1. You’ll realize there was a reason why you broke-up in the first place: During a break-up, your emotions may have been getting in the way of your logical thinking. According to UsMagazine.com, Stanton was on Twitter commenting on the current season of The Bachelor, when she said, "Poor Nick! That slap looked like it hurt haha I could definitely think of someone more deserving of that... #thebachelor." In celebrity news, this pair is still experiencing some fall-out from their break-up. What are some ways to keep the fall-out after a break-up to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is never easy, and there are always at least some residual effects. That being said, you don't have to experience major negative fall-out. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure there's closure: Sometimes when break-ups happen, there's no closure. Whoever has done the breaking up simply runs away without an explanation. This isn't good when it comes to fall-out afterward, as the other person is no doubt going to want some answers. Make sure you leave everything on the table when you're going through a split.

2. Keep the gossip to a minimum: It can be tempting to gossip about your ex to your friends and family right after a break-up, but try to refrain from doing that. It will no doubt get back to your ex, and may cause him or her to retaliate.

3. Tell your friends and family to play it cool: Your close friends and family are no doubt on your side after your split, and they may want to stir things up with your ex on your behalf. Make sure to communicate with your friends and family and let them know that you'd simply like everyone to move on instead of causing any issues.

1. Just you two: Proposing in front of a lot of people may seem like a romantic move, but nine times out of 10, a one-on-one moment will be much sweeter. You'll have plenty of opportunity for attention after you announce the engagement, so consider proposing in a private setting or with just close friends and family in your audience. Plan a couples' vacation and propose at some point during the trip, or make a meal at home, set the room with flowers, and propose there. Let the moment be just for the two of you.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, “When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don’t think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don’t know if I’m in the same place as you. I don’t know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair.” Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you’ve got to let the person know that the feeling isn’t mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on “it’s not you, it’s me” convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don’t answer right away—and sometimes don’t answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you’re interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, "Hey, it seems like you're interested in me, but I'm not looking to date anyone" will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don't apologize—you're just not interested.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Contestant Robby Cries About JoJo Fletcher Hearing Rumors About Past Relationship

By Nicole Caico

Contestant Robby Hayes is one of the last men standing on this season's The Bachelorette. Hometown dates were on the July 18 episode, and according to UsMagazine.com, Hayes' mother informed him while he was home, "Your ex's roommate has made it look like you broke up to go on the show." This isn't the first time Hayes' past relationship with Hope Higginbotham has threatened the possibility of his new celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher. Higginbotham's roommate, Alex, and ex-contestant Chad Johnson have both claimed that Hayes ended the relationship to go on The Bachelorette.

This celebrity news has us indulging in the reality TV drama. What are some ways to keep things that happened in your past relationship out of your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how long or short a past relationship lasted, pieces of what happened between you and your ex can bounce around in your mind for a long time after. Don't let side effects from your last relationship spoil something good you have going on now. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Cut ties: If you haven't already, cleanse your life of your ex. Unfollow your ex on social media, block them if necessary, and delete the contact information in your phone. Communicating with your ex, or seeing posts, will keep re-opening your history. In order to keep your past relationship out of your new relationship, follow an "out of sight out of mind" based strategy.

2. No deja vu: Don't bring up the topic of your ex to your new significant other out of the blue. If you're visiting a place you used to go with your ex, try to keep that to yourself. If you're in a fight and your new significant other says or does something that your ex used to do, don't point it out. The moral of the story is, you're in a new relationship with an entirely new person. Your new boo shouldn't have to feel constantly compared to or reminded of the last person you dated.

3. Move on: Focus on what makes your new relationship different or better than your last and dwell on that. You should be looking ahead, and planning new experiences with the person you're involved with now. Remind yourself that what's done is done and move forward without baggage.

By Cortney Moore

In the latest Bachelorette celebrity news, JoJo Fletcher reflected on saying goodbye to her prospective beau Chad Johnson. According to People.com, Fletcher opened up about her celebrity relationship with Johnson, saying, "Chad Johnson was one of my top guys, but I started hearing about drama." However, it appears Johnson isn't too broken up about the split and is scheduled to appear on the reality TV spin-off Bachelor in Paradise.

