How do you know whether to reunite with an ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

1. True love: If you and the other person genuinely have romantic feelings for each other and truly care about one another, it may be a good idea to give them a second chance. Sometimes you will just always love someone and have a special place for them in your heart, but know that you can't actually be with them. If the love runs deep and is present, it could be worth rekindling. A lot of people have to split to find themselves and figure things out.

3. Putting in effort: If the person is trying really hard to win you back and putting in a lot of effort, you may want to give it a whirl again. Everybody makes mistakes. If your ex is being dedicated and supportive, it could be worth it to give them a second chance. If the reason for the split is something that they did, feel out if they are truly sorry and making the appropriate changes. The important thing is to work through the differences and determine how you both really feel.

Taylor Swift References “Dramatic” Ex-Boyfriends at Teen Choice Awards

By Laura Seaman

Taylor Swift struck again as she made a clever comment about her ex-boyfriends at the Teen Choice Awards, according to UsMagazine.com. The country star was presenting the award for Choice Actor in a Drama Movie when she made the comment, “I was excited when they asked me to come and present this award, because no one knows more about dramatic males than I do.” One of her exes, Harry Styles, won multiple awards with his band One Direction that night, and he ended up beating Swift for the Choice Smile award.

What are some ways to deal with dramatic exes?

Cupid's Advice:

Most people try to avoid drama, and for good reason. It's immature, annoying, and can seriously mess up relationships. It's hard enough to date a dramatic person, but sometimes it's even more difficult to deal with a dramatic ex. They can't seem to just move on, and they want everyone to know about it. Here are some tips to deal with that ex who doesn't know when to end the drama:

1. Unfriend and unfollow them on social media. Passive aggressive Facebook statuses and mopey song lyrics on Twitter can get really old really fast. If you really want to get rid of this annoying virtual drama, the solution is simple: get rid of that person on your social media. No more notifications from them!

2. Avoid places where they might be. Dealing with a dramatic ex is even worse when it's in person, so while it might be a bit inconvenient at times, it's worth it to avoid the awkward staring, whispering behind your back, or even a scene if your ex is super dramatic. If you know your ex is going to be somewhere, do your best to avoid that place at all costs! It's not cowardly, it's smart.

3. Don't give in to the drama. Sometimes your ex will try to drag you into the drama and try their best to make you respond. Whatever you do, don't give them the satisfaction of reacting! Ignore them and don't let their words get to you. Maintain your composure and let them make a fool of themselves without you. Sometimes it might be tempting to shout back and put them in their place, but this is what they want and will only make things worse!

Ed Sheeran's New Girlfriend is Taylor Swift-Approved!

By Sanetra Richards

Ed Sheeran's new girlfriend is Taylor Swift-approved. According to UsMagazine.com, the 24-year-old country turned pop singer has already been introduced to Sheeran's new love interest. Although he has managed to be very discreet about disclosing too much information on his latest partner, Sheeran did tell Us that she "works for a food company – well not a food company, she works for a chef." So, how exactly did Swift get to meet Ms. Anonymous? "We went for dinner in London," said Sheeran. "She likes her." He added that the secret girlfriend is indeed Greek and can whip up "anything Greek."

What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Whilst some choose to announce their new relationship right away, others choose to maintain that bit of mystery for a little while. But exactly how do you manage to keep it under wraps until you are ready to spill the beans? Cupid has some advice:

1. Lips are sealed: Before any other step, you and your new partner must agree to keep it a secret (unless you want to tell a limited number of close family and friends). However, if you really want to keep it all undisclosed, telling absolutely no one is the way to go. It is completely understandable because you and new love are fresh and wanting to see how things go before jinxing the relationship.

2. Avoid PDA: Holding hands and kissing is certainly the way to blow your cover. Everyone knows “just friends” are not that affectionate with each other. Save it for the private areas if you want to keep the whole secrecy mission going.

