Travel Tips: How to Plan for a 2021 Vacation in the Midst of COVID-19

By Nicole Maher

Nearly everyone who had a vacation planned for the year of 2020 needed to cancel due to the rise of COVID-10 cases across the world. However as 2021 approaches, with established health guidelines and the hope of vaccines, you may be wondering if the new year will allow you to travel again. While the state of the world is changing constantly, travel experts have revealed some travel tips for planning a vacation in the upcoming year.

Use these travel tips for planning a safe and enjoyable vacation for 2021 in the midst of COVID-19.

1. Plan in advance: It is important to plan a vacation in advance under normal circumstances, but planning one during a pandemic makes this step even more necessary. Travel agents recommend that you should book your tickets six to nine months in advance if you are looking to travel during 2021. This will allow you to get the best price on plane tickets, which will likely be limited, and likely allow for some time to cancel the trip if necessary.

Related Link: Travel Advice: Socially Distant Vacation Ideas

2. Research airlines: Airlines were one of the industries that needed to make the most changes following the spread of COVID-19. While your main priority in the past may have been taking the airline with the best deal, it is now more important to pick the airline that is the safest for your health. Use this travel tip to look at which airlines have maintained their new protocol the best and have been linked to the fewest possible cases of the virus. It is also important to look at the capacity of the planes and determine if you feel safe traveling with that number of passengers.

Related Link: Travel Tips: What to Pack in Your Carry-on During a Pandemic

3. Anticipate changes: One thing we've all learned throughout the course of this pandemic is that things change quickly. Even though it is important to plan your vacation well in advance, it is also essential to understand you may not know if the trip is confirmed until weeks before. This is especially important when traveling internationally, as many countries are changing their travel restrictions every few weeks. Having a smaller backup plan in case your trip gets delayed is a good way of accommodating any possible changes.

4. Support affected destinations: The pandemic has hit everyone hard over the past year, but there are some areas that have struggled more than others. When planning your trip for 2021, it could be beneficial to look into what travel destinations have experienced the largest financial hit since the beginning of the virus. Many of these travel destinations are smaller islands that make most of their revenue off of tourists. Make the most of your next vacation by escaping somewhere nice and helping out the local community while you are there!

5. Consider your health and safety: At the end of the day, there is nothing more important than your health and safety when traveling this upcoming year. Look into destinations that prioritize social distancing guidelines and have throughout cleaning plans. If possible, try to book a living space that does not share any common areas with other guests, such as a private house and separate villa at a resort. If your destination experiences a spike in virus cases prior to your visit, consider the option of rescheduling your vacation until it is safer.

Travel Advice: 5 Cold Weather Getaway Spots in the U.S.

By Nicole Maher

The summer months have come and gone as we get ready to welcome the winter season. Depending on where you live, you may be experiencing a change in weather for the next few months. Whether you are living in a warmer climate and looking to partake in some winter activities, or live somewhere colder and looking to escape the snow, we have some travel advice for you.

Check out our travel advice on five cold weather getaway destinations in the United States.

1. New Orleans: For northerners looking to escape the cold weather for a few days, New Orleans, Louisiana is a great place to visit. This city experiences a slight shift in temperature, making the winter months less hot than the summer ones. February is the prime time to visit New Orleans as it houses the city's annual Mardi Gras celebration. If you're planning on taking part in the festivities, it is important to plan your trip well in advance, as hotels fill quickly. The surrounding weeks around Mardi Gras are also great options to take in the culture and enjoy the weather.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Traveling Safely This Mid-Pandemic Holiday Season

2. Hanover, New Hampshire: If you're looking for someplace where you can take part in a variety of winter sports, New Hampshire is the place to visit. Places such as Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire host extensive winter festivals with ski-racing, ice sculpting, and polar plunges. Temperatures can drop relatively low during the winter months, so be sure to pack a heavy jacket and extra pair of gloves. If you're looking for someplace with a smaller winter festival, there are many towns and cities across New England that offer similar experiences on a smaller scale.

Related Link: Travel Advice: U.S. National Park Must-Sees

3. Death Valley: If you prefer sand over snow, visiting Death Valley National Park is a great option this winter season. While temperatures reach well over one hundred degrees Fahrenheit in the summer, they drop to the seventies during the winter months, making a midday hike much more enjoyable. This national park spans across both California and Nevada, and offers endless scenery options such as the Badwater Basin and towering sand dunes.

4. Alaska: For those brave enough to tackle the coldest of climates, Alaska is a beautiful place to visit during the winter months. Larger locations in Alaska such as Fairbanks and Anchorage offer events such as train tours and dog-sledding that allow you to take in all the winter scenery and spot some wildlife. Use this travel advice to visit between the months of September and March for your best chance at catching a glimpse of the Northern Lights.

5. New York City: If you're looking for a middle-of-the-road type of option, New York City is the best of both worlds. The temperatures are low enough to make it feel like winter, but there are plenty of opportunities to escape inside to warm up. The holiday season is a great time to take a trip to the city if you're looking to take in some decorations or ice skate at Rockefeller Center. Watching the ball drop New Years Eve from Times Square is also an unforgettable New York City experience.

Travel Tips: Fun Things to Do While Visiting Grafton, Illinois

Grafton is recognized for its all-encompassing views and lively city Centre. It is situated at the convergence of two great rivers in the United States namely the Illinois River and Mississippi River.

