By Alycia Williams

According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple are remaining good friends and will always be each others' biggest supporters. They will also cherish the time they spent together as a couple. Seacrest, who is in Mexico with some friends, was spotted a few times with another woman. They've been pictured holding hands and relaxing on the beach together, very soon after his celebrity break-up.

In celebrity break-up news, Ryan and Shayna called it quits, and it seems Ryan has already moved on. How do you know when you're ready to move on after a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a relationship for a long time and things aren't going so well, it's hard to know when you should continue to work on your relationship or move on. If you are in a long-term relationship and you're not sure if you should move on, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You've lost interest: In the beginning of the relationship, you two were inseparable. Late night phone calls, endless text conversations, and spontaneous dates were the norm, and it seemed like you would be together forever. If you've lost that same spark that you had when you first got together completely, then chances are it's not coming back.

2. You fight constantly: Disagreements within a relationship are perfectly normal, but if you find you and your partner fighting a lot more than usual, then it's time to take a broader scope to the relationship. If fights outweigh the good times that you have, then it's time to call it quits.

3. You avoid future plans: If you're in a long-term relationship, then planning ahead should be natural, because you see a long-term future with each other. If you find yourself not planning a future with your partner, that just means you don't see this person in your future. In that case, it's time to move on.

Celebrity News: Ryan Seacrest Says Kelly Ripa Encourages Him to Elope

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, on Live With Kelly and Ryan, Kelly Ripa mentioned that she thought Ryan Seacrest and his girlfriend Shayna Taylor had privately eloped when she saw what she thought were the couple getting married in an Instagram post. According to UsMagazine.com, the former American Idol host cleared up this confusion on the episode of their show that aired on October 8th, confirming that it was actually a different couple getting married in the post. But, that doesn't mean that Ripa has given up hope that Seacrest and his girlfriend will elope. Seacrest, speaking to Ripa said, "You're the one that says just elope, elope!" and Ripa responded, "Yes, elope because it's very easy." and Taylor have been an on-and-off celebrity couple since March 2013. Though they haven't eloped as of yet, they are building their relationship. Seacrest says that his longtime girlfriend will be attending Thanksgiving dinner with him and his family this year.

In celebrity news, Kelly Ripa tells Ryan Seacrest he should elope. What are the benefits of eloping instead of having a big wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone wants a big wedding extravaganza. Eloping is an ongoing trend that started with rebellious teenagers and made its way to becoming more popular among all ages. Cupid has some tips and tricks you can use to make your mini wedding one to remember:

1. Take a trip somewhere: Inviting everyone to a vacation spot is not always realistic. It can be costly for your guests, and many of them won't be able to swing it. However, a destination wedding is a great idea if you're eloping. It'll allow you to combine your wedding and honeymoon and spend quality alone time with your partner.

included as well. Don't forget to order the cake!

Cupid's Advice:

Trust is a big thing, and it's what keeps us standing by our partners when accusations arise. Cupid has some relationship advice on ways to support your other half if a tough time like this comes up:

1. Be their shoulder to lean on: Be there for them. Be there to listen to them. If your partner is being accused of something they didn't do, they will most likely be under some real stress, so they need a support system. You must be mindful of their emotions. Just make sure they know you have their back.

2. Be positive: Talk to them, offer words of encouragement. Don't criticize. Depending on the accusation, this can be a dark time. Try to be the light in the darkness for them. Obviously, don't try to downplay what's going on, but try to have them see that things will get better. Hope is sometimes one of the things we need the most.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Prince Harry, Ryan Seacrest and Vanessa Williams

By Shoshi

If you're looking for the latest celebrity news, then you've come to the right place! Recently, these famous couples have made headlines for two new romances and a Fourth of July wedding. Read on for my celebrity couple predictions!

A Royal Celebrity Couple Prediction

Prince Harry and Jenna Coleman: Rumor has it it that Prince Harry is dating Dr. Who actress Jenna Coleman. They were seen getting cozy...but that doesn't mean much. If I was in the same room as Prince Harry, I'd be trying to get cozy with him too! It's been said that the prince has been thinking about settling down, which means that every woman he's seen speaking to for longer than a second will be called "wife material."

