Cupid's Advice:

Once you and your partner have been married for a while, the question may arise as to if you would like to renew your vows. Renewing your vows is a wonderful way to celebrate your marriage and love and reaffirm your commitment to one another. Here are some reasons why reviewing your vows may be a good choice at this time in your relationship:

1. You two have been through a lot: Maybe you and your partner have just experienced a loss in your family. Or, you two have just gone through the stresses of losing a job. Nevertheless, you have made it through together! Now, your relationship is even stronger than it was before. You definitely deserve a celebration and some time to let loose. If you have been through something like this with your partner, it may be a perfect time to gather up your closest friends and family and have a beautiful ceremony to renew your vows.

Dating: First Impressions – Part II

Reality. If reality was an actual person, I'd probably punch it in the neck. Why? Sometimes, or most times (depending on how much baby Jesus thinks I suck) reality really is a jerk. Only sometimes, though.

I'm a dork, I gigantic geek bag! It's true. No, really, it is! I was a nerd before it was cool, dammit! However, there's just no helping a person's uninformed perception aka ignorance. You see, being a dork and an odd ball, dating women was often lost on me. No women wanted to date a geek like me, I thought.

You never heard about Dustin Diamond dating a hot girl, now did you? If you did, surely you chuckled at such a ridiculous rumor. However, the coolness of nerds and geeks has sky rocketed over the years, with shows like Beauty and the Geek and the rise to stardom of actors, like my hero, Seth Rogen.

Seeing that, the king of chubs and geeks, Seth Rogan was dating super-hottie Lauren Miller, for, at the time, four years, gave me hope that a geek like me could find a hottie of my own as well; and found one I did! The nerd wins!

My girlfriend, I tell my friends, is a lot prettier than a dork like me deserves. I'm sure Seth Rogen felt the same way, too! Once we get passed the looks and the superficial associations and self-stylings, we're all looking for love, ultimately. It's not just about looks, after all. Right?

There was something about this person that made me fall for her, many somethings, if you will.

– The person has got to make you laugh. No question about it. The women I've loved were the ones that made me laugh. No doubt about it.

– Are they open minded? Is your would-be partner in crime willing to pony up when you want to go on an adventure?

– Will they help you clean your place after a raging party at 3am? Just having the support is important.

– Do your friends like your significant other? This, by far, has been the biggest difference for me. Most of the women I've dated, my friends didn't get along with. With my girlfriend, now, all my friends simply adore her. They would probably dump me, if I dump my girlfriend!

– Do they make you believe you can do anything? My girl does. She's my biggest fan; my biggest cheerleader. The girl supports all of things I'm working on... That's huge. Seth Rogen? You better believe he needs a cheerleader after a box office bomb... I'm just sayin'.

It's pretty amazing what becomes clear once we set perceptions about beauty and status aside. No?

Seth Rogen Proposes to Girlfriend of Six Years

According to Us Weekly, Seth Rogan confirmed his engagement to writer, Lauren Miller, on the series premiere of Conan. However, as Seth Rogan later revealed to Conan O'Brien, popping the question to his future bride was a bit awkward and unconventional. After he bought the ring, which he jokingly compared to the ring from The Lord of the Rings, he was so nervous that he decided to propose right away. Though Seth Rogan's intentions were romantic, his girlfriend was in the closet changing at the time. "She was literally only in her underpants and [her chest] was out," Seth Rogan recalled. "I'd already kind of started, and I was like 'Oh man, her [chest is] out! That's not part of the plan!'" Regardless of the circumstances, Lauren Miller accepted.

What should you do when popping the question doesn't go as planned?

Cupid's Advice:

Though you may have grown up dreaming about a flawless fairy tale engagement, in reality nothing is perfect. Cupid has some suggestions on what to do if there's a mistake:

1. Laugh it off: Laughter is always the best medicine, and chances are that whatever happened to mess up your big moment is probably more funny than tragic.

2. Do it over: Who says you can't propose a second time, even if it is only a few minutes after the first attempt?

3. Get over it: If for some reason you really can't laugh off a minor kink in the plan, get over it and just enjoy being in love.

Funnyman Seth Rogen Proposes to Longtime Girlfriend

According to RadarOnline, Funny People's Seth Rogen popped the question to longtime girlfriend, Lauren Miller last week. After coming back from a family visit in Boston, the actor bent down on one knee to ask for her hand in marriage. Dating since 2004, a source close to the couple reveals that Miller was beginning to give up hope for a proposal.

If your man seems reluctant to pop the question, how can you tactfully find out what he's thinking?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're looking for a ring by spring, perhaps some good old-fashioned subconscious mind tapping will do the trick:

1. Get his reaction: Bring up the subject of marriage indirectly. For example, if a mutual friend of yours recently got engaged, make a casual comment about it, like, "I wonder where they'll have the wedding," or "They look even happier than they did before." Does he unknowingly smile when you say it, or does he roll his eyes? His reaction could be all that you need to solve the proposal puzzle.

2. Channel Josephine Bonaparte: The empress of France knew what to do when Napoleon was dragging his feet. Rumors that she was spending her free time in the likes of powerful, rich men, jolted Napoleon to put a ring on it. By letting your beau know that you're a hot commodity, it could give him just the push he needs to go to the jewelers.

3. The ultimatum: In today's society, things move fast. Technology has caused us to think quicker, act quicker and question things a lot more than we did in previous decades. So, it's no surprise that you may need to ask yourself, "Where is this going?" Pick a time when both of you are alone and relaxed to bring it up. But don't flip out if you don't get the answer you want. Sometimes its better to move on.
