By Stephanie Sacco

Jordan Rodgers has been all anyone's been talking about since he was first introduced on The Bachelorette. With a famous brother and the celebrity news in the tabloids focused on him and his family, Rodgers hasn't had the easiest journey. According to UsMagazine.com, since The Bachelorette finale aired and their relationship went public, he's speaking out. He said, "There's been a lot of really harsh and very untrue allegations along the way." The celebrity gossip following him came from his ex-girlfriend Brittany Farrar who claimed he cheated on her. He continued, "It's [about] moving forward and any of that is so not true that it's not even worth time ... I'm just happy to start this new life with my fiancée and that's what I'm focusing on." We're rooting for the new celebrity couple and hoping they can make it work.

Apparently the rumors in celebrity news around Jordan Rodgers simply weren't true. What are some ways to rise above rumors to form a healthy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors have been around since the beginning of time. Somebody's always spreading word about someone else. When it comes to gossip, you have to find a way around them. Cupid is here to help:

1. Laugh them off: Rumors can get pretty ridiculous and unbelievable. Everyone's had rumors spread about them and sometimes you just have to blow them off. Laugh at the fact that somebody thinks it's worth their time to talk smack about you or your relationship. It's challenging but doable.

2. Brush them off: Pretend they don't even exist if you hear someone whispering or pointing. Channel your inner celebrity and shake them off. It's not worth your time or the sake of your relationship to pay any attention to silly rumors.

Celebrity News: Lindsay Lohan Acts Casual Over the Rumors Surrounding Fiancé Egor Tarabasov

By Stephanie Sacco

Lindsay Lohan has been constantly making celebrity news ever since she was a kid. Now, she's making headlines again due to rumors involving her fiancé Egor Taraba and a potential celebrity baby on the way. Lohan's taking all of the celebrity gossip in and letting all the negativity out. According to UsMagazine.com, she was seen on a luxury yacht in Italy with her friend Hofit Golan, smoking cigarettes and drinking beer. She's been scattered on social media about what's going on in her personal life, but told fans through Instagram that she is “good and well” and taking time for herself.

This celebrity news has us wondering what’s really up with this pair. How do you get back at your partner without going too far?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes anger fuels bad decisions. In Lohan’s case to combat pregnancy rumors, she went on a mini vacation. No harm, no foul here, but it’s not always so simple. Cupid is here to help:

1. Jealousy: A little bit of jealousy doesn’t hurt when keeping your partner in check, but don’t take it too far. Never cheat on your partner or flirt too much with another guy to make him jealous. You might end up losing more than you gain.

2. Banter: Having conversations about how you’re feeling is important in a relationship. You can joke around and pretend you’re angrier than you are or upset just to get him to react, but it’s not always going to work. Guys can be smart even when they’re being dumb. Don’t push your luck.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Contestant Chase McNary in the Running to Become Next Bachelor

By Stephanie Sacco

Chase McNary was a fan favorite on this season of The Bachelorette. Unfortunately for McNary, JoJo Fletcher didn't seem to feel as strong of a connection as he did. In celebrity news, she sent him home straight from the fantasy suite after he dropped the L-bomb. According to UsMagazine.com, McNary has decent odds at the coveted position of The Bachelor. He said, "The discussions are there, but I don't know – there's a lot of weight there." He also admitted that it would be challenging to open up emotionally to that many women all at once, especially after how it ended with Fletcher. Only time will tell.

This celebrity news could provide him with a fresh start. How do you start over after heartbreak?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrity couple relationships don't work out just as much as ordinary couples fail. Heartbreak can creep up on you anywhere, and everybody goes through it at one point or another. Regardless of if you're the breaker or the breakee, Cupid is here to help you cope:

1. Confide in someone: Don't go through a break-up alone. Involve your friends and family who will be on your side. They'll know exactly what to say to make you feel better or at the very least will bring you ice cream and tissues.

Celebrity News: Keshia Knight Pulliam Announces Pregnancy At Same Time Her Husband Files For Divorce

By Stephanie Sacco

Keshia Knight Pulliam is the center of two big pieces of celebrity news. If it wasn't enough to find out she's pregnant, she is now also dealing with a celebrity divorce. According to People.com, the pair had only been married for six months before Pulliam's husband Ed Hartwell filed for divorce. The celebrity couple got engaged on New Years and were married at Pulliam's house. She said their wedding was her dream. "We did it literally in our living room in our home. We invited people. They had no clue they were coming to a wedding," she shares. It's a shame it didn't work out.

