

Celebrity News: Ryan Phillippe Responds to Ex's 'False' Abuse Allegations

By

Ashleigh Underwood

In some very serious celebrity news, Ryan Phillippe has been accused of domestic abuse against ex-girlfriend Elsie Hewitt. Early this week, Hewitt filed a $1 million lawsuit claiming “assault, battery and intentional infliction of emotional distress” according to E! Online. However, in a recent celebrity interview with the network, one of Phillippe’s representatives has shared a statement from the actor, saying “Ryan is completely devastated that these false allegations have been made and circulated.” Meanwhile, both parties have continued to go back and forth between the validity of the accusations, and nothing is currently being brought to court.

In this celebrity news, the situation is full of drama. What are some ways to deal with false allegations made by an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

While drama can be interesting from afar, nothing is more draining than being in the center of it. Especially, if the drama is coming from false accusations of an ex! Here are a few ways to deal with the crazy drama:

1. Confront your ex: In many situations, rumors can be put to an end by going straight to the source. If your ex is spreading lies and making accusations, your best bet is to approach them and talk it out. Odds are, they will take back what they said and stop talking about you.

2. Let it slide: If the drama and rumors are something minor, you could let it go. Many times, the talk is petty and insignificant enough that no one will even take notice. If it is something you can handle, ignore the drama and move on.

Celebrity News: Ryan Phillippe Does Not Want His Children To Watch 'Cruel Intentions'

By Marissa Donovan

Marissa Donovan

Ryan Phillippe is currently promoting his new film Wish Upon. In a radio interview on Sway in the Morning, the actor compared the new scary movie to his 90's film I Know What You Did Last Summer. He also shared that he's excited for his kids to see the film, since his movie are not kid friendly features. Phillippe feels that Cruel Intentions is a "little too edgy” for his 17 year old daughter and 13 year old son. Maybe someday Phillippe and his co-parent Reese Witherspoon will watch their co-starring film as a family someday.

In recent celebrity news, This celebrity parent seems excited to promote his new film! What film genres can you and your partner enjoy with your children without worrying about edgy scenes?

Cupid Advice:

Today’s film industry can sometimes push the envelop when it comes to movie ratings. Here are some suggested film genre that you can enjoy with your partner and your children:

1. Animal or food documentaries: Documentaries can be interesting and educational for your family, especially ones about animals or food. Interviews from specialist or soothing narration will keep your family engaged and learning new facts!

Ryan Phillippe Says He's 'Proud' of How He and Reese Co-Parent

By

Amanda Boyer

Since Reese Witherspoon and Ryan Phillippe's separation after seven years of marriage in 2006, Phillippe could not be more pleased with how it has been working out, according to UsMagazine.com. With two kids at ages 15 and 10, the ex-couple has been co-parenting well, according to Phillippe's recent interview with HuffPost Live. The actor they still make time to spend time together as a family and are proud of the way they have handled the situation.

What are three factors to consider when co-parenting?

Cupid's Advice:

Want to make sure you are doing a good job co-parenting? Read ahead for some tips:

1. Balance: Think about how you want to raise your kids. If you and the other parent have different visions, things could get messy. Make sure to compromise and listen to each other's points of view.

5 Celebrity Couples Who Are Still Friends After Divorce

By

Louisa Gonzales

Breakups are hard. Divorce is even harder. Some are nasty, while others end amicably, but even so, for some couples transitioning from ex lovers to buddies just isn't possible.

Many celebrity partners have gotten married over the years, and not all of them have worked out. However, some pairs have managed to go from being in a romantic relationship to remaining friends. Here are Cupid's top 5 celebrity ex couples who still remain friends to this day.

1. Miranda Kerr and Orlando Bloom: The pair married for three years before calling it quits in 2013. The ex couple shares one son, Flynn, born in 2011. The ex lovers may have ended their marriage, which their reps stated the split was amicable, but the family is still spotted in friendly outings together. Having a son together it makes sense the two remains more than cordial with one another.