3. Play it cool: Try not to become too wrapped up in your partner, otherwise, people will notice. Your family and friends will begin to tell if you are becoming distant . . . and that is when the questions will begin. Balance your time with each until you are ready to announce the big news.

Taylor Swift Cuts Off Selena Gomez Post-Reunion With

Justin Bieber

By Sanetra Richards

Taylor Swift is far from believing Justin Bieber is a good luck charm. According to UsMagazine.com, the 24-year-old songstress has dropped Selena Gomez as a friend after the Disney starlet rekindled things with Bieber. The “I Knew You Were Trouble” singer is disgusted by their relationship. During the summer, tweeted a birthday post to Selena, referencing her as “the closest thing I’ve ever had to a sister.” However, this is not the first strike. The source also claimed that Gomez used Swift’s good friend Ed Sheeran as a rebound last June to ruffle Bieber’s feathers. “After Selena pulled that move, Taylor started distancing herself,” said the source.

What are some ways to help your friend make good relationship decisions?

Cupid's Advice:

No one ever said being a friend is easy, especially when it is time to pitch in decision advice about relationships. The conversation can go either two ways, good or bad. Here are some ways to help your friend out without being offensive:

1. Remain courteous: Take into consideration your friend's feelings at all times. There is a way to be honest without delivering a harsh tone. Let him or her know of the signs in their relationship that may concern you, but do not repeatedly bring up this conversation. Your friend is completely aware of your possible worry. It is up to them to try to ease your apprehension.

2. Give all ears: Keep an open mind and be understanding of their perspective. The less interruptions, the better. However, do not be afraid to give your input – talk about your past experience(s) that are relatable. Avoid over sharing and being overbearing. Remember, you are there to help.

3. Being straightforward is not the enemy: Let your friend know if they are in the wrong or the right. They will try to find every possible way to defend themselves or the situation – sugarcoating is not the way to go.

What are some ways to use music to cope with a broken heart?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dealing with a broken heart can feel unbearable at times – especially if you weren’t the one who wanted the relationship to end. Every individual handles a breakup in their own way, but music seems to be a common form of self-therapy. Cupid has some tips:

1. Get creative: If you’re musically inclined, think about writing your own song or creating your own depending on what instrument you play. You can make your own heartbreak song or try something a little more positive – think Destiny's Child's Survivor.

2. Listen to your favorites: For some unknown reason, music tends to make the heart happy and can make almost any individual who isn't feeling their best see the bright side of things. While you're taking a long, random drive, listen to some of your favorite songs. By the time you put your car in park, you should be feeling a little better about your breakup.

3. Make a game out of it: Play only one song per day that represents the mood you're in. As the days progress, you should be in better spirits and the songs you choose should be a little more upbeat and inspiring. Don't let yourself stay in a rut. You can get through this. Let the music be your outlet.

Taylor Swift Disses Harry Styles at VMA Awards

By Kerri Sheehan

Hollywood's Breakup Queen is at it again! Singer and songwriter Taylor Swift made a low blow at One Direction's Harry Styles during MTV's Video Music Awards on Sunday night. While the Brit boy band member was on stage presenting an award, Swift was filmed in the audience mouthing, "Shut the f-up!" to BFF Selena Gomez. Haylor were an item for a couple of months before calling it quits back in January. Later in the show Swift took home a Moon Man for her hit song, "I Knew You Were Trouble," and made a dig at the high-profile guy who inspired her to write the song. Previously it was thought to be written about her 2010 fling with Jake Gyllenhall, but people are now thinking it could also be about Styles. During her speech Swift thanked her fans and then quipped, "I also want to thank the person that inspired this song, and he knows exactly who he is, because I got one of these!" according to UsMagazine.com. Writing about past relationships is how the 23-year-old made a name for herself but, maybe she is forgetting her own advice that, "No amount of vintage dresses gives you dignity."

