

Expert Love Advice Q&A: When Do I Send A Friend Request After A First Date?

Question from Mandy G.: I went on a first date with a great guy this weekend, but we didn't make plans to see each other again. I want to connect with him on Facebook without seeming overeager. How soon can I send him a friend request?

Keep reading for expert love advice from our relationship experts!

Relationship Experts Discuss

Facebook Friend Requests

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: My expert love advice is that sending a Facebook friend request after a first date is way too soon. When you send it prematurely, you run the risk of it being ignored, which will put you in an awkward situation. If he ignores your request, you may think he's not interested in you. But what it may really mean is that he's not ready to let you in to snoop through his personal life after just one date. Let's be honest: The first thing you will do is go through all his photos and posts to try to figure out what's up with his relationship and love life and if he's dating anyone else! There's plenty of time to get to know him digitally, so wait until several dates in to send that friend request. Otherwise, you may find yourself un-friended from a guy that you just met!

Related Link: Dating Advice Q&A: Can I Blog About My Relationship and Love Life?

Paige Wyatt, Reality TV Star: Sending a new guy a friend request on Facebook is a lot simpler than you think. First, you must do a quick sweep of your own page. Make sure there's nothing embarrassing or off-putting posted on there. Don't forget to check your tagged photos! Then, send him a request. If he accepts within minutes (as people often do, thanks to the Facebook app), send him a quick message, something short and sweet to let him know you had a great time on your date. If he doesn't accept your request for a few days, don't automatically assume he's ignoring you. He may not be an avid Facebook user, and in that case, it's better to stay connected via text message instead.

Robert Manni, Guy's Guy: Although there is nothing wrong with sending him a friend request, look at the bigger picture. You just went on a date with this guy, and it sounds like you want to see him again. Although there are no set rules, ending a date without plans to reconnect is usually not a great sign. Consider this dating advice: If this guy wants to see you again, he will reach out soon. Adding him as a Facebook friend is a nice gesture, but I doubt it will do anything to stoke the romantic fires.

Dating Experts Give First Date Tips

On this week's Single in Stilettos show, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima and dating expert Des O'Connor discuss first date tips for women.

Relationship Advice Video Reveals First Date Tips

Women often go on a first date and expect to have a connection right away. However, that doesn't always happen. According to this relationship advice video, these two dating experts believe that chemistry can grow over time. Don't decide if you'll go on a second date based on your initial feelings or lack thereof. If your date has potential, then plan a second date – you don't know where it will end up!

As these relationship experts say, you need to have a plan in place when you go on a date. Make sure you don't talk too much about yourself. Guys are turned off by that. Instead, ask questions and show an interest in what your date does. First dates are kind of like an interview process for a relationship and love, so make sure the date is interesting! When in doubt, just remember that you can't change a first impression.

Why Are You Single? Dating Experts Answer That Dreaded Question

In this relationship advice video, matchmaker and relationship expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Tinzley Bradford about how to answer the dreaded question, “Why are you single?”

Dating Experts Reveal How to Handle a Dreaded First Date Question

When you're on a first date, the question about why you're single is bound to come up. Dating experts say that this question will immediately bring down the energy of the date, and you'll find yourself searching for the best way to answer it. So, here are some great tips to get past this dreaded question with confidence:

Related Link: Improve Your Chances of Finding Love, Thanks to This Relationship Advice Video!

1. Take a lighthearted attitude and use humor. The worst thing you can do is get defensive when someone asks you that question on a date. Be lighthearted, laugh, and ask the question right back. After all, they're single, too!

2. Let them know that you don't want to be in a relationship for the sake of being in a relationship. Make sure your date knows that you want to find the right person to be part of your life; you don't want to be with just anyone.

3. Be honest and tell them you haven't had the chance to focus on a relationship until now. You can be honest and tell your date that dating hasn't been your priority because you've been busy with other things, like your career.

These dating experts say it's inevitable that you will get asked this question at some point, but it's important to not get insecure. Instead, use your sense of humor and put a positive spin on it. And then...you can change the subject to a topic that makes you feel more comfortable!

