This celebrity wedding was very low-key, but the paperwork has been signed! What are some reasons to keep your wedding festivities under the radar?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrities are not the only ones that would want to keep their wedding under wraps. Cupid has some ideas as to why you may want to keep your wedding on the down low:

1. You just don't want people in your biz: This can happen whether you're famous or not. Some people are really private about their lives and want precious moments like these to be kept within closed doors at first. So don't take offense, some people are just real private about their business!

2. You're eloping: Secrecy is sometimes romantic? Sometimes we do find ourselves in a situation we never thought we would be in. Maybe the fam doesn't approve? Maybe you just can't wait to get married? Or maybe you're trying to get out of testifying in court against your lover like Blair did with Chuck in Gossip Girl! Winks

3. You're shy or an introvert: If this is the case, you may not want a lot of attention, so you would keep your wedding quiet for a bit. Shy and introverted people sometimes cannot handle being in a room full of people being the center of attention – it's too much for them. So yeah, it makes sense they would keep their wedding quiet.

How do you decide whether to have more kids with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

You might have one kid or maybe two, but sometimes it’s just not enough. Deciding whether to have more children is a big decision to make, and you can’t make it alone. So, how do you bring up the idea of having another child with your partner? What should you expect out of this conversation? Cupid is here to help the talk go as smoothly as possible:

1. Make it an open conversation. Maybe your partner doesn’t want another kid, or maybe they haven't even thought about it. This could be a total surprise to them, and you need to be open to what they have to say. Don't just expect to get your way!

2. Give them time. This is a decision that will most likely take more than one conversation. Don't hound your partner 24/7 or drop not-so-subtle hints all the time. They have to think about this, and it'll only stress them out more if you're always on their back.

3. Stay calm. There's a chance your partner won't agree with you, and that's okay. Don't yell or get aggressive just because you didn't get your way. Try to understand their point of view and see if you can reach an agreement. This is a joint decision, and that means their opinion is just as important.
