Cupid's Advice:

How can you introduce a new child to your household? Cupid has some thoughts:

1. Include your children in the preparation for the new baby: Let your current child or children see the ultrasounds or touch the baby bump. It will feel more real if they are going through the process with you, rather than just talking about a new sibling.

2. Have the new baby give a present: If the new baby's siblings are young enough, then receiving a gift from their new brother or sister will make them feel important. If the siblings are older, make the gift celebratory for becoming a sibling.

How do you keep open lines of communication with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Regardless of why the relationship ended, there are many reasons why you cannot just remove your ex from your life, such as working together or sharing custody of a child. In circumstances such as these, it is best to keep the line of communication open and respectful as best as possible in order to make life easier for all those involved. Should you need help, here are a few tips on how to remain cordial with your ex:

1. Express your plan: As soon as possible, inform your ex that you plan to move forward in a respectful manner for both of your sakes. Should your ex not agree with you; don't stoop down to his/her level. Remain on your path. Eventually, they will see you are serious and come around.

2. Be specific: In the beginning, emotions may still be raw. Therefore, it would greatly benefit the both of you to be specific about your reasons when reaching out to your ex. No matter what is said, work hard to keep your emotions under control. Also, don't forget to use your "please" and "thank you." The key is to establish respect for each other.

3. Don't reminisce: When speaking to your ex, it is best not to bring up moments of your past relationship together, regardless of whether there were good or bad. In order to move forward in an amicable manner, your intimate times with your ex must remain in the past. Otherwise, you will only bring confusion.