2. Courteney Cox and David Arquette: The two got hitched back in 1999 and were together for 11 years before splitting up and then officially divorcing in 2012. The ex lovebirds have one child together their daughter, Coco. The two have reportedly stated they still remain best friends and are both fully committed to raising their daughter together even though they are no longer married.

3. Ryan Phillippe and Reese Witherspoon: The couple who tied the knot back in 1999 married young, but remained together for eight years, unusual for Hollywood standards, before ending their romance. The ex lovebirds have a son and daughter together and still maintain a healthy relationship with each other to this day.

4. Demi Moore and Ashton Kutcher: The once power couple both made headlines when they first got together back in 2003 because of their major age difference, about fifteen and half years total! Their divorce may have been one of the nastier ones, there's speculation Kutcher was unfaithful, but the ex's have both since moved on. Kutcher stated he would always cherish the time they spent together in a tweet and the pair appears to still be friendly toward one another.

Celebrity Couples That Remained Friends After Dating

By

Jennifer Harrington

Dating in Hollywood's spotlight can be thrilling and challenging for celebrities. While it can be intense for the stars to navigate love with their partner under the microscope of the media and paparazzi, it's even more problematic when couples break-up and part ways. As we know, breaking up is hard to do and many couples do not remain on amicable terms. However, here is a look at several celebrity couples who have managed to stay friends after ending their romance.

Demi Moore and Bruce Willis:

Demi and Bruce were married for over a decade, are parents to three daughters, and also have the "biggest drama-free divorce in Hollywood". During Demi's six-year marriage to Ashton Kutcher, it was widely publicized that Bruce spent time with Demi, Ashton, and the kids (the gang appeared everywhere together from red carpets to exotic vacations!). When Demi and Ashton's marriage dissolved, Bruce was a shoulder for his former wife to cry on. So what's the secret to the harmony between them? Many speculate it is their shared devotion to their kids, and the fact that their union dissolved without any rumors of infidelity.

Related: Demi Moore Proves There's Hope After Divorce

Reese Witherspoon and Ryan Phillippe:

Reese and Ryan married young and split after seven years of marriage. The marriage produced two children, and the grounds of divorce were reported as "irreconcilable differences". However, in the several years that have passed since they parted ways romantically, it's apparent that this duo has stayed tight and they have a fantastic friendship. In fact, Ryan and Reese are frequently spotted (with Reese's current husband, Jim Toth) watching their son's soccer games together! Hollywood insiders believe the secret to Reese and Ryan's friendship is open lines of communication and talking through any issues that come up.

Related: Reese Witherspoon Says Married Life Feels Great

Kendra Wilkinson and Hugh Hefner:

Kendra became a star by living in the Playboy mansion as one of Hugh's girlfriends. Kendra ended her romantic relationship with Hugh, but the couple remained so friendly that Kendra and Hank Baskett were married at the Playboy mansion, and it was initially reported that Hugh would give the bride away during her wedding ceremony! Kendra has a young son with Baskett, and she's made it known she wants her son to call Hugh "The Godfather". Recently, Kendra was quoted saying she wanted to kill Hugh's current wife, Crystal Harris, because she is skeptical of her intentions. This statement is evidence of the deep friendship between Kendra and Hugh; it's obvious these two always have the others best interest in mind, and they aren't afraid to stand up for each other when necessary!

It's certainly not common for celebrity couples to remain friends after the romance fizzles, but it is reassuring to see how these couples have made it work and stayed close. There are obviously lessons to be learned from Demi and Bruce, Reese and Ryan, and Kendra and Hugh. Tell Cupid: what do you think is the most important advice for two people transitioning from lovers to buddies?

How to Communicate with Your Ex Over the Holidays

By

Amy Osmond Cook, Ph.D.

