By Mara Miller

Tyler Cameron addressed his future with Bachelorette Hannah Brown after she asked him out during the show's two-part season finale, according to UsMagazine.com in celebrity news. Does this mean there's a possible celebrity couple on the horizon? On Tuesday, July 30, Brown opted to make a "bold gesture" when she suggested the pair "go for a drink" on Nick Viall's "Viall Files" podcast. Cameron responded that he would love to and he wants to take things slow.

In celebrity news, Tyler is looking to take things with Hannah “one day at a time.” What are some ways to take things slowly in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Amidst speculation that Tyler Cameron may be the next lead man for The Bachelor, things may change if he keeps things going with Hannah Brown. We hope the best for these two! Cupid has some advice on how to take things slowly like Hannah and Tyler:

1. Have self-discipline: Taking things slow means you’re allowed to step back and think about your dating situation before you commit to anything. Don’t rush into bed, living together, or constantly text each other because you’re worried your potential partner will lose interest. Be sure to keep your head on straight before listening to your heart.

Sometimes time and space gives us a new perspective and makes us realize what we lost. Cupid has some advice to help you know when to give your ex a second chance:

1. You can see yourself with them as a part of your future:

When you think about your ex do you picture the two of you together? Can you imagine what your life would be like as a couple in the future? These are signs you might want to give your ex a second chance. If you can honestly see them as your partner for life it is worth giving the relationship another shot.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Speaks Out About Jed After Finale

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown ended her engagement to Jed Wyatt. Five weeks after their engagement, Brown was heartbroken to find out that her relationship with Wyatt began with lies when she discovered he had a girlfriend when he first entered the show. According to People.com, Brown said finding out Wyatt hadn't been honest was "heartbreaking" and that by being dishonest "he hurt [her] worse than anybody else did."

In celebrity news, Hannah wasn't willing to settle once she found out Jed had been dishonest with her. What are some ways to know your partner is lying to you?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, happy ever after is no longer in their future. Wyatt's dishonesty broke Brown's heart and left her unable to forgive him for the hurt he caused her. It is never good when you find out that someone you love has lied to you. Cupid has some advice to help you know when your partner is lying to you:

1. They say they never lie: Anyone who tells you that they never lie is lying to you. It is common for everyone to tell little white lies from time to time. Sometimes these kind of lies are okay because they are meant to protect someone's feelings or something of that nature. Getting caught in a small lie like that wouldn't have any real consequences. We all tell these kinds of lies, so an honest partner would have no reason to insist they never lie at all.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

2. Lack of eye contact: One of the tell-tale signs of lying that is upheld as true by science is when someone refuses to make eye contact. If your partner is normally someone who makes eye contact with you when you're talking, and now they are avoiding that eye contact it is a good indicator they aren't being honest about something.

3. They accuse you of lying: One of the oldest tricks in the books is to try to get the focus off them by pointing their finger at you. Your partner might accuse you of lying or cheating out of the blue. This blame game is often a way to try to justify their own dishonest actions.

What are some things you look for if you think your partner is being dishonest? Let us know your thoughts in the comments below.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

By Katie Sotack

The infamous Bachelorette windmill sex scene between Hannah and Peter was one of the most talked about moments this season. But according to UsMagazine.com, Hannah fudged the details. When facing off with Luke Parker, The Bachelorette confessed to having sex with Peter twice at the mill, yet apparently it was four times! Hannah announced this proudly in front of the studio audience, which included Peter's family. Still, despite (or maybe because of) the scandalous details, Peter's family could not have looked prouder as the audience gave the pair a standing ovation.

In celebrity news, Hannah Brown didn't hold any details back while talking to Peter on a recent episode of The Bachelorette. What are some benefits to being open about intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

In our Puritan-grown culture, it's not wildly accepted to talk about intimacy in public. However, American youth culture is shifting to see the perks in being open and honest about intimacy. Here's how talking about intimacy can benefit yourself and others:

1. Normalization: Talking about intimacy normalizes said acts of intimacy. America's sensationalized media presents idealistic versions of sex and love, which do not match up with reality. With this idealized standard we rarely see an accurate representation of our own intimacy. The girl and guy are perfect, never having bad sex or weird sex. Not to mention a lack non-heteronormative relationships depicting physical love. Talking about sex and the intimate acts surrounding it can ease the tension our culture feels around sexual 'imperfections' which fall short of idealistic standards.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

2. Ease the guilt: There's a famous Sex In The City episode where Miranda takes a lover who's so petrified of sex being a sin, that after every time they've been physical he must run to shower. Yeah, this was filmed in the '90s, but times haven't changed too much. Bachelorette Hannah Brown was thoroughly slut shamed by contestant Luke P. for enjoying sex with men she'd fallen in love with. By speaking out about about her experience at the windmill while in a supportive environment she was championed for something that had once penalized her.

3. Better sex: As sexologist Lindsey Doe likes to point out sex and sexuality are never one size fits all. But that's the way our culture likes to think about it, so partner's have been conditioned to fall short of our unique needs. Being open about your likes, dislikes, and experiences will not only work like a handbook for better sex but help to foster emotional intimacy between you and your partner(s).

As for Luke, he mostly minced words and contradicted himself in between commercial breaks.

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown faced Luke Parker after the explosive end to their relationship. What are some ways to get closure after a relationship ends?