It originated as a river community. Thus, mills, quarries, and construction of boats were part of its early industrial practices. During the 1960s, it even housed a facility that mainly produced boats.

This breathtaking place is home to a local prized winegrower, water park along a river, an indoor ice rink in the banks of the river of Mississippi, and a zipline haven.

Upcoming Events of Grafton Illinois

The culture that makes Grafton one of a kind is manifested in its fun events throughout the year. Here are some of the upcoming events to expect in Grafton Illinois:

November 7th Winery Comedy Tour:

The Winery Comedy Tour is set to take place on the 7th of November 2020 from 8:00 to 9:30 in the evening at the Grafton Winery & Brewhaus. The evening commences with dinner at the Bluff City Grill followed by a tour along the river of Mississippi going to Grafton. The hauntings of the place, history, scary stories, and eerie sites shall be discussed throughout the exhibition.

Pere Marquette Lodge's Thanksgiving Feast:

This feast shall take place on the 26th of November 2020 beginning from 11 am to 5 pm at the Pere Marquette Lodge & Conference Center.

Everyone is bound to have full bellies and heartfelt memories.

Places to Eat in Grafton, Illinois

Situated within the confines of two rivers, Grafton is home to an abundance of seafood restaurants. Here are some of the stores and restaurants you might want to consider visiting while in Grafton:

The Loading Dock:

The Loading Dock is perhaps the city's top-secret. It features majestic and panoramic river views. It has elegant outdoor dining, ice skating, overnight lodgings, live music, etc. This is your go-to place for wedding receptions, birthdays, anniversaries, reunions, and the like.

Mary Michelle Winery:

This is in Pere Marquette Lodge. It delivers locally made but award-winning Illinois Cellar and Mary Michelle wines. The selection of wine is served solely at Pere Marquette Lodge.

Documents Needed When International Travelers Plans to Visit the United States

International tourists who wish to go to the U.S. must be ready to answer queries about Electronic System for Travel Authorization or ESTA application USA. You may apply if you want to have a new authorization for a person or group, plan to go to the US for vacation or business, go on a trip for 3 months or less. Individuals who do not have a visitor's visa, an eligible national of the Visa Waiver Program or a citizen of the country may also apply for this program.

The upsurge of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) cases in the country have led to instances where tourists may not be allowed to enter the U.S. for a certain period. You must always be ready for situations like this. Thus, if you are planning to travel to Grafton, Illinois, you should bring a certificate of immunity indicating that you are COVID-19 free and an ESTA travel authorization as well.

Remember that if you are sick, you may not be allowed to travel or even go somewhere else rather than your house. However, if you intend to visit Grafton, it should only be for the purposes of business or leisure. Also, it should not last for more than 90 days.

Tourist Attractions in Grafton, Illinois

Grafton is a popular tourist destination thanks to its outstanding attractions. Here are popular tourist attractions that Grafton has to offer.

Zipline at the Aerie's Resort:

The zipline at Aerie's Resort will undoubtedly give you a heart-shaking escapade. This treetop canopy venture begins at 14 West Main Street of downtown in Grafton up to Grove Memorial Park.

Pere Marquette State Park:

This is a stunning sweeping state park along the Illinois River. It is the dream paradise for every nature-lover.

Grafton Winery:

The Grafton Winery is an excellent place to warm up with wine tasting. The wines come in different varieties and are all delicious.

Great River Road Illinois:

This well-known road is 2,000 miles in length. It passes through ten states along the Mississippi River together with the hundreds of river towns.

Grafton Hiking Trails

If you love hiking, you will be pleased to know that Grafton is furnished with hiking trails. They include:

Hickory South, North, Fern Hollow, and Goat Cliff Loop:

This loop is a 6.3-kilometre trail positioned near Grafton, Illinois. It provides the opportunity to see the beauty of wildlife. This is chiefly used for nature trips, running, and hiking. Dogs can use this trail, but they must be on a leash.

McAdams Peak:

This trail consists of a 3.1-kilometer trafficked trail near Grafton. It is principally used for hiking and is available throughout the year. Dogs can also use this trail but still, they must be strictly kept on a leash.

An escape to this historic river town while experiencing the best of Grafton may be the best decision you will ever make in your life. Spend quality time with yourself and loved ones and let this beautiful place help you unwind and re-connect with nature.

6 Travel Tips for Visiting Disney World

By Nicole Maher

Whether you are going for the first time as a child, or returning later to enjoy the park as an adult, a trip to Disney World is always a great idea for a vacation. But, with the growing number of theme parks on-site and typically long lines, it can be hard to plan the perfect trip. By implementing some of the following travel tips and tricks, you will be able to make the most of your Disney trip and find yourself wanting to come back again.

Check out these six travel tips for planning your perfect trip to Disney World.

1. Decide what time of the year: The first step in planning your Disney World vacation is to decide what time of year you want to go. While summer is often the most popular time because of the weather, it is also the busiest. The holiday season is also a popular option because of the different events Disney holds at this time, but can also be crowded. Fall and spring may offer smaller crowds, but there may be less extra events to partake in.

Related Link: Travel Advice: The Best Games to Play on Road Trips

2. Pack for all kinds of weather: Even though Disney World is located in the warm state of Florida, it is important to pack for all kinds of weather conditions. It is likely that it will rain at least one day of the trip, so having compact, throw-away rain ponchos is a must. If you are traveling between the months of November and February, the weather is known to fluctuate a lot, so grabbing a sweatshirt and pair of long pants is a great travel tip to keep yourself prepared!

