Cupid's Advice:

We have all heard the saying that age is just a number. But it is definitely true that age comes with experience, and it is a serious responsibility to care for a child. Here are some things to consider if there is a large age gap in your relationship:

1. Be prepared to handle the differences: It is beneficial to understand that if you are in a relationship with someone where there is a large age difference between you two, you are going to encounter some generational contrasts. You may have different musical interests and perspectives on life, but maybe that's what makes it so exciting for you!

2. Maturity: Maturity does come with age but we can't deny that we have met some 19-year-olds that seem more mature than some 30-year-olds that we have met. It all depends on the person. If you are with someone who is relatively young but they show a lot of maturity, then that is great and your relationship will probably work out really well.

Cupid's Advice:

If your partner is making you question the state of your relationship, then maybe it's time to part ways. Here are some signs to know a break-up is healthier than staying in the relationship:

1. Rude comments towards you are constant: If your partner keeps calling you names or being negative towards your decisions, consider the option of breaking up. Nobody deserves to be verbally abused in a relationship and it's not healthy for you to be in one.

2. You feel isolated while dating: Have you ever felt that you spend more time being by your partner's side than having fun with your friends? Some say this is a common trait of being in a relationship. If your partner controls your weekend plans, then you break-up and seek help from friends.

There won't be any happy reunion for these celebrity exes! How do you know when it's best to leave a past relationship in the past?

Cupid's Advice:

Reflecting on a past relationship is something you may catch yourself doing when thinking about an ex. Here are some ways to know it's best to return to an old relationship:

1. You're already dating other people: If you are already dating or have a connection with someone else, there's no need to go back to your ex. There's plenty of other people you could be having a fresh start with! Returning to an ex will only waste your time in the long run.

2. You can remember the bad times: Like Tyga, if you can remember when things were really bad, you can imagine your life becoming bad again. If a relationship felt toxic or made you feel unhappy, a reunion has no guarantee on making things better.

3. You haven't spoken since the break-up: Sometimes break-ups can keep things silent between you and your ex. You could also be on speaking terms as well. If you have not had a full conversation with each other, then is a good way of knowing you and your ex have no desire to return to the past.

two of you. Getting back together is a big decision and if it's not going to work out for the long haul, don't try again. Instead try starting fresh with somebody new.

Celebrity Couple Kylie Jenner & Tyga: Is Fighting Good or Bad?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Current celebrity couple Kylie Jenner and Tyga recently revealed that they enjoy focusing on the fun things in life and “don’t really fight” in their relationship. They admit to disagreements occasionally, but not all-out fights. One of the ways they do this, they said, is by ignoring negativity. While this can create a very enjoyable and pleasant relationship in the moment, if it means brushing disputes under the rug for fear of where they might lead, it is possible it can create difficulty down the road.

It is important for all couples to address any concerns or differences of opinions so they can learn to work through conflict together. Here’s some relationship advice.

Focus on points of contention.

Being hesitant to delve too deep might prevent people from being able to truly share their feelings and needs. With that in mind, the question becomes is fighting in a relationship good or bad? Arguing in and of itself can be very upsetting, so it isn’t surprising that some people look to avoid it completely. The problem is that if you do that, you will close off an important channel of communication that can eventually lead to a better place. There are few couples who don’t occasionally encounter a disagreement, feel annoyed with the other, or have concerns about something. When that happens and the issues are sidestepped and left alone, they can fester and grow into bigger problems that, if they go on long enough, can be destructive to the relationship.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: When to Stop Wearing Your Wedding Ring

Establish methods and listen.

In order to continue as a couple with a strong foundation, you need to have methods to work out the clashes that inevitably arise between you. An intense fight might not be the way to do that, but often an argument is the first attempt at addressing what is bugging you. Being able to voice your concerns in a respectful way so that your partner has a chance to hear what's on your mind and not get defensive is a good place to start. This enables you to take an important step toward listening and understanding each other so you can reach a compromise that feels fair and balanced to you both. The key is working to get beyond that first intense burst of anger when your temptation is to lash out and hurt the other person. If you get stuck there it can work against you as a couple. The real goal of an argument is to problem-solve so that you can find a better way of handling things going forward.

Related Link: 5 Celebrity Couples That Fight Dirty

Manage your anger positively.

The first step is to steer clear of name calling, blaming, criticizing, or attacking your partner. While that lets your anger out in the moment, it can leave your partner feeling wounded and wanting to retaliate against you, which shuts down your attempt to work things out. The aim is to reach a point where you feel cared about and know that what matters to you is also important to your partner, so that you can trust that your needs will be met. Another tip is to pay attention if things are getting too heated and out of control. When that happens, take a deep breath and hit the hold button. Use this skill to take a break so you can both cool off before you broach discussing the topic again. One important aspect of hitting the hold button is that you agree on a time when you will resume the conversation so it is not left hanging, giving either one of you the chance to feel resentful.

