In celebrity couple news, Sophia Bush is getting cozy with her new beau, Grant Hughes. What are some ways to grow your bond in a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

New relationships are so much fun, but there's always a rush to get that deeper connection. If you're in a new relationship and looking to grow your bond, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Introduce them to your family: When you bring your partner to meet the people who are closest to you, your family, it brings you two closer. It tells your partner that you're serious about your relationship and that you're in it for the long haul.

2. Spent time getting to know each other: In new relationships, you don't know everything about your partner. The more time you spend just talking and asking each other random questions, the faster you will know everything about one another. Knowing your partner inside and out will only build a foundation for a long-lasting relationship.

Five Celebs Who Are Infamous for Dating Their Co-Stars

 By Meranda Yslas

When you're shooting a film or prepping for another season of a TV show, you spend a lot of time with your coworkers. More often than not, a celebrity relationship begins to form on set. In fact, most celebs have dated a co-star or two.

Cupid has five celebs who are infamous for dating their co-stars.

1. Nina Dobrev and Ian Somerhalder: The stars of The Vampire Diaries dated for three years before announcing their celebrity break-up in May 2013. Even though they separated, the two remain good friends.

Sophia Bush and Topher Grace are Just Friends

☒ Last Friday, Sophia Bush stepped out for coffee at West Hollywood's Coffee Commissary with Topher Grace, spurring a slew of dating rumors. However, the One Tree Hill actress confirms their relationship is strictly platonic, according to UsMagazine.com. So, if Grace isn't going to be her leading man, many are wondering who will be. Bush has been single since splitting from Austin Nicholas, whom she dated for six years. Prior to that relationship, Bush was married to Chad Michal Murray in 2005 and dated James Lafferty in 2009.

How do you keep rumors from circulating about your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how clear you think your actions might be or even whether you currently have a partner, people are going to find something to gossip about. Here are a few ways to limit their material:

1. Speak up: Being forthcoming leaves little room for misinterpretations. If you've been caught with someone who isn't your significant other, don't just say "no comment." This will only cause people to come up with their own answers.

2. Tell the truth: People will have a higher opinion of you if they feel they are able to trust you. A history of being honest will help squash rumors before they even take off. Plus, maintaining a policy of honesty will help you out in your relationships as well.

3. Address the rumor: Try to figure out which of your actions caused the rumor to start. Once you understand this, you can properly acknowledge what's being said and encourage people to question it.
