

Dating Advice: First Date Tips For Women!

On this week's Single in Stilettos dating advice video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Matt Adams about what turns a man off on a first date.

First Date Dating Advice From Relationship Expert Matt Adams

On a first date, the biggest turn off for a man is when a woman talks about her relationship goals right off the bat. Yes, men want to know if you want to get married and have kids, but not in the first meeting. Wait to share your relationship and love goals, so that your date can get to know you and assess what role you'll play in their life.

Listen to this expert dating advice and take the pressure off yourself on the first date. Go out, have fun, and meet new people. Make sure you aren't being negative, either. People don't want to hear about your bad day or why your previous relationships haven't worked out. The experts share their love advice to spin everything into a positive, so you can present your best self first.

Relationship Advice On Moving In Together

Although it might be quite shocking and contrary to popular belief, surveys show that moving in together actually won't benefit your relationship and love. It might even make it suffer. The experts say that those who move in together before marriage are more likely to get divorced and cheat on each other.

Experts say women may need some relationship advice that when a man asks you to move in, he isn't asking you to marry him. Without that commitment to marriage, men are less likely to propose and more likely to have an affair. If you end up moving in together before marriage, or before you've set your wedding date, you might end up playing at commitment, instead of fully committing.

Dating Advice For Women: What A Man Really Wants

1. Respect. Respect can be shown by saying thank you and being grateful for the hard work a man puts into a date. Some women have a sense of entitlement and expect men to do certain things, but our dating advice is to be grateful and honor him.

Relationship Advice: How To Get A Ring On THAT Finger!

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima and dating expert Tinzley Bradford talk about how long you should wait before you get engaged.

Dating Experts Give Relationship Advice On When To Tie The Knot

Have you been in a relationship and love for a few years and he still hasn't proposed? It seems like we've all been there, but don't fret because the experts have this relationship advice: It's okay to ask him and talk to him about it! If you've been together for 2-4 years, then it's time to have a talk. Don't waste your time when you're dating, because if he likes you, he should put a ring on it.

Related Link: Dating Experts Reveal 5 Things You Need To Know About Men

You also want to make sure you never give a man an ultimatum and you value what he wants. Marriage is about compromise and it's about both of you, so you need to have a discussion about it. Learn about where both of you are regarding the idea of marriage, whether you're comfortable financially or even at your career. You never want to force someone into marriage. Listen to this relationship advice, because if he's dodging the talk, that could be a red flag that maybe he isn't ready for marriage.

Dating Experts Reveal 5 Things You Need To Know About Men

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima and dating expert Robert Manni reveal the five things women need to know about men when they're dating!

Dating Expert Reveals Relationship Advice: 5 Things You Need To Know About Men

1. Men are sexually wired. They think about sex a lot. But, the dating experts say just because he thinks of it, doesn't mean that's his only intent.

2. What you see is what you get. Men say what they think and are straightforward. You can tell a lot by his demeanor, sense of humor, and how he dresses. Unless he's a player. The experts relationship advice is to sort through the players and genuine guys.

Attention \(in person!\)

3. Patronizing women. A lot of men tell women what they want to hear, with sex in mind. Women have to be careful and sort out if what they're hearing is true.

4. Men are driven by fear and ego. Men are competitive with each other and are ultimately loners. They don't confide in each other and are left to sort things out on their own. Men have a fear of losing rather than the desire to win.

5. Men want a solid relationship and love. They are looking for something reliable. Men want a woman who is attractive and a friend they can confide in.

Relationship Experts Q&A: Does Social Media Stalking Create False Intimacy?

Question from Anna C.: I've had a crush on my neighbor for a while, and he finally asked me out on a date! Since we've lived near each other for nearly a year, we're already friends on Facebook. Of course, I've looked at his profile in that time, and I feel like I really know him. On our date, is it okay to bring up something I saw on his profile, or should I avoid mentioning anything I've learned from social media stalking?

Read on to see the relationship experts dating advice!

Relationship Experts Share Dating Advice On Social Media Stalking

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: If it was something that you saw on his profile awhile back, then I would avoid bringing it up. He'll know that you've been snooping around his Facebook page and it could raise an “eyebrow” in his mind. As a relationship expert, I tell my clients that you never want to appear like you’re more interested in him than he is in you. So, just play it cool on the first date and have fun. As you go out on more dates and you get to know him better, then it would be okay to bring up something you saw on his profile because then it would be more appropriate.

Related Link: Expert Love Advice Q&A: When Do I Send A Friend Request After A First Date?

