If you're looking for the latest celebrity news, then you've come to the right place! Recently, these famous couples have made headlines for two new romances and a Fourth of July wedding. Read on for my celebrity couple predictions!

A Royal Celebrity Couple Prediction

Prince Harry and Jenna Coleman: Rumor has it that Prince Harry is dating Dr. Who actress Jenna Coleman. They were seen getting cozy...but that doesn't mean much. If I was in the same room as Prince Harry, I'd be trying to get cozy with him too! It's been said that the prince has been thinking about settling down, which means that every woman he's seen speaking to for longer than a second will be called "wife material."

As for his relationship with Coleman, it's a nice flirtation. She is cute and laid-back enough, but she won't be his princess. Cressida Bonas would have a better chance of Harry putting a ring on it. However, she shouldn't hold her breathe either.

While Prince Harry and his big brother Prince William are like night and day, Harry has paid close attention to the celebrity marriage of William and Kate, and he wants a similar love in his life. The woman that will steal Prince Harry's heart is someone who loves life just as much as him. I don't see that he has met The One yet, but when he does, it will be a quick courtship.

Ryan Seacrest and Hilary Cruz: Is it ever a surprise anymore when Ryan Seacrest starts dating a younger beautiful woman? It's like he picked up where George Clooney left off! The new love interest in his life is former Miss Teen USA and actress Hilary Cruz. Don't knock yourself out trying to remember what movies she's been in – there are about three acting credits to her name. Recently, the two were spotted at the airport right before they hit a yacht in the South of France. Sources say that Seacrest is smitten. I would say what 40-year-old man isn't smitten with a hot 26-year-old who wants to be with him?

I would love to report that the television personality has met the love of his life, but it looks like just another notch on his belt. Their relationship is a casual one, but they both will benefit from it: Seacrest gets a gorgeous woman on his arm among other things (if you know what I mean), while Cruz gets her name in the press. A win-win!

Vanessa Williams Celebrates Her Celebrity Marriage

Vanessa Williams and Jim Skrip: The ever-stunning Vanessa Williams married Jim Skrip on the Fourth of July. Now, that is one way to never forget an anniversary! It is the third celebrity marriage for the actress, and it looks like three times is the charm. There isn't much information about Skrip online. The celebrity couple met on a trip to Egypt, and they dated for about a year before getting hitched. Let's just say that they have a grown folks relationships: no games, age-appropriate, and willing to do what they have to do to make it work. From looking at their photos, they look pretty happy together. After being in two marriages that didn't work out, this one should last for Williams. Congratulations to the newlyweds!

Is Brad Pitt Ruining Your Love Life?

We know how effective media is in shaping our perspective and even our values, including our self-image. We know that being bombarded with images of beautiful men and women molds our vision of attractiveness. As we mature, we know it's fantasy, and that even Hollywood beauties don't look that stunning without professional hair, make-up, wardrobe and lighting.

By now, you've probably seen the Dove video called "Evolution." It shows how an attractive woman morphs into a fabulous knockout through professional hair, make-up, lighting, and yes, even Photoshop.

How do these unrealistic images affect your dating life?

1. They can influence your expectation of a man's looks. Very few men, especially middle-aged men, look anything close to

George Clooney, Brad Pitt, Johnny Depp, Colin Firth or Pearce Bronson. While we realize these men personify an unattainable ideal, some small part of many women want – and perhaps expect – their guys to look as yummy.

2. The Photoshopped images of pencil-thin people on magazine covers and in movies exacerbates women's feelings of inadequacy. Actresses like Cher, Teri Hatcher, Vanessa Williams, Julia Roberts, Helen Mirren, Glenn Close and Ellen Barkin are sparkling in their perfection – with personal trainers, private chefs, and perhaps a bit of nip-tuck. How many real-life middle-aged women do you see looking like that? Just as women have unrealistic expectations of a man's looks, so, too, men have an idealized expectation that women should look like these air-brushed fantasy females.

So it seems like a lose-lose for both genders.

We think (hope?) that as one matures, people realize that these movie star looks are really just fantasy. But unfortunately, I've found both men and women hold themselves and their potential dates to standards that nearly no one meets in real life.

So what can you do?

1. Play up your own physical attributes: Got beautiful eyes? Don't hide them behind glasses. Get a makeover if you haven't had one in years, or make an appointment with a free personal shopper at a department store to help you dress to look your best.

2. Realize that there are many good people underneath a few bags, sags and extra pounds: While we know that goodness has nothing to do with outer appearances, we sometimes get caught up or put off by what we see. I've gone out with many wonderful men who aren't gorgeous. The thing is, they got more attractive as I got to know their kind hearts, senses of humor and caring natures.