Related Link: Travel Tips: Flying with Pets

3. Pick parks that fit your group: Different sections of the theme park offer different experiences, so it is important to visit areas that suit the age range of your group. Magic Kingdom is a great option for younger children as there are less rides that have a height requirement, and many of the popular Disney characters can be found there. Epcot is better for older crowds because there is a larger focus on restaurants and bars than on rollercoasters and characters. If your group is a mix of different ages, try exploring a different park each day to satisfy everyone.

4. Use the hotel services to the fullest: The hotels located on the Disney World grounds offer many services, including wake-up calls from different Disney characters at the start of each day. The Bell Services at Disney hotels will hold your luggage if you need to check-in early or if you are leaving later in the day. Packages can be mailed to the hotels and held until you arrive, which can be a great way of avoiding bag check fees. The hotels also offer to pick up merchandise you purchased in the parks and bring it back to your room so you don't have to carry it all day.

5. Research restaurant options: If you're visiting Disney World with someone who has diet restrictions or is simply a picky eater, it is a good idea to research different on-site restaurants before arriving. Certain restaurants at the park offer gluten-free or dairy-free options to accommodate those with dietary restrictions. There are different eating areas throughout the parks that offer free drink refills as well, and are the perfect places to stop and grab some water.

6. Plan, but don't over plan: While it is important to prepare for your trip Disney World to make the most of your visit, there is no need to over plan. Theme parks can be unpredictable, and even after implementing the best travel advice and tips, there will likely be aspects of your trip that fall off the schedule. Be willing to allow for some flexibility on each day. If you miss out on an event because of a long line or bad weather, don't worry about it. After all, it is just an excuse to come back again!

Travel Tips: Traveling Safely This Mid-Pandemic Holiday Season

By Carly Silva

Traveling for the holidays will be different than any year before because of the COVID-19 pandemic that is surging through countries everywhere. Taking extra precautions to travel safely will be a must this holiday season, so be sure to check out these travel tips before setting out on your trip.

Here are five safe travel tips if you're looking to travel this mid-pandemic holiday season:

1. Mask up: This probably goes without saying, but the most important precaution to take will be to wear a mask wherever you go when traveling. If you're traveling on a plane or by public transportation, a mask will definitely be a must. If you're driving yourself or taking an RV, make sure to stock up on masks for rest areas or other public places.

Related Link: Travel Advice: U.S. National Park Must-Sees

2. Pack the cleaning necessities: Wherever you're traveling, you'll want to pack up some pandemic safety necessities. Put together a bag or carry on with extra face masks, hand sanitizers, sanitizing wipes, and disinfectant. These will be handy for keeping germs at bay while you travel. You can also pack immune boosters and packets to help prevent any sicknesses from interrupting your trip.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Flying with Pets

3. Keep your distance: Staying distanced from others while you travel will also be essential. Be aware of your proximity to others and stay six feet apart from others at all times. Finding socially-distanced activities to do on your trip is a great way to still enjoy traveling while keeping distance and staying safe.

4. Take care of your body: One of the easiest ways to stay healthy, especially while traveling is to wash your hands. Wash them with soap and water often, especially if you're traveling through public places, hotels, and restaurants. Avoid touching your face and make sure to cover coughs and sneezes.

5. Check travel restrictions: In order to travel safely, it's important to research what the travel restrictions are in your state, as well as at the destination of your trip. Make note of what places are closed and what activities will be available. Also, be sure to plan ahead for quarantine procedures in your state after your return.

Travel Tips: What to Pack in Your Carry-On During a Pandemic

By Nicole Maher

This year has slowly made its way from Summer to Fall, and before we know it, we will be right in the middle of the holiday season. With Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's on the horizon, many people may need to travel if they wish to spend time with their families. However, they still may have some hesitations about traveling during the pandemic. If health and safety are weighing heavy on your mind for the upcoming holiday season, try adding some of these travel tips to your normal routine to help relieve some of the stress surrounding your travel plans.

Check out these five travel tips of what to pack in your carry-on while traveling during a pandemic.

1. An extra mask: It's practically part of our daily routines at this point, right? Keys, wallet, phone, mask. With people coming and going from different locations, the airport is one of the most important public places to be wearing a mask. While you will already have one around your face, it is also wise to place a spare in your carry-on. This travel tip will help keep you safe in the event something happens to the mask you are wearing.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Traveling During the Coronavirus Outbreak

2. Gloves: Whether it is railings, door handles, or storage bins, you will inevitably need to touch different objects as you navigate your way through an airport. A great way to protect yourself from the germs on these objects, and spare yourself from continuously washing your hands, is to wear a pair of gloves. Stuff a few pairs of throw-away surgical gloves into your carry-on so that you can change them as needed, and reveal some of the stress of feeling like you need to constantly clean your hands.

Related Link: Travel Tips During the Pandemic: Is Flying on an Airplane Safe?

3. Hand sanitizer: Even if you opt to wear gloves as you travel, carrying hand sanitizer is equally as important. Clip a travel-sized hand sanitizer onto the handle of your suitcase or backpack to ensure that it is easy to reach throughout your trip. Many airlines have restrictions of the volume of liquids allowed in a carry-on, so be sure to check the policy so that your sanitizer will make it through security!