Paige Wyatt, Reality TV Star: It’s absolutely okay to mention something you saw on your dates Facebook profile on the first date! It’s a good way to connect and create a comfortable conversation. But you’ve got to make sure you say you saw it on their profile. If you say, “Hey, I saw that funny video on your page last week with the cats!” it can start a conversation, but if you say “I think cats are so funny!” it might get a little weird. Guys can get creeped out if you try to hide the fact that you looked at their social media. Honestly, that seems a little more stalker-ish, like you’re secretly watching them. If you’re open about seeing things on their profile, they’re more inclined to feel flattered that you took an interest in their stuff!

Related Link: Love Advice Q&A: How Do I Show My Interest In Someone Online?

Robert Manni, Guy’s Guy: Since you were neighbors and had connected offline prior to dating, I suggest leaving Facebook behind for now. Checking his profile now and then is understandable, but as you know, social media posts can lead to assumptions and misconceptions. If I were you, my love advice is to consider yourself lucky to be dating someone that interested you from afar. That’s a great start. Now it’s time focus on building a relationship and love face to face, and hopefully cheek to cheek.

Matt Adams Reveals Dating Advice On Becoming A Priority In A Mans Life

Are you struggling with how to become a priority in your relationship and love? Then, you've come to the right place, because Matt Adams reveals his best love advice for how to get a man to value you. First, you cannot be needy! Don't require something of the man your dating and instead give him value. For example, text him something interesting or funny that doesn't need a reply.

You can bait him with something, like a mysterious story. Say, "I'm so embarrassed, you'll never guess what I did today." Then, when he replies, you'll respond and say "Too much to text, call me later!" Now, you're setting him up to chase you a bit to get that missing information. It's vulnerable and yet mysterious. If they don't bite the bait, then they probably aren't as interested as you might think.

End Your 'Better Than Nothing' Relationships and Love

Have you ever been in a better than nothing relationship and love? The type where a lot of your standards are met, but you just know that this isn't your final choice. If you're in this type of romantic rendezvous, get out of it as soon as possible! "It's a time waster," the relationship experts say.

Here are five ways to know when it's time to ditch your BTN love:

- 1. If they lack one of your must have. Don't stay with your honey if you aren't fully satisfied.
- 2. If the pain outweighs the pleasure. Relationships should be happy, not painful.
- 3. If they don't love you enough. You deserve someone who worships the ground you walk on.
- 4. If you don't love them enough. You deserve to worship the ground someone walks on.
- 5. If your intuition says so. Your intuition was created to protect you, so listen to it!

Relationship Advice On Dating Your Ex

In this week's relationship advice video from Single in Stilettos, matchmaker and dating expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Tinzley Bradford about dating your ex.

Expert Dating Advice: Should You Date Your Ex?

Make sure you listen to this expert dating advice and ask these three questions before you decide whether or not to go back to your old partner:

1. Do you harbor any resentments? If the issues aren't resolved, then don't go back to your old flame! Here's some relationship advice: You have to go in with a clean slate, if you've made the decision to go backwards, instead of forwards.

Expert Dating Advice: How to Make a Relationship and Love Work

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to dating expert and Robert Manni about how to make a relationship and love work.

Dating Expert Robert Manni Reveals How to Keep Your Relationship and Love Strong

Here are five pieces of expert dating advice to follow if you want a strong relationship and love:

1. Pay attention: As Manni explains, "Guys are not that good at paying attention, and women pay attention to everything." If you want to keep your partner happy, be mindful to their needs.

2. Give your partner the benefit of the doubt: People are very quick to point out if something's not completely right, but a lot of times, there's a rationale behind people's behavior. Don't jump to conclusions!

3. Have shared values: "A couple can be opposites, but it's the values that count – they need to sync up," the dating expert says. For instance, two people need the same viewpoint on money, trust, and family, which often goes back to how they were raised.

4. Communicate: It's important that neither person shuts down when it comes to communication. Really listen and hear where the other person is coming from. "It's very important that women don't expect men to read their minds and that men are willing to engage about an issue," Mani shares. "Both women and men have to meet each other halfway."

Related Link: Relationship Advice Video: Three Things Women Don't Know About Men

5. Always keep dating: It's easy to get comfortable and unintentionally take things for granted. "I'm guilty of that all the time," the relationship author of The Guy's Guys Guide to Love admits. "You have to keep the mindset – and the heartset – that the person you're with is somebody that you're constantly wooing."

Love Advice Q&A: How Do I Show My Interest In Someone Online?

Question from Carrie K.: When I first meet a nice guy and we become friends on Facebook, I always try to think of a way to show him I might be interested. Is there a way to subtly do so without looking like a stalker or totally desperate?

Read on for love advice from our dating experts!