As for his relationship with Coleman, it's a nice flirtation. She is cute and laid-back enough, but she won't be his princess. Cressida Bonas would have a better chance of Harry putting a ring on it. However, she shouldn't hold her breathe either.

While Prince Harry and his big brother Prince William are like night and day, Harry has paid close attention to the celebrity marriage of William and Kate, and he wants a similar love in his life. The woman that will steal Prince Harry's heart is someone who loves life just as much as him. I don't see that he has met The One yet, but when he does, it will be a quick courtship.

Ryan Seacrest and Hilary Cruz: Is it ever a surprise anymore when Ryan Seacrest starts dating a younger beautiful woman? It's like he picked up where George Clooney left off! The new love interest in his life is former Miss Teen USA and actress Hilary Cruz. Don't knock yourself out trying to remember what movies she's been in – there are about three acting credits to her name. Recently, the two were spotted at the airport right before they hit a yacht in the South of France. Sources say that Seacrest is smitten. I would say what 40-year-old man isn't smitten with a hot 26-year-old who wants to be with him?

I would love to report that the television personality has met the love of his life, but it looks like just another notch on his belt. Their relationship is a casual one, but they both will benefit from it: Seacrest gets a gorgeous woman on his arm among other things (if you know what I mean), while Cruz gets her name in the press. A win-win!

Vanessa Williams Celebrates Her

Celebrity Marriage

Vanessa Williams and Jim Skrip: The ever-stunning Vanessa Williams married Jim Skrip on the Fourth of July. Now, that is one way to never forget an anniversary! It is the third celebrity marriage for the actress, and it looks like three times is the charm. There isn't much information about Skrip online. The celebrity couple met on a trip to Egypt, and they dated for about a year before getting hitched. Let's just say that they have a grown folks relationships: no games, age-appropriate, and willing to do what they have to do to make it work. From looking at their photos, they look pretty happy together. After being in two marriages that didn't work out, this one should last for Williams. Congratulations to the newlyweds!

Love is in the air! How do you know if you're in a relationship that's going to last?

Cupid's Advice:

Life is unpredictable and that is often true of relationships and love lives, too. However, there are some signs that can help you determine if you're in a lasting relationship. Cupid has some love advice:

1. Simply bliss: Sometimes you just know a relationship is extra special and unlike anything else you've experienced before. When you are truly happy with that person, you know it has a great chance of lasting. If you can't imagine them not being by your side, that proves that this is very significant to your life.

2. Compatible: When you meet someone that you really click with, don't give up on them because it's a rare find. Sure you can find someone with similar interests as you and to have a good time with, but if you really mesh well with somebody, then it is probably one for the books!

3. L-O-V-E: There may be no other way to describe the relationship except for the simple fact that it's love. If you are head over heels for this person on both good and bad days, then it's a good sign that you should hang on to them forever. Every moment isn't always a fairytale, but when you really love somebody, the whole ride with them becomes a great love story.

Ryan Seacrest Aspires for a Marriage Like His Mom and Dad

By Sarah Batcheller

As Ryan Seacrest nears his 40th birthday in December, he's thinking about what it is in life that matters forever- love! According to People, Seacrest thinks this means a marriage like his mother and father's, which is a healthy and happy one. His parents have been married for over 40 years, so now the multi-media mogul is thinking about how and when finding the same kind of love is in store for him, and the 40-year milestone is a wonderful time. Seacrest says his goal is to find balance in the coming year, which means focusing a little less on work, and a little more on the sweeter things in life.

How do you know when you're in a healthy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Balance is important in any relationship, and it can be hard to see the signs if you're in an unhealthy relationship. Cupid has some hints that point to a healthy relationship:

1. You spend quality time together: Even amid all the craziness of work, school, and all other responsibilities, you and your partner make sure you set aside time to be together, and not just to sit around the house, but to have fun and bond. Spending quality time together allows both people to continue to feel connected throughout the days, even when they haven't seen each other for a bit. In long-distance relationships, this means making time for quality conversations, and not just texting all the time.