This celebrity news isn't exactly shocking. What are some ways to get rid of an obsessive ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are rough. At some point you'll get over the split and will go on with your life. Your ex may not be as fortunate and may try to cling onto the past. Let Cupid help you get rid of your obsessive ex:

1. Tell the truth: Be honest with your ex and let them know that you no longer see a future with them. Telling the truth might be hard, but it's unfair to mislead and string them along. Your ex may finally let you go in peace if they understand there's no hope for a relationship.

2. Cut them off: Another great option is to cut off all communication with your ex. This includes ignoring texts and calls. By Stephanie Sacco

This season of The Bachelorette has been slow going. Some of the guys have been hesitant to kiss JoJo Fletcher and others haven't been getting the time they need. In celebrity news, Patti Stanger of Millionaire Matchmaker had something to say to them. According to UsMagazine.com, she says when it comes to kissing, "Take her hair, throw her against the wall and give her a big one! What is the problem? You're a man. Cupid's Advice:

Kissing is the first step to finding a romantic connection. It can create the spark between you and your partner. Cupid is here to help you find it:

1. If there's a connection: When the two of you decide in the moment that it's right to kiss, you can see if there's a connection between you. The first kiss can make or break a relationship. Take your time and really build up to it, but only if you feel something real.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star JoJo Fletcher Says Goodbye to Two Suitors Pre-Hometown Dates

By Nicole Caico

On this week's episode of The Bachelorette, JoJo Fletcher sent home Alex and James. According to UsMagazine.com, while Robby got the rose at the end of this week's group date, Jordan is looking like the front runner in the competition to become the other half of JoJo's celebrity couple. Remaining competitors

Chase, Robby, Jordan, and Luke will have to pull out all the stops in the upcoming hometown dates when JoJo will travel with them to meet their families.

In celebrity news, the hometown dates on The Bachelorette are almost upon us! What are some ways to prepare to meet your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter who you are, meeting your partner's family is probably one of the most nerve wracking things you'll ever have to do. Even if you know that the family who raised the amazing person you're with must be the nicest people on the planet, being nervous comes naturally. First impressions are important, so it's best to prepare as much as you can before meeting your partner's family:

1. The family tree: Before meeting your partner's family, ask your partner some questions about them, especially if you're meeting extended family and not just Mom, Dad, and siblings. Hearing some names beforehand will help you to feel familiar upon arrival, and some background won't hurt either. Who is on what side of the family? What ages are your partners' siblings? Get some info.

2. Contribute: Most people consider showing up to a first meeting with the family empty handed a mistake. First impressions are important, and it's beneficial to be as polite as possible. Bring your significant other's family flowers or a dessert. What you bring does not have to be extremely personal or a gift wrapped present, just bringing something to show you made an effort can go a long way.

3. Take a deep breath: Above all, just be yourself. It is worth it to prepare, but there is only so much you can do. Put on some nice clothes, grab a small gift, review names of family members, and just breathe.

Celebrity News: ‘Bachelorette’ Star ‘Bad Chad’ Johnson Claims Contestants Are Cheating on Their Girlfriends

By Nicole Caico

In the latest celebrity news, Chad Johnson, a former contestant on the current season of The Bachelorette, continues to cause drama. Though star JoJo Fletcher has already eliminated Johnson from the competition for his bully-like behavior toward the other guys, he's not done yet. UsMagazine.com reported that in a celebrity interview with Andy Cohen on Monday, June 27, Johnson claimed that guys on the show are "acting all nice and like they're such good guys when at the end of the day, they're cheating on their girlfriends, half of them broke up with girlfriends to go on the show." On June 20th, Johnson posted a picture of himself kissing contestant Robby Hayes' ex-girlfriend. Johnson chalks his behavior up to the fact that the show is a competition, saying, "It's a competition ... I'm going to do what I have to do. I treat my women very well. That's my thing, like yeah, I'm willing to do what I gotta do to get what I want when it comes to competition, but I'm very nice to my girls."

In celebrity news, The Bachelorette drama continues! What are some ways to tell that your crush is still attached to a former fling?

Cupid's Advice

It's clear that Chad isn't letting go. While causing drama on a reality television show is not something people do on the regular, falling for someone who is still attached to a former fling is a pretty common occurrence. Here's how to tell if your crush's heart isn't up for grabs:

1. Wearing your heart on your sleeve: If your crush is still wearing the clothes his or her ex left behind, the attachment is probably still there. If the person you're crushing on has made no attempt to remove or get rid of reminders of an ex, take it as a warning sign.

