There are countless ways for you to give back to your community, whether it be a monetary donation, or giving your time to a charity. Check out Cupid's advice for how you can give back to those in need:

1. Donate old clothing to the Salvation Army: Everyone is guilty of having way too many clothes in their closets and drawers. Sort clothes into keep and donate piles, making sure to donate clothes that you haven't worn in a year or more. Lady Gaga: Does Her Celebrity Engagement Ring Raise the Bar?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Singer and superstar Lady Gaga got engaged to her longtime boyfriend Taylor Kinney on Valentine's Day weekend. The celebrity engagement involved Kinney giving Gaga a one-of-a-kind huge heart-shaped engagement ring that includes a T and S for their initials. We could all see it sparkling on her finger when she sang at The Academy Awards recently. It harkens back to young love when everyone would write their initials in a heart, and it's both romantic and lavish.

What Lady Gaga's Celebrity Engagement Ring Means for Other Couples

So, what does the magnitude of her celebrity engagement ring mean for everyone else – her followers and fans? Does it raise the bar, and possibly make non-celebrity couples who are now getting engaged feel that they have to do something extraordinary and unique in order to make their partner feel special?

Related Link: Latest Celebrity News: Lady Gaga Takes the Polar Plunge with Fiancé Taylor Kinney

Getting engaged is a big deal – and not just because of the ring. There are so many pieces of love advice to consider as you figure out the best way to make it exceptional for both of you. Of course, there is no denying that the ring has become symbolic of the whole event. When it comes to Lady Gaga's celebrity engagement, that has certainly been something the press has been focusing on. She and her ring are both distinctive and seem to suit each other perfectly. While that is wonderful for her, it is important to keep in mind that we are all original and rare, so what might be perfect for her won't necessarily be right for your non-celebrity couple status. Your ring can be remarkable without having to be a showstopper.

The idea that an engagement ring has to be original, handmade and/or very expensive can skew what everyone hopes for, and if those expectations are too high, you might end up missing the point of what you are actually doing – which is pledging your love to each other and agreeing to spend your lives together. I have seen many women who were let down by the engagement ring they received because it wasn't the size, style or stone they had wished for. The engagement ring speaks to commitment and endurance, and the willingness to go the distance with your partner.

With that in mind, try to keep what you envisioned realistic to the man you are with, the resources he has, as well as his interest and taste in jewelry. Just because he doesn't design it or get you as big a ring as your girlfriend may have received, that doesn't mean you are loved less. Whatever ring you receive will be testimony of his relationship and love and the desire to share his future with you. So when he pops the question and holds out the much-anticipated ring he chose for you, it can usher in excitement rather than disappointment. Keep it about for better or worse, rather than for bigger or worse.

The bottom line is that an engagement ring does not have to be the only one of its kind, over-the-rainbow-fabulous to symbolize the love you share for each other and the commitment you are making to each other. For Lady Gaga it is a huge diamond heart, for you it might be something else, possibly not even a diamond but an emerald or a ruby. In the end, though, you both hope the ring will lead you to the same place – bringing in a life full of love and adventure together.

Lady Gaga Celebrates Celebrity Engagement with Taylor Kinney's 'Chicago Fire' Family

By Maggie Manfredi

They've both fallen far in love! According to UsMagazine.com,

Lady Gaga is celebrating her celebrity engagement to Taylor Kinney with his Chicago Fire costars. A source shared the scoop on the songstress, saying, "She's a very sweet person and very down to earth, you can sit there and have a conversation with her. She was engaging with everyone." Actress and activist Sophia Bush shared an Instagram photo of herself and Gaga at a party for Chicago Fire producer Dick Wolf. The picture showed off both of the gorgeous ladies, but the real star is the 15-carat Lorraine Schwartz engagement ring. The celebrity couple seems to be enjoying their engagement and embracing the love from friends and family.

Like Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney, it's important to celebrate your engagement in style! What are some ways to have a celebrity-style engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

A celebrity-style engagement can seem like a daunting task, especially when you look at Lady Gaga with her heart shaped rock and gorgeous TV star fiance. But not to worry lovebirds; Cupid has some ideas on how to make your engagement A-list worthy:

1. Have a party: The first rule of a celeb engagement is to throw a party for yourself; or if you are lucky, someone will host a party in your honor. If you don't like either of these options, show up to another event looking downright fabulous, and don't be afraid to show off the ring.

2. A post worth posting: If you are getting engaged in the 21st century, there will most likely have to be a social media post that comes right along with it. This is an opportunity for creativity, surprise and, let's be honest, a little bit of bragging. Show off the ring, or the man, or both! Lady Gaga shared a black and white picture of her hand in Taylor Kinney's with the 15-carat stunner front and center.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Gabrielle Union, Kourtney Kardashian and Lady Gaga

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been filled with hot relationship gossip, including newlyweds dealing with marriage drama, reality TV stars facing cheating rumors (again), and a private pair celebrating their celebrity engagement. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their relationships and love!