How do you keep anger at bay after a bitter breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Being bitter over a breakup is second nature, but sometimes you have to hold that in. Cupid has some advice about how to keep your feelings at bay:

1. Stay cool: Don't stress too much over the breakup! There are plenty of other people who are dying to date you, so getting overly angry because about one person won't do you any good. Save your emotions for something more useful, like the series premiere of Grey's Anatomy.

2. Act nonchalant: The last thing you want your ex to know is how heartbroken you were over the break up. It has always been said that success is the best revenge and this is especially applicable for breakups. You want your ex to think you're happy and healthy, even if at the end of the day you're sitting on your couch eating bon-bons and sobbing while watching, "Up!"

3. Be the bigger person: Even if your ex is making jabs at you it's best to be the bigger person and let it slide. Stooping to their level will only make you look at childish as they are. Take a note from Harry Styles's book and play it cool.

What are some ways to use music to cope with a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting over a breakup can be a long and hard process. Your heart might feel like it's broken into a million pieces. Sometimes, using music as a soothing agent, can be the perfect thing to help ease the pain. Cupid has some advice on how to use music to keep you distracted and focused something else other than your ex:

1. Listen to songs by strong women: The best songs for a breakup are ones sung by strong, independent women. Women like Gloria Gaynor and Lara Fabian sing about different types of breakups, but they all have one thing in common – survival. If you're ready to stop crying yourself to sleep listening to the blues, change your tunes to songs like "Survivor/Independent Woman" by Destiny's Child or Christina Aguilera's "Fighter". These women will help you push through the pain and look forward to a brighter future.

2. Learn how to play a musical instrument: Forget about just listening to music, you want to create your own. If you'd rather take a more active approach to getting over your breakup, find an instrument you see yourself becoming interested in and get some help learning how to play. Start out by learning your favorite song and soon you'll see a change in your attitude. You'll be back in the dating game in no time.

3. Do a Taylor Swift: If you're already musically inclined, go ahead and write all of the emotions you have toward your ex down on paper. Turn those words into lyrics and think of a melody. Once you're happy with your little creation, try your hand at performing the song in front of some supportive friends. Whether you belt out words of hate or love, any kind of creative outlet you use to express yourself will help you work toward moving on with your life.

A source close to the couple said, "She tried, they both tried. They're both good people. It was just not the right thing for either of them right now."

What are some ways to cope with the aftermath of a fresh split?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up with a partner is never an easy pill to swallow. The pain of breaking up with someone you thought was the love of your life can feel unbearable. If it's a fresh split, you're probably feeling hurt, angry and sad – all of that is OK to feel! Cupid has some advice on how to get over the initial pain of a breakup:

1. Have a girl's night out: It's very important for you to have a support system once you break things off with your boo. You want to surround yourself with people who love you unconditionally and that's where your girlfriends come in. Have a movie night or dance away your sorrows at a club. You'll find it easier to get back to being yourself with your girls around.

2. Give yourself some time: Time is the best healer! Don't rush into a new relationship just to help ease the pain of losing someone you once loved. Be patient with yourself and let the tears fall. It's OK to cry over the lose of a relationship. In the end, you will feel and be better for it.

3. Stay active: Lounging around in bed for weeks may seem like a good idea, but it won't make you feel any better! You need to continue to do things you were doing before the breakup. Take up a new hobby, participate in an art class – do whatever you have to do to regain your focus in life. Once you're finally over your ex, you'll be glad you didn't hide under the covers the whole time.

What are some ways to let go of a past relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Letting go of a past relationship isn’t easy to do. You most likely still cling on to text messages, what ifs, old clothes, every minute thing about them. This is not the ideal situation to be in, however, it’s realistic. There are numerous ways to let go of this relationship. Although it is hard to do, it’s possible. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Closure: To completely let go of a past relationship, you will need closure. You may not wish to speak to your ex whatsoever but you need to. It is essential that you discover what went wrong and why you officially let things end. Give your ex any belongings you may have of theirs. It will make you feel better by not seeing them. If you must, delete them from social media sites, your phone. Any thing you have to do to not see them in your life.