2. Topic of conversation: If all your crush can talk about is an ex, watch out. Whether your crush is praising or bashing the past relationship, the fact that it is being frequently brought up means it's still on his or her mind.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Villain Chad Johnson Defends Bad Behavior

By Stephanie Sacco

One of the biggest villains in the history of The Bachelorette came from JoJo Fletcher's season. Chad Johnson, the luxury realtor and nobody's favorite housemate, had something mean to say about just about everyone in the house. He also threatened one or two of them. However, according to UsMagazine.com he told Jimmy Kimmel post-elimination, "At the end of the day, it is a show so things are amplified. We try to be ourselves and we try to be who we are, but at the same time, whoever you are is amplified up about a million times." In celebrity news and gossip, Johnson has been seen with an ex of one of his fellow competitors, Robby Hayes. He'll be sure to start some trouble this August when he appears on Bachelor in Paradise. We'll have to wait and see.

This celebrity news has us skeptical about Chad's sincerity. What are some benefits to avoiding the bad boy?

Cupid's Advice:

The idea of a bad boy is always better than the reality. You see them in movies and books and believe that deep down they have a soft spot. Cupid is here to set the record straight:

1. Nice guys finish first: Bad boys might look nice (think James Dean), but deep down they may not always be the right guy. If you're looking for fun and no commitment, maybe you'll find that in a bad boy. However, most of the time it's just trouble. A nice guy will always treat you well.

2. Less heartbreak: A bad boy doesn't always stick around, and you need somebody who isn't going to break your heart (at least not on purpose). Find a guy who is all about you and who won't let you down. Don't settle for anything less than the best.

3. They're immature: Wearing a leather jacket or riding a motorbike isn't cool forever. After a while, it just gets old. There's nothing cool about being treated badly, and if your bad boy isn't respecting you, kick him to the curb.

Celebrity Wedding Tips: 'Bachelorette' Alum Desiree Hartsock Offers Wedding Tips in New Book

By Nicole Caico

Former Bachelorette, Desiree Hartsock, has a new book out that is full of wedding planning tips. In her book, My Fairytale Wedding, Hartsock promises to help brides achieve their own fairytale weddings “without breaking the bank.” According to a celebrity interview for UsMagazine.com, Hartsock spoke about wedding planning, saying, “It’s very stressful and a lot of people don’t realize how stressful it is.” She had her own celebrity wedding in January 2015 and now brides everywhere can get Hartsock’s wedding planning advice.

This Bachelorette alum already planned her own celebrity wedding! What are three important wedding tips to keep in mind as you plan your nuptials?

Cupid’s Advice:

Hartsock is definitely right on this one. Couples spend thousands and thousands of dollars on their weddings, but creating the same experience for much less money is possible. Whether you're financially splurging or trying to save money where you can, there are always things to keep in mind during your wedding planning:

1. Keep your eyes on the prize: As Hartsock says, wedding planning can be stressful. It's important to remember during the planning process what you're really planning for. Don't get so stressed out that you fight with your betrothed on a daily basis. The reason your wedding is happening is because you love each other. You also want to remember that the wedding is about your love not how much you spent on flowers and impressing your guests.

2. A little piece of you: A surefire way to make your wedding special on a big or small budget is to include personalized aspects in the ceremony and the reception. Talk to your parents or in-laws and see if there is anything from their weddings that you might be able to incorporate for your own—from the actual gown, to a piece of jewelry or a recreation of the bouquet. When planning, remember that you can personalize any part of your wedding, there is no real wedding rule book. Get creative with invitations, decorations, or your wedding cake.

3. Looks aren't everything: What is most important to keep in mind during wedding planning is that as long as you and your fiancé feel good about the plan, that's all that matters. Whether you're writing your own vows and DIY-ing your decorations, or reserving a luxurious reception hall and covering every inch of it in flowers, your wedding should reflect you as a couple and make you happy on your special day.

Cupid's Advice:

Drama and jealousy is a lot of fun and is entertaining on television, but not so much in real life. Nobody wants to date a "Chad." Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Counseling: If your partner has anger issues or if you just can't stop arguing, try counseling. There's nothing wrong with asking for a little help. Sometimes you have to ask the experts.