1. Put the gadgets away: Your cell phone, computer, or tablet is creating a barrier between you and any man that wants to meet you. By holding your phone or looking at your laptop in a coffee shop, it seems like you're busy and don't want to be bothered.

2. Pay attention: It's important to pay attention and be fully present. Notice the men around you and be open to meeting them organically.

3. Get real: Be realistic and clear about who you are and what you're looking for. Once you know what you want, don't focus on a long list of "must haves." If you do, you'll be single for a long time!

4. Reach out: If you had a great time, it's important to acknowledge and follow-up after the first date. Be available and don't wait too long to schedule the second date. You don't want him to lose interest.

Here are three secrets that you need to keep in mind:

- 1. Men are afraid to approach you: They're terrified of rejection, so they'd rather not risk it and not say anything to you at all.
- 2. Men put a lot of pressure on themselves: They want everything from your first date to your first kiss to be perfect, so give them a break!
- 3. Men can't read your signals: Just like you don't always understand them, they don't always understand you. They need help understanding your signals, so make your feelings very clear for them.

Related Link: Expert Love Advice: The #1 Thing a Man Wants in a Woman

Middle-aged women often think that men their age only want to date younger women, but that's not always true. According to this relationship advice video, it really just depends. If a man is going through a divorce and experiences a mid-life crisis, he may feel the need to date a younger woman to validate himself or make him feel desirable. If a man wants children, he'll be attracted to women of childbearing years.

As this dating expert explains, there are also men, though, who aren't going through a life change or don't want children and will date people closer to their age. For the most part, men want to date someone within 10 years of their age.

Dating Advice Q&A: Can I Blog About My Relationship and Love Life?

Question from Jenny T.: I have a lifestyle blog where I constantly post updates about my friendships, favorite fashion, recipes, and occasionally my love life. I started dating a new guy about two weeks ago. Can I blog about our dates and how I feel about him, or is it too soon to share those details about our relationship?

Read on for dating advice from our relationship experts!

Dating Advice from Our Relationship Experts

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: One sure fire way to make a guy disappear without a trace is to start blogging about your dates and how you feel about him when you're just two weeks into dating. It doesn't matter if you don't use his real name, no man wants to feel like everything he does or says on a date will be exposed for the whole world to see.

When you launched your lifestyle blog, you signed on to blog about your personal life and everything that goes on with it. But he didn't sign on to have his personal life exposed too. So, my suggestion is for you to cool it with TMI about your relationship and love life on your blog, otherwise you won't have any dates to blog about.

Related Link: Dating Advice Q&A: Is It Appropriate to Play Hard to Get Via Texting?

Paige Wyatt, Reality Star: Sharing intimate details about your relationship and love life with a new guy should be more discrete than cooking tips or fashion advice. Posting details about dates can make a guy uncomfortable, especially early in the dating process. Guys tend to keep their romantic lives to themselves, because they don't have the desire to share details and experiences like women do.

Typically they wouldn't mind you chatting with your girlfriends about your relationship, but posting things about the dates online can feel invasive to guys. This can be especially true if they learn how you feel about the dates or relationship by reading it online instead of you sharing it with them personally. It would be appropriate to post things less intimate, such as “great date night restaurants”, or “fun date night outfits”, but keep the personal details about your new relationship close.

Related Link: Love Advice Q&A: Is It Weird That My Man Always Texts Instead of Calling?

Robert Manni, Guy's Guy: Good writing requires guts and honesty, but in this case, I suggest a cautious approach. It's one thing to look back and provide insights from lessons learned from past relationships. But providing readers blow-by-blow details after only two weeks creates unnecessary pressure on the writer, her guy, and their possibility of succeeding as a couple. Would you want your audience to know all the details of your latest love interest as it's happening? I'd say, probably not.

Expert Love Advice Reveals Four Reasons Why Men Disappear

On this week's Single in Stiletto's show, founder and dating expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Tinzley Bradford about why men disappear.

