According to ABC, viewers can expect many surprises such as unexpected guests and unlikely relationships. The first episode will air on Tuesday, August 8 at 8PM ET/PT!

In celebrity news, we're sure there will be no lack of drama in season 4 of Bachelor in Paradise! What are some ways to keep drama to a minimum in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Conflict naturally happens when you spend so much time together as a couple. Here are some tips to reduce tension in your relationship:

1. Be upfront and honest while it's happening: Communicate your pet peeves as they come to light, and do not save them for later. Calling out the problem while it's still relevant will relieve you of bottled up emotions that will later build up over time and explode.

2. Avoid passive aggressive behavior: Petty behavior will become a bad habit in your relationship if you feel the need to hide behind your real emotions. If you or your partner act this way, take a deep breath and evaluate how to confront the problem.

3. Don't let the small stuff get to you: You have to pick and choose your battles. Drama is bound to happen, but it's better to let it be over a bigger problem like cheating, than a smaller problem like someone forgetting to do a certain chore. You and your partners feelings are valid. Just consider what you're fighting over.

the upcoming season of Bachelor in Paradise! According to Entertainment Tonight, Olympios had been hinting at her appearance in the upcoming season of Paradise, even joking that she already had plans involving a fake boyfriend. Many people recall Olympios' dramatic behavior (anyone remember "make American Corinne again"?) throughout The Bachelor, making her a fan favorite even post celebrity break-up from Nick Viall.

In this celebrity news, Corinne is sure to stir up some drama in Paradise! What are some ways to keep drama out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone experiences relationship problems at some point, but drama is a whole other story. Cupid has some advice on how to keep the drama to a minimum:

1. Act rationally: When there is a problem arising, it may be hard not to completely freak out. Instead of demanding an immediate explanation, it can be more beneficial to communicate efficiently and understand each other's point of views. Try to act calmly and focus on having a productive conversation.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Sheds Light on 'Tough' Split from Lauren Bushnell

By

Noelle Downey

Bachelor star Ben Higgins is opening up about his celebrity break-up from Lauren Bushnell. According to EOnline.com, Higgins is letting it all out when it comes to the end of his celebrity relationship on his upcoming podcast with fellow reality TV star, Ashley Iaconetti. In the first episode, Higgins claimed, “Lauren will always be one of my best friends. I learned a lot about myself; I think she learned a lot about herself. It’s tough.” Higgins went on to share that his heartbreak over celebrity ex Bushnell is still “very fresh” because he truly thought that, “[she] was the one.” However, Higgins is also the first to acknowledge that the Hollywood relationship had real problems. “Mutually Lauren and I saw that life was getting more difficult,” Higgins admitted, “I would say the joy that we felt toward our relationship at the beginning was—for some reason—slipping away.” He confessed there was “no real saving or redemption to be done” and that ultimately he felt that their split was “for the best.” Regardless, Higgins has hope for both of them, even if it’s as individuals, instead of a celebrity couple and stated, "I am a better man today because of Lauren and because of our relationship."

This celebrity break-up proves that when a relationship becomes more work than pleasure, it's time to let go. What are some ways to know your relationship has run its course?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be tough to know when a relationship is really over, but here are the top three ways that you can be sure:

1. When you no longer see a future together: A good way to figure out if what you're experiencing is a rough patch or really the end is to analyze whether or not you can still imagine a future with your partner. Can you picture a time when realistically things get better and you as a couple move past whatever it is that's causing stress on your relationship? Or is this conflict destined to be a part of your relationship forever? Your answer can help you determine whether or not it's time to move forward or move on.

2. When the love is gone: If you genuinely feel as if you've fallen out of love with your partner, then it's time to move on. If the thought of leaving provides you with more relief than you won't have to fake it any more than sadness, you can be sure that ending the relationship is the best thing for both of you. Don't try to force love or affection after a certain point. If you're not feeling it, you're just not. Let go.

3. When you feel trapped constantly: If your relationship has been reduced to nothing but a ball and chain around your ankle, think long and hard about whether or not you want it to continue. If you feel that the only thing your partner does is hold you back, consider the fact that you both might be able to go farther without each other. Sometimes the most loving thing you can do for another person is set them free knowing that both of you will actually be better off without one another, even if at first the split is painful.

Celebrity Break-Up: ‘Bachelor’ Stars Lauren Bushnell & Ben Higgins Split

By

Noelle Downey

In breaking celebrity news, there's an item that may have reality TV lovers less than enthused; The Bachelor alums Lauren Bushnell and Ben Higgins have officially called it quits. According to UsMagazine.com, the former celebrity couple celebrated their celebrity engagement during the finale of season 20 of The Bachelor and announced their celebrity break-up months later on May 15, 2017. "It is with heavy hearts that we announce our decision to go our separate ways," Bushnell and Higgins confessed in a statement to the press, "We feel fortunate for the time we had together, and will remain friends with much love and respect for one another. We wish nothing but the best for each other, and ask for your support and understanding at this time." Although the romance of their Hollywood relationship was well-documented on The Bachelor and on their follow-up show, Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After? audiences also witnessed some tumultuous signs of trouble in the couple's celebrity relationship, especially when it was revealed that Higgins had also confessed his love to contestant Joelle Fletcher during the run of the show. Bushnell acknowledged this did not sit well with her in several celebrity interviews, sharing, "I did carry some resentment toward him. I will never understand. I will never be the Bachelor."

This Bachelor couple has decided on a celebrity break-up. What are some ways to know you've done all you can to salvage your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to working out a rocky relationship, things can get tricky, and sometimes it's just time to call it quits. Here are Cupid's top tips on how to know when it's time to throw in the towel:

1. When you've tried talking it out... and failed: If you've sat down together, maybe even with a third party like a therapist, and honestly tried to work out your problems with little to no progress, that's a serious sign that you may have reached the final hours of your relationship. Of course, working through your problems takes time and effort, but if you feel like you've really committed to spending time working on the problem and nothing has been changing or getting better, it may be time to take a step back and take a long, hard look at whether or not this is a relationship you feel you should stay in.