Reese Witherspoon is my favorite actress. Not only is she a beautiful woman and a classy mom, but she also starred in Legally Blonde, a girl-power movie that I watched every day (I kid you not!) for the first three months after my divorce. I cried when Warner dumped Elle and cried again when Elle emerged triumphant at Harvard. I kept thinking, "If Elle Woods can do it, so can I." So this year, I am cheering for Reese. She has moved on from what she called a "humiliating" and "isolating" divorce (Elle Magazine, April 2009) and has found happiness with Jim Toth and a peaceable relationship with her ex, Ryan Phillippe.

While it sounds like Reese has got it all together, she may have a little bit of anxiety as she and Jim manage their special occasions together for the first time. As a divorced and remarried mother of five children, I know what it's like to try to manage innumerable family get-togethers over the holidays. There are too many schedules, too many conflicts, and (let's face it) too many cookies. So, for what it's worth, here are my suggestions for surviving the holidays with a newly blended family:

Related: Ways to Impress Your Future Family

Give your ex a present. Yep, a real one. His old razor that he left behind or a picture of the children that he doesn't visit often enough don't count. The other day, my ex complimented my son, Jake, on his new orange SkullCandy headphones as he was picking him up for the weekend. I had accidentally bought two pair, so I gave Jake's dad one for his approaching birthday. In the eight years that we have been divorced, I don't think I have ever seen him more excited. He has smiled more lately, and I swear it's because of the headphones.

Buy presents together. When it comes to holiday presents, is so tempting to compete with your ex. I admit I have asked the question, "What did your dad get you for Christmas?" with the secret hope that my present was better than his. But there are two reasons to give your children joint presents. First, it is a symbol of solidarity and communicates to your children that you and your ex are united in your parenting endeavors (even if you're not). Kids need to feel loved by both parents, and a joint gift communicates that effectively.

Secondly, gifts become increasingly expensive as children age. They want iPods instead of Barbies. If you can swing a joint present, you can give your kids what they really want without spending too much money.

Related: 10 Holiday Gift Ideas For That Someone Special

Know your limits. When I was divorced and single, it was sometimes difficult to see married couples enjoying their lives. This was especially true during the holidays. I tried to focus on the things I could enjoy, but when it got too hard, I left. I could do parties, but not dates with couples.

I enjoyed Christmas with the family, but not New Years' Eve (banging pots at midnight with toddlers—Nuff said). And I never held babies, because if I did, then I wanted one—but not without a husband. As Reese aptly told Marie Claire, divorce is “really, really stressful” (October 2011), and it’s okay to flee the scene when the stress starts to mount.

Celebrate the holidays . . . whenever. Who says Christmas has to be December 25? When the holidays get crazy, flexibility is truly a virtue. For example, this year my family is celebrating Christmas on December 23, so we can celebrate it with everyone. My kids love it, because they get two Christmases instead of one and don’t have to feel left out of one family’s traditions. If you can change the family party so your kids can be there, do it. If you can’t, then create a few traditions that they can look forward to before or after the holiday.

The combination of exes, children, and the holidays can be as distasteful as a cup of wassail gone bad. But if you are flexible, know your limits, and reach out to your ex, you might find yourself tolerating—and even enjoying—the holiday season.

Alexis Knapp Gives Her Baby Ryan Phillippe’s Last Name

Evidence is piling up! Alexis Knapp's baby girl just turned one month old, and the name of the child, born July 1st, is Kailani Merizalde Phillippe Knapp. Her middle name is the same as her mom's. Phillippe's last name is included on her birth certificate, suggesting the actor is most likely the father. That said, the father section on the certificate is left blank. According to People, Phillippe was in the waiting room at the time of the delivery.

What are some ways to compromise with your partner on a baby name?

Cupid's Pulse:

One of the first sources of disagreements between you and your partner may be your first baby's name. It's okay to have disagreements in a relationship, but it's important to approach them in the right way. Cupid has some ideas on how to come to an agreement about your newborn child's name:

1. Pick a theme: Your partner loves the name Joseph. You adore the name Adam. If you're having trouble agreeing on a baby name, try coming up with a theme that you both like. For example, you may find that both of you want a long name or a religious name. Once you've found a mutual theme, you can begin to narrow down your choices.

