Humor is a great way to help you cope with difficult things, especially a break-up. If you're wondering if making jokes about your break-up will help you cope, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. It keeps things light: Joking about something makes everything feel lighter. We all know that a break-up can feel really dark and sad, so sometimes lightening it up is just what you need to be able to move on.

Single Celebrity: Tyler Posey Confirms He's Single After Split

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Tyler Posey confirmed his split with Sophia Ali. According to UsMagazine.com, the single celebrity elaborated on his life after the celebrity break-up at Netflix's Fast & Furious: Spy Racers world premiere. The 28-year-old actor stated, “I don’t have a girlfriend. I’m focused on work and just myself.” He detailed how he thought single life was much more suited for him right now, even going onto say he was “very, very happy” at the moment.

This single celebrity is enjoying being unattached. What are some positives to being single?

Cupid’s Advice:

Just like Tyler Posey, sometimes being single is just more suited for where you are in your life. It isn’t always the best time to have a relationship, and that’s okay. Work, school, or even family matters can get in the way of really giving your all to someone else without wearing yourself down. If you’ve just freshly gotten out of a relationship and don’t know how to enjoy being unattached, don’t worry! Cupid has some love advice on the positives of being single:

1. Spontaneous travel: When you’re not tied to anyone, you don’t have to worry about including them in your plans and working around both of your guys’ schedules. If you want to travel on a whim, there isn’t someone else you have to consider. Book a plane ticket, take a cruise, go backpacking. Give the vagabond spirit of singlehood a try!

2. Becoming more self-reliant: Let’s be honest, when you go through a messy break-up, it can leave you devastated for weeks or even months. Love is an intense force, and it’s easy to get swept up in your infatuation for one person without realizing how reliant you’ve become on them and the relationship. Being single means you can work on yourself and find your identity outside of who you were as a couple. Self-reliance is something you should always hold onto, and if you've lost that, don't worry. Singlehood can help you rediscover it.

3. No longer on the fast-track to settling down: There are always expectations when it comes to being in a relationship. It's not bad to have expectations like settling down, moving in, getting married etc., but sometimes you're not ready to commit to those things long-term. If you're single, you don't have to follow any pre-determined scripts. You can create your own expectations!

This single celebrity hasn’t been in a relationship for two years. What are some benefits to being single?

Even though being in a relationship can be nice, staying

Start dating when you are ready. Cupid has some advice on how to make the process of being single a little bit easier:

1. Focus on yourself: Sometimes when you are in a relationship you forget the importance of self-love. Treat yourself to Spa day. Start going to yoga classes. Reconnect with your inner-self.

The 30-year-old model is speaking out and defending herself against the claimed trickery exhibited by both of her exes. She insists that both Kardashian and Tyga are revealing only negative traits about her, while leaving out the fact that she has taken care of both of their children without asking for a dime. In celebrity news, Blac Chyna says she never asked her childrens' fathers for child support. What are some ways to determine a fair custody agreement after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Determining a fair custody agreement after a split can be a long and difficult process. Here are some ways to come to a fair custody agreement with your ex:

1. Splitting custody every other week: In this scenario, each parent would get custody of their child for one full week. This way, both parents have the same amount of days to spend with their child each month.

2. Splitting custody every other week with a midweek visit: Splitting custody can be tough on a child, especially when they have a full week away from one of their parents. In 2016, the single celebrity took a step back from the spotlight to focus on herself. Breaking her silence, Gomez released a new song with Julia Michaels, titled "Anxiety." It's great to see that Gomez is performing again, but, even better than having her music, she has been reaching out to her fans to let them know that she loves them. Gomez has, on occasion, even reached out to fans on Instagram to speak with them when she finds out they are struggling with mental health.

Selena Gomez's honesty with her mental health has made celebrity news because of the impact on her fans. What are some ways we can follow Selena's example and encourage mental health?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're going through a difficult time, whether with depression, anxiety, or any other number of other issues, here are some things that can help.

1. Try positive thinking: Negative thinking can be a downward spiral that is hard to come back from, and it can become difficult to be positive when you hardly have been. Only use words that will empower yourself. It may seem hokey and redundant, but positive thought is a powerful tool and will reshape the vocabulary your brain uses.

2. Reach out to someone who you trust: Have a serious conversation with someone close who is willing to listen. Also, if it's bad and you don't have a support system, do not

3. Exercise: Exercising can release endorphins in the body that relieves stress and boosts the mood. This doesn't have to mean working out in a gym. Try picking up martial arts classes or borrow a book from the library on introductory yoga. Exercise can also play double duty as something that you're doing for yourself, by yourself, and it can help you take your mind off of the things that are upsetting you.

Celebrity News: How Brad Pitt Came Out of Split from Angelina Jolie Better Than Ever

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt seems to have come out of his celebrity break up with Angelina Jolie better than ever. After his shocking split with Angelina Jolie, with her filing for divorce and requesting full custody of their six children, Pitt seemed to be in a bad place. Despite cheating allegations and custody fights, Pitt has relied on therapy, solitude and sobriety to “strip down the foundation and break out the mortar,” as the 54-year-old actor said in an interview with GQ Style. Pitt also said, “For me every misstep has been a step toward epiphany, understanding, some kind of joy. Yeah, the avoidance of pain is a real mistake. It’s the real missing out on life. It’s those very things that shape us, those very things that offer growth, that make the world a better place, oddly enough, ironically. That make us better.” According to EOnline.com, an insider said Pitt and Jolie have “had a pretty dramatic year and [Pitt] wants things to remain calm in the future.” One source said the actor has been on a few dates, but hasn’t focused on any serious relationship yet. Another insider said Pitt maintains an active social life and that “Brad spent a lot of time alone and in private looking at himself and reevaluating what was most important and who he wanted to be. Now he's in a place where he's implemented those changes and has a lot more clarity. He's come out of that dark time and is in a much better place."

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt has never been happier. What are some ways to know it's time for a change in your relationship status?

Cupid's Advice:

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be tricky, but it is good to always have an open mind when you're with someone. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Act, don't react: If your partner is trying to confront you about a problem the two of you are facing, it is best to act upon it instead of getting upset over it. Reacting in a negative way can cause a fight, and you don't want that happening! Maybe there's something you can do to change for the better, as opposed to getting defensive.

2. Be flexible: In a relationship, not everything is going to go as planned. When you meet someone new and you feel a connection, don't judge the other person based on a preconceived notion of what you wanted.

If you're looking to date someone who works hard, consider someone in your work place or someone a co-worker knows.
