In celebrity news, there's nothing like facing over 20 exes at one time! What are some ways to deal with an ex who wants to talk?

Cupid's Advice:

The thought of talking to your ex can be extremely nerve racking. However, giving both you and your ex closure after the breakup can end up being a positive for both of you:

1. Stay vulnerable: One of the hardest things you can do is be vulnerable with the person that caused you so much pain. You have most likely already put up walls to try and protect yourself from more pain. But, this is only going to hinder you from actually talking about your true feelings and leaving with closure.

2. Be honest: Don't be rude or mean, but don't sugar coat your words either. This may be the last time you get the chance to speak to them and it is important you leave feeling like everything is out on the table.

3. Show emotions: Along with being vulnerable, you shouldn't be embarrassed or try to keep your emotions inside. Despite

In celebrity news, this turn of events has us wondering about Lauren and Ben’s relationship. What are some tell-tale signs that things aren’t going well in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Based on this celebrity news, it’s hard to know if this celebrity couple is headed for the altar or headed for Splitsville – but luckily, it’s easier to tell if your own relationship is on the rocks. Here are three signs that things aren’t going well in your love life:

1. You’re spending less time together: If you and your partner are spending more time apart than together, there’s a chance your relationship is headed towards its end. It’s good to have separate interests, but you shouldn’t use those hobbies as an excuse to be away from each other.

2. You argue constantly: It's one thing to have a fight every now and then; it's another if all of your discussions turn into yelling matches. Relationships are all about communication, so a failure to do so in a civilized manner is a tell-tale sign that things are headed in the wrong direction.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Break-Out Star Corinne Olympios Opens Up About Nanny & Promiscuous Behavior

By Cortney Moore

It seems like season 21 The Bachelor star Corinne Olympios can't stay out of trouble! The 25-year-old business woman and reality TV personality is making celebrity news once more for her appearance on The Ellen DeGeneres Show. Olympios went on to explain what she meant when spoke of her nanny. "Raquel actually works with my family. She's been with us for 18 years. She moved with us to Florida from New Jersey. She's kind of like my everything," Olympios elaborates. "Nanny is a word that I use for her because I have a lot of respect for her and she's kind of a mother figure for me, so I don't like saying cleaning lady or housekeeper." Nanny Raquel is only one reason why fellow Bachelor contestants have been skeptical of Olympios, but her sexually aggressive attempts to win over Nick Viall have also made the women in the house guarded. When asked why she's done the stuff she has on the show, Olympios says, "That is the real me. It definitely is a real side of me. But there are many other sides to me.” And ex-boyfriend Keith Berman agrees that there’s more to Olympios that meets the eye. In an interview with UsMagazine.com, Berman said, “They’re trying to portray her as some stupid girl, but she’s really not that dumb. She knows exactly what she’s doing.”

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to know that someone wants a relationship with you for the right reasons?

Cupid’s Advice:

Throughout your lifetime, different people will try to woo you into a relationship. Although it’s a sweet gesture, not everyone will want to be with you for the right reasons. Let Cupid help you determine which ones want to be with you for honorable reasons, and who to stay clear of:

1. Obsessed with your appearance: Everyone wants to be with someone that finds them attractive, however it can be bad if that’s all a person wants you for. Someone who only talks about the way you look doesn’t care for you. They just want you as arm candy to boost their ego or make others jealous. Find someone who likes you for you.

2. Doesn’t want to be alone: Be careful when you’re approached by someone who recently ended a relationship. They may be using you as a rebound without even realizing it. You can give them a chance if you want, but look out for any signs that show they legitimately like you. There’s no reason why you have to waste time being with someone who can't handle being single.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Villain Corinne Temps Nick Viall with Surprises on Latest Episode

3. Only wants that one thing: This seems obvious, but it should still be acknowledged. Someone who only wants to have sex with you is not relationship material. A healthy and functional relationship requires partnership and genuine love. Sure, physical intimacy is important in a relationship, but it shouldn't be the only thing.

Have you ever thought someone wanted to be with you for the wrong reasons? What did you do about it?

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Nick Viall Calls Two-on-One Date with Corinne & Taylor a 'Disaster'

By Whitney Johnson

On Monday night's episode of The Bachelor, reality TV star Nick Viall says his two-on-one date with Corinne and Taylor is "pretty much a disaster." For viewers of this season of ABC's hit reality show, this celebrity news, as reported by UsMagazine.com, shouldn't come as a surprise: The two ladies fought at the end of last week's episode as Taylor questioned Corinne's "emotional intelligence." On their two-on-one date, Corinne, this season's villain, tells Viall that Taylor "emotionally attacked" her, and Taylor later reveals that Corinne lied to him. Talk about drama!

