However, there is someone out there for everybody so it's important to remember that sometimes things fall apart so better things can fall together. 1. Tropical paradise: When you aren't feeling upbeat and positive, it's important to put your energy into restoring that. What better way to take your mind off things than by going on a vacation? 2. Art museum: Life imitates art and art imitates life. After a break-up, it's good to lose yourself and venture into a different world, such as the world of art. Wandering around museums by yourself is a great way to feel emotions, get lost deep in thoughts, get out of the house and be reminded that there is beauty in the world.

3. Bookstore/library: After a breakup, it can be difficult to think again, because everything reminds you of your ex. A good way to escape your thoughts and the reality of the situation is to go to the library or bookstore and read. Get lost in a book. Focus on the character's situations instead of your own, for awhile. Enjoy a cup of coffee too! Reading and coffee is definitely good for the soul.

What are some ways to make your ex know you're serious about breaking up?

Cupid's Advice:

With some couples, they can break up numerous times in one week. They are constantly on and off, never exactly knowing what they want. It is challenging to make your ex realize that you are completely serious about breaking up. They could breakdown in tears and you could chicken out. They may tell you that this isn't what you want, and you believe them. If you are absolutely sure that you want to break up, you need to keep ground. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Say it in person: Breaking up with someone you spent time with, talked to, get to know-it's ridiculous. First off, it gives your partner zero amount of respect, and secondly, it will make them think you are not serious about the breakup. To ensure that your mate realizes that you are serious, break the tie in person. Look your beau straight in the eyes and tell them that you are breaking up with them, and you will not be persuaded nor will you change your mind.

2. Respect: This ties in with breaking up with your ex in person. Breaking up with your significant other in person is essential. It makes you respectful, and you are still respecting your mate. With regards to respect, inform your partner that you are breaking up with them. Along with this, include all the reasons why you feel like a break up is necessary. Explain everything you've been thinking, what you're going through, and why you're doing this. It will make your partner realize you are not joking around whatsoever, and they will take you seriously!

3. Hold your ground: Hold your head high and your feet firm darling! The hardest part in a breakup process is keeping what you said true. It is not easy to break up with another person, especially if that person is persuading you to not follow through with it. Make sure you keep your opinion and actions on line, know what you are going to say and stick to it. Don't leave the script unless necessary. Keep your chin up and this will all work through!

with Kardashian. The ex couple started dating in August of this year. Ora explains (via Dailymail.com), "I'm not going out with Rob. We were close for a while, but it didn't work because I was never there. I was like a ghost. I used to get so frustrated with myself and then wonder why I was angry, so I decided it was best to keep it friendly – especially at the moment, when there's so much going on." On Dec. 3, Kardashian, 25, tweeted that his rumored ex girlfriend Ora, 22, had affairs with "nearly 20 dudes." That's not all she talks about. The British pop star also says that while she has had "young fascinations," she has never been in love before. "I think it's my only weakness. I'm scared of letting my guard down, and if I feel in love with someone now, he'd have to try ten times harder to break it down."

How do you know it's best to remain friends when you're considering a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

So you have a person in your life that is a really great friend. You both love to hang out often and you also share personal past experiences easily with each other. Does this mean you and your great friend will make a great couple? Maybe yes and maybe no. To understand where you stand, here are a few clues that say you two are just friends:

1. Favors: Is someone calling you often to hang out, but it also involves a favor? Either you are constantly keeping him/her company while running their errands or doing their chores, or helping him/her move. This is a classic sign that you are in the friend zone.

2. Too busy: On the flip side, think about what answer you receive when you decide to spend a little time with him/her on a lazy afternoon. Is your friend filled with countless excuses, such as having to help their family, watching a game with a friend or reorganizing their bookshelf? Pay attention to the excuse and how often this happens; you may be missing clear signs.

3. Flinching: If the friend you are attracted to is not into you in the same way, he/she will flinch or stiffen up when you casually reach out to touch them. Their instant body reaction is telling you that you have crossed a line and friends don't do that.

Kim Kardashian & Kanye West Double Date with Rob Kardashian & Rita Ora

The Kardashian's shared their love together while enjoying a double date in London on Wednesday night. Kim Kardashian sat comfortably beside her recent beau, Kanye West, while Rob Kardashian snuggled next to his girlfriend, Rita Ora at Zuma. West and Kardashian were even showing some affection during the dinner. "When Kanye got up to leave he gave Kim a lovely tender kiss on the lips," the witness added. Kanye West's collaborator and long time friend Jay-Z was also spotted in Zuma.

How can double dates bring you closer together as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Double dating can test out how your relationship works around other people. If you double date with your family or best friends, then it's all even more important as to how well the date goes, because when someone dates you, they date your family, too. These are some reasons as to why double dates can bring you closer together as a couple:

1. You're being social, together: If you're dating someone, you most likely have a good time together, but for the most part without other people. If you can both have a great time with other people, then you're even more compatible.

2. Get to know the people in each others' lives: Double dating can be a great way for both of you to get to know each others' friends and family. It could be a time to open up, under less pressure.

3. Learn more about each other: You know how your partner is when you're alone, but double dating could allow you to see how they are around the people who know them best. You learn more about what they like and how they are.