2. Forgiveness: A key component of letting go is to forgive not only yourself, but your ex. If you think there is no forgiveness to be had, think again. The countless nights you spent obsessing about your relationship, the amount of Ben & Jerry’s consumed, the fights you may have got into. Forgive yourself for all of them, you are human and are allowed to feel. Even if you don’t wish to forgive your ex, do it. It makes the moving on process quicker.

3. Focus on yourself: You need a time period after your breakup to focus solely on yourself. It is essential for letting go. Take a day off of work and your daily responsibilities to go to the spa, or walk around the park. Treat yourself to a new gift. Call your parents. Figure out what you want here on out relationship wise. Make sure you are ready to get into a relationship before you hop onto a new mate.

Dating Advice: 3 Ways to Use the Psychic Edge to Find Mr. Right

By Louise Helene

Celebrities face the same challenges in love as everyone else, only their mistakes and heartbreaks are made public. Many of them seem to be repeating the same mistakes. If they would just listen to their inner intuition, or their “psychic edge,” their love lives would be much happier. Here are a few exercises that can help them and you:

Related: Is That You, Mr. Right?

1. Visualize Your Dream Man

Visualization is a powerful tool not only to draw to us what we want, but to exercise our psychic muscles. When we focus on something, we help the universe send it to us. I psychically feel Kim Kardashian longs for her soulmate. Because of her numerous failed relationships, many people wonder if it will last with Kanye West. Kim should lie down in a quiet place and get comfortable, closing her eyes and taking a few deep breaths. When she is totally relaxed, she should visualize the man of her dreams, being as detailed as possible. Once she has a clear image, she needs to say out loud, “Darling, I will know you when I meet you,” repeating this five times. Kim’s main problem is not recognizing her dream man when he comes along; this exercise will help her – and you – to do just that.

Related: Fishing for Mr. Right – Types of Guys to Throw Back

2. Command Him into Your Life

Never underestimate the power of sound, especially your own voice. Sound vibrations are very powerful in the universe and help us focus intuitively, helping us make the right decisions. Taylor Swift is one celebrity who’s famous for singing about her Mr. Wrongs. She could use a psychic nudge to attract Mr. Right.

Every morning when Taylor wakes up, she should look in the mirror, close her eyes and take three deep, relaxing breaths before saying out loud, "Love of my life, come to me." She should say this three times, with confidence and belief, and repeat this mantra before she goes to bed. Done regularly, she might be planning a wedding in the coming year.

3. Write Down the Possibilities

There are many potential conclusions to any romance. Writing down these possibilities gives us a powerful psychic edge. What does your gut say? Just imagine the heartbreak that could have been avoided if Katy Perry, Selena Gomez, or Demi Moore had tried this simple exercise.

Whenever you have a question about a man in your life, write several statements about him down on slips of paper and fold them in half. For example: "he is a cheater," "he loves his ex," or "he is my soulmate." Put all the slips of paper in a bowl. Close your eyes and meditate for a moment before randomly choosing one of the slips of paper. What is your immediate reaction to the statement? Many times our conscious mind suppresses our natural insight. This is a wonderful way to feel the subtle sensations of your own intuition.

Romance is very challenging for all women, famous or not; that's one thing we all have in common. We need to start using our psychic edge to find the happiness we deserve.

What do you do if you're not sure what you want out of a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

If you are not more than eighty percent positive you should be in the relationship you're in, you should reconsider it. Not knowing where you should be in life means you need to think more about you. You shouldn't delve further into someone else's life if you don't know your own. Cupid has some more advice on not wanting to be in a relationship:

1. Get out: Being in a relationship when you don't know what you want is a sign to get out. If you don't know what you want out of it, you should not be in a committed relationship. It isn't fair to your partner if you're not positive of what you want. Save the despair and heartbreak for your mate, and leave the relationship now. It may be difficult to do, but in the long haul it is worth it.