Relationship Experts Share Dating

Advice About Showing Interest On Facebook

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: When it comes to Facebook, there's a fine line between showing interest and coming across as a stalker. Obviously, you can like and comment on his posts, but my love advice is to not do so too much. If you go overboard, you'll be seen as someone who has a little too much interest in his life and no life of your own. So my expert dating advice is to be selective about what you comment on and like. Then, at some point, after you've been friends for awhile, try to initiate a conversation over the private messaging feature on Facebook. Once the conversation takes off, add in a little innocent flirting and see where it goes. Soon, he may ask you out on a date, and you can get offline and meet up in person!

Related Link: Expert Love Advice Q&A: When Do I Send A Friend Request After A First Date?

Paige Wyatt, Reality TV Star: I know that everyone likes to fluff up their Facebook profile to encourage some new sparks. There's just a right and wrong way to do it. Most importantly, don't ever pretend that you're seriously interested in something you've never even heard of because this new guy seems into it. That can lead to some awkward conversations when he starts asking you about it. You can absolutely expand your interests though. Let's say you like being outdoors, for example. Just because your version of "being outdoors" is drinking wine and eating cheese at the closest park instead of hiking three miles every weekend doesn't mean it's a lie. You can also message him if you see something cool on his profile, like, "I loved that video you just posted – do you rock climb?" It can give you guys something to talk about and is a good way to further the conversation beyond a confirmed friend request.

Related Link: Dating Advice Q&A: Can I Blog About My Relationship and Love Life?

Robert Manni, Guy's Guy: The dating game is thriving in the digital world, but if you want to win, get offline as quickly as possible. Most guys are not that savvy when it comes to reading between the lines of texts or e-mails, so as a relationship expert, I suggest you stay cool, but be clear about your intentions. A good way to take the connection offline is through finding common ground with a new connection. For example, you love margaritas, and he considers himself an expert on tequila. Bueno! Find a cool and conveniently located Mexican restaurant or bar that carries the good stuff and suggest meeting up to sample their Maestro Dobel reposado, don Julio 1942, or 7 Leguas Tequila Anejo. If you conduct a bit of research on something you both enjoy, most guys will appreciate the effort. And in this case, he'll think you're someone who has great taste in men and spirits.

Rejection Is Part of Dating – Get Used to It!

In this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to dating expert David Crowther about one part of looking for a relationship and love that you must accept: rejection.

Expert Relationship Advice About Rejection

As Oshima says, “Nobody likes rejection.” For some people, if they face too much rejection, they want to stop dating all together, which is a huge mistake. According to the relationship advice video, it can affect us physically. For instance, we may experience a tight feeling in our chest or the blood rush to our face. “With the proper outlook and a grandiose goal, it’s something you can overcome,” Crowther explains.

Relationship Advice Video: 5 Things That Belong On Your Must-Have List

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, dating expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Duana Welch about the five things that belong on your must-have list.

Relationship Advice Video Reveals What To Have On Your Must-Have List

While some relationship experts assert that you need to throw away your must-have list, others give love advice about what you need to be looking for when it comes to your next relationship and love. The relationship advice video above reveals the 5 things that belong on every woman's must-have list:

Related Link: Dating Experts Say Your List Of Must-Haves Isn't That Important!

1. Someone who is kind and respectful: Your gold standard should be someone who expresses kindness even when things aren't going his way. You don't want to be with someone who will take it out on you when they've had a bad day.

2. Someone who wants the same amount and type of intimacy: Everyone has a different attachment style, but you need to align yourself with someone who has the same style as you. If you are secure and want to cuddle a lot, you can't be with someone who is avoidant and doesn't want to spend time with you.

3. Someone whose past won't ruin your future: The biggest indicator of how someone will act in the future is their past. If your partner has a harrowing story, make sure they learned from it and overcame the obstacles thrown their way.

Related Link: Relationship Advice Video: Two Quick Ways To Figure Out If He's The One

4. Someone who is at least as into you as you are into them: Science proves that men fall harder and faster during the falling in love stage of a relationship and love. If your man isn't as into it as you are, take a step back and reevaluate.

5. Someone who heals rather than worsens your own issues: The reason we get into intimate partnerships is to have a good time, so make sure you're having a great time with someone who makes your life happier.

Expert Dating Advice: What A Man Doesn't Want In A Woman

Expert Dating Advice For Women

In any relationship and love, you are 50 percent of the equation. So before you start blaming the man for how he acts on a first date, start thinking about what you're contributing to the conversation. Follow this expert dating advice and remember these three things that men don't want in a woman:

1. A sense of entitlement: Men hate women who are entitled and self-centered. Just think: You wouldn't like it if one of your girlfriends acted that way! It completely turns them off and puts a bad taste in their mouth. Don't be demanding or have expectations when you aren't giving anything back. A man wants a woman who really appreciates him.