2. Use pen and paper: You may find it helpful for you and your spouse to write down all the names you would be willing to consider for your child and then share them with each other. Chances are that you will find common ground.

3. Combine: If you're both set on a name, why not be creative and combine the two? If they go well together, one can be the first name and the other can be the middle.

Do you have any advice on how to agree on a baby name? Don't be shy! Share your thoughts below.

Rumor: Is Demi Lovato Hooking Up With Ryan Phillippe?

year-old Demi Lovato and 36 year-old Ryan Phillippe. Could it be true? Reportedly, Lovato has been hooking up with Reese Witherspoon's ex-husband and the father of their two children. According to a UsMagazine.com source, it was "nothing serious."

How do you keep a relationship casual?

Cupid's Advice:

There are plenty of reasons to want to keep the relationship casual, especially if you just started seeing someone. But how do you go about it? Cupid has some tips:

1. Expectations: If the relationship is not of a serious nature or isn't at that stage, then make sure you know what to expect. Don't assume that your partner will be more emotionally available than he or she actually is. Don't expect that the relationship is more meaningful than it is, or you may risk getting hurt.

2. Communication: Communication is key. It may be awkward discussing the status of the relationship, but it's important to be open about where you stand and make sure you and your partner are both on the same page.

3. Group dates: A good idea may be to go on a group date. This will ensure that the setting is more fun and less intimate. If you're out with a group of friends, you'll be less likely to discuss your feelings.

Ryan Phillippe Hangs With Pregnant Ex-Girlfriend

Let the rumors continue! Ryan Phillippe was spotted at a coffee shop in Los Angeles with pregnant ex-girlfriend Alexis Knapp.

One inside source told UsMagazine.com that Phillippe, the alleged father, plans on taking a paternity test. "He doesn't know if he's the father. If it's his, he'll take responsibility." Could it be that Phillippe's third child is on its way?

What are some reasons to continue to associate with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It may be that your ex is the last person you're thinking about paying a visit to after a split, but that's not always the case. Clearly, Phillippe and Knapp think it's okay to spend time with your exes. Here's a few reasons why some ex-couples might choose to keep bonds:

1. Do it for the kids: If your ex is the father or mother of your child, you're probably going to be seeing him or her on a fairly regular basis. It's important for both parents to be up-to-date on their children's lives.

2. Keep the friendship: If you and your ex started off as friends before dating, you may want to maintain that original relationship. Friendship is something you can always fall back on for support.

3. Keep the friends circle: When you're in a relationship with someone, you share so much with your partner, including your friends, that don't just die off along with the relationship. It may take some time to readjust your role in your circle, but it'll all pay off in the end.

5 Celebrity Couples We Want to Reunite

By

Tanni Deb

We've all had a moment when we've stared wide eyed in utter shock at the TV screen after finding out our favorite celebrity couple has split, trying to figure out what went wrong. After all, this pair seemed to be in such a happy relationship!

There will always be famous duos that we think about months (or even years!) down the line, wondering if they'll ever reconcile. While the possibility may be a long shot, no one can help wishful thinking. With that said, here are five celebrity couples we would like to reunite:

1. Britney Spears and Justin Timberlake: The famous singers first met in 1993 on the sets of The Mickey Mouse Club and began dating five years later. They were everyone's favorite celebrity couple in the late 90's, but their relationship ended in 2002. After their breakup, Timberlake released 'Cry Me A River,' a revenge song for Ms. Spears herself. As much as everyone loved this musical duo it doesn't seem like they'll ever get back together – romantically, at least. We can hope for a musical collaboration, right?

2. Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey: Although wedding bells are ringing for both performers, who wouldn't like this aesthetically pleasing couple to reunite? The pair met in 1998 and within weeks of meeting each other, Lachey told his 98 Degrees band members Simpson would be his future bride. He proposed in 2002 and the marriage lasted for three years. Could Newlyweds, MTV's reality show which aired the couple's married life, be to blame?

3. Reese Witherspoon and Ryan Phillippe: This blonde coupling were married for seven year when they split in 2006. While they seemed to have a successful relationship, they spoke openly about having to work on their marriage, and underwent couples therapy in 2002. Despite Witherspoon's recent nuptials, we can't stop thinking of what a beautiful couple she and Phillippe made.

4. Scarlett Johansson and Ryan Reynolds: After only two years of marriage, the pair called it quits in 2010. Rumor had it that Reynolds had an affair with Gossip Girl star Blake Lively, and Us Weekly reported that he told friends Johansson "treated him badly." Though the Lost in Translation actress has certainly moved on, we wonder if she and her ex-husband will ever reconcile.

5. Courteney Cox and David Arquette: They fell in love on the set of Scream in the mid-90s, tied the knot in 1999, had their first child in 2004 and then shocked the world when they announced their separation in 2010. However, the couple isn't giving up, as they're currently undergoing marriage counseling. We wish these two the best of luck!

These are just a few of the many celebrity couples we'd love to see together again. Which celebrity do you want to see back with their ex? Let us know in a comment below!

Ryan Phillippe and Amanda Seyfried Vacation Near Reese Witherspon's Wedding

Reese

Witherspoon and ex-husband Ryan Phillippe could have stumbled across each other this past weekend, reports RadarOnline. Witherspoon, who was married to talent agent Jim Toth on Saturday, had her wedding at her Ojai, California home. Phillippe and new girlfriend Amanda Seyfried were vacationing at the expensive San Ysidro Ranch near Santa Barbara, a mere 30 minutes from Witherspoon's home. Phillippe and Witherspoon share two children together: Ava, 11, and Deacon, 7. The two finalized their divorce in 2007.

What are ways to tell that your ex is jealous of your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Even when all seems to be said and done in an ended relationship, it's possible for leftover feelings to resurface. Here are a few ways to find out if your ex is jealous:

1. He wants to see you: Even if the two of you agreed to be friends after your relationship ended, there's still a line between being friendly and clingy. If your ex contacts you more often now that you're in a new relationship, it may mean that he's jealous.

2. Ask mutual friends: If you share mutual friends, ask your friends if your ex has been mentioning you more than usual lately, or if your ex seems to be moody. A bad attitude and a need to bring you into the conversation is a sure way to tell if your ex is jealous.

3. His dating tendencies: If it seems that your ex is taking a long time to move on from your relationship, it may mean that he still has feelings for you. While your ex just may not be the type to rush into a new relationship, his repeated avoidance of the dating scene may be cause for concern.

Is Ryan Phillippe Having A Baby with His Ex-GF?

After Alexis Knapp who was formally linked to actor, Ryan Phillippe, was spotted leaving a Los Angeles Coffee Bean with an obvious baby bump, rumors began to fly that that she may be carrying the Cruel Intentions star's child. According to RadarOnline, Ryan Phillippe's mom hasn't heard anything about the prospect of a new grandchild. "If she is pregnant I'm sure it's not my son's. Good luck to her. I haven't been made aware of it if it involves him though," said Susan Phillippe. Phillippe already has two children with ex-wife, Reese Witherspoon, Ava, 11, and Deacon, 7. He has most recently been connected to Red Riding Hood star, Amanda Seyfried.

How do you support your partner in the event of an unplanned pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

With the terms "Baby Daddy" and "Baby Mama" going mainstream, unplanned pregnancies are all too common. In the event that this occurs, it's important to support your partner both emotionally and financially:

1. Attend Lamaze classes and doctor's visits together: This is an excellent way to show support for your partner and look after the health of your unborn child.

