You and your sweetheart have been together for a few months now, and it's finally time to meet the parents. You know you have to dress to impress, but winter's on its way, and with it comes the death of all your favorite outfits. You have the perfect sweater dress picked out, but don't want to clunk around in winter boots all night, and the cold air forces you to bundle up and to pack all your cute shoes away, leaving you feeling less than stylish in the snow. If you want any chance to impress your beau's parents, you have to find a way to stay attractive and fashionable despite the weather.

Thanks to Tsubo boots, you don't have to worry about style this winter. Tsubo's women's Hollis boots are the perfect accessory to keep you dry and warm in the snow while still looking perfect for any meet-the-parents situation. These streamlined boots, made with latex foam for comfort, are sleek enough to look sexy with any outfit. Pair them with skinny jeans for a casual look, or try them on over leggings or tights with a sweater dress or tunic for a warm wintry style.

They're not your ordinary heeled boot, either. These wedges give you the perfect amount of height in your daily life, date night, or around the office – without clunking around in a too-thick heel. Plus, the decorative notch on the back heel of each boot adds a unique flair that sets these boots apart from your normal winter wear.

One lucky Cupid's Pulse reader will get the chance to win a pair of women's Hollis boots from Tsubo – a $300 value. With these boots, you'll be sure to look cute and make a lasting fashionable impression.
