives an air of professionalism.

4. Terminology: Everyone knows to watch what you say about your ex in front of your kid, but also think about how you say something. Instead of saying, "This is my ex," which likely brings up a painful history for your child, say, "This is my child's father/mother." It allows the child to take ownership and pride in their parents, something every child and parent wants.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: How to Cope With Stress

5. Try parallel parenting: Co-parenting requires both parents to remain pretty active in not only their child's life, but their ex's. Parallel parenting is still being involved with your kid, but keeping it hands off and at a distance with your ex. Communication is at a minimum and when the kids are at your house, it's just about you and them, not what the other parent is doing.

Celebrity Style: Boots You Can Rock in the Winter

By

Rachel Sparks

Earlier this year, we got a glimpse of the fashion trends that were coming for fall and winter, and though what to wear on our upper bodies is always important, what to wear on our feet is sometimes even more exciting. Elle.com released the hottest boot trends that walked down the runways. Latest celebrity styles range from crimson statement kicks to waist-highs. There's more to rock than the classic black ankle boot.

Boots during winter is like Starbucks's PSL for fall: you can't have one without the other. As much as we love the classic black boot, we're setting them aside for this year's best celebrity fashion trends:

a dramatic rock star look. Celebs rocking it: Celine Dion, Rihanna, Blac Chyna, and Cardi B.

2. The scrunchy look: It can be casual or that sexy messy look. Wear it over pants, with a dress, or an extra long T-shirt; you can't go wrong. Celebs spotted wearing these: Reese Witherspoon and Hillary Duff.

Rachel Sparks

In recent celebrity news, thousands of women from just as many

This celebrity news is very disheartening. What are some ways to support a partner who has been sexually assaulted?

Cupid's Advice:

Unfortunately, it is a distressing reality that you or someone you know has been sexually assaulted at some point. Younger people especially lack the tools in which to deal with this; however, no matter how old you are, it is difficult to process and heal from this kind of trauma. Cupid has some relationship advice so you can support your partner:

1. Open up: Silence welcomes our inner demons. Don't allow yourself or someone you know to suffer alone. We all speak up at different times and in different ways, but sharing our pain helps ease the weight.

2. Be there: You may not be able to do much, but staying by someone's side has a lasting impression. They may not say much, and it can be discouraging to feel like you aren't helping, but stick it out with them. Your presence could be the strength they need.

Related Article: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Premiere Addresses DeMario Jackson & Corinne Olympios Scandal

3. Bump it up: Sometimes you won't know what to do, but you know the situation is bad. Whether someone is suffering so much they present a harm to themselves or you're worried it could happen again, seek out someone you trust. Even if they only offer another safe place, building that support network is critical to healing.

It's an extremely difficult topic, but creating a sense of community helps others heal. What advice do you have to offer others? Be brave. Be strong. Share below.

Are you struggling to connect with your teenager? Here are some parenting tips on how to rebuild or make your relationship stronger!

Adjust to their mood: Mood swings and tiring days from school are bound to happen for your teen. Instead of being high-spirited in hopes to turn their mood around, try giving them space and relax your enthusiasm. They will appreciate the distance you give them instead of trying to cheer them up.

Keep responses positive: Teens pay attention to how you respond. If you respond to them negatively, they probably will probably feel uncomfortable communicating. Instead of responding with a sense of disappointment or judgement, open your statements with terms of hope and understanding.

Never take their outburst personally: Your teenager is still trying to process how to manage and process their anger. When you say no or try reaching out to them, they might lash out. At the end of the day, slamming bedroom doors or hateful remarks are not because of you. Try remembering a moment when you were upset at their age and recognize what they're going through.

Know their friend circle: Get to know who your teen hangs out with! Allow them to invite friends over for dinner or social gatherings. If they have similar taste in music, you can later search for concerts you can all attend together. Bonding over your teen's friend circle can bring you closer!