Related Link: Relationship Experts Reveal 5 Ways To Survive A First Date

2. Someone who is boring: Men also hate it when a woman looks bored on a date and, in turn, is boring to hangout with. If you look at your phone on a date and only reply with one word answers, then you need to start putting yourself out there. Don't be scared to let loose! Beware, though, because you also can't just keep talking about yourself. You need to ask him questions too and engage in conversation.

Related Link: Dating Experts Say Your List Of Must-Haves Isn't That Important!

3. Someone who is superficial: Never play the superficial card. Men don't like having superficial conversations, like talking about your shoes or tanning regimen. Why would you talk about those things on a date? If you're nervous and shy, stray away from these topics because it makes you look dumb and entitled (see #1!).

Go Out With Me

Dating Experts Share Love Advice For Women

Has a guy ever gone out with you and acted into you but then pulled back suddenly and temporarily? If so, don't worry! It happens to women all of the time, and we have some love advice for you. Relationship experts agree that he may be too shy or scared to evolve the relationship and love. While you don't want to come across as demanding or sassy, you can still ask him what's going on in a cute way, like by sending him a text that says you miss him. If you're vulnerable with him, hopefully, he'll be vulnerable with you too.

Related Link: Relationship Advice Video: Two Quick Ways To Figure Out If He's The One

However, if this game continues over a long period of time, follow this love advice and just say, "Next!" Your time is valuable, and so are you. Know your self worth, and don't become that desperate, nagging woman. Dating should have a push-pull dynamic with both parties initiating conversation and dates. If you're trying to develop the relationship and he doesn't respond, then you're wasting your time and his. You'll need to pull back and kindly stop initiating anything.

Dating Advice Q&A: How Do I Handle My Partner's Family On Facebook?

Question from Catherine A.: My boyfriend's siblings and parents recently friend-requested me on Facebook. I don't have anything bad on there, but I'm still worried. Should I accept their friend requests? Would it be worse not to? What if we break up?

Keep reading for dating advice from our relationship experts!

Relationship Experts Give Dating

Advice About Your Partner's Family and Facebook

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: If you don't accept their friend requests, it'll be very awkward every time you see them. Since you don't have anything bad on Facebook, then you have nothing to worry about. Also, if you're really concerned, then my dating advice would be to limit what they see in your news feed through your settings. And right now, I really wouldn't worry about you and your boyfriend breaking up. Don't be concerned about something that may never happen!

Related Link: Expert Love Advice Q&A: When Do I Send A Friend Request After A First Date?

Paige Wyatt, Reality TV Star: Absolutely accept those friend requests! Whenever they try to reach out to you, especially online, it's a great opportunity to show that you want to be involved with his family. Also, by giving them access to your profile, you give them a way to get to know you more, especially if you don't get to spend much time with them. With Facebook, you also have the ability to spruce up your profile to make a good impression. Consider this love advice: Accepting your boyfriend's family on Facebook can really benefit your relationship and love! If you end up breaking up, then delete him and his family. Even if they get offended, what's the harm? You're already broken up!

Related Link: Q&A: Should I Be Worried If My Man Hasn't Asked Me to Be in a Facebook Relationship?

Robert Manni, Guy's Guy: Great question. Your decision depends on your relationship with your boyfriend. If you're in a committed relationship where you've met and established a connection with his family, there's no reason not to accept their requests. If things don't work out, you can always unfriend them. However, if this is a relatively new situation and you're unsure about your feelings, then it's your prerogative to simply ignore their requests. The fact that you mentioned that more than one member of his family sent you a request leads me to believe that you are in a real relationship and should act accordingly. Ultimately, your Facebook page is your turf, and you can accept or keep out anyone you choose. Good luck.

Relationship Experts Reveal 5 Ways To Survive A First Date

On this week's dating advice video from Single in Stilettos, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima and relationship author Robert Manni give us five ways to survive a first date. Check out what these relationship experts have to say!

Dating Advice Video: Best First Dates Tips For Women

1. Make a good first impression: These relationship experts remind us that you only get one chance to make a great first impression. Within three seconds of meeting you, a man will decide whether or not he wants to see you again, so make those three seconds count!

2. Don't show up late: If you aren't punctual, then you're telling your date that you don't respect their time. If you're running late, make sure to send a text at least 10 minutes before you're supposed to be there, just to be courteous.