Cupid's Advice:

At the end of the relationship, there are steps to be taken to ease the painful process. Instead of wondering "what if?" find ways to deal with your feelings and move on. Here are relationship tips to find closure:

1. Wallow: In the wake of your devastating breakup give yourself permission to wallow for an allotted time period. Take Friday off and watch your favorite movies while binging on ice cream. Or, call up your mom and talk about what happened. Allow yourself to feel all the confusing and painful emotions that come with ending a relationship so that you can make peace inside your head.

2. Seek socialization: After your weekend of wallowing, call your friends and go outside. Being around outside energy will widened your perspective and help you to see the world outside of your old relationship. Whether you want to go dancing or browse the local bookstore absorb the positive vibes around you and be mindful of the now.

3. Talk to your ex: When the time comes, speak to your ex to find closure. This step should only be taken after you've processed the bulk of your emotions and can be trusted to converse calmly without blame or aggression. Meet for coffee or somewhere else public to discuss the demise of your situation. Go in knowing that the goal is not to get your relationship back but rather to hear out the other person and grow from their experience with you.

Cupid's Advice:

Have you ever been dating someone and wondered, "When's the right time to hookup?" What's too soon, and what will they think of me if we wait a long time? Here is relationship advice on getting intimate:

1. Are you turned on?: The number one requirement to figuring out the right time to be intimate is being aroused. If you're feeling your partner, the environment, and the contraceptive measures are at your minimum requirements at least, you might be ready to get physical. There is still some question on whether this is the right time for you emotionally, but desire is the number one box to be checked off.

2. Don't be pressured: Just because your friend slept with their partner on the first date and your other friend waits until the 10th to get it on, doesn't mean these timelines are right for you. Only you and your sexual partner can decide on the who, what, when, where, and why of your sex life.

Cupid’s Advice:

There are some benefits to being open about intimacy with someone who has the potential to become your partner. Here are Cupid’s tips on positives to being open about intimacy:

1. Earn respect: Whether you’re being open about honesty to earn respect or because you want to gauge how much your potential partner will respect your views on intimacy, being open about your sex life can tell you a lot about someone by the way they react to the conversation. 2. Get what you want: Being open about intimacy will ensure your partner or potential partner know what you expect. You need to have a conversation before you're intimate with them. What do you do if birth control fails? What if they want to do something weird you don't want to try in bed? Are you worried about sexually transmitted infections? Would it make you feel better if you're both tested before you take the next step to play it on the safe side? The only way you will be able to communicate any of this is to be open about intimacy.

1. Make eye contact: One of the most intimate things between partners is making eye contact. If you want to keep the intimacy alive try this easy tip and make eye contact with your partner when you say, "I love you."

Cupid's Advice:

In any relationship, romantic or otherwise, anger is normal. Feelings of resentment, jealousy, or sadness can bubble up in a red hot rage. Knowing the right course of action to deal with an angry partner can be a challenge. Here are tips to calm the emotional forest fires in your partner:

1. Be patient: When your significant other is losing their cool it's important to remember this isn't about you. It can be easy to take offense to yelling or hurtful tones, but instead focus on what they're trying to say. Chances are they're truly hurt and not expressing it properly.

2. Respond in kindness: Because anger is symptomatic of inner pain, be kind toward your hot headed lover. Let your S.O. know that their emotions are valid and they are still loved. Meeting anger with warmth may help condition the insecurity that lies beneath.

3. Know when to call it quits: If your partner's always operating at the red hot level and you're left feeling hurt, it's time to end it. Anger is a normal response in small doses. However if your partner's always running off the rails and you feel more bullied than loved, it's not healthy. You can't fix someone's emotional baggage, no matter how much you love them, and if this anger is dragging you down it's time to go.

When you're first getting to know someone, there's no way to be sure that you're the only person they're seeing. There's always a little friendly competition at the beginning of a potential relationship. Cupid has some tips on what to do when someone else is interested in the person you're trying to snag:

1. Act your age: Some people like to act immature or childish to get someone's attention. That is not the way to do it. While using a childish voice or teasing a potential partner may get you temporary attention, it's no way to keep them interested for the long term.

Cupid has some tips:

3. Don't talk about your ex: Don't talk about your ex-partner. Just don't. Talking about them is a sign that you're not over them. If you talk about them, you're thinking about them. If

Also according to Johnson, the two had been seeing each other for a steady two months until the end of February. After seeing Clemmens cheat, Johnson left.

In celebrity news, Chad Johnson is publicly accusing his girlfriend of cheating in front of him. What are some ways to handle things when you find out your partner is cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

It can feel like a shot to the gut when you find out your partner has been cheating, especially if you thought you were both somewhere early in the relationship but your partner didn't have the same understanding. Cupid has some advice on how to handle things when you find out your partner has been cheating:

1. Don't publicly blast them: If there is any chance of saving your relationship, publicly announcing your partner's behavior is a sure way to destroy any chance you may have at fixing it. Slip-ups happen. Don't immediately turn them into the bad guy. Plus, it makes you look bad in the process.

2. Try to understand why it happened: Give your partner a chance to explain. Were they caught up in the moment at a party with friends? Did they not understand the grounds of the relationship? Don't let them off the hook too easily, but also don't immediately write them off.

3. Evaluate your options: Are they sorry? Was the cheating enough to make you want to end the relationship, or could you see yourself giving them a second chance? It's okay to take a step back to emotionally distance yourself from the situation until you're ready to make a decision.
