

Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart: Date Night in Vancouver

Robert Pattinson and

Kristen Stewart got a taste of Spain last weekend at La Bodega, a tapas bar in downtown Vancouver. Though this date may have had the markings of a vampire coven when Breaking Dawn co-star Kellan Lutz along with a bodyguard joined them, it seems that sangria may have been the closest thing to blood that the Twilight stars were drinking at their hidden corner table. According to People, the group left the bar in high spirits. Filming of the final chapter of The Twilight Saga is set to continue in Vancouver until mid-April.

Is it a date if you go out in a group?

Cupid's Advice:

The answer is “yes.” As the Twilight stars have discovered, double dates, triple dates or even just dates with your friends can be bloodsucking fun:

1. Being a couple doesn't mean being exclusive: There are things that couples should exclusively share, but enjoying the company of others while out on a date can actually bring you closer as a couple.

2. Bring friends: Most couples share mutual friends. Why not share a night out on the town with them?

3. Double up: Double dates are always a fun start to the weekend.

Rob Pattinson Calls Dating Kristen Stewart 'Traumatic'

One of the most talked-about couples in Hollywood has had anything but an easy ride, according to UsMagazine.com. There’ll be nothing to say. It won’t fit into a headline anymore. It won’t fit into a template.” The hunky actor, 24, added that while his 20-year-old girlfriend knows what she wants, he’s still figuring it out. “Kristen is very focused on being an actress. I mean, that’s what she is – she’s an actress. Whereas I...I just don’t really know.”

How do you resolve conflicting career aspirations with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Just because you and your partner aren’t on exactly the same path doesn’t mean that you can’t work it out. Cupid has some tips on how to resolve conflicting career aspirations:

1. Support: No matter what your partner decides to do for work, support them all the way and if necessary, offer advice and guidance.

2. Sacrifice: If your partner needs to move for a job, ask yourself: which is more important right now, my relationship or my career? You can always compromise, too, and try a long-distance relationship.

3. Do your thing: Make sure your partner isn't holding you back or forcing you to do something career-wise. If he or she can't support your career change, maybe it's time to change relationships.

Rob Pattinson and Kristen Stewart Shoot Provocative Scene for New Twilight Movie

like Twilight lovers Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart will be getting hot and heavy in the third installment of the popular sci-fi movies, according to Digital Spy. The duo, who also spend quality time together as a couple off-screen, were caught in a compromising position in the most recently released photo from the film. Pattinson and Stewart met on the set of the first installment of Twilight and have been keeping their relationship under wraps ever since. Despite their professional partnership, the two seem to be in it for the long haul. Is it OK to work professionally with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There's a commonly held belief that people should keep their personal and professional lives completely separate. Cupid has some reasons it might actually be a good idea to work with your partner:

- 1. You know each other: Chances are that you know your partner better than almost anyone else in your life. In a work environment, you can achieve efficiency easier with your partner because you're able to see eye-to-eye on things.
- 2. Motivations are the same: In a professional setting, you often start to question your co-workers' motivations and wonder if they match your own. Especially if you're married, you and your partner's motivations are pretty much guaranteed to be the same. You're working for a common cause.
- 3. Enables understanding: The best thing about working with your partner is that it allows you to better understand each other. Instead of having a big portion of your life off-limits, your mate knows exactly where you've been all day and exactly what you've achieved. There's no mystery!

Joe Jonas Is “Head over Heels” for Ashley Greene

Despite being spotted holding hands at a Walgreen's and on a date at Disneyland, pop singer Joe Jonas and Twilight star Ashley Greene have been keeping their relationship under wraps. Recently, a source told People that "[Joe] is head over heels for [Ashley]. He thinks she is down-to-earth and absolutely beautiful. He hasn't been this into a girl in a long time." The couple have only been dating a few months, but things appear to be moving quickly – rumors circulated that Greene recently took Jonas home to meet her parents.

Why is it dangerous to fall in love so fast?

Cupid's Advice:

You can't help who you fall in love with, but you can control the pace. If things are moving too quickly, the relationship might fizzle before it has a chance to grow. Cupid says proceed slowly for the following reasons:

1. Missing out on the little things: If you rush into a relationship, you may overlook little quirks, pet peeves and the natural process of getting to know one another. Taking the fast track could have consequences that ultimately destroy any hope for coupledness before you begin.

2. Feelings might not be there: As they say, many people are "in love with love" and will rush a relationship to get to that place. The problem is that when that initial phase is over you may be left with someone who you don't really love. By taking your time, you'll have a better chance to get to know one another.

3. It's all-consuming: Like Greene and Jonas', a rushed relationship can take up all of your free time and alienate you from the rest of the world. If a split happens, you may find that you have fewer friendships and family relationships to fall back on.

Robert Pattinson & Kristen Stewart Steal Private Time

stars Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart have been forced to deal with one of the largest annoyances in Hollywood: the invasion of privacy. Recently, the young couple were using a secluded lakeside home as a way to escape the limelight together during filming breaks, according to E! Online. The home, a property nestled in trees and crafted with modern architecture, was “Robsten’s” alleged getaway retreat. Unfortunately, the property was soon made public by invading paparazzi and avid fans. Although Pattinson and Stewart are no longer renting the home, they have reportedly moved to an even more secluded property, hoping to finally gain some privacy.

How can you ensure private time in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

1. Plan ahead: Take a look at your schedules and find a time when you both are free from all work-related stress. Use this time to reconnect in your own home. The comfortable setting will make your private time more intimate.

2. Learn to say no: No matter how many events you are invited to, you can't always accept each and every one. Though it may be tough, clearing your schedule is sometimes necessary to have some quiet time with your partner.

3. Leave some space: Though seclusion from the outside world can do wonders for a relationship, too much of it can backfire. Be sure to give your partner some space periodically. You want your dates to be a breath of fresh air, not a mandatory rendezvous.

Twilight Co-Stars Caught in the Act

Robert Pattinson and

Kristen Stewart have been trying to keep their rumored relationship on the down-low, but they were recently caught snuggling in Montreal on the set of Stewart's new movie, On The Road, People reported this week. The duo, who co-star together in the Twilight series, are also set to heat up the big screen with steamy scenes as they begin filming Breaking Dawn. How much affection should a couple show in public?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is always a controversial topic. Some people think it's borderline tacky, and others think it's perfectly acceptable.

Cupid has some suggestions on how to gauge what is right for you and your partner:

1. Hold hands: In public, hand holding is a safe way to show affection. It shows you both care without offending those around you.

2. A quick peck: A speedy kiss on the cheek, or even the lips is nothing be ashamed of, and shouldn't make anyone around you think twice. It's a fast way to show that you not only care, but that you are attracted to your partner.

3. Do what feels comfortable for you: Sometimes it's best to just do what is right for you. The fact is, public displays of affection are not a crime. If what you are doing doesn't bother you, and you're fairly sure it's not making others around you uncomfortable, go for it!