2. Effective communication: Communication is necessary if you're not sure what you want out of a relationship. Make sure your partner knows what you're thinking and feeling. Inform them about your confusion and anxiety of the relationship. If they are not aware that you may act differently, or may abruptly leave the relationship, let them know. Fill your mate in on everything.

3. Self-exploration: Okay, you're not sure what you want of a relationship...now is your time to explore. Hop out of the relationship and do some self exploration. Do things you wouldn't normally do in a relationship. Do things you normally wouldn't do in general. Go out of your comfort zone and find out who you are. Find out what you want out of relationships so you can go back into them.

Celebrity News: 5 Best Celebrity Pranks

By Whitney Baker Johnson

Everybody loves a good prank – and celebrities are no different. Of course, their pranks usually get more attention than those executed by everyday folks. They have endless means at their disposal (including a fan base to share the funny news) and often take pranking to a whole new level. In honor of April Fools' Day, we pulled together this list of our five favorite celebrity pranks (in no particular order):

1. George Clooney versus Brad Pitt: These two leading men are involved in an ongoing war of pranks both on and off film sets. It started when Clooney put a bumper sticker on Pitt's car that read, "I'm gay and I vote." In response, Pitt bought a few ads in the Hollywood trade papers about Clooney being twice named People magazine's "Sexiest Man Alive." Wonder what these actors have up their sleeves next!

2. Ashton Kutcher versus Justin Timberlake: Who can forget MTV's show Punk'd, which was created, hosted and produced by Kutcher? One of the best pranks was played on Timberlake. One of Kutcher's friends posed as someone from the Internal Revenue Service and told Timberlake that he owed over a million dollars in taxes and that they were going to take all of his possessions – even his dogs. The "Suit & Tie" singer was nearly brought to tears before Kutcher revealed the truth.

3. Sarah Silverman and Matt Damon versus Jimmy Kimmel and Ben Affleck: Silverman paired up with Damon to prank then-boyfriend Jimmy Kimmel. Their hilarious video has had almost four million views on YouTube! To retaliate, Kimmel teamed up with Affleck, Damon's BFF, and created another video that featured Cameron Diaz, Brad Pitt, Don Cheadle and more.

4. Taylor Swift versus Keith Urban: To ensure that her tour with Urban ended on high note, Swift decided that pranking was a must. The country starlet, along with a few of her band members, dressed up in full KISS makeup and outfits and rushed the stage while Urban performed "Kiss a Girl." Certainly made for a memorable photo op!

5. Khloe Kardashian and Nicole Richie versus Kim Kardashian: In 2010, Khloe and Nicole teamed up to prank Khloe's big sister, Kim. They hacked into her Twitter account and posted hilarious updates until the reality star figured it out.

Luckily, she was a good sport about the joke and later tweeted, “That was hands down the funniest April Fools’!!”

Celebrity Couples Who Are Unlucky in Love

By Andrea Surujnauth

Celebrities' love lives are made public for the whole world to see and to judge. But even though some celebrities are all over the place with their love interests, that doesn't mean that there is no hope for them. A big celebrity that we all had our doubts about was Jennifer Aniston. From a broken engagement with Tate Donovan to a relationship with Paul Rudd to a failed marriage with Brad Pitt to a brief fling with Paul Sculfor to short relationships with both Vince Vaughn and John Mayer, Aniston has a long list of past unions that simply didn't work out. Now Aniston has finally found her leading man, Justin Theroux. The two started dating in 2011 and got engaged a year later. So although we thought Jennifer Aniston couldn't find love, after all these years she has finally found "the one."