When you resolve an argument it can play an important role in helping you feel closer and more intimate with each other since you're able to get beyond it and feel understood. Although Kylie and Tyga's choice is not to argue, making room to do so could be a good choice for you.

Relationships are all about keeping balance and compromise. You need two understanding, appreciative, and positive souls to prevent unnecessary arguments. Cupid is here to show you how to keep the peace in your relationship:

1. Choose your battles wisely: Petty arguments over who should do the dishes are not worth your breath. Focus on what is important and only fight if it can benefit the relationship. If you take a moment to pause and ask yourself “why am I getting angry?” you can avoid small issues.

The Latest Celebrity News and Celebrity Couple Predictions

George Clooney and Amal Clooney: What can one say about George and Amal? They seem to be on top of the world. As they travel the world walking hand and hand, the media cannot get enough of this celebrity couple. Since there doesn't seem to be any real drama in their relationship and love, the media is trying to stir something up. Most of the criticism is focused on Amal. Some say she dresses tacky, while others accused her law firm of giving her the high profile accounts, because she is married to George Clooney. Nevermind that she's highly qualified to take on any case thrown her way. I love Amal and think that she's great for George. I still say that from the beginning their celebrity marriage was for calculated reasons versus simply love. Those reasons may never be known to the rest of us, because it looks like they know how to keep their mouths shut. This couple is working out fine even though Clooney is starting to look much older when he stands next to his lovely wife. Let's just say Clooney met a woman who know hows to ride or die.

Kylie Jenner and Tyga: This relationship has disaster written all over it. Are they in love? It looks more like lust than love to me. At this point it's hard to know who's using who. Tyga is getting a boost in his career from being with a Jenner, while who knows exactly what Jenner is getting from being with him. It all seems like a carefully orchestrated relationship put together by the puppetmaster, Kris Jenner. Don't believe the engagement rumors. This relationship is going to run its course and end as dramatically as it began. Right now, what remains to be seen is who will get tired of who first. Right now, my money is on Jenner because she has the upper-hand.

Sandra Bullock and Bryan Randall: There are rumors flying everywhere that Sandra Bullock is dating model and photographer, Bryan Randall. Before you get all excited about this news, hold on a minute, When did a dinner date start to mean that someone is in a relationship? I would love to see Bullock find love, but it's time to stop assuming she's in a relationship with every single man she talks to. That being said, Randall has a bit of a criminal past and we all know how Bullock loves bad boys. I don't see a romance with Randall having any staying power. Right now, she is just dipping her toe back into the dating scene. The main concern on her mind is having a good influence around for her son, Louis. Randall is a "meh" choice for Bullock. He's fine for testing out her flirting moves, but she should definitely keep her options open. Bullock needs to take dating tips from some of the other women in Hollywood.

Is Tyga Feuding with Celebrity Ex Blac Chyna Over Kylie Jenner's Ferrari?

By Kyanah Murphy

Could you imagine feuding with your ex over luxurious cars while flaunting said cars over Instagram? That's exactly what's happening with Tyga and his celebrity ex Blac Chyna! According to UsMagazine.com, this fiery, flashy feud began with Tyga and his ex celebrity love when Tyga posted an image of himself on Instagram and Blac Chyna's best friend, Amber Rose responded with a picture of her pink Ferrari! This, in turn, prompted Tyga to post an image of his own flashy car, a black and gold Bentley. Apparently the heated exchange began due to the fact that Tyga believes Blac Chyna is involved with spreading the rumor that Tyga is leasing Kylie Jenner's Ferrari rather than having bought it outright.

These celebrity exes aren't happy with each other. What are some ways to keep drama with your ex at bay?

Cupid's Advice:

While you may not be feuding over Ferraris like these celebrity exes, you will probably run into your own drama with your ex. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Know yourself and what will get under your skin: your ex knows what will bother you so hopefully you will too. Your ex may bait you in with things that'll bother you to start a fight. When you know what bothers you and winds you up, you can better avoid the bait they may lay out for you. Be the bigger person.

2. Set communication boundaries: depending on your situation, you may not be able to cut your ex entirely out of your life. If that's the case, set yourself boundaries. Don't answer phone calls from them (let it go to voice mail) and give your ex and yourself a time frame of when to respond when it's important for you to respond (like if you have kids and it's about your kids).

3. Give yourself space: really you shouldn't be talking to your ex unless absolutely necessary (i.e. kids). They shouldn't exist in your world anymore. So stick to that – they aren't around. Don't talk to them and don't fall for bait. Surround yourself by positive things and busy yourself so the temptation isn't there.