This celebrity news is devastating for a soon-to-be mom. How can you tell if your partner isn't in it for the long haul?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a big decision to have a baby with your partner. But this celebrity news is devastating because Pulliam will have to do it alone with little support. Cupid is here with some relationship advice on how to tell if your partner isn't fully committed to you:

1. He's pulling away: If you're seeing your partner less and less or if he's not calling you back, he's distancing himself from you. Maybe he wants to slow down or maybe he wants less from you, but it's definitely not a good sign. Talk to him before jumping to any conclusions, but pay attention to his actions.

2. He's M.I.A: When your partner is ghosting and not paying enough attention to you, he's not in it for the long haul. If he's hanging around other girls or choosing his friends over you, it's not a good place to be in. Keep an eye on your man and make sure he's not running for the hills.

Falling in love can be new and exciting, but it doesn't always end well. In the end, sometimes half of the couple has a harder time finding their way out than the other, just like with this celebrity news. Cupid is here to help:

1. Find someone new: It doesn't always work wonders and it isn't instantaneous, but sometimes a distraction can help you move on. Whether it's a fling or a new boyfriend, it's something different. This is the way out of the maze of your feelings.

Casual sex isn't for everybody. Sometimes people want more than that, but sometimes it can be a good platform for a serious relationship. Cupid is here to help explain:

In celebrity couple news, Gaga says that she and Kinney are “on a break.” What are some factors to consider before going on a break from a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Couples break-up all of the time and half the time they get back together. Being ‘on a break’ is common even if it’s only temporary. Cupid is here to help with some dating advice:

1. If he’s driving you crazy: Sometimes couples are too close for comfort and that causes every little thing to annoy you. Space is key when it comes to not overdoing it. Make sure your partner is aware that you need a break and why.

2. If he needs a time out: When your partner takes it too far or steps over the line, take a break. As long as he’s not being mean or cruel and it’s not the end of the world, a break isn’t going to kill the relationship. But occasionally he might need to get put in the dog house.

Celebrity Interview: 'Botched' Star Dr. Paul Nassif Discusses Being Single, Skincare and Spin-Off Shows

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Stephanie Sacco.

Dr. Paul Nassif is more than a doctor on reality TV. He's a renowned facial plastic surgeon and skincare specialist. Though people may remember him from The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, he's even more recognizable for his E! reality series, Botched which he co-hosts with former RHOC star, Dr. Terry Dubrow. The success of Botched has even led to a few upcoming spin-off shows, Botched By Nature and Botched Post-Op. Last week, Nassif spoke to us in an exclusive celebrity interview about the upcoming spin-off shows, his new anti-aging skincare line and his very single relationship status.

Reality TV Star Dr. Paul Nassif Talks 'Botched' Success

Back when Nassif first developed the concept for Botched and pitched the show, his co-host was doubtful, calling Nassif "crazy" for wanting to put plastic surgery on TV. "Now look at us," the former RHOBH star says. Botched is in its third season and the show has led to multiple spin-off series. One of the many reasons for the show's success is that all the cases are legitimate, and Nassif and Dubrow are passionate about their clients. The doctors really enjoy helping their patients through their issues. Nassif says the role of a plastic surgeon is "part doctor and part therapist." Although extreme cases are common in this line of work, the reality TV star shares that the worst is yet to come. "For me personally, once you see the episodes of Botched By Nature, those are going to be the most riveting and the hardest cases we've had to do," he admits.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: E!'s 'Famously Single' Dating Coach Laurel House Says "Every episode has drama"

One of the differences between Botched By Nature and Botched is the client's reason behind getting plastic surgery. "Some people got struck by lightning, went through severe accidents, and had deformities," the plastic surgeon says about the spin-off series. This brings the doctors even closer to the clients. "You really get into the heart of it by going into these people's homes," he shares. "You see their families and loved ones, and you're allowed to discuss these incredible human interest stories about what they've had to go through their entire life." That added personal layer is something the fans haven't seen before. Due to the extreme cases that they're dealing with, Botched By Nature has the surgeons on the road, traveling all over the country. But it's not all serious business. The two friends have some adventures along the way. Nassif explains, "We'll be going to different parts of the country and doing something fun in each city." Being on the road has its perks and these two won't disappoint. "You're going to see more of a reality between Dubrow and I because we're traveling. So you get to see a little bit more of that bromance," Nassif says.