4. Electronic-safe wipes: From a phone to a laptop, you will likely be using at least one electronic device while you are traveling. It is just as important to keep these devices clean and safe as it is to protect your own hands. Packing a few electronic-safe disinfectant wipes into your carry-on will allow you to keep your belongings clean throughout the trip and once you reach your destination. Be sure to read the cleaning instructions on both your electronics and the wipes to ensure they are safe to use on everything. Along with hand sanitizers, airlines may also have rules on these types of cleaners, so be sure to check their rules when you are including this travel tip.

5. Normal airport essentials: With the added stress of trying to remain safe while traveling during a pandemic, we may find ourselves overlooking the basics. Whether it is a sweatshirt to keep you warm, a travel pillow to help you sleep, or headphones to listen to your favorite playlist, these essentials are just as important as they were pre-pandemic. By reserving a spot for your normal travel essentials in your carry-on, you help reduce any travel anxiety and maintain a little bit of normalcy on your trip.

Travel Tips: Flying with Pets

By Alycia Williams

In some cases, our pets tend to be our best friends, and who wouldn't want their best friend to go on vacation with them? Traveling with your pet can be a real hassle, but if you follow the right travel tips, you can make sure that everything is smooth sailing.

Here seven travel tips for flying with your pet.

1. Do your research: Regulations and fees vary depending on airline and whether your pet flies in the cabin or as checked baggage. Be sure to check an airline's history of flying animals.

Related Link: Health Tips: How Adopting a Pet Can Help Your Mental Health

2. Consider a pets-only airline: Pet Airways offers climate-controlled cabins outfitted with individual crates, and a flight attendant checks on the animals every 15 minutes. After landing, pets are given a bathroom break, and can be picked up by their owners at the airline's Pet Lounge at participating airports.

Related Link: Travel Tips During the Pandemic: How to Stay Safe on Planes

3. Pet papers: If you're traveling outside the country, find out what vaccinations your pet will need and if quarantine is required. Consult the database of animal import requirements for more information.

4. Prepare the carrier: Purchase a kennel that has room for your pet to turn around and stand without hitting its head. If your pet hasn't traveled before, spend some time getting the animal used to being in the carrier.

5. ID tags: Attach contact information to both your pet's collar and its carrier. That way if your pet gets lost you will be contacted and no one else can claim your pet.

6. Exercise: Before the flight, play with your cat or take your dog for a walk. The more tired your pet is, the more likely it is to sleep during the trip.

7. Relax: Use lavender oil as an "association scent" to help your pet relax while flying. In the weeks before the flight, put a drop of oil on your hands at feeding times or before walks. Once onboard, the positive association will allow your pet to calm down and remain relaxed.

Travel Advice: The Best Games to Play on Road Trips

By Alycia Williams

Road trips have the potential to be really fun, but sometimes it can be a long, grueling, and silent ride. Making the most of a road trip is important, and the best way to do it is with games. Avoid those silent moments with these travel tips on what games works best for road trips.

Here is some travel advice for the best games to play during a road trip.

1. The Alphabet game: In this classic road trip game that doesn't require a board or game pieces, players attempt to find words starting with every letter of the alphabet, going in order from A to Z. To make this game more competitive, someone can pick a category like groceries/food, animals, places, or famous people, and the people in the car will take turns naming items from that category that begin with ascending letters from A to Z.

Related Link: Date Idea: Get Off the Grid

2. 20 questions: One player thinks of a person, place, or thing. The others take turns asking yes-or-no questions; after each question, they get a guess about what/where/who it is. If they don't solve it after 20 questions, they lose.

Related Link: Date Idea: Explore Love on a Road Trip

3. Cows on my side: This simple kids' road trip game is a lot of fun for families driving through the countryside. When you see cows on your side of the road, yell "Cows on my side!" You get a point for each time you call a group of cows. If you spot cows on the opposite side, you can yell "Cows on your side!" and steal a point from your opponent. Passing a cemetery? The first person to yell "Ghost cow!" steals all the other side's points.

4. What am I counting?: In this guessing game one person starts counting something out loud as they see it... but they don't tell anyone what they are counting. The rest of the players have to figure out what they are counting.

5. Hum that tune: One player starts the game by humming a well-known song. The first person to guess the tune correctly gets to be the next “hummer.” It sounds super simple, but it’s often trickier than it seems!

6. Six degrees of movie fun: To begin this one, one family member names any actor. The next person names a movie the actor was in. The following person names someone else in that movie that hasn’t already been said, and so on going back and forth between movie titles and actors until someone is unable to answer.

7. Going on a picnic: This is a story memory game where someone says “I’m going on a picnic and I’m going to bring...” and then lists an item. The next person begins “I’m going on a picnic and I’m going to bring...” and must list the first person’s item before adding their own item. The list grows and grows and the first person to not be able to correctly list all the items is the loser.

The COVID-19 virus has brought a lot of uncertainty to us all, especially when it comes to traveling. Though some people are avoiding traveling by plan altogether, some have no choice or want to take the risk. Travel advice is well needed as you board planes during the pandemic.

Here are some travel tips for flying during the pandemic.

1. Keep the hand sanitizer close by: As your going through the airport to get to your flight, you'll touch a lot of things and you won't always have access to soap and water to wash your hands. Have multiple travel size sanitizers handy, that way every time you touch something you can sanitize quickly.

