By Mallory McDonald

After two years of celebrity marriage, Glee alum Naya Rivera has filed for a celebrity divorce from Ryan Dorsey. According to EOnline.com, the two released a statement saying, "After much consideration, we have made the decision to end our marriage. Our priority is and always will be to our beautiful son that we share together. We will continue to be great co-parenting partners for him. We ask for respect and privacy for our family during this difficult time." The court documents have irreconcilable differences listed as Rivera's reason for filing for divorce. Even though the two are now celebrity

exes, they were once very happy together. Soon after they got married, they shared with People, "We feel truly blessed to be joined as husband and wife. Our special day was fated and everything we could have ever asked for."

This celebrity divorce comes after only two years of marriage. How do you know when divorce is the only option?

Cupid's Advice:

Having to decide if you are ready for a divorce can be extremely difficult and emotionally draining. Use this advice to help make that difficult decision:

1. Constant fighting: It is the oldest one in the book, but if you and your partner are not able to stop fighting despite efforts on both parts, the relationship just isn't working anymore and a divorce may be the best option for both of you.