Related: How To Turn A Summer Fling Into A Healthy Relationship

2. You both make compromises: Being in a relationship means being part of a team, and when you're on a team, the goal is not for individual members to win, but for the whole group to win. This means that in a healthy relationship, both partners consider the team when it comes to big decisions, like relocating, and even little ones, like where to get dinner. Compromise means considering what will sustain a happy, functional relationship, rather than one person only considering themselves.

3. You're not afraid to be vulnerable: Masking your feelings will set you on the fast track to the demise of your relationship. If both partners can be vulnerable, it makes it easier to compromise, because you know what each other truly want, deep down. Showing your true colors will allow your partner to nurture your deepest feelings.

New Couple? Ryan Seacrest Steps Out With Shayna Terese Taylor on Vacation

By Brittany Stubbs

Ryan Seacrest has some new arm candy! The American Idol host was seen on vacation in Uruguay with the beautiful blonde, Shayna Terese Taylor, both a model and personal trainer. UsMagazine.com confirms the two were spotted on

What are some ways to announce your new relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

As easy as it is these days to put yourself "in a relationship" on Facebook and upload some pictures of your significant other, there are more personal ways to introduce and officially announce your new romance to your loved ones:

1. Dinner and drinks: Why not get your family and friends together for dinner to meet your significant other? This way you not only have the opportunity to officially announce you're dating, but you also give everyone an opportunity to get to know him or her. They'll share in the joy of your new relationship just as much as you have.

Related: Julianna Hough Relaxes in Miami One Month After Split From Ryan Seacrest

2. Bring your partner along: If the thought of having a dinner in which your partner and new relationship are the main subjects makes you uncomfortable, consider a more low key way to include and introduce them to your circle. Bringing them along to a friend's house party, a family birthday, or as your plus-one to a wedding, are opportunities you can casually announce your relationship.

Related: Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest Spend Weekend in Los Cabos

3. Send an email: Not everyone has the luxury of living close to all their family and friends, but it's important to still keep them updated on your life. Sending them a nice email updating them on what you have going on, including the news of your new relationship, will make your loved ones feel more in the loop despite the distance that separates you. You might even consider including a picture of you and your partner and a little synopsis of how the two of you met.

Dating Again: How to Move On After a Breakup

By Marni Battista

Moving on after a breakup can be tough. At Dating with Dignity, we don't think the best way to get over your ex is to get under someone else! Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest are one Hollywood "It Couple" that recently ended their relationship, and it looks like at least one of them has moved on. Rumors have it that Seacrest has already bagged himself a new lady friend, while Hough still wants him back. If we could advise the bubbly blonde on how to pick herself up again, here are the tips we'd give her:

Related Link: Lessons from Justin and Selena: Should You Get Back with Your Ex?

1. Put YOU first. When you go through a breakup, it's extremely important to make sure you take care of yourself first. Even if you saw it coming or it was a decision you know is for the best, it's important to allow yourself time to grieve the loss. Take this opportunity to get back to your fitness regimen, reconnect with old friends, start an activity that perhaps you've put aside for a while or even take a solo weekend vacation. Take some time to feel sad (after all, it's normal to be sad) and remember what you enjoy about yourself.

2. Don't be afraid to say yes to dates. If you get asked out at your local coffee shop or at a friend's birthday bash, say yes. Even if you feel it might be too soon to launch into a super-serious relationship, saying yes to an evening of flirting or a nice dinner won't hurt. It's important to let yourself be seen by someone who doesn't know your "story," and it allows you the opportunity to get back to being you. Plus, it feels good to be pursued!

3. Have fun with girlfriends. When you're in a long-term relationship, you often forget about girl time. Take this opportunity to reconnect with your friends: go out for a night on the town, have fun and take pictures of how much fun you're having to anchor to the new life you're creating. Posting photos on Instagram or checking in on Foursquare to that hot new restaurant opening is totally fine by us too. While the urge to stay in your cave may be strong, trust us that it's important to get your "girl" on and put yourself back in social situations.

