Cupid's Advice:

Just because you start seeing someone new, doesn't mean the new relationship is ready for a label. Use this relationship advice to help make that decision:

1. Exclusive: When you start seeing someone new and you both decide it is time to start seeing other people, this can be a good indicator that the relationship is ready for a label.

three kids in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico last week. However, according to UsMagazine.com, these celebrity exes got close while showing off some skin, but as for now, they are not back together. One source says there's "no way these two are getting back together," while another source says Disick remains hopeful for a potential relationship. "Scott has always hoped he could win Kourtney back, and he did set up this trip," the second insider explains. "Of course he hopes one day she will see the light and come back to him. That's why he went to rehab. He has tried everything, but it's Kourtney who won't go there. I still think it could happen one day, but so far Kourtney has not been willing to go back there."

This celebrity couple has been through a lot of ups and downs. What are some things to consider before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

The decision about whether to get back together with ex can be tough. There are a lot of things to consider. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Is it worth it?: If you get back together, are you going to be happy? Was it worth the constant fighting and stress? Make sure you are getting into the relationship for the right reasons. If you do have children, it's understandable that you'd want to get back together for them, but make sure it's also what you want.

2. What was your last fight about?: Think about the last fight you had. Was that the reason you broke-up? Did it end poorly? If you still hold grudges from that last fight, it may not be worth getting back together, because it could be brought back to surface quite easily.

Hamptons Date Night Dining: Food, Scenery, and Celebrities

By Nicole Caico

Countless single celebrities and celebrity couples alike flock to the Hamptons during the summer, and there is no reason to miss out on the action. The waterfront properties, beautiful beaches, and delicious food don't have to be confined to Instagram posts of the rich and famous. Get a taste of the celebrity lifestyle by dining out at some of the great restaurants on Long Island's east end.

The food served at these Hamptons restaurants draws a date night crowd, and celebrities are no strangers to that group.

Eating Italian

If you are traveling to the east end in search of authentic Italian cuisine, you're in luck. Several restaurants in the Hamptons offer authentic Italian menus that incorporate fresh fish from surrounding waters. Serafina in East Hampton offers authentic Italian cuisine at prices that won't break the bank, and the atmosphere still has that signature laid back, beach vibe signature to the area. Also offering authentic Italian food in East Hampton is Nick & Toni's. In addition to a full dinner and dessert menu, Nick & Toni's features a long, diverse brunch menu.

From oven baked french toast to a Montauk fish burger, there is no more classic Hamptons experience than brunch at a local restaurant. The theme of Italian cuisine continues at Osteria Salina in Wainscott. The restaurant buys local from farmers and fisherman to create their Sicilian-inspired dishes.

Eating American

If you're looking for more of a classic American dish, or go-to summer foods, 75 Main in South Hampton offers a menu filled with burgers, variations on a BLT, lobster rolls, and seafood dishes. Also serving up an American style menu is the East Hampton Grill in East Hampton. Their menu features a fresh fish of the day, along with crab cakes, barbecued burgers and ribs, and some salads—including a scallop salad, a blue cheese wedge salad, and the tried and true caesar.

A true dining delight can be had at Red Bar Brasserie in South Hampton. A brasserie is characterized as an unpretentious restaurant or gathering place that serves simple and hearty food—and Red Bar seems to be just that. Like most other Hamptons eateries, they feature a menu largely based on local ingredients and freshly caught fish and seafood. Their interior differs from other hot spots in that they traded in the big windows and natural light for a more low lit dining room, but outdoor seating is also available.

Romantic

These restaurants are only the tip of the iceberg for the long list of spots to choose from. After looking through these menus and restaurant picture galleries, it's clear why celebs put the Hamptons on their list of travel destinations. While the dining experience at any of these eateries is sure to be worth remembering on its own, the chance of a celebrity sitting during your date night is definitely a bonus.

In fact, Watch What Happens Live host Andy Cohen owns a house in Noyac Bay and can be caught out and about in the Hamptons every summer. Sarah Jessica Parker and hubby Matthew Broderick own a place in Amagansett and spend their time in areas between the Hamptons and Montauk. Kelly Ripa and Jerry Seinfeld, two stars essential to NYC, often migrate out east during summer months as well. Scott Disick, former Long Island resident, helped bring the Kardashian family out to the east end during summer 2014 to film Kourtney and Khloe Take the Hamptons. Although Disick no longer resides in the Hamptons, his Long Island roots keep him and his family coming back for celebrity vacations.

Eating out in the Hamptons will either make you feel like a celebrity, or bring you face to face with one. For those who are looking for great date night food and the chance to rub elbows with the rich and famous, the Hamptons is the destination for both.

By Nicole Caico

Montana first made his way into the Jenner/Kardashian circle as the boyfriend and other half of a celebrity couple with Khloe Kardashian. Khloe is currently single and focusing on her celebrity divorce from Lamar Odom, but Montana is part of the family circle. In the latest episode of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, Montana comfortably hangs out with Scott Disick in his new house. E! News reports that Montana doesn't just hang out with Jenner and Disick, but is also friendly with Kourtney and Rob Kardashian.

This celebrity news has us questioning just who is interested in French Montana! What are some ways to avoid crushing on the same person as your friend or sibling?

Cupid's Advice:

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.

2. History repeats itself: If you're crushing on the ex of a friend or sibling, do some research on the reason they broke up. If the person treated your friend or sibling badly at the end of their relationship, that should warn you to stay away.

3. Girl code: It can be as simple as this—who saw the person first? If your friend or sibling was crushing first, you should have the courtesy to back out. In situations like this, it's important to be open with your friend or sibling so you're on the same page and can avoid fights.

Once you have lost trust, forgiveness is hard to give.

However, sometimes finding in your heart a way to be compassionate is the right path to take. The inevitable mistakes that humans make should not always be punished with hatred. Cupid has a few reasons why forgiving an ex just might be the right move for you:

1. It allows you to release difficult emotions: Unless you acknowledge your irritable feelings of blame, guilt and anger then you will never be able to feel better. Forgiving does not mean forgetting and it also doesn't mean you have to let their actions slide. Forgiving does allow you to clear your mind and heal.

1. Voice your feelings: The most important thing to do in any situation is voice your feelings. You have to be honest with your emotions, and you need to let your friends and family know how you’re truly feeling. If they aren’t being supportive and are criticizing you during a split, explain to them what you feel. Maybe they are being critical because they don’t know where you are coming from. Let them into your heart and mind. I’m sure they will be supportive once they understand your feelings!