The question is, are celebrities really that much different than us? Or do their love lives just look dysfunctional because they are always in the public eye? Let's take a look at a few more celebrities who have had trouble finding love and you can decide for yourselves:

Britney Spears:

Britney Spears became a pop idol sensation during the early 1990's. She began a relationship with Reg Jones from 1995 but ended it in 1997. She had a brief fling with Jason Geddard in 1997. By 1998 Spears moved on to begin her infamous relationship with Justin Timberlake. Their relationship lasted four years, and then Spears then moved on to her producer and dance choreographer, Wade Robson. They were together from 2001-2002. By 2003, Spears was rumored to be dating Tom Brady, Fred Durst, Nick Carter, Jared Leto, and Columbus Short. 2004 was Spears' wildest year yet. She got married...twice! First up at the altar was Jason Alexander, who was Spears' childhood friend. They were hitched during a drunken night in Vegas and annulled the marriage a few days later. Husband number two was Kevin Federline, one of Spears' background dancers. The two were together for three years and had two kids together. Spears then dated J.R Rotem, Issac Cohen, Howie Day, Criss Angel, and Adnan Ghalib. Spears then found love with Jason Trawik. The two were engaged for three years, but decided to call the wedding off. Lately, Spears has been seen with a new boyfriend named David Lucado, an employee at a law firm.

Taylor Swift:

Taylor Swift may be young, but she already has quite a reputation with the fellas. Swift first began a romantic relationship with Joe Jonas of the Jonas Brothers in 2008. This relationship didn't last very long because Swift moved onto her "You Belong With Me" co-star, Lucas Till. By the summer of 2009, Swift switched over to new boy toy, Taylor Lautner. The relationship was over by December of 2009. In 2010, Swift fired up a relationship with John Mayer, which only lasted a few months. Jake Gyllenhaal was Swift's next victim. They broke up in 2011. Conor Kennedy was the next heartthrob to date Swift. This relationship lasted a few months as well. She went on to One Direction's Harry Styles and the two broke up after a while.

John Mayer:

John Mayer has quite a long list of love interests. Here is only a handful of the women on Mayer's list...just to name a few. In 2002 John Mayer was reportedly dating actress Jennifer Love Hewitt. The relationship was short-lived. He then moved on to dating Jessica Simpson in 2006. However, by the next year, Mayer began dating Minka Kelly. That only lasted a few months as well because by the year after that, 2008, Mayer began an on-again off-again relationship with Jennifer Aniston. He was apparently serious about her since he reportedly told Rolling Stones that the breakup "was one of the worst times of my life." He bounced back pretty quickly since by a little while after the breakup, he began dating Taylor Swift which lasted from 2009-2010. He then moved on to Katy Perry. The two seem to have an on-again off-again relationship going on. Lets see how long this one lasts!

Demi Moore:

In 1980, Moore was married to Freddy Moore. Their marriage lasted 5 years. In 1985, she became engaged to Emilio Estevez. The two had plans to wed in 1986 but called it off. By 1987, Moore was married to husband number two, Bruce Willis. The two were married for 13 years and had 3 daughters together. They were divorced in 2000. She then began a relationship with Asthon Kutcher who is 16 years younger than her. After dating for two years, Kutcher and Moore were married in September 2005. The marriage lasted a while but the two announced their divorce in 2011. Infidelity was rumored to be the cause of the divorce.

Celebrity Taylor Swift on relationships: I'm Not a "Clingy, Insane, Desperate Girlfriend"

By Andrea Surujnauth

Taylor Swift finally decided to address all the rumors about her crazy love life. Rumors have circulated that the 23-year-old has had multiple boyfriends and every time she breaks up with one, she writes a song to bash him. According to UsMagazine.com, Taylor told Vanity Fair, "If you want some big revelation, since 2010 I have dated exactly two people." These two people were Conor Kennedy and One Direction singer, Harry Styles. Swift's list of alleged celebrity beaus include Jake Gyllenhaal, John Mayer, Joe Jonas and Taylor Lautner – many of whom she has apparently written break up songs about. Swift addresses this issue by stating, "The fact that there are slide shows of a dozen guys that I either hugged on a red carpet or met for lunch or wrote a song with. . . it's just kind of ridiculous." In regards to the songs that she in fact did write based on a relationship she says, "For a female to write about her feelings, and then be portrayed as some clingy, insane, desperate girlfriend in need of making you marry her and have kids with her, I think that's taking something that potentially should be celebrated – a woman writing about her feelings in a confessional way –that's taking it and turning it and twisting it into something that is frankly a little sexist.”