2. Wear a face mask: Keeping your face mask on is really important during the pandemic, but as you are flying it is extremely important. If you're near anyone make sure your face mask is covering your nose and mouth. Don't take it off unless you absolutely have no choice.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Traveling During the Coronavirus Outbreak

3. Wipe the seat with disinfectant wipes: When you board the plane have some disinfectant wipes close by that way you can wipe off your seat before sitting in it. Don't forget to wipe off the arm rest as well as the inside pocket of the seat in front of you.

4. Keep your distance: Stay as far away as possible from everyone is the airport as you're waiting to board your plane. Don't sit next to anyone and don't stand near anyone.

5. Wear sunglasses: Since you can contract viruses through your eyes, some doctors recommend wearing protective eye gear. Sunglasses can do the exact same job. Protect your eyes by wearing any kind of glasses.

6. Prepare for your flight: Leading up to your flight, get sufficient sleep, eat healthy, take vitamins C and D, and exercise in order to boost your immune system.

7. Point the air vent away: When you sit down in your seat, turn on your filter so it pushes the air, not on your face, but directly in front of your face, so it keeps any particles or viruses away from your face.

Travel Tips During the Pandemic: Is Flying on an Airplane Safe?

By Diana Iscenko

The world is still in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. Even though cases in the United States are still rising in some areas, many states are reopening in phases. The threat of getting sick is still real, so many businesses are open with new social distancing measures in place to prevent the spread of the virus. This combined with the summer weather has caused many people to want to travel again.

So, is it safe to travel on an airplane right now? The CDC warns against making unnecessary trips anywhere, including on airplanes. Air travel includes the time spent in security lines and airport terminals, both of which can bring you in close contact with people and frequently touched surfaces. Social distancing can be impossible on crowded flights, so you may be stuck within six feet of someone for hours at a time.

That said, if you need to get into a plane for a necessary trip—or if you're otherwise willing to take the risk—there are ways to travel as safely as possible.

Whether you're taking a mandatory trip or hitting a vacation destination, here are three travel tips for flying during the pandemic:

1. Pick Your Airline Carefully

Many airlines have implemented new safety requirements to lower the risk of staff and passengers being exposed to the virus. These policies vary from company to company, so it's crucial to research your airline's procedures before booking a flight. Most airlines are requiring everyone to wear face masks. Others are flying at half capacity, increasing the frequency of cleaning procedures or conducting temperature checks before allowing anyone on their airplanes. Airlines are being transparent about their requirements so you can fly on an airplane where you feel as safe as possible.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Traveling During the Coronavirus Outbreak

2. Masks and Sanitizers are Your Friends

You should be wearing a face mask the entire time you're traveling, regardless of what the airport or airline recommends. It's also important to bring hand sanitizer and wipes to keep your hands clean and to sanitize the surfaces you'll be touching throughout the flight. If possible, skip using the bathroom while flying. You'll expose yourself to more germs walking to the bathroom and touching the surfaces while in there. If the flight has unassigned seats, try to sit by the window so you'll have less contact with those walking down the aisle.

3. Self-Quarantine at Your New Location

Traveling from city to city and state to state brings you into contact with countless people. You should self-quarantine for two weeks after your arrival if possible to make sure you didn't catch COVID-19 and won't get anyone else sick. This should be easy for those making necessary trips—like moving into a new home in a different city—but it's not great news for those looking to vacation. This is something you have to consider if you want to book a trip. Are you willing to take the necessary health precautions, even if it means sitting in a hotel room for two weeks?

Pandemic: Should We Cancel Summer Travel Plans?

By Alycia Williams

Vacations are typically booked a year or more in advance, but no one could have predicted the COVID-19 outbreak. Since new developments in the pandemic are happening every day, it's hard to say whether those travel plans that you booked over a year ago should be cancelled or not. If you need some travel advice when it comes to traveling during these confusing times, then you're in the right place.

Check out some travel tips for # getting out of town during the pandemic.

1. Clean your hands often: Although you should be washing your hands often even if your aren't traveling, it's important to constantly wash your hands when you're out and about. Try to get to a sink to wash your hands with soap every hour or two.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Traveling During the Coronavirus Outbreak

2. Anticipate your needs: Bring enough medicine for your whole trip, pack a lot of hand sanitizer, include a cloth face covering for when you are out in public places, pack non-perishable food and bottled water, and whatever else you might need during the trip. This will avoid a panic session while you're away from home and need something that you can't get.

Related Link: Travel Tips: 5 Things to Know When You Travel to Europe

3. Follow state and local travel restrictions: While you are traveling, it is possible a state or local government may put into place travel restrictions, such as stay-at-home or shelter-in-place orders, mandated quarantines upon arrival, or even state border closures. Plan to keep checking for updates as you travel.

4. Use the restroom before the flight: Try your best not to use any public bathrooms. Use the bathroom before you arrive at the airport and avoid using the bathroom on the flight, if possible. If you must use it, of course sanitize your hands immediately afterward.

5. Wipe the seat with disinfectant wipes: At the airport while you're waiting for your flight, wipe down the seat at the gate, and then when you get on the plane, use another wipe to sterilize the arm rest and the inside pocket of the seat in front of you, along with the seat/headrest and tray.

Travel Tips: 5 Things to Know When You Travel to Europe

If you've never traveled to Europe, there are certain things that are great to know before going. Europe is one of the best places for tourists to visit every year, as more than 500 million people visit Europe annually and the number of tourists is expected to rise in the coming years. Now that you've decided to set out on an adventurous trip, it is important to keep a few things in mind before setting off.