Reality TV Star on Dating & His New Skincare Line

Though he's always been successful in the operating room, Nassif hasn't been as successful with romance. He admits that he isn't dating anybody right now and that he's found that dating takes a lot of time and energy. "I cleared my slate so I could come home, work out earlier, and get more sleep. Dating is fun, but it's very taxing," shares the father of three. He's already been a part of a celebrity couple for many years, and he isn't interested in having it again at the moment. While his career flourishes, he's putting his love life on hold and is focusing on his new skincare line. The NassifMD Bio-Rhythmic and Bio-Clock Dermaceuticals skincare lines are out already, and Nassif uses the collection. When asked how the products differ from others on the market, he explains that he has an understanding of the face and body, and is qualified to know what works. "As a plastic surgeon, I look at skin differently than a dermatologist," he says.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Brandi Glanville Is More Than a Housewife on 'Famously Single'

As a facial reconstruction specialist in Beverly Hills, Nassif also knows that there are many different motivations for getting plastic surgery. The idea that women get work done for their man sometimes happens, but when it comes up in his office, Nassif is strongly against it. "If there's a wrong reason, I simply won't do the surgery," he shares. Typically, his clients are aware of the problem and want to fix it for their own health. "When it comes to facelifts, eyes, and noses, my patients are pretty spot on about wanting to do it for themselves." The reality TV star has also had some work done himself, such as some reconstruction surgery on his nose here and there. But, the most recent celebrity news is that the doctor hinted he may potentially get Botox on television. He says, "You gotta watch the show. Watch Botched By Nature to see something different regarding me.”

Botched By Nature premieres on August 3rd at 9/8c.

You can follow Dr. Paul Nassif on Twitter and watch Botched on Tuesdays at 9:00 on E!

Mick Jagger has had no lack of celebrity babies in his day! What are some ways to streamline care giving for multiple kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Baby fever is a real thing. Having multiple babies is popular in this day and age, but that requires a lot of tender love and care. Cupid is here to help:

1. Hand-me-downs: Hold onto everything that you used and needed for your first baby. It'll be easier if you have a head start on supplies. You'll find that it's one less thing to worry about as your oldest kids grow out of their belongings.

He tweeted, "I wrote the music, produced the song, arranged it and cut the vocals though." He continued, saying, "And initially she wanted it kept secret, hence the pseudonym. Hurtful to me at this point that her and her team would go so far out of their way to try and make ME look bad at this stage though." This celebrity news spells d-r-a-m-a! What are some ways to keep drama to a minimum post-split?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can be messy, and nobody wants to deal with the drama. The aftermath is almost always tragic, but there are ways to minimize it. Cupid is here to help:

1. Walk away: You don't have to shake hands or hug it out in the final stages of your break-up, but it doesn't hurt to walk away. Instead of prolonging a fight, just get up and leave. Forget about closure, and worry more about your mental health.

2. Clean break: Try to have a clean break when it comes to your split. If you can part ways as if you are saying goodbye

Jennifer Aniston has always been in celebrity news when it comes to her love life. But she's done battling away rumors and correcting celebrity gossip. According to EOnline.com, in her Huffington Post essay, she writes, "This past month in particular has illuminated for me how much we define a woman's value based on her marital and maternal status." Ever since she's been half of a celebrity couple, Aniston has dealt with tabloids and paparazzi getting in her business. She continues, "The sheer amount of resources being spent right now by press trying to simply uncover whether or not I am pregnant (for the bajillionth time... but who's counting) points to the perpetuation of this notion that women are somehow incomplete, unsuccessful, or unhappy if they're not married with children." Tired of all of the criticism directed at her and other women among her, Aniston proves that celebrities are people too.

According to celebrity news, this star is definitely not expecting! What are some ways to keep the pressure to have kids at bay?

Cupid's Advice:

People seem to think having kids is on everybody's mind, but it's not. Not everybody wants to have kids or is thinking about having kids any time soon. Cupid is here to help:

1. Communicate with your partner: The only person that needs to know where your head is at when it comes to kids is your partner. As long as you two are on the same page, it doesn't matter what other people think you should be doing. Don't put on any additional pressure on your partner.

Relationships can be hard to manage, but they can be even harder to balance. Somebody could be more into it than their partner and it could mess everything up. Cupid is here to help:

1. Have separate lives: Don’t spend every waking moment together even if you’ve been dating a while. Go to your jobs, have different hobbies, and spend some date nights together. It’s important not to forget who you are when you’re in a relationship.

