Cupid's Advice:

Easter is not only for kids! You and your partner can have tons of fun during this upcoming holiday, and in a cruelty free way – use plastic eggs instead of real ones!. Cupid has a few ideas on how to have a fun Easter with your honey:

1. Adult plastic egg hunt: Get a group of friends together and let the fun begin! Fill some or just one of the plastic eggs with alcohol as a treat for whoever finds it or them. It will be a fun competition that you can all part-take in. To take it a step further, you can either compete with everyone, or everyone can pair up to hunt in teams.

Love Advice: 10 Ways to Meet Someone on St. Patrick's Day

By

Krissy Dolor and Molly Jacob

You don't have to be Irish to be lucky in love on St. Patrick's Day. This day is traditionally about beer and the color green, but this year, it can be about relationships and love!

Cupid's Pulse has love advice for ways you can meet someone special this St. Patty's Day:

1. Dust off your "Kiss Me I'm Irish" button from college: You're guaranteed to get a peck or two if you keep it on all day. But, be careful who you wear this around: this love advice could go sour if you get a kiss from someone you'd rather not get one from!

2. Head to the parade: Take the day off and indulge in the festivities. New York City's parade, which passes in front of St. Patrick's Cathedral on Fifth Avenue, is world famous and always filled with people of all backgrounds celebrating Irish history. Put yourself in a new situation to meet someone new!

3. Forget to wear green: By accident, of course. Pinching those who aren't wearing green is a holiday tradition that started in Boston. People thought that by wearing green you would be invisible to the leprechauns, who would pinch anyone they saw. Pinching others is a reminder that the leprechauns can see you! Hint to a cutie standing nearby that you need a pinch.

4. Do some pinching of your own: This mini-PDA gesture goes both ways, so nip an arm or a cheek – it's up to you to pick which one would be most appropriate! Dating advice: sometimes you need to make the first move if you're interested in that hottie at your office, so here's a perfect way to do so.

5. Brush up on your history: Everyone knows about the pinching tradition, but did you know that St. Patrick – whose real name was Maewyn Succat – wasn't even born in Ireland? Share interesting tidbits of your own and you're bound to get noticed.

6. Test your Irish accent: See how natural your fake accent sounds by asking the closest hottie if you could pass for a Celtic woman. Maybe he can give you a few pointers!

7. Hit up a pub (or five): There are tons of places that will be in the Irish spirit on St. Patty's day, so take advantage! Check out the New York Irish Pub Guide and Boston Irish Pubs for extensive lists.

8. Go to bars that aren't celebrating the holiday: If slamming multiple car bombs back isn't your idea of a good time, why not see if there are others who share your sentiment? Finding someone who shares your interests is always good love advice.

9. Throw a party: You don't need to go out to have a good time! You could get started on making this day full of relationships and love by inviting your friends over to your own St. Patrick's Day party and having them bring their single friends as guests.

10. Make holiday treats: Any food can become St. Patty's Day-themed with a little green food coloring. If you're looking for recipes, check out Food.com's 35 Green Treats for St. Patrick's Day. Impress your crush by giving them a green cupcake on the 17th. Your mom gave good dating advice when she said the way to anyone's heart is through their stomach!

If you're shy, St. Patrick's Day is the perfect time to get out of your shell! And with these tips, who needs a lucky charm? Cupid wishes you luck on the road to your pot of gold!

Date Idea: Go On A Pub Crawl

By

Sarah Ribeiro

Embrace the Irish holiday this weekend by grabbing a group of your friends and drinking in the tradition. Plan a pub crawl date night that your friends will talk about for years. Don't worry about your single friends, they'll have plenty to entertain themselves with on this whirlwind date. The pub scene will buzz around your crew as a mix of singles and couples join together to enjoy a few beers. This is the perfect opportunity to bridge your private and public relationship lives.

First thing's first: pick a locale. Popular cities for St. Patrick's Day include Boston, New York City, Chicago, Los Angeles, Savannah and Phoenix. Search on Yelp or CitySearch so you can put together a list of bars, pubs and taverns that you want to visit throughout the night. Be sure to pick out spots that offer a wide range of brews, fit your budget and have an impressive menu – no drinking on an empty stomach! An important thing to remember is to keep all of your bars in one general area; having just one bar out of the way may encourage drunk driving, and you want to remain safe on this night.

It's always a good idea to call the bars ahead of time to let them know you're coming – you'll have space reserved for your party, and they may even offer you a discount. Order appetizers and pitchers in bulk, you guys will be camping out on those bar stools for a while.

Next, plan a guest list. Decide whether you want this to be one large group date or if you'll be mixing couples and singles. Keep in mind that your single friends may be uncomfortable if there are too many couples, so make sure you keep an even ratio between the two. Don't be afraid to play matchmaker and invite friends that you think could be great together!

After all the real planning is done, get creative. Pick a theme that you all can follow for the night. Make shirts with Irish sayings or Gaelic slogans on them. Get really crafty with a theme not related to the holiday: suggest that everyone dress as a character from one of your favorite movies or video games. A popular pub crawl theme is "Mario Party," where everyone dresses up as their favorite Nintendo character. It's a great way to spot your group and have a little quirky fun.

For added fun, include a scavenger hunt with things to do. Assign points to tasks like getting a free round of shots, getting the most high fives of the night or getting a picture with the bartender. Have couples compete against each other or do couples versus singles to see who can get the most points.

Then, when the day arrives, hit the bars! Have fun drinking with your love and embrace the opportunity for the two of you to bond with each other's friends.