Here is a list of few things to know before you set out on a European tour:

1. Make Sure You Have a Valid Passport

Find your passport immediately after you decide to travel out of the country. Don't forget, most countries require your passport to be valid for six months after you gain entry into their state. It doesn't matter if you're going to a country for just a day visit. If your passport isn't valid for at least six more months, you may be denied entry. Therefore, you need to make sure you have a valid passport when travelling to Europe.

2. Book Flights in the Off-Season

The best way to get the maximum discount on your trip is to book a flight in off-season. Say, if you want to travel to Europe in summer, consider booking your flight in early February or March. Similarly, whenever you want to visit, it is better to book 2 to 4 months before the actual date. Download an EU flight delay compensation form to find out about getting a flight upgrade in case there is a delay.

3. Pack Light

Most people who don't travel a lot internationally tend to over pack. One of my top tips for travelling is to pack as little as you possibly can. Keep in mind, the more you pack, the higher the stress of carrying it with you all the time. Your travel experience will be much better if you carry lightweight bags. Just carry essential items such as a first aid kit, a camera or cell phone for photos and videos, a minimal amount of clothes, and snacks.

4. Inform Your Credit Card Company

Call your credit card company and let them know before you leave for the trip. Once you book your flight, email them the dates or inform them over the phone. If you travel without informing, the company may block your credit card as soon as you use it in another country. Credit card companies scrutinize the bank account as soon as a foreign transaction is made, and they may put a hold on the account.

5. Download Google Maps

If you're traveling to a country for the first time, it is essential to download an app that helps in tracking your location. Secondly, if you're visiting a country where the native language is not English, it will be difficult for you to interact with the locals. Unless you have a translator with you on a business trip, downloading a location app (and maybe a translator app) will be a must.

Travel Tips: Take Care of Your Home While You are Away on Vacation

There are many household tasks that you may worry about while you are away on vacation such as your pet, your plants, your mail, a bill that will be late when you get back, or if you have left an appliance on. It's easy to neglect taking care of many important and obvious things in your excitement about the trip or while you're in a rush to leave.

If you don't want to worry about things at home while on vacation, it's essential to take a few minutes and review the following tips that can help you stay cool and worry-free.

Don't Neglect What has Taken so Long to Grow:

Most of your house plants will survive if you water them sufficiently well before you leave for your trip. They may end up slightly wilted or limp until you return, but watering once you get back should revive them. If you don't want to risk it, you can ask someone to water your plants, but if no one can actually help you in this regard, there are some other steps you can take to protect them. If you are going on vacation in the warmer weather, close the blinds and shades to keep your house cool. Your house plants will need less water when they are cooler. Or, create a mini greenhouse before departing for a long vacation.

Secure Your House Before You Leave:

Carefully inspect your home before you leave. You can use a timer to turn the main light of your home on and off every day. Keeping a light on in the evening while your home is empty can be a good way to avoid the risk of theft and burglary. Set the timer so that the living room light will stay on from 7 to 9 pm. Make sure that the glow of the light can be seen through the window blinds from outside the house. Moreover, you can also use an exterior light that can prove to be a better deterrent than interior lighting. Therefore, you can also set one or two of those on a timer.

Take Care of Bills Payments While You're Away:

Always plan ahead in case of your bills. You would not like to be charged with a fine on a pending bill when you get home from vacation. In such a case, a bill pay app comes in handy. It's a good practice to pay your fixed bills in advance such as television cable, internet bill, and health insurance premiums etc. Just make the payment electronically before you leave. Moreover, you can also set up automatic withdrawal for your mortgage payments, so you never have to think about them when you are away. You can also have your bill charged to your credit card. Also, pay your rent in advance before going on a long vacation.

Lock and Secure Access Points:

Ensure all the access points are properly locked and secure. Lock all the doors as well as windows. Make sure to lock the door that connects your home and garage. Unplug the power access to the automatic garage door so that no universal remote can be used to gain access. Place a metal rod or a piece of plywood into the track of a sliding glass door. Put all your valuable belongings in a fireproof and safe place.

Travel Advice: Best Places to Spend New Years Eve

By Meghan Khameraj

2020 is right around the corner! Can you believe it? As we say goodbye to this decade, we welcome a new one full of adventures and opportunities. Avoid any holiday stress by using travel tips to ring in 2020 with a bang by spending New Year's Eve in these fun spots!

Excited to ring in the new decade? Cupid has some travel tips to help you start the decade off with a bang:

The prospect of the new year can be a stressful, especially after all of the chaos that comes with celebrating the earlier holidays in the season. Don't stress though! Cupid has some great travel advice to help you find a fun place to celebrate the new year and new decade:

1. New York City: If you want to be in the center of the action, then NYC is the place to be! With its iconic ball drop in Times Square, there is no doubt that New York City is the number one place to spend the holiday. If you aren't a big fan of crowds (the celebration brings millions to the five-block strip), do not fear! The other New York City boroughs such as Queens and Brooklyn offer less intense activities such as a view of the firework show and warehouse parties.

Related Link: Date Idea: Fall in Love with Falling Leaves

2. London: If you're looking for a big city that is *slightly* less hectic than New York, London is your best bet! There are many festive celebrations happening around the city such as watching fireworks from the London Eye or relaxing on a boat cruise down the Thames River. If you're from the USA, you'll get to celebrate the new year a few hours earlier. You can totally brag to your friends that you're technically in the future!

