

Taylor Swift References “Dramatic” Ex-Boyfriends at Teen Choice Awards

By Laura Seaman

Taylor Swift struck again as she made a clever comment about her ex-boyfriends at the Teen Choice Awards, according to UsMagazine.com. The country star was presenting the award for Choice Actor in a Drama Movie when she made the comment, “I was excited when they asked me to come and present this award, because no one knows more about dramatic males than I do.” One of her exes, Harry Styles, won multiple awards with his band One Direction that night, and he ended up beating Swift for the Choice Smile award.

What are some ways to deal with dramatic exes?

Cupid's Advice:

Most people try to avoid drama, and for good reason. It's immature, annoying, and can seriously mess up relationships. It's hard enough to date a dramatic person, but sometimes it's even more difficult to deal with a dramatic ex. They can't seem to just move on, and they want everyone to know about it. Here are some tips to deal with that ex who doesn't know when to end the drama:

1. Unfriend and unfollow them on social media. Passive aggressive Facebook statuses and mopey song lyrics on Twitter can get really old really fast. If you really want to get rid of this annoying virtual drama, the solution is simple: get rid of that person on your social media. No more notifications from them!

2. Avoid places where they might be. Dealing with a dramatic ex is even worse when it's in person, so while it might be a bit inconvenient at times, it's worth it to avoid the awkward staring, whispering behind your back, or even a scene if your ex is super dramatic. If you know your ex is going to be somewhere, do your best to avoid that place at all costs! It's not cowardly, it's smart.

3. Don't give in to the drama. Sometimes your ex will try to drag you into the drama and try their best to make you respond. Whatever you do, don't give them the satisfaction of reacting! Ignore them and don't let their words get to you. Maintain your composure and let them make a fool of themselves without you. Sometimes it might be tempting to shout back and put them in their place, but this is what they want and will only make things worse!

Lea Michele Dedicates Teen Choice Awards Glee Win to Cory Monteith

By Kerri Sheehan

Gleeks far and wide had to dry their eyes this Sunday night during the Teen Choice Awards. Lea Michele, 26, dedicated the award she won for her portrayal of Glee's Rachel Berry to deceased boyfriend and cast member, Cory Monteith. Her appearance at the awards show is the Glee beauty's first since Monteith's July 13th death. She made sure to thank fans for their love and support during, "These very difficult past few weeks," reported People.

What are some ways to honor a deceased partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding ways to honor a deceased loved one is an important part of learning to live with their death. Cupid has some ideas on how to do so:

1. Love what they loved: Anyone who passes leaves behind a great number of things. Whether they are children, pets, family, friends or mementos, hold on to those things your partner once treasured. This will help to remind you of them and all the great times you had together.

2. Remember them: As time passes, you may wish to forget about your time together completely as you think that will hurt less, however that is not the case. The time you two spent loving and supporting each other can't be replaced and it was special. Choosing to forget it would be a shame.

3. Accomplish their goals for them: Go somewhere your loved one always wanted to visit, or take up a hobby that they wish they had time for. This will help you feel more connected to the deceased person and will help you accept their passing.

Danielle Jonas Debuts Tiny Baby Bump at 2013 Teen Choice Awards

By Kerri Sheehan

The Jonas Brothers will soon be adding another member to their pop group as Danielle Jonas is expecting! The wife to the Married with Jonas reality star Kevin Jonas debuted her mini baby bump at the Teen Choice Awards this past Sunday. Clad in a short yellow flowered frock, the 25-year-old mom to be was glowing. The couple announced the pregnancy in July when the excited future father tweeted, "It's true – Danielle is pregnant! Can't even imagine how excited we are. I can't wait to share this with my best friend. I love you baby," according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you show off a baby bump in a tasteful manner?

Cupid's Advice:

What better way to show you're going to be a proud mama than to tastefully dress your baby bump? Cupid has some advice about what to wear during those 9 months:

1. Cover up: It's important to remember not to show too much skin when you're with child. Super short shorts are a no-no as are deep v-necks. You're going to be a mom, so dress like it!

2. Dress the bump: If you're looking for examples of what not to do then you can look at how Kim Kardashian dressed during her pregnancy. She was often caught in too tight clothes that weren't maternity friendly, which ended up making her look uncomfortable and uptight. Stores have a maternity section for a reason, be sure to check them out.

3. Show it off: As soon as you try to hide the bump, that's when your clothing becomes a problem. You're carry a child in there so don't be afraid for others to see the bump and know that you're expecting.

Justin Bieber and Selena

Gomez Show the Love at Teen Choice Awards

When it comes to celebrity couples and the media, the feuding couple is always more interesting than the happy pair. That's probably why there are so many rumors surrounding lovebirds like Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber. The young couple decided to put these rumors to bed at the Teen Choice awards by arriving together and engaging in various public displays of affection, according to UsMagazine.com. Bieber even stated that he couldn't wait to see his girlfriend perform, "Because she's awesome!"

What are some ways to squash break-up rumors?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes rumors surrounding relationship problems can be lethal and can actually lead to a split. To make sure that doesn't happen, Cupid has some tips on how to stop the poisonous talk once and for all:

1. Utilize social networking: Use tools like Facebook or Twitter to post loving pictures of you and your beau to show everyone that you most definitely have not broken up and are in a good place.

2. Plan a trip together: When two people plan a trip in advance, it shows that you plan to be together for an extended period of time.

3. Ignore it: The best way to fight a rumor is to not buy into it at all. As long as the tall tale is not actually affecting your relationship, there's no reason to make yourself crazy trying to disprove it.