Latest Celebrity News About Three Popular Celebrity Couples

Gabrielle Union and Dwayne Wade: The word on the street is that the actress and Miami Heat star may not be legally married. Somehow, their marriage license was never filed with the state court. The lovebirds did obtain a license, so it's a mystery why it wasn't signed and sent back to the county within the 10 day period. Technically, the celebrity couple is married, but if there are any legal issues, the lack of a marriage license could cause trouble in the long run.

I agree with the theory that they didn't file the license so that, if things in their celebrity relationship take a bad turn, neither one of them can go after each's other bank account. Unfortunately, I don't see this marriage lasting. Right now, they're in the honeymoon stage. Union appears to be way more into their relationship and love than Wade. Sure, he's enjoying it right now, but when the pixie dust wears off, pay attention to the press. He'll be accused of having a side chick. After all, he's consistently gotten away with being a cheater – why stop now?

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Gabrielle Union and Dwayne Wade Signed Prenup

Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick: Every day, new celebrity gossip circles around the Kardashians. The most recent celebrity cheating rumor is that Disick is hooking up with younger sister Kylie Jenner. This isn't true, as the father of three isn't looking at Jenner in a romantic way. However, he is close to her because he feels like he can talk to her. This could be trouble in the long run if he and Kardashian continue to have communication problems. It's true that Disick can be a bit of a bad boy with his drinking and partying, but that doesn't make him a cheater.

People keep wondering when this celebrity couple will get married. Up until now, a celebrity marriage hasn't mattered to the oldest Kardashian sister. I do see a shift in what she wants though. The pair has been together since 2006, and three kids later, she is reconsidering getting hitched (as you may recall, she previously said no to Disick's proposals twice).

Out of all of the Kardashian sisters, she has the best relationship and love. Yes, even better than Kim Kardashian and Kanye West! It's true that Disick could turn his partying down a bit, but he does support her and help with the kids. At one point, he wanted them to move to New York City. That would be the best thing for their relationship. They need to get out of that crazy Kardashian compound, or it could tear them apart.

Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney: On Valentine’s Day, the Chicago Fire actor put a ring on it! It’s no surprise that the pop star said yes to her longtime love’s proposal and shared the good news with her Little Monsters on social media. The pair has been dating since 2011 after Kinney appeared in Gaga’s video “You and I.” This famous couple has a wonderful energy around them, and they are a very good match. . Kinney helps to keep her grounded, while Gaga adds spice to his life. While they are both in the entertainment business, family comes first.

It will be interesting to see how Lady Gaga reinvents herself after she gets married. We will definitely see a different version of the songstress! I also see baby energy circling around them. Having kids is a priority, though they may wait until they are married for a year to start trying for a bundle of joy. I see their firstborn being a little girl and baby number two being a boy.

On-Again, Off-Again: Celebrity Couples Who Can't Make Up Their Minds

By Deanna Atkins and Laura Seaman

In Hollywood, you never know who's going to be the next big couple, especially when the new duo may breakup before official word even gets out. To be fair, it has to be difficult to maintain a relationship that's constantly in the public eye. Aside from frequent budding romances, we're constantly hearing about those twosomes who just can't commit. They're on one week and off the next week, and then before you know it, they've eloped...only to divorce weeks later.

These three pairs constantly keep us guessing and never fail to surprise us with yet another breakup or makeup. Sometimes we enjoy staying on their relationship roller coaster ride, but still, we have to wonder why these stars are so incapable of staying together:

Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney: If you were as busy as the pop star, you'd probably find it challenging to keep a boyfriend too. But as her touring schedule has slowed down, it seems like she and the Chicago Fire actor are back on again! The 'Born this Way' singer has been with the 33-year-old for three years now, and rumor has it, she's been looking at wedding dresses in Canada. The pair have been seen on romantic skinny dips and dining at Gaga's father's restaurant, but don't be fooled by their seemingly effortless relationship because it's definitely a tough one to maintain.

Sammi Giancola and Ronnie Ortiz-Magro: Whether this couple's out of control relationship was purely for entertainment purposes or not, everyone can't help but love to hate the Jersey Shore duo. The guido and guidette got together on the first season of the show, and, ever since, we've seen the twosome through the crying, name calling, and all out physical brawls. It's actually a rarity when they're filmed not fighting.

That said, there are those times they honestly look happy together. Between his fohawk and her Jersey-girl attitude, they couldn't be more perfect for one another. Let's give them some credit though: Since the filming of the sixth season ended, they're officially on and have even moved in together.

Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber: This A-List couple has been on and off for quite a while. As of now, the pair seems to be back together. For the past few years, fans have been told about their constant breakups, only to be shown pictures of the two cuddling on Instagram.

It's no surprise that there's friction between them. The former Disney star seems to be rapidly climbing the ladder of success in both music and film. Bieber, on the other hand, just keeps getting in trouble and can't seem to catch a break. From his DUI to videos of his vulgar behavior, this pop star isn't gaining much support lately. For a while, there was even a petition to deport him to his home country! Despite all of this drama, America's darling seems to be smitten with this Canadian bad boy.

Whether these celebrities don't realize what they have in front of them or they're waiting to see what else is out there, anyone can relate to needing a push in the right direction. It may be time to quit the games and find a more compatible mate or accept that you're truly in love with your partner. Either way, it's not beneficial for anyone to be in a consistent on-again, off-again relationship!

What are some important things to have in common with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone's heard the saying 'opposites attract,' but it doesn't hurt to have a thing or two in common with the person you love – especially if you plan on spending a lifetime together. Cupid is here to help:

1. Long-term goals: You may not know how you want your life to be like in the next few years, but you should at least have an idea. Do you want kids? A house of your own? Do you plan on moving for the sake of a new job? All of these things are important to discuss with your significant other because what they want in the future might not be what you're hoping for. When it comes to your relationship, the two of you should be in sync with each other and know what the other is looking for in the long run.

2. Similar interests: If you and your honey don't have at least a few common hobbies, there won't be much for you to talk about or agree on when it comes to dates. If your boyfriend/girlfriend is a movie junkie, rent a few of their favorite movies and spend the night cuddling on the couch. If you prefer to do something that gets your adrenaline pumping, maybe you and your partner can try water skiing or hiking – just make sure it's something both you and your loved one can enjoy together.

3. The feelings you have for each other: You shouldn't be in a relationship with someone if they don't share the same feelings as you. If you're not sure how your partner feels, ask them. If it's obvious that they don't feel the way that you do, then you need to take a step back before you end up getting hurt.

Love in the Limelight: Why You Should be Happy You Aren't Famous

By Edwin

Finding love is hard, and it's one thing that being rich and famous doesn't make easier. Although people like you and I might have moments of dating delights and despair, we at least get to experience these in private. Because of all of the attention they get, celebrities don't have it easy when it comes to making a love connection. However, it's not all that different for them. Here are some things we can all learn from watching the pitfalls of dating in the spotlight:

Related: Celebrity Couples Who Let Money Ruin Their Relationships

1. Make time for love. Plenty of celebrity couples have ultimately split because of conflicting schedules that forced them to spend too much time apart. Lady Gaga recently called off her relationship with Taylor Kinney because of the demands of her Born This Way Ball tour. However, even those of us without international tour schedules need to make love a priority if we want a lasting relationship. Take a look at your schedule and figure out what you're willing to put aside to make room for love. If your relationship is important to you, you might have to sacrifice small things like yoga or book club.

2. Don't give up your successes: Rihanna has talked about how her fame often intimidates her potential suitors. Similarly, some men can be intimidated by regular girls with successful careers, healthy bank accounts or nice cars. Keep your radar up for guys who feel uncomfortable with your success. If they seem more interested in getting you out of the boardroom and into the kitchen, then it's time to move on. And men, embrace a woman's strength and independence—don't try to smother it. She will treat you the same in return.

3. Keep some things private: No matter what they do, stars have the whole world watching. Even a regular Joe or Jane who hooks up with a celebrity is subjected to an onslaught of paparazzi and gossip rag rumors. However, even if you're not in the spotlight, your love life will often be scrutinized by friends and family. To keep your relationship going strong, be sure that some things are reserved for just the two of you.

Don't overshare with your friends and don't dish about your exes to your current love interest.

4. Show the real you: Celebrities are often so used to keeping up their professional image that it's hard for them to reveal their true selves. Similarly, with online or speed dating, it's tough to tell what's true and what's just advertising. Make sure you don't oversell yourself on dating profiles, and be willing to show the real you. After all, a true love connection has to be based in reality.

5. Take a chance: Winona Ryder shared a story where she met a nice guy, but when he revealed that he had always had a crush on her, she couldn't trust his motives. She wondered if he just wanted to meet someone famous or if he really liked her. Ultimately, trust is a key issue for all relationships, famous or otherwise. For love to take flight, both parties have to let their guard down and take a risk on letting someone in. While it's always best to proceed cautiously, don't be so guarded that you scare love away.

Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney Split

Lady Gaga's hectic popstar lifestyle was just too much to handle along with her relationship with actor, Taylor Kinney. The couple had been dating for ten months, and have decided to take a break. A source told UsMagazine.com, "She will be touring nonstop until next year and has found she can't have relationship at the same time." Gaga and Kinney weren't what you'd exactly call the perfect couple either, a friend claims. "Taylor was all about himself, a typical actor, and didn't completely get Gaga." Maybe they were headed for a brick wall from the start.

How do you keep work from getting in the way of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it becomes hard trying to balance your work with your relationship, especially for popstars like Lady Gaga. Here are some ways to keep work from getting in the way of your relationship:

1. Finding the right balance: The most important thing is doing well in work, but not letting it take up all your time. Once you're at home, forget all of the work stuff and just spend time with your significant other.

2. Prioritize: It becomes a problem if you begin making too many sacrifices for work, and not for your relationship. You need to make sure the people important in your life are given the kind of attention they deserve.

3. Take some time off: Work can be all-consuming, so take a vacation. Why not take some time off to spend a couple days with your partner? Every relationship needs that every once in a while.

Shiri Appleby Dishes about New Web Series 'Dating Rules From My Future Self'

By Lori Bizzoco

It's easy to ask others for dating advice, but sometimes you have to listen to your gut and do what makes you happy. Shiri Appleby (Roswell/Life Unexpected) shared that tip with us as we discussed her role on the new web series, 'Dating Rules From My Future Self. The series, also starring Taylor Kinney (Vampire Diaries and Lady Gaga's current beau), is about a young 27-year-old woman named, Lucy Lambert who starts getting text messages from herself 10 years in the future. The messages warn her about her dating strategy. She soon realizes that the man she is about to marry, isn't the one for her and she must change her life. If only there was an app that would allow us to get advice from our older, wiser self! Well, according to Appleby that may not be a good thing.

Below Appleby gives us the scoop on her new series, and how it relates to her personal life. She also shares some great dating advice with our visitors.

Tell us more about the show. How does a web series differ from television?

It doesn't feel any different from my end. The good thing is that people can watch it at their leisure from their computer and there's an opportunity for it to go viral.

Does 'Dating Rules' compare to your current love life? Do you relate to Lucy?

Yes, I relate to Lucy because as I've gotten older, I've realized that if I stop asking everyone else what they think I should be doing with my love life and I just ask myself, I always end up the happiest. For example, when I think about choosing between A and B, I stop and ask myself what do I really need in my life? If I'm really honest with myself I always pick the choice that makes me the happiest. When you doubt and ask everyone else what to do, you get really confused and end up in situations that don't make you feel comfortable. In the show, Lucy starts to understand herself and you see how she blossoms as a woman.

Do you wish that you had the opportunity at one point to get future text messages like Lucy does?

No, I don't think so. It would be great, but at the same time you learn a lot from your mistakes and why you chose to date someone. Going through the experience is important because whether it's positive or negative, it helps you to understand what you want in the future.

What message do you think the show is trying to send out to viewers?

It's a show about friendship and realizing how great it is to grow up with true girlfriends that you can ask honest questions to. It's also telling woman that it's okay to ask for what you need and to figure out what it is that you need. And, how do you get that? You usually get that from listening to yourself.

What do you think was the motivation to create a show like this?

It's important to create something that people will be entertained by, but if you have the opportunity you want to put a good message out there also, especially to young woman.

Do you have any relationship advice you can share with our visitors?

Yes. My advice is that it's not supposed to be as difficult as we make it out to be. The best thing you can do is to kill the idea of what you think you need or want. If you get rid of those preconceived thoughts, then you will be able to find the thing that you actually do need vs. what you think you need. Once that happens, you will discover that what you need is a best friend and the list you once had for finding a partner will feel like nonsense.

How about your own dating life?

Yes, I'm in a great relationship – it's really nice.

Before we go, can you tell us about the book you're writing?

Yes, it's really exciting. I am writing a book about how I've found myself and I tell it through all of the guys I've dated. I'm taking it to publishers at the end of this month. Hopefully it will be a good read.

Six Celebrity Couples We Never Imagined Together

By Abbi Compel and Whitney Johnson

There are plenty of pairings that just make sense: peanut butter and jelly; flip-flops and the beach; bright red lipstick and that little black dress, to name a few. That's not to say that unexpected matches don't make their mark: bacon and chocolate (seriously); navy and black; cowboy boots in the summertime. This idea holds true for relationships, too. Sometimes, a couple just seems right, and other times, it takes a bit more convincing to understand why they're a good fit.

If nothing else, the celebrity couples below prove that love can pop up in the most unexpected places and that opposites do attract. As for bacon and chocolate, the jury is still out.