Related Link: Fashion Trend: Giving the Boot to Summer – Hello Fall!

3. The Poconos: If big cities aren't your thing, cozying up in a warm cabin might be your ideal way to spend the holiday! You can escape your busy life by renting a cabin or cottage online. There are options for hiking, camping, and much more to help you get in touch with nature for the new decade!

4. Disney World: Who said Disney is only for kids? Ring in the new year with magical fireworks and your favorite characters! The park stays open extra late on the holiday so you can get the best experience possible. They have such great dining and drinks that you won't even realize you're in a theme park.

Travel Tips: Top 5 Things to Do in Maui

By Mara Miller

Hawaii—probably one of the most luxurious vacation destinations we can take away from the mainland without the worry of a passport or travel visa. Whether you're going for your honeymoon or because you want your own Instagram-worthy vacay, we've gathered up some of the best things to do in Maui in these travel tips.

Check out our travel tips on the top five things to do in Maui!

Hawaii has eight major islands as it's an archipelago, so for now, we're focusing on Maui only. From hiking to a snorkel adventure, you're sure to find something to do in Maui using our travel advice. You can even find a few budget-friendly options, since a plane ticket to Hawaii can cost upwards of $2,000 if you're traveling there with your partner:

1. Road to Hana: If you're a bit strapped for cash after the hefty plane ticket, think about driving on highway 360. It's free! The Road to Hana twists through lush rain forests and gorgeous waterfalls. But, beware: the road can surprise drivers with hairpin curves. Make sure you're following the speed limit!

2. Ziplining: Fast and exciting, you'll get to fly through the trees and get an aerial view of the island. There is more than one zipline in Maui, so all you need to do is pick the one you think you and your partner will enjoy the most, meaning if you are both beginners, there's sure to be something to accommodate you both.

3. Underwater with a submarine: What's cooler than getting on a submarine for a tour of the Pacific Ocean? You may see a wrecked ship or a turtle floating through the water.

4. Molokai Crater: Snorkel in the world-famous Molokai crater. The crater is crescent-shaped and was formed by a volcano. You can learn about the delicate ecology of the area and then go sea turtle snorkeling!

Related Link: Vacation Destinations: Forget Land & Say 'Hello' to Water

5. Surf lessons: If you have always wanted to learn to surf, now's the time to do it! Not only is surfing a great workout, but you'll get to enjoy the waves and your partner will get to laugh at you if you fall in the water. West Maui has water conditions that are great for beginning surfers. And better, you'll get some real advice, because Hawaii was the birthplace of surfing!

Travel Tips: Backpacking in Beautiful Vacation Spots

By Katie Sotack

Need a mental health break? Backpacking through the wilderness, Europe, or even a campsite nearby is an affordable way to explore outside of your usual day hiking. Greenbelly suggests it's best to decrease your pack's weight before traveling. If you've decided to hike out with your living space, food, drink, and survival gear on your back, (check GearWeAre for more), make it ultralight.

Reward your thirst for adventure and your wallet by backpacking at the next beautiful vacation spot with our travel tips for lightweight, low stakes gear carting.

As far as low-cost ways to travel go, backpacking is brilliant and versatile. The packer can commit to a quest by themselves, take arms with a group of travelers, or go off on a romantic getaway with their lover, a tent, and the stars above to a beautiful vacation spot. Whatever way the packer decides to travel the number one rule is pack light.

1. Weigh out your gear: By weighing each item before it goes in the pack you'll be able to see if said item is worth its weight. Some things will naturally be heavier, but don't throw them away for that reason alone. Your jug of water? That'll take a toll on your shoulders, but you'd be worse off dehydrating out on the trail.

Related Link: Travel Destinations: Visit the Great Smoky Mountains & Pigeon Forge

2. Sharing is caring: After weighing and packing each item, weight all the trip's backpacks. If yours is too heavy, for example, but someone else is willing to carry more, give it to them. Another tip for sharing essentials is that there doesn't need to be two of everything. Coordinate with your team to know who's bringing what. This will save the group from carrying more pocket knives than necessary. It may sound like a small, nearly weightless decision, but when you're walking all day with a ton on your back, you'll be grateful for the lessened weight.

3. Synthetic materials: When backpacking, both cotton and denim are a no go. Not only do they weigh more than synthetic materials, but they also retain water. Cotton absorbs water from the environment and your skin so those white socks will be soaking wet for a while once you accidentally step into the trail's puddle. Alternatively, synthetic materials that can be found in certain workout brands keep away sweat to keep you cool and dry.

Related Link: Vacation Destinations: Top 5 Beach Vacations

4. Say goodbye to technology: It might be hard to step away from the internet, but disconnecting from the world wide web too many benefits to count. While the phone detox might take a day or two, the weight you'll save is worth it. Phones, GPS-s, iPods, and tablets require chargers and cases, all of which will add up. Putting down the tech, for now, will help you build your relationship with your travel companions, too!

5. Factor in the weight of your bag: We're talking about what you'll be carry in the bag, but the actual pack is just as important. This is the area to splurge. Buy a bag that's lightweight and has hip and shoulder straps. Speak to the workers at your local camping store, but be aware that backpacking bares weight on your hips. To alleviate pressure your pack should fit securely around your hips and arms with and without the weight in.