3. Don't drink too much: Men hate it when a woman gets too "sloppy" on a date and can't handle whatever amount of alcohol she drinks. After all, no one wants to date a lush!

4. Have an exit strategy: He's nice, but you aren't feeling it. If that's the case, don't waste your time – or his. Be polite and tell him that you think he's great, but there just isn't a connection. Most of the time, he'll appreciate your honesty.

5. Don't have sex with him: Can you have sex with a man on a first date? Sure. But will it work out? Highly unlikely. Men can have sex with anyone with no emotional connection, so if you're just looking for sex, then go ahead. But if you want a relationship and love, then you should wait!

If you follow these first date tips, you're more likely to succeed at getting a second date...and a third date and a fourth date!

Dating Experts Say Your List Of Must-Haves Isn't That Important!

Expert Love Advice About Your List of Must-Haves

Do you ever wonder why you can't find a relationship and love to last a lifetime? The truth is, you probably have a long list of must-haves and ridiculous expectations. Dating experts agree that women put too much pressure on men. For instance, they expect them to be charismatic and witty, like the guys we see in movies; however, in real life, these type of men are usually the jerks.

If you have a list of must-haves that is impossible to meet, listen to this expert love advice: Open your parameters and help a man out instead of waiting for him to fail! Add to the conversation and ask your date questions so he can feel more confident. Remember that you're looking for a life partner, and it just doesn't matter how tall he is or if he has a full head of hair. The more closed off you are and the more things you have on your list, the longer you'll be single. We all have a picture perfect man in our heads, but we need to let go of that idea in order to give the right guy a chance.

Relationship Advice Video: Should I Date More Than One

Man?

Relationship Advice Video Reveals That You Should Date More Than One Man At A Time

Finding a relationship and love that will last a lifetime can take awhile. That's why these two dating experts agree that you should never date only one man at a time unless you've decided to be exclusive with someone. According to this relationship advice video, you don't want to put all of your eggs in one basket!

To follow their dating advice, date several men at once and weed out the people who aren't right for you. As time goes on, you'll get to know your dates on a more intimate level and eventually discover who isn't a good fit for you. When that happens, you can move on to someone who is more compatible with you for a long-term relationship.

Dating Experts Share Best Online Dating Advice

In this week's relationship advice video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to dating expert Matt Adams about online dating tips, including how to email a man and what to include in your profile. Don't miss this helpful online dating advice!

Consider This Online Dating Advice!

If you're searching online for your next relationship and love, then this dating advice may help you find The One. Dating experts agree that the message you send to a potential partner should be very personal. For example, tell him that he caught your attention and then say something about his profile. You can compliment a picture he has or discuss common interests. It's smart to show him that you read his profile and then invite him to reply back. "If you want to stand out, stay away from short greetings," Adams says.

However, you don't just need to be concerned with his profile but with yours as well. Make sure you have good photos that will capture his attention and that it's well written. "If you aren't getting responses back, that means something's going on with your profile," Oshima advises.

Relationship Author Shares Love Advice On Figuring Out If He's The One

1. Look, lean, and listen: First, lean close to your date; then, look directly in their eyes; and lastly, listen to what they have to say. While you're doing these three things, ask him open-ended questions. According to this relationship advice video, this method completely disarms people because everyone wants someone who will listen to them.

The relationship author encourages you to ask this question: "You know, I've had some relationships that didn't work out, and I imagine you have as well. Can you tell me what your ex would say when asked why you're not still together?"

2. Write a list of every single thing that you want in a life partner: Welch shares her love advice and says you need to write everything from the sublime to the ridiculous on the list. Then, divide it into must-haves (the shorter list) and put everything else on your wants.

When you go on a date, find creative ways to learn if there are any deal breakers. Look at dating as a job interview. You don't want to wait until you're already in love to ask those important questions!

Love Advice: How To Increase Your Chances Of Meeting The One

Relationship Experts Discuss How To Increase Your Chances of Finding Love

Finding a relationship and love isn't always easy. With that thought in mind, dating experts believe that there are things you can do to actively attract the right person. Consider these three dating tips if you're ready to find your soul mate:

- 1. Pay attention to the people in front of you: Instead of looking online or through an app, start to notice the people you see every day. Maybe it's time to ask out that guy from the coffee shop!

2. Be thankful for the dates you do have: Show some gratitude for the dates that you're going on. Even if he's not the right man for you, you can still appreciate the time you spend together. Remember that you can learn something from everyone you meet!

3. Give yourself permission to have the love you really desire: If you're clear about your wants and needs, then you'll be one step closer to finding your soul mate. Still, you don't want to make a long list of impossible expectations. You're trying to attract the right man, not detract the right man!