2. Set money aside: This may be a good time to set money aside for the unborn child's future needs. This could be the beginning of a college fund.

3. Talk it out: There are about to be many changes in your life. Plan them out carefully and communicate fully with your partner.

Amanda Seyfried Admits to Dating Ryan Phillippe

Red

Riding Hood actress Amanda Seyfried has finally confirmed dating rumors circulating around her and actor Ryan Phillippe, reports UsMagazine.com. In the April issue of Elle Magazine, Seyfried discussed both her budding relationship with Phillippe and the end of her relationship with Mamma Mia! costar Dominic Cooper. Seyfried and Cooper split when she found out that Cooper and his previous girlfriend were still together. "I was just kind of foolishly thinking that the two of them were done and Dom and I were involved. But we weren't really as involved as I thought. So I got my heart broken pretty hard," says Seyfried. "And then it took a long time for us to break up again. After that, it's really hard to open myself up to a new person. Really hard."

How do you trust in love again after being heartbroken?

Cupid's Advice:

Heartbreak is arguably the hardest thing to deal with, but there are ways to ensure that you move on. Here are a few tips:

- 1. Visit your family: Spending time with relatives may be the first step you need to take in order to cure heartbreak. Family almost always has the ability to brighten your day.
 - 2. Spend time with friends: Even if you don't re-enter the dating world, going out with friends can help ease you back into a more social lifestyle.
 - 3. Take it slow: If you get an anxious feeling when you think about being in a relationship, then you probably aren't ready. Give yourself some time, and eventually you will feel confident enough to put yourself out there again.

Ryan Phillippe and Amanda Seyfried Rekindle Their Romance

After much talk of their romance dying out, Amanda Seyfried and Ryan Phillippe seem to be working things out. According to People, the two were seen at the Grey Goose Pre-Oscar bash at L.A.'s Soho House. Although the two were definitely together, Seyfried did seem a bit uneasy, a source says. Although it seems the two are back and forth, "When it's good, they're really good together."

When is your relationship good enough? Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship is different, and each couple has its ups and downs. Sometimes, it's difficult to assess the condition of your connection. Cupid has some tips to help you figure out when your relationship is good enough:

- 1. You are genuinely happy: Although there are always hard times, the good times should outnumber the bad.
 - 2. It doesn't feel like work: Sometimes we get so caught up that our relationships begin to feel like chores. When it starts to feel like a second job, you may want to begin to start rethinking things.
 - 3. You don't constantly need reassurance: If you feel like you need to be constantly convinced to stay in your relationship, it may not be good enough.

Have Rihanna and Ryan Phillippe Been Hooking Up?

Who's the hot new couple in Hollywood? Apparently Ryan Phillippe and Rihanna have been hooking up and are keeping it on the down-low. According to UsMagazine.com, the pair started getting together when their previous relationships were coming to a close. A source close to Rihanna says, "They initially hooked up when things were strained with [Rihanna's ex] Matt Kemp back in early December. As for Phillippe, "his three-month, nonexclusive romance with Amanda Seyfried had recently fizzled."

What are some ways to "play it cool" around a crush? Cupid's Advice:

- 1. Don't seem too available: If your crush notices you dropping all your plans the second he or she asks you to, you'll start to appear eager and desperate.
- 2. Don't give them too much attention: When you're out with a group of people, try your best to talk to each person an equal amount. If your crush starts to notice you're giving him a lot of extra attention, it might be a red flag.
- 3. Don't make the first move: If you want your crush to attend a group event, let him or her know your plans in a casual manner and say, “Feel free to tag along.” The key is to make sure they know you like them, but aren’t too obsessive.

Ryan Phillippe Ditches Amanda Seyfried to Hit On Rihanna

While most thought Ryan Phillippe and Amanda Seyfried were destined to become serious, it turns out it was just a fling. A friend told UsMagazine.com that the duo are just friends who are going on dates sometimes. “At one point, there was a chance it would develop into something more serious, but it never did. There’s no commitment,” Phillippe’s friend said. Aside from this, Phillippe was caught hitting on Rihanna Saturday; she kindly turned him down, a witness reports. The actor seemed undisturbed, leaving a house party later that night with a brunette.