Travel Destination: Vacation

in Egypt Like Kourtney Kardashian

By Bonnie Griffin

Think outside the box next time you plan your next vacation! Egypt might not be the first travel destination on your mind, but it has a lot to offer. One glance at the marvelous Pyramids of Kourtney Kardashian's recent vacation makes it clear. Egypt is a majestic vacation destination. You can visit historic Egypt or vacation in luxury along the Red Sea. The options are all beautiful and you will be ready to go back for more. Check out our travel advice!

Take your vacation to Egypt for your next travel destination!

When you think of Egypt you likely go straight to the Pyramids. Egypt has a lot more to offer. It has majestic historic vacation sights, beautiful beaches, and exquisite cuisine. Cupid has some travel tips for places to vacation in Egypt:

1. Cairo: Cairo is the largest city in Egypt. It is close to the famous pyramids found in Giza. It is at the center of historic Egypt. If you want to visit Egypt's popular historic monuments and pyramids then Cairo is the place to stay so you can visit all the nearby historical artifacts like the Sphinx or pyramids, or travel up the Nile.

Related Link: Vacation Destinations: Forget Land & Say 'Hello' to Water

2. Alexandria: Want to see another side of historic Egypt? You should take a trip to Alexandria. The city was founded by Alexander the Great and served as the capital during two different eras in Egypt: Macedonian and Roman-ruled Egypt. It is the beautiful home to ancient monuments of both Greek and Roman design.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Visit the Grand Canyon

3. The beach: Want to go on a memorable beach vacation? Then look no further than Egypt's the Red Sea. It houses luxury beach resorts along the east coast and the Sinai Peninsula. It is a great destination for scuba diving with its clear waters and historic shipwrecks.

4. The Nile: If you visit Cairo you have to make a trip to The Nile. The Nile is the longest river in the world and flows from south to north, something that is very rare. You can visit the Nile by land or water, with cruise ships that make their way around the area over three to five days or spend a few hours enjoying the Nile from land after a couple of hours riding in a car.

Travel Tips: Health Benefits of Luxury Travel

By Katie Sotack

Can luxury travel be self-care? In 2017, CNN published the article “Travel Makes Us Happy”, but as it turns out, the ignition of our senses by new experiences makes us happy. Recent wellness luxury travel has entered the market as a health trend for those who want to increase their sense of well-being. These luxury vacations aim to go beyond experiential travel, instead of immersing the traveler in the transformational experience of travel and leading to personal fulfillment.

Here are some travel tips to ensure the longevity of your growth from luxury travel.

With our culture moving toward environmentally positive retreats and service trips as ways to seek personal enlightenment, is there still room for luxury vacations to bring us happiness? Fear not, there’s still plenty of reason to enjoy the spa and beaches at a five-star hotel. Here are the perks to wellness traveling.

1. Adventure: Self-actualization sits on top of our hierarchy of psychological needs. The idea is that when we reach our true potential we leave our ego in the dust. This allows us to live more mindful lives. Luxury wellness vacations may ask you to emerge yourself in theater, hiking, or gaming in order to ignite emotions. This results in a personal transformation towards self-actualization.

2. Storytelling: For all our bibliophiles out there, luxury travel rips a page right out of your book (but not literally).

Wellness locations immerse the traveler in epic storytelling. Like a chapter in a book, the adversity brought on to reach the end goal will inspire personal development.

3. Activity: The reason behind branding these retreats as stories where you're the protagonist is our culture's craving for choice. In the old days, vacationers desired itineraries and classes aiming to guide their journey. Now, we've moved onto mixtures of fitness, nature, cultural immersion, and health foods. These options in activities allow a sense of purposefulness and a full experience within your vacation destination.

Related Link: Vacation Destinations: Top 5 Beach Vacations

4. Digital detox: Many luxury wellness vacations will not allow electronics into their vicinity. The idea of giving up our phones for a week produces sweat beads of anxiety on our upper lips as we realize this vacation isn't for Instagram. However, the long term benefits of disconnecting far outweigh the day of mild discomfort. Embark on your spa adventure with total serenity, knowing no one can disturb you.

5. Women only: If you're a woman warrior looking to relax and grow in an area uninhabited by men look no further. Certain luxury wellness vacations cater exclusively to female empowerment. With physically, mentally, and spiritually guided activities for growth, these sessions focus on moving past trauma (like divorce, assault, etc.) and inspiring growth.

We've gathered a list of reasons why you might want to plan a micro-cation instead of a vacation. Check out these travel

tips if a mini getaway seems doable (and affordable!)

1. You get some time away: No matter how long you go on a trip, you still get a break from any stress, work, or drama. Soak up every ounce of your trip and enjoy every minute of it! Try new things, go on new adventures, and you'll come back with stories that you'll be telling for years to come.

2. You miss less while you're away: By only taking a trip for a couple of days, you are guaranteed to miss less from any work or responsibilities you might have than if you went on a trip that lasted a week or longer. If you're dedicated to your work but know you need a break, a micro-cation is the perfect way to give yourself that break and get back to work in record time.

3. Saves money: You might be worried about affording a vacation within the means of your budget. A micro-cation is the perfect way to give yourself your dream vacation in small doses. You can still get that luxurious vacation you've always wanted for a cheaper price by shortening your trip by a few days.

4. Take a load off from responsibility: Asking your workplace to take off for only two days instead of a week is more appealing to your employers. They know you are needed at your job but can understand that you need a PTO every now and then. You'll be able to get that much-needed vacation and get back to your regular day to day life after you're refreshed in no time.
