Cupid's Advice:

Having a big family can be both chaotic and rewarding at the same time. As the parent, it's your job to make sure no one gets lost in the shuffle. Cupid has some tips:

1. Sealed with a kiss: Physical bonding between children and parents throughout life is very important. That can mean hugging, kissing, playing with their hair, high fives, and more. The more your children know you're there for them, the more special they will feel!

2. It's a date: Dates are not strictly reserved for your significant other! Make a date with your children and spend time together. It's important to have a designated opportunity to just listen to them when they speak, learn about what's new in their lives, and be engaged in fun activities together. Nothing makes your child feel more special than having your full attention.

3. Love on them: The most important thing you can do to make your children feel special is to let them know that they are loved! Say "I love you" as many times a day as possible (without embarrassing them). Many professionals feel that, when children consistently hear this, they will repeat the cycle and turn out to be loving people into adulthood.