Celebrity Interview: Brandi Glanville Is More Than a Housewife on 'Famously Single'

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Stephanie Sacco.

Brandi Glanville is more than a “real housewife” and reality TV star. She’s also a single mother looking for a good man. Known mostly for her infamous (drinking) escapades on The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills (RHOBH), the mother of two has joined the cast of the new reality television series, Famously Single. The new E! series centers around eight single celebrities living in a house together with the goal of mending their broken hearts and relationship issues once and for all. The singles are advised by relationship coaches, practice dating techniques and attend group therapy sessions throughout the season.

Glanville opened up to CupidsPulse.com in an exclusive celebrity interview, where she gave us the scoop on her recent Instagram booty post, filled us in on her tryst with Calum Best and dished on all things marriage, love and her experience on the new reality TV show, Famously Single.

Reality TV Star Brandi Glanville reveals who the booty Instagram & Tweet were for in our celebrity interview.

Glanville has kissed a lot of frogs in her dating life but last week she addressed her most recent (ex) flame on social media by sharing two pictures of her booty on Instagram and on Twitter, where she reclaimed her body and said it no longer belonged to him. The photo created a lot of celebrity news headlines but Glanville gave us the real scoop on who that booty shot was intended for saying, "There's always that guy that you go back and forth with and you know it's not good for you, but he's there when no one else is."

She says the relationship was on again, off-again for about a year before she decided to end it for good on social media. "We would just hook up but we would never really go out together," explained Glanville. "He's an actor and he didn't want to be seen with someone on a reality show because I guess it makes him less legitimate as an actor."

Glanville decided to go along with the half-relationship and let it play out. But last week, on her way to his Fourth of July party, her love interest called and told her not to come because it wasn't the best idea that she be there. Her response? "I got a bottle of rosé, I went to my gay husband's house, we made Instagram videos, and I taught him how to walk on a runway, and that was my Fourth of July." Instead of letting her flames rejection consume her, she took to social media and ended it-her way!

Reality TV Star Addresses Recent Celebrity Gossip

The most recent celebrity gossip has focused on the fact that Glanville claims she never wants to get married again and while she admits that to be true she also says that she "would love to meet someone who changes her mind." Glanville says that she is open to the possibility if it happens but "she doesn't need a paper to define the relationship." I guess never say never. On RHOBH, Glanville says that she wasn't seen as a mother with emotions and a woman with a romantic side, but instead as 'your drunk friend Brandi.' Famously Single shows a different side to the former model and allows her to be herself.

The former RHOBH star says that she was skeptical about doing another reality show and unsure how open she should be about the process. "I used to be very touchy feely, and I used to snuggle and now for seven years I don't do PDA, I don't snuggle," she says. Her doubts proved unnecessary because she did connect emotionally on the show with her new Bestie, Calum Best. "Luckily I met someone in the house that I ended up having feelings for," says the Famously Single star. "It made me feel good again. It made me feel like I'm ready for this again and I don't have to be so tough and scare everyone off. I really just need to put myself out there and if I get hurt, I get hurt." The most important part of life is learning how to cope with change and moving on after hard times.

Famously Single taught Glanville a lot about herself, although she didn't find lasting love in the end. She says Best, her equally famous and single love interest, played a huge part in helping her figure things out. "Ultimately I love him, I adore him. If he was five years older and lived here, things would be different."

Being on the show was a life changing experience for Glanville and she received plenty of great relationship advice. "I realized that I have to be softer. I have to let people in and give them the chance to get to know me."

Instead of exploiting single celebrities and trying to make them look bad, the dating coaches on Famously Single try to help them fight through their dating past to make a better future. "I want to be a girl sometimes. I want to let that side of me down and I want to be vulnerable, but having said that I know that's how I get hurt," Glanville says. "So it's just about finding that recognition and Laurel and Darcy helped me find it."

Glanville doesn't want to dwell on the past and she isn't interested in ever going back to the RHOBH show that made her famous. According to Glanville, her time on Famously Single was nothing like RHOBH. "It was completely different," she says. "They weren't trying to have us fight with each other. We were all there to work on ourselves. I fell in love with all of them a little bit. It was nice. It was a completely different experience.”

Famously Single airs on Tuesdays at 10 p.m. on E!

3. Future: Only get back together if you see a future for the