What are some qualities that make someone a good girlfriend?

Cupid's Advice:

What do guys look for in a girlfriend? What traits are the most important in a good girlfriend? What's most important is to be yourself. Cupid is here with a few traits that most guys find irresistible:

1. Independent: Being independent does not mean that you have to be the tough guy in your relationship but guys don't like a girl that acts like she can't function without him around. Acting needy tends to chase guys away. Show that you can take care of yourself and be a big girl. No guy wants to baby-sit their girlfriend.

2. No nagging: Guys don't want a girlfriend that will create an argument over the most miniscule issues. Leaving clothes on the floor is not a reason to cause a big blow-out argument. Save your anger for when there is actually a reason to be angry. Choose your battles wisely and don't treat your man like a child.

3. Intelligence: No guy wants a girl that does not know up from down. He wants to be able to hold a conversation with his sweetheart. Guys don't just want a girl that is nice to look at, they want one that they can be proud of. If you act like a dunce, he will be too embarrassed to bring you around his friends and family.

Is Taylor Swift Impersonating Ex-Beau Harry Styles in New Music Video?

By Andrea Surujnauth

According to UsMagazine.com, Taylor Swift seems to be impersonating her ex-boyfriend, Harry Styles, in her new music video for her track "22". She was seen dressed up in a green beanie and baggy white shirt, identical to her ex-sweetheart during the video shoot on February 12th. UsMagazine.com also mentions that the song "22" starts off with the lyrics "It feels like a perfect night to dress up like hipsters and make fun of our exes.” She is also seen eating an ice cream in a “Harry Styles outfit” for another portion of her video. As if that was not a big enough burn, Swift will also be recreating the lift scene from Dirty Dancing that her and Styles were photographed doing together at a party in NYC. These ex-lovebirds broke up in early January after only a few months of dating and from the looks of things, it did not end well.

What are some ways to deal with anger resulting from a breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

1. Write in a journal: Usually when you feel anger, it feels better to express your anger. Do it in a safe way by writing your feelings in a journal so you get the feelings out and you won’t feel like you are exploding with anger.

2. Cry it out: Crying always feels like a release of feelings. When you cry or scream, you won’t have anything bottled up so there won’t be build up of anger.

3. Treat yourself: Go for a day at the spa, hang out with friends, or go on a vacation. Taking care of yourself and making yourself feel good will make you forget about all the anger you are feeling.

Taylor Swift Sends a Message to Harry Styles During Opening Performance at the Grammys

By Andrea Surujnauth

Taylor Swift, 23, opened up the 2013 Grammy Awards with her hit song "We Are Never Ever Getting Back Together". According to UsMagazine.com, she took a painful jab at her 19 year-old ex-boyfriend, Harry Styles, from the group One Direction. During her performance she added a verse to her song "So he calls me up and he's like, 'I still love you,' and I'm like, 'I'm sorry, I'm busy opening up the Grammys.' And we're never getting back together, like, ever." Not only did she add this stinging verse, but she used a British accent for part of it which was obviously directed toward Styles, who is British.

These two ex-lovebirds broke off their relationship at the beginning of the year. They were vacationing in the British Virgin Islands when the two apparently got into a fight. Sources told UsMagazine.com that Styles “said something he shouldn’t have ... This [breakup] is definitely going to be for good.”