2. When they're in love with someone else: If you feel as if your partner has some serious feelings for someone other than yourself and they're distracting them from being in a committed relationship with you, that's a serious problem. If your partner is in love with someone else (assuming you're in a monogamous relationship) that's a major deterrent to the success of your relationship. It may be time to acknowledge that it's time to let go and let you both move on to something even better than what you have right now.

3. When all that's left is fighting: Every couple has rough patches and seasons of their life together when they argue more than others. But if it seems that you two are constantly locked in a battle for the upper hand, and can't even spend any amount of time together without a big fight blowing up, it's time to call it quits. Let each other go, and let yourselves find someone else who you won't be in constant conflict with.

Celebrity Couple News: 'The Bachelor' Stars Nick Viall & Vanessa Grimaldi Defend 'After the Final Rose' Interview

By Wh

itney Johnson

The Bachelor star Nick Viall may have moved on to his next reality TV adventure – he’s appearing in season 24 of Dancing with the Stars with pro partner (and new celebrity mom to baby Shai!) Peta Murgatroyd – but that doesn’t mean fans have forgotten about his awkward After the Rose interview with fiancée Vanessa Grimaldi. According to UsMagazine.com, during a recent interview for The Ellen DeGeneres Show, DeGeneres commented, “I didn’t see the After the Rose because I could not commit to four hours of television” and then added, “I heard that some people thought it was awkward, that y’all were awkward together.” Grimaldi jumped in and replied, “I think we both went in it wanting to be honest and open about couples, you know, sometimes things can get tough. But we’re very committed to each other, we love each other, and that’s what we’re focusing on.” The celebrity couple has recently relocated to Los Angeles for Viall’s current gig.

There’s no denying that this celebrity couple came across as awkward in this season of The Bachelor’s After the Final Rose. What are some things to keep in mind when introducing your new love to your friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

This celebrity couple’s love story was in the public eye from the very beginning, but they still had to introduce each other to their loved ones – on national television, no less! If you’re ready to introduce your new partner to your friends and family, consider the dating advice below:

1. Keep it casual: There's already enough pressure on the first meeting of your boyfriend and your loved ones; don't add to it by planning a fancy dinner or letting your friends interrogate your man with an intense game of 20 questions. Instead, keep it simple with coffee or cocktails and encourage your pals not to grill your beau. They can ask you for all the intimate details afterwards!

After two rounds on The Bachelorette and one trip to Bachelor in Paradise, the reality TV star finally found The One on The Bachelor season 21 finale, which aired on Monday, March 13th. According to UsMagazine.com, Viall proposed to Montreal native Vanessa Grimaldi. After breaking up with runner-up Raven Gates, he began his heartfelt proposal. We can't wait to see if this celebrity engagement lasts. How do you know if you're ready to pop the question?

Cupid's Advice:

For Viall, this celebrity engagement was a long time coming – after all, he thought he found his future wife in both Andi Dorfman and Kaitlyn Bristowe! So how do you know if you're ready to propose? Consider this relationship advice:

1. You want the same things: Before you're ready to walk down the aisle, it's important to know if you both envision a similar future together. How many kids do you want? Do you want to live in the city or suburbs? Will you both always work? Marriage is a big deal, but talking about what comes with it should be easy.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Alum Juan Pablo Galavis Is Close to Getting Engaged

By Whitney Johnson

Whitney Johnson

According to the latest celebrity news in UsMagazine.com, former Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis may be off the market soon! Multiple sources confirm that the reality TV star is ready to propose to his girlfriend, Venezuelan beauty queen Osmariel Villalobos. “She’ll definitely say yes,” the insider reveals. “They spend all their time together, and she gets along amazingly with his 8-year-old daughter, Camila. All of Juan’s family and friends love her. They have talked about marriage, and both know it’s what they want.” The celebrity couple has been dating since last summer and are “perfect” for each other. Despite this happy celebrity news, we can’t ignore Galavis’s shaky relationship history: The ex-soccer star is known for his inability to commit, infamously giving his final rose to Nikki Ferrell on the season 18 finale of The Bachelor but refusing to propose or even say “I love you.”

This celebrity news has us skeptical. What are some ways to know you’re ready to get married?

Cupid’s Advice:

Only time will tell if this celebrity couple makes it down the aisle! If you think you’re ready to tie the knot with your partner, consider the relationship advice below:

1. You no longer want to change him: In the beginning of a relationship, it’s tempting to want your beau to be the type of guy who surprises you with a dozen roses, always picks up after himself, and can make a new friend anywhere, but as time passes, you may realize that’s just not who he is. Before you get hitched, you need to accept him as he is.

2. You’re willing to compromise: Sure, happy relationships are all about compromise, but marriage gives the word a whole new meaning. If your families live in different states, you can't spend Christmas with both of them, so you need to be willing to come up with a solution that works for both of you. Once you truly understand what it means to compromise – and you're willing to do so – you're one step closer to be ready for marriage.

This celebrity couple has gone through some hard times lately. What are some ways to grow from hard times with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship goes through rough patches, but that doesn't mean your love is doomed. If you and your partner, like this celebrity couple, can use the tough times to your advantage and grow from them, you may have a bright future ahead of you. Consider this dating advice:

1. Be patient: Conflicts don't get resolved over night. It's hard to practice patience when you're in a heated argument, but if you find yourself getting worked up, stop and take a few deep breaths. Patience is a quality that will help you get through so much more than a fight with your boyfriend!