4. Remember that it's okay to be single! Even though it sucks when you don't have a date to the next summer wedding or a go-to Saturday night plan, creating the life you want has to start with you and you alone.

Related Link: Lessons We Can Learn from Taylor Swift, Queen of Heartbreak

Coming from a place of fear that "I'll never meet anyone" or "I'm getting too old" will only lead you down a path you don't want to be on. Relish in the "what's good" about being single and make a list of the things you get to do now that you have more time. Read more books, develop deeper friendships, focus on completing projects that kept getting put on the back burner, go to sleep when you want and cherish that the remote control is all yours.

If Hough took our advice, we think she'd be well on her way to getting over her breakup with Mr. American Idol. Remember: there are plenty of (taller) fish in the sea!

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jennifer Aniston, Julianne Hough and Kim Kardashian

By Shoshi

For today's expert post, I want to look at the energy of three celebrity couples who have been plagued by rumors this summer: Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux, recently-split Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest and new parents Kim Kardashian and Kanye West.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Halle Berry, Jada Pinkett-Smith and Heidi Klum

Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux: It's no surprise that these two lovebirds postponed their wedding – I think even Stevie Wonder could've seen this one coming. There's definitely some conflicting energy around this relationship. Let's dissect it, shall we? The top reason for the wedding being postponed is that Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie are getting hitched this summer too, and Jennifer Aniston doesn't want her wedding close to the same time. Can you blame her?

The other rumor is that she and Justin Theroux are just too busy to get married. Now, I can't help but question this excuse. When people are ready to spend the rest of their lives together, the last thing they'll let stand in the way is their hectic schedules. After all, it's not like the two of them can't afford to take some time off.

When I look at Theroux's energy, it reveals that he isn't the marrying type. He can feel committed to someone without a ceremony. There's nothing wrong with that perspective as long as Aniston is fine with it.

He also feels like he doesn't have any control in the relationship. For instance, after planning to live in New York, Aniston said it felt like a fishbowl and moved the couple back to Los Angeles. Even so, Theroux has been spotted checking out places to live in downtown New York. Aniston has taken Theroux out of the playground where he feels most like himself, which tends to be a big damper on a relationship, especially for men. If Aniston doesn't allow Theroux to feel comfortable, he'll seek that feeling from someone else. Their love can go either way at this point!

Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest: Since this adorable couple broke up in March, everybody is on Ryan Seacrest-dating watch. Who will he date next? And will he get back together with Julianne Hough? The spirits say no; he's ready to move on.

Hough, on the other hand, is trying to win the television host back – she has her eye on being Mrs. Seacrest. Unfortunately, it's so not going to happen. Seacrest definitely cares about her, but she's just not the kind of partner he wants/needs as he builds his empire. It also doesn't look good that Hough has been partying like a college girl in recent months. She's screaming for attention from her ex, but instead, she just needs to look for love elsewhere.

Related Link: Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Welcome a Daughter

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Little North West arrived five weeks early, much to the delight of her parents, Kim Kardashian and Kanye West. After the baby's name was announced, people immediately started saying that this famous pair were already bad parents.

Looking at their energy, I think West is going to be a pretty good dad. As for Kardashian, she'll have a bumpy time at first because the baby girl will feel more comfortable with her dad. The reality star will try a little too hard to be a "good mother," which will ultimately hurt her parenting skills. Plus, North will be the number one priority for West, leaving Kardashian a bit jealous. While West and Kardashian love the spotlight, the rapper will have a better grasp on why it's important for their bundle of joy to not be a part of the entertainment business until she's a bit older. When the time is right, though, North West will be a mini-mogul following in the footsteps of her parents. Mark my words!