How do you resist the urge to get back together with your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Although it may be tempting, getting back with your ex may not be a good idea. You know this deep down inside, but you can’t stop feeling the urge to go back. Cupid is here to tell you how to resist:

1. Cut contact: Do not continue to talk to your ex. Stop looking at their Facebook or Twitter, better yet, delete them all together. Stay away from them until you feel you are completely over them. Seeing them or talking to them constantly will increase the urge to rekindle the relationship.

2. Distract yourself: Get a hobby or go out with friends. Fill your schedule up so you won’t have time to think about your ex-beau. As the time flies by, so will your feelings for your ex.

3. Remember why you broke up: There was a reason why your relationship did not work out. Keep that reason in mind. During a break-up you are tempted to think about the good times in the relationship. Ignore all of that and focus on the reason that the two of you are not together. This will help you realize that it can not work between the two of you so you need to move on.

5 Celebrities Who Don't Know How to Date

By Courtney Allen

Some of the hottest celebrities in today's world find their soul mates on the Hollywood forefront. Couples from the likes of Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie and Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez are deemed "the lucky ones" in just a handful of celebs who have hit the jackpot on love. But for others, dating is nothing more than a love taboo. After endless relationships, dates, splits, and shots at love, these five just can't seem to settle down with the right one:

1. Taylor Swift: If there's one thing Taylor Swift is known for, it's her willingness to share her heart-wrenching and disastrous relationships with the entire world. This seems to be one of the many reasons why this flawless Cinderella can't find a Prince Charming to last forever. Swift has dated a series of celebrities ranging from John Mayer to Jake Gyllenhaal and she has the songs to prove it. The musical genius even confessed her dating troubles, telling British Cosmopolitan, "I don't know how to make relationships last." Swift may not be able to make them last just yet, but practice makes perfect. The gorgeous musician recently split from One Direction's Harry Styles.

2. John Mayer: Heartthrob John Mayer has a way with musical lyrics, but certainly not with the ladies. The smooth singer and his unfavorable habits were exposed with release of Taylor Swift's "Dear John," in which she calls Mr. Mayer out for a number of wrong-doings during their rocky relationship. The song called fans to speculate the 35-year old brown-eyed boy's past relationships, which includes celebs like Jennifer Anniston, to see if he was a repeat offender of breaking hearts. It's clear Mayer was nothing less than a heartbreaker for Swift. Let's just hope Mayer takes better care of alleged new girlfriend, Katy Perry.

3. Emily Maynard: Both The Bachelorette's and The Bachelor's Emily Maynard has been in the center of love's battlefield for the past two years. This sweetheart momma has been engaged twice since both shows have ended and still remains single. Her relationship status leaves us wondering exactly how this tan, blonde bombshell's fairy-tale like relationships take a turn for the worst so quickly. Not only are her engagements called off, but they end rather messy with ex-fiancée Brad Womack's insults and Jef Holms' digs on Twitter. Seems like the last thing Miss Maynard needs is for her next few dating experiences to be televised for millions to see.

4. Joe Jonas: One-third of the Jonas' Brothers, Joe Jonas, has had his fair share of dating experiences amongst some of the youngest and hottest Hollywood starlets. His flings include powerhouse singer and actress Demi Lovato, Twilight star Ashley Greene, and even girl next door, Taylor Swift. It is said that Miss Swift's "Forever and Always" is all about the boy band's lead singer, but Swift wasn't as forward in revealing who ripped her heart to shreds in this tune. Not much is said about the musician when it comes to dating, but it seems like he has some trouble keeping a girl around for good.

5. Flavor Flav: It's hard to forget Flavor Flav as he was once the face of VHL for his popular reality television show Flavor of Love. The ex-rapper searched for three long seasons for a woman to call his own, with at least twenty five girls to hand-pick for himself, and still ended up with nothing. Flavor Flav did eventually find what he was looking for, but none of the girls from his show proved worthy. Even so, we can't help but think the long chain-wearing goofball has trouble dating after several failed opportunities placed directly in front of him.
