

Celebrity Couple Tim Tebow and Olivia Culpo Split Due to Virginity Vow

By Abbi Compel

Celebrity couple Tim Tebow and Olivia Culpo have called it quits due to a major difference. According to UsMagazine.com, Culpo called it off because she was not a fan of his virginity vow. This is not the first celebrity relationship that has ended due to Tebow's vow. Tebow still reaches out to his now celebrity ex, Culpo. She's not budging on her decision, though.

This celebrity couple has reportedly split due to a key difference. How do you know if you have enough in common with your partner to make it work?

Cupid's Advice:

You may think the person you are with has it all on the outside, but are they just as amazing on the inside? Cupid has some advice on ways to know if you and your partner have enough in common to make it work:

1. Activities: Do you like the same activities? Spend some time brainstorming some fun things you both like to do. If you can't think of one thing, then maybe it is time to call it quits. But if you find a list full of things, then it is sure to work.

former NFL quarterback Tim Tebow since September. This celebrity news only gets sweeter as Tebow allegedly thinks Culpo is “a goddess” and even writes her sweet notes all the time! While Culpo is being swooned by Tebow, Jonas has been busying himself with Kate Hudson, as the latest celebrity gossip reports they are a new flame.

This celebrity news shows that the world really does keep spinning after a break-up. What are some ways to start moving on after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Unfortunately there is no way to expedite the process of getting over an ex, but that doesn't mean it has to be painful. Figuring out how to find your place in the world again after feeling so down can be a smooth process if you have the right mindset. Cupid is here with 3 tips to help you move on after a difficult break-up:

1. Work through your feelings: Whether it's with a psychologist, your mom or your best friend talk to someone trustworthy about what's going on in your head. Express the hurt, the pain and the confusion you feel so that way you can learn to understand it. This is a healthy activity to help discover a new you!

What do you do if your crush starts dating someone else?

Cupid's Advice:

Better to have loved and lost, there's plenty of fish in the sea, etc. Any phrase really that will convince you to move on and stop wasting your time on a lost cause. You're emotionally vulnerable right now, and you have to protect your feelings by taking time for yourself and getting your mind off the sting of a stolen crush.

1. Don't be desperate: "When it rains, it pours," Tina Fey noticed as Liz Lemon on NBC's 30 Rock. This is a relationship phenomenon that happens because we don't like to see our options dwindle. Rather than giving your crush an ego boost and painful complications by confessing your undying love right after they've been taken off the market, take a step back. One ironclad guarantee is that your passionate declaration will fail if you think this is the time.

2. Don't be sad: Easier said than done, but if you're heading for a rut, make sure you start insulating your heart. Spend lots of time with friends, especially if it involves a night on the town, or new experiences, activities, and people. The fact that you lost your crush doesn't mean you've lost any important emotional connection. Don't let infatuation trick your feelings!

3. Don't second guess your value: When it comes to love and relationships, we are all so easily seduced, tricked, intrigued, hurt, and hopeful for the most ridiculous reasons. Sometimes there is no good reason, or sensible explanation, why events didn't bring you and your crush together, but worrying about these unseen and unmanageable variables can lead to self-deprecation. There's another crush out here, they're way better, and they're crazy about you even if it doesn't make sense!

On top of his exciting switch, Tebow is focusing on his foundation for children in need, telling People, "To be able to bring people together to raise money to help kids, and make a difference in their lives, that's what it's all about." Maybe this athletic Christian will soon be able to find someone who can help him with his foundation, all the while cheering him on as a Jet.

What are some ways to find a partner with similar beliefs?

Cupid's Advice:

The timing is really important in a relationship, as well as making sure you don't change for them. It's always better to find someone who shares similar beliefs. Cupid has some hints:

1. Look out when volunteering: If you like volunteering or any particular activity in your free time, you'll most likely find people most similar to you at these events. If they are volunteering, they also most likely have kind hearts. Keep an eye out for someone in whom you could potentially be interested.

2. Attend family parties: Most of the time, you share the same values and beliefs as the rest of your family. Try attending more family events where friends of the family will also be. You'll probably find a lot of people similar to how you and your family are.

3. Dating sites: If you have a tough time finding someone to fit in with your particular beliefs, try signing up for particular dating sites. There are many specific dating websites that can be used to fit your needs.

Chris Harrison Invites Tim Tebow to Be the Next 'Bachelor'

If the highly publicized dinner date with singer Taylor Swift comes to fruition as merely a friendship, Denver Broncos quarterback Tim Tebow may have 25 hopeful women vying to win his heart instead. The NFL star has been approached to be the next Bachelor, host Chris Harrison revealed on Access Hollywood Live Monday, according to People. Although Harrison apparently joked stating Tebow has already agreed to do the gig, Tebow hasn't confirmed whether or not he will sign up to pass out roses instead of passing pigskins.

How do you pick and choose a mate when there are a lot of options?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a variety of options to choose from is rarely a bad thing, except maybe when you're choosing your significant other. Whether you're looking for your lifelong partner or wanting to take things slow, choosing can be difficult. Cupid has some advice:

1. Figure out similarities: This is probably one of the most important factors to determine when looking for a mate. Of course you would want to spend a lot of your time with a person who has similar interests with you; so select someone who enjoys watching Star Wars movies just as much as you do.

2. Consider attraction: Granted, looks aren't everything, but you definitely have to be attracted to your potential partner. While she or he may not be dubbed as Maxim's 'hottest person of the year,' as long as they look good to you, then that should be all that matters.

3. Introduce to your loved ones: While your partner may be the most gorgeous person your eyes have witnessed, if they don't get along with those closest to you, that may create an issue for you and your relationship, resulting in an uncomfortable situation.
