Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo

This beautiful couple got hitched in July and walked their first red carpet as husband and wife at the MTV Video Music Awards. The Maroon 5 crooner has only sweet things to say about his partner: "She's incredible, and that alone makes me the luckiest person in the world." Photo: David Gabber/PRPhotos.com

Victoria's Secret Model Doutzen Kroes Marries Sunnery James

 Over the weekend, surrounded by 30 of their closest friends and family members, Victoria's Secret model Doutzen Kroes and producer and DJ, Sunnery James were wed. According to The Hollywood Gossip, the couple were married "in a small, private ceremony in her Dutch hometown of Eastermar." Pregnancy didn't stop Doutzen Kroes from donning a dress created by Spanish designer Pronovias or taking a honeymoon "on an island just north of Madagascar." They better enjoy their vacation, too; their baby boy is expected in January.

How can you plan a wedding with a baby on the way?

Cupid's Advice:

A pregnant bride doesn't have to sacrifice her wedding dreams. Cupid's got some things to consider:

1. White wedding: Be sure to take into account your growing belly and schedule dress fittings more frequently as the special day nears. When it comes to shoes, try a low, chunky heel for the ceremony and consider bringing an alternative shoe for the reception. There's no reason you shouldn't be joining everyone on the dance floor!

2. Wining and dining: Planning the reception menu for your guests doesn't mean you have to throw prenatal care out the window. Consider choosing healthy foods and nonalcoholic alternatives to champagne. And stay hydrated with water and slices of lemon, limes, or strawberries.

3. The Honeymooners: Don't be afraid to jet set to the romantic destination you and your partner have had in mind, if your pregnancy is in its early stages. With pregnancies nearing the end, it's best not to stray too far! This doesn't mean your getaway plans are ruined; there are plenty of places to stay in the USA.