Dating Experts Explain Why Men Disappear

The author of Settle Free Dating Method for Women explains that dating is hard enough without having to worry about the great guy in your life suddenly disappearing. According to her expert love advice, here are four reasons why a man may vanish:

Related Link: How to Kick That Bad Relationship to the Curb

1. He met someone else: While it may be hard to accept, until you're in a committed, monogamous relationship, he's free to date multiple people at once – and so are you!

2. He already has someone: You may be the other woman and not even know it. If he suddenly stops calling, there's a chance he's focusing all of his attention on his girlfriend or wife. Unfortunately, some men enjoy the thrill of cheating.

3. He just wants sex: He may want sex without any strings attached. If so, if you don't give him what he wants, he'll disappear.

4. He's bored: He may think your relationship has become predictable and mundane. In that case, he may stop calling without any explanation.

If you're dating a man who disappears, it's important to remember that he's doing you a favor: Any guy who leaves without an explanation isn't the right one for you!

Love Advice Q&A: Is It Weird That My Man Always Texts Instead of Calling?

Question from Elissa B.: I've been seeing this guy for a few months now, and anytime we're not together, he always texts me and never calls. Whether he's seeing how my day is going or we're trying to arrange our plans for the weekend, he only texts. What does this behavior say about our relationship and about him?

Read on for love advice from our dating experts!

Love Advice: What to Do If a Guy Only Texts

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: Thanks to the ever-present use of technology, unfortunately, texting has become the norm with the way a lot of people communicate. That being said, it doesn't make it acceptable that he communicates with you solely in this manner. The issue is you've already set the standard for what's an acceptable way to reach out to you. So it's going to be harder to break him of this habit...but it's clearly not impossible!

Next time, he texts you to plan a date, reply with something like, “Great! I’m tied up right now, so give me a call later and we can make a plan.” Or if you’re so bold, instead of texting him back, you can just pick up the phone and call him. It may take a few tries to get him on the phone, but don’t give up!

Related Link: Q&A: Is It Appropriate to Play Hard to Get Via Texting?

Paige Wyatt, Reality Star: Most guys prefer to send a text rather than pick up the phone and talk. Women like to chat, but men want to get straight to the point. In that case, it’s about his personal preference and isn’t a reflection of your relationship or his feelings for you.

If he doesn’t answer your calls though, that’s a different story. There’s a chance he’s just busy. However, if he immediately send you a text with some strange excuse about why he can’t call, that’s a red flag. Be honest with him about your feelings and just tell him it would mean a lot to you if he’d call you every once a while. Give him the chance to explain himself, but if it seems fishy, he might not be a very honest guy – and definitely not the guy for you.

Related Link: Q&A: What to Do If Your Boyfriend Texts His Ex

Robert Manni, Guy’s Guy: When it comes to dating, technology can be our friend or foe. Sure, a guy can score dates while sitting at home in his tighty-whiteys. While this man’s over-reliance on texting is expedient, it lacks intimacy – and that’s a real issue. Maybe he’s busy, but don’t let his dependence on texting dominant the relationship’s lines of communication. You’re worth more than that. To build a relationship, men and women have to be at their best, and that means communicating in a real way. Follow this love advice: Insist that he calls the next time he wants to see you and be willing to stick to your guns if he falls back into this lazy behavior.

The dating consultant for SurviveWomen.com explains that the only person who truly knows the answer to this question is the man himself. However, the relationship experts offer a few potential reasons for you to consider: Something may have come up in his personal or professional life; he didn't find you attractive or may have been bothered by something you said; or he may be taken already. Of course, he may just be someone who lacks integrity. If that's the case, he's not someone you want as your partner in a long-term relationship and love.

Relationship Advice Video: How to Win Him Over

According to O'Connor, finding a relationship and love shouldn't be hard for women. If you understand how men think and what they want, you can capture his attention. Consider this love advice from the dating expert and make yourself aware of these three things: Know what makes him tick; understand his relationship with his mother; and remember that food is really important to a man. Other than that, just show him that you're thinking of him. It really is that easy!