Celebrity News: Julianne Hough Relaxes in Miami One Month After Split From Ryan Seacrest

By Andrea Surujnauth

Julianne Hough is maxing and relaxing post breakup with Ryan Seacrest. The actress was spotted tanning and hanging out on the beach in Miami with pal Nina Dobrev. Hough and Seacrest dated for nearly two years, but broke it off in March. The rumored reason they pulled the plug on their relationship was due to Seacrest's busy schedule. "Dude works all the time," a source told UsMagazine. "[Seacrest] never sleeps. It's a lifestyle she couldn't handle anymore. Work always, always came first [for him]. She wants a more low-key life.”

What are some ways to keep your mind off of a breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

Breaking up is never easy. How do you keep your mind off the pain you are feeling? Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Stay away: After a breakup it is best to stay away from your ex and block them on social media. By keeping them close during your time of healing will make it near impossible to heal. You need your time away to get over the feelings you have but having them around will make you wish the breakup didn’t happen and it will be impossible to forget about.

2. Friends: Going out with friends and having a good time is a great way to forget about a breakup. Your friends are bound to keep you distracted and happy so you won’t be thinking about the heartbreak you are feeling.

3. Stay active: Keeping yourself active will take time away from thinking about your ex-beau. You will be on the go so time will fly and you won’t have any free time to linger on the breakup.

Celebrity Breakup: Ryan Seacrest and Julianne Hough

Call It Quits After 2 Years

By Jessica Conigliaro

American Idol judge Ryan Seacrest and longtime girlfriend Julianne Hough recently ended things. Hough could not handle dating a workaholic, thus ending their two-year relationship. "It's a lifestyle she couldn't handle anymore. Work always, always came first [for Ryan]. She wants a more lowkey life," a source tells UsMagazine.com.

How do you know when to call it quits in a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

You have been dating your partner for a while now and feel comfortable being around him. However, something just doesn't feel the same anymore. He treats you with less respect and you are left questioning the relationship. Cupid's here to help you make the tough decision:

1. Opposing goals: After dating your boyfriend for over a year, you decide it's a good time to discuss the idea of marriage. To your surprise, he completely dismisses the conversation, saying he's 'not the married type'. What do you do now? If you and your partner clearly want different things in the future, end the relationship as soon as you can. Never stay with someone that will hold you back from what you truly want—you will eventually resent them for it. Find someone that wants similar things in their future as you do. Searching for that person may take a bit of time, but the end result will be ever so rewarding.

2. Negative behavior changes: Unfortunately, people often change for the worse. Your partner got a promotion at work last year and has been stressed out for months. Instead of talking about his problems, he just takes out all his anger on you and starts unnecessary arguments. When the person you are with stops respecting you the way he used to, write it down in a journal. If you find yourself constantly jotting down your troubles, this is your cue to leave the relationship. Keeping tallies also reassures that you are not making any rash decisions; the problem is a recurring one, and is unlikely to go away. End things before they get even worse.

3. Pile of lies: Throughout your 2-year relationship, you were always suspicious of your man lying to you on occasion. He would never confess to leaving a mess in the kitchen, or forgetting to turn the T.V off before bed. In the past, the lies were so small that you disregarded them completely. If there's a small problem in your relationship, address it before it becomes worse. If you ignore the little nuances, your partner's tiny fibs will get increasingly worse, leaving you hurt mad at yourself for ignoring the signs. If an issue in your relationship is drastically escalating beyond your control, it might be time to consider walking away entirely. Some problems simply can't be fixed.

How Celebrity Couples Overcome Their Stressful Lives

By Whitney Baker

While it's tempting to think that celebrity couples never experience the ups-and-downs of real life, that's not always the case. Like everyone else, they must survive personal heartbreak, career letdowns and various forms of rejection – and they must do it all in the public eye. Of course, being a Tinseltown twosome means that they have money and means to overcome their stressful lives, perhaps by doing one of the activities below.

1. Learning something new: Although stars are often on set for long hours or traveling for various commitments, there is always downtime during their hectic schedules, giving them time to pick up a new hobby. For instance, Curtis Stone, who has a son with fiancée Lindsay Price, hopes that he and Price can learn how to speak Spanish and then teach their son the language.