Not many of us can relate to a two-on-one date scenario like in this celebrity news. What are some factors to consider when you're deciding between two potential partners?

Cupid's Advice:

On this season of The Bachelor, fan favorite Viall has to pick between 30 women – what a challenge! Luckily, for those of us not on reality TV, the choice is often between only two potential partners. But what factors should you consider to determine who is the best fit for you? Check out our dating advice below:

1. Compatibility: Physical attraction will only take you so far. Do you enjoy spending time together? Do you share the same values? Do you want the same things out of your relationship? Determine if you're truly compatible before moving forward.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Nick Viall Meets a Past Hook-Up on First Night

2. Common interests: Sure, opposites attract, but for a long-term partnership, it's equally important to have similar hobbies and passions. If you enjoy spending a lot of your free time outdoors, it'd be difficult to main a relationship with someone who'd rather be on the couch!

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Villain Corinne Temps Nick Viall with Surprises on Latest Episode

3. Compromise: A relationship will never last unless you're both willing to compromise. If you're always going to his favorite restaurant or seeing whatever movie she wants, it may be a sign that you don't belong together. You want to be with someone who will take your needs into consideration and meet you halfway.

In celebrity news, this pair is still experiencing some fall-out from their break-up. What are some ways to keep the fall-out after a break-up to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is never easy, and there are always at least some residual effects. That being said, you don't have to experience major negative fall-out. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure there's closure: Sometimes when break-ups happen, there's no closure. Whoever has done the breaking up simply runs away without an explanation. This isn't good when it comes to fall-out afterward, as the other person is no doubt going to want some answers. Make sure you leave everything on the table when you're going through a split.

2. Keep the gossip to a minimum: It can be tempting to gossip about your ex to your friends and family right after a break-up, but try to refrain from doing that. It will no doubt get back to your ex, and may cause him or her to retaliate.

3. Tell your friends and family to play it cool: Your close friends and family are no doubt on your side after your split, and they may want to stir things up with your ex on your behalf. Make sure to communicate with your friends and family and let them know that you’d simply like everyone to move on instead of causing any issues.

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to handle running into a past fling?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward to unexpectedly run into a past fling who you haven't spoken to in a while. Maybe things ended after only one night, or maybe it was a little longer than that. Either way, Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Be direct: You might be in shock, but the best approach is to simply be direct about things. If this person is no longer an interest of yours, tell them. There's no point in skirting around the issue, as it will just prolong the inevitable.

2. Keep it lighthearted: There's no reason to get into a drama filled or heated conversation when your fling with this person was short-lived. The pair met and fell in love on season 3 of Bachelor in Paradise, even getting engaged at the end of the season. Chalk up another celebrity break-up for this Bachelor Nation couple. What are some pieces of advice for breaking the news about your break-up to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re in a new relationship, it’s exciting to think about introducing your loved ones to your partner, but no one ever thinks about the potential reverse side of that. Rightfully so. But when that time does come to help soften the blow, here are some tips to keep in mind:

1. Don’t be embarrassed: Love’s a gamble. Breaking up can be mortifying, especially if you’ve had major plans and expectations. If a break-up hits you abruptly, take it in stride and know that things happen, especially in relationships. There’s no reason to be embarrassed, because it’s a normal part of life.

2. Be strong in your decision: Make sure this is a serious breakup and not a petty disagreement. If it’s serious, give it some time before you make any major denouements. Don't let the sighs and the sad faces break you down. If you've made the decision to breakup, either collaboratively or independently, don't forget that you've already accepted that.

3. Allow your loved ones to have their feelings: Although they weren't the ones who were in the relationship, it's obvious they'll feel some sort of emotion (be it good or bad) towards the breakup, especially if they were close with your partner. Respect that and allow them some time to register the break-up.

Cupid's Advice:

Rushing into a marriage could end it before it even really begins. These are some ways to recognize you aren't ready for marriage:

1. Anxiety: Planning a wedding is always going to create some anxiety. But, if that anxiety is taking over and shadowing the happiness and joy that also comes with it, it may be time to call it off.