Does dating around make you a player?

Cupid's Advice:

There's a fine line between dating around and being a player. Cupid has a few ways to tell the difference:

- 1. Strength in numbers isn't always a good thing: When trying to identify a player, think of Barney Stinson from the show "How I Met Your Mother." Stinson is the textbook definition of a player due to the number of partners he attempts to hook up with on a regular basis.
- 2. Being single means taking time for you: It's okay from time to time to flirt and meet a few attractive members of the opposite sex, but trying too hard all the time makes you a player. Just because you're single, doesn't mean you always have to look for a new partner. Let it happen naturally.
- 3. Trust your gut: If you're picking up signals that indicate he/she is leading you on, then trust yourself and ditch them. The best way to stop a player is by simply avoiding them.

Amanda Seyfried and Ryan Phillippe Spotted at Cozy Breakfast Date

Ryan

Phillippe and Amanda Seyfried have been spotted together again, People reports. The pair were first seen at Kate Hudson's Halloween bash in October. Now it appears the duo have gotten more serious about their relationship and have taken it public, eating breakfast together at Los Angeles's Joan's On Third. Phillippe also stopped by the set of Seyfried's new movie, Now, where the two took a walk together during a break in filming. What are casual type dates to go on at the beginning of a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

The great thing about starting a new relationship are all of the fun, quirky dates that come along with it. Low-key, zero stress and an opportunity to get to know a potential partner better; it's a win-win:

1. Outdoor fun: When you first start to see someone, sometimes getting outside in an open environment can be less stressful than sitting inside a stuffy movie theater. Spend some time in a local state park and go hiking for an afternoon.

2. Hit the lanes: There's a good chance neither of you have picked up a bowling ball in quite a few years. Spend a Saturday afternoon alongside some young families laughing over the fact that you've been bowling more gutter balls than strikes.

3. Movie madness: If you clicked over the same love for a TV series or movie genre, hit up Netflix and spend a weekend afternoon with a movie marathon. Or play it old school and do a movie run to your nearest Blockbuster, making sure to pick up your favorite munchies on the way.

New Celebrity Couple: Amanda Seyfried & Ryan Phillippe

In the middle of a seemingly endless parade of celebrity breakups, it's nice to hear some good news for a change! Us Weekly reports that a new couple may be in the works – apparently sparks were flying between Amanda Seyfried and Ryan Phillippe over the weekend. The two were reportedly spotted getting cozy at not one, but two Halloween parties! Seyfried, 24, and Phillippe, 36, chatted at Kate Hudson's annual Halloween soiree and at a party hosted by CAA's Todd Feldman in Beverly Hills. According to a witness at Hudson's bash, Seyfried, who wore a dog costume, was acting "flirty" all night. "She was listening to [Phillippe] and talking close but no making out... She seemed intrigued by him." Phillippe, who was dressed as Star Wars character Obi-Wan Kenobi, was in "a good mood. He looked cute and was smiling a lot." Although the two actors have yet to comment on their relationship status, when x17 recently asked Seyfried if they were a couple, she coyly answered, "You never know."

How can you tell if someone's interested in you?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Watch his body language: When you first meet him, if he keeps his body turned towards you, leans forward and maintains eye contact, he's interested and probably wants to see you again.

2. He likes what you like: By showing interest in what you like and do, he's trying to establish common ground. If he suggests going to a concert of a band you like or playing your favorite sport together, he definitely wants to get to know you better.

3. He stays in contact: We've all been there: you hit it off with a great guy and then never hear from him again. If he really wants to continue the relationship past the first date, he will get in touch with you somehow, whether through a phone call, text, IM, or Facebook message.