2. Taking an extravagant vacation: Thanks to their hefty paychecks and flexible jobs, stars can jet off to Mexico or the Caribbean on a whim. Some of them even own their own private planes, making it extra easy to take a last-minute vacation. After co-hosting ABC's New Year's Rockin' Eve with Jenny McCarthy, Ryan Seacrest headed down to St. Barts for some fun in the sun with his long-time girlfriend Julianne Hough. This trip provided some much-needed R&R for the busy couple: Seacrest is gearing up for the twelfth season of American Idol, while Hough is promoting her upcoming movie Safe Haven. Likewise, Reese Witherspoon, Jim Toth and their three children spent the holidays in Hawaii.

3. Enjoying normal, domestic activities: Sometimes, just doing basic, everyday chores helps alleviate the pressure that comes with being rich and famous. When their schedules align and Carrie Underwood and husband Mike Fisher are both at their Nashville home, they like to keep things simple: they often spend time cooking and watching television together. Underwood likes to keep a similar routine when she's on tour, often doing her own laundry on her days off.

4. Donating to charities: While stardom certainly comes with stress, it also includes many wonderful perks. One way for stars to fully appreciate how blessed they are is by giving back – and no couple does this better than the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Kate Middleton is making sure her charitable donations reflect on her pregnancy; in January, she gave both a hamper of new baby products and a package of baby clothes to one of her favorite causes, East Anglia Children's Hospices.

5. Adopting a puppy: Similarly, many celebrities show their goodwill by rescuing dogs from local shelters. These furry creatures provide them with constant companions despite their busy schedules. At the start of the New Year, Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth adopted a Chihuahua-mix puppy, Bean, who joins their family of four other rescued dogs. Likewise, Katherine Heigl – who even started her own animal companion charity – and husband Josh Kelley have a full house: they're raising their two daughters alongside seven rescued dogs.

Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest Spend Thanksgiving Weekend in Los Cabos

By Nic Baird

Media personality Ryan Seacrest and dancer Julianne Hough enjoyed their vacation in Mexico this weekend, according to People. The couple took a romantic stroll, hand-in-hand, along a beach in Cabo San Lucas, Saturday. Despite a lavish Thanksgiving meal a few days earlier, Hough maintained her toned physique while sporting a bikini. On the other hand, Seacrest showed no skin in a hat, shirt, and shorts. The pair met in 2007, when the Dancing with the Stars and American Idol sets were across the hall from each other.

Where are three romantic Mexican vacation spots to book with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Romantic vacations send sparks flying in any relationship, and lavish getaways in exotic locales are closer than you think. If you're thinking of dipping your toe in those warm tropical waters, take a look at these three exciting spots:

1. Playa del Carmen: A small town about an hour south of Cancun, Playa del Carmen was originally a fishing village, but now exists as a centre of tourism to Mexico. You get the beautiful warm Caribbean waters without all the hustle and bustle of Cancun. And for scuba divers, the world's second largest coral reef is right off the coast.

2. Puerto Vallarta: A well balanced tourist city; perhaps the full package. History, ecology, and tourist attractions litter the sites of Puerto Vallarta. No matter what kind of relationship you're in, you'll find something here. The Splash water park, and Vallarta Adventure Center offer great programs for couples or families who are looking to play on the slides, or swim with the dolphins.

3. Tulum: Once a secluded getaway, the Coban port houses some of the best preserved Mayan ruins, and breathtaking underground water caverns. Definitely the quietest option for a romantic getaway, the New York Times describes it as a "yoga aesthetic" for the well-traveled boomer era professional. Eco-adventures and plenty of accommodation make it the perfect spot for a magical getaway with your spouse.

Julianne Hough does not take her relationship for granted. People reports that the dancer has a difficult time coordinating schedules with radio personality Ryan Seacrest, her beau of nearly two years. “[Balancing your career and a relationship] is a hard thing to do, especially when you’re so caught up in your work and bettering yourself,” said Hough. “I’m so lucky that I have a great relationship. 1. Take it slow: If your relationship is moving fast, take the time to stop and reevaluate. Don't rush into a marriage or committed relationship.