Former 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Feels 'Disconnected' from Celebrity Wedding Planning

By Kayla Garritano

Will the wedding drama ever stop? In the Tuesday, November 1 episode of Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After? Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell made another attempt at wedding planning, then quickly moved on to other things to avoid more planning. According to UsMagazine.com, the little bit of planning they did included Lauren's sister, Mollie, helping the celebrity couple with their wedding registry. Ben immediately became defensive over everything and didn't want anything that they don't need. Mollie and Lauren ignored most of Ben's negative comments and continued making the registry. As the episode continued to show them arguing and disagreeing with things such as houses and what they "don't need," Ben took a moment to admit to the camera, "I'm very disconnected from wedding planning."

This former Bachelor is feeling isolated from celebrity wedding planning. What are some ways to involve your partner in wedding plans?

Cupid's Advice:

A wedding is a joint ceremony, where you learn a lot about your partner and deal with the craziness of planning a wedding together. You want to make sure neither of you feel isolated in the planning, especially if you both want to be involved. Cupid will tell you how you can plan your wedding together:

1. Take them on the hunt: When you're testing out cakes, or trying out the food, or picking out your wedding registry, make sure your partner is there with you. Show them the journey you're going on, and let them experience what you're experiencing. Your partner should be allowed to try what it is that you're trying, and have the same opportunity to plan out the wedding that you're both a part of.

2. Let them have opinions: When you have a dream wedding in mind, you don't want to let anyone else's opinions in. Well, what if your partner has something to say about the situation? What if they prefer something different? Make sure their voice is heard, and that you consider what they say. You should learn to talk to each other about what you're thinking. If you don't, that may foreshadow some problems in the marriage.

3. Compromise: Marriage is about compromise, as is a wedding. You are taking two lives and melding them into one. You are creating a new life for yourself the minute you say "I do" to each other. Do something for each other that seems fair. Take something out of the wedding that you love in exchange for putting in something your partner loves, and they should do the same for you.

Cupid's Advice:

It's your wedding! You want to make it your own and give it a personal touch. You and your partner should be planning a night to remember. Cupid is here to help with ways you can personalize your wedding:

1. Picture perfect: What better way to personalize your wedding than by putting your face everywhere? However, according to UsMagazine.com, psychotherapist and relationship expert Rhonda-Richards Smith dishes about whether she thinks this couple has what it takes to move past tensions, the biggest one being his prior love for runner-up JoJo Fletcher. The premiere of the show, which aired on Tuesday, October 11, started with the drama of going to Fletcher's After The Final Rose ceremony, where Bushnell said she is tired of having her Bachelor season 20 rival associated with the celebrity couple.

Cupid's Advice:

Leaving an ex behind can sometimes be difficult to overcome, especially if you have a lot of history. But for the sake of a new and healthy relationship, you want to make sure the ex drama stays out. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Stay away: If you're anything like Lauren Bushnell, you're going to want to stay away from the ex, even if it's for their new happiness with someone else. A friendly congratulations may be enough to help avoid any problems.

2. Realize you're happier without them: The reason why Ben didn't choose JoJo was because he was happier with Lauren. The reason why it didn't work out with your ex is because you know you're better off without them, and will be happier with someone else. Just make sure you know that before you jump into anything serious. We don't want those past feelings lingering into a new relationship!

Celebrity Couple Ben Higgins & Lauren Bushnell Celebrate Bachelor and Bachelorette Parties Together

By Kayla Garritano

From The Bachelor to the bachelor party! Celebrity couple Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell celebrated their upcoming marriage with bachelor and bachelorette parties this long weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, the Bachelor alumnae threw a joint party with all of their friends in Las Vegas! A picture shows them poolside with all of their friends on Thursday, October 6, just hanging out and celebrating before the big day.

This celebrity couple did not want to celebrate separately! What are some ways to bring all your friends together before the big day?

Cupid's Advice:

You don't need to have a traditional "all girls" bachelorette party or an "all guys" bachelor party. Sometimes, the best way to celebrate your last days of not being married is to celebrate together. Here are some ways to conjoin your celebration:

1. Wedding party field day: Have your wedding party get to know each other a little better by battling it out. Team Bride vs. Team Groom. This will let your party bond over fun activities all while having some friendly competition. Plus, it's kind of fun seeing your future spouse duel against you.

2. Vacation: Instead of a "party," why not take a trip somewhere together? It's just like a party, except you get to take a couple extra days off and relax for a little bit more. You still get to drink (responsibly, of course), and you get to enjoy each others' company, while celebrating the same thing.

3. Separate rehearsal dinner: You definitely need a rehearsal dinner the night before the wedding. The one with your parents and other family members, as well as the wedding party. But what about a dinner for just your friends? Get together with them all and enjoy a dinner. Make some last-minute wedding plans, and organize the aisle situation; who's walking with who? Just take it easy with your friends before the official events begin.
